Item 5. Other Events

On March 31, 2003, ATX Communications, Inc. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries entered into a Fourth Amendment and Waiver (the "Amendment") to its Credit Agreement (the "Credit Agreement") dated as of September 28, 2000, as amended and restated as of April 11, 2001, and amended by the First Amendment dated as of October 31, 2001, the Second Amendment dated as of December 14, 2001 and the Third Amendment dated as of March 29, 2002 among CCL Historical, Inc., formerly named CoreComm Limited, the Company, CoreComm Communications, Inc., the lenders party thereto and the administrative agent and collateral agent party thereto. Under the Amendment, the Lenders (as defined in the Credit Agreement) agreed to defer interest and principal payments on the outstanding loans during the period beginning March 12, 2003 until February 2, 2004, during which time the loans will accrue interest at the Alternate Base Rate (as defined in the Credit Agreement) plus 5.5%, which is approximately 9.75%. During such period, the Lenders also agree to waive and/or amend certain financial covenants set forth in the Credit Agreement, in order to better reflect the Company's current operations. The Company intends to utilize the increased liquidity afforded by the Amendment to invest in several areas of its core operations. In addition, during this period, the Company intends to seek and consider strategic alternatives intended to reduce the Company's overall indebtedness, including amounts under the Credit Agreement.

Although this Amendment provides the Company with significant relief from cash obligations under the Credit Agreement until February 2, 2004, there can be no assurance that the financial and other covenants under the facility will continue to be met, that the Company will be successful identifying or implementing one or more strategic alternatives to reduce the Company's indebtedness, or that the Company will have the cash available to fund the required deferred interest and principal payments on or before February 2, 2004, the date on which such payments become due.
