ANTHEM AND TRIGON SHAREHOLDERS APPROVE TRANSACTION

Indianapolis, Ind. and Richmond, Va. July 23, 2002 Anthem, Inc. (NYSE: ATH) and Trigon Healthcare, Inc. (NYSE: TGH) announced today that the shareholders of both companies have voted in favor of the merger of the two companies.

Under the merger agreement, Trigon's shareholders will become entitled to receive $30 in cash and 1.062 shares of Anthem common stock per Trigon share. The value of the transaction is approximately $3.5 billion based on the closing price of Anthem stock on July 22, 2002.

Anthem received more than 65 million votes, with 98.6 percent of shareholders represented at the meeting voting in favor. Trigon received nearly 26.5 million votes, with 98.8 percent of the shares represented at the meeting voting in favor of the merger with Anthem.

We are pleased that our shareholders recognize the benefits of Trigon becoming a part of Anthem, said Larry C. Glasscock, president and CEO of Anthem. Trigon is a focused, well-run company, and we are pleased to have them joining us.

I am excited about the opportunity to become a part of the Anthem family, said Tom Snead, chairman and CEO of Trigon. Becoming part of a company as strong as Anthem will mean positive things for Trigon customers, associates and shareholders, and I am pleased that our shareholders recognize this and stand behind the transaction.

The vote by Anthem and Trigon shareholders is the last in a series of approvals required in the transaction process. On Friday, July 19, the Virginia State Corporation Commission (SCC) gave its approval for the acquisition of Trigon by Anthem. A public hearing before the SCC had been held earlier this month in Richmond, Va.

Anthem and Trigon have already received the required approvals from the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association and anticipate that the transaction will close at the end of the month.
