ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On November 15, 2004, Franklin Covey Co. (the Company) exercised its option under the terms of the lease agreements assumed by it in the merger with Covey Leadership Center, Inc. to purchase certain buildings and land that were being subleased by the Company to a third party. The exercise of the option was part of a three-way transaction in which the buildings and land were purchased directly from the landlords, which were partnerships the majority interest of which were owned by Stephen R. Covey, a Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors, and certain other employees and former employees of the Company, and simultaneously sold to the current tenant, an unrelated party. Subsequent to the merger with Covey Leadership Center, Inc., the Company consolidated the operations that were previously located in these buildings with its existing operations located in Salt Lake City, but remained obligated on the leases through December 2009. The Company was subsequently able to obtain a sublease for the buildings, but at rates less than its obligation to the landlords. Based on the continuing negative cash flow associated with these buildings, and other factors, the Company determined that it was in its best interest to exercise the option and sell the property to the current tenant. The negotiated purchase price with the landlord was $14.0 million and the tenant agreed to purchase the property for $12.5 million. These prices were within the range of estimated fair values of the buildings as determined by an independent appraisal obtained by the Company. The Company paid the difference between the sale and purchase prices, plus other closing costs, which were previously accrued as part of the Company's 1999 restructuring plan.
