Orange Capital/L&B is highly confident that there is overwhelming shareholder support for its pro-shareholder agenda

Believes Macerich is continuing its pattern of trampling on the rights of shareholders and instead, Macerich should:

- (a) Immediately end litigation with L&B and allow shareholders to vote for an alternative slate of directors at the upcoming annual meeting; and
- (b) Create a special committee, comprised of a majority of newly elected or appointed independent directors, to explore strategic alternatives and maximize shareholder value, including engagement with Simon Property Group.

STAMFORD, Conn.—(April 23, 2015)— Orange Capital, LLC (“Orange Capital”) and Land & Buildings (“L&B”), which together have formed an investment group (“Orange/L&B”) to advocate for change at The Macerich Company (“Macerich” or the “Company”) (NYSE: MAC), today issued the following statement:

Based on our conversations with a substantial number of large shareholders of the Company, we believe shareholders overwhelmingly support our pro-shareholder agenda and that Macerich should:

- (a) Immediately end litigation with L&B and allow shareholders to vote for an alternative slate of directors at the upcoming annual meeting; and Create a special committee, comprised of a majority of newly elected or appointed independent directors, to
- (b) explore strategic alternatives and maximize shareholder value, including engagement with Simon Property Group (“Simon”).

Daniel Lewis, Managing Partner of Orange Capital, said: “We believe that Macerich continues its pattern of trampling on the rights of its shareholders. The Macerich Board appears to us to somehow believe that litigating on the validity of the L&B nominations, as opposed to allowing shareholders to exercise their rights as owners of the REIT, is in the best interests of shareholders. We are convinced that shareholders share our views on the Simon transaction and that there is an urgent need for change at Macerich.”

Jonathan Litt, Founder and Chief Investment Officer of L&B, added, “In our view, the decision to stagger the board and adopt a poison pill without a shareholder vote was a disturbing and seemingly desperate attempt to entrench management. Moreover, we believe there is absolutely no excuse to sue a shareholder in an effort to further disenfranchise investors at the upcoming at the annual meeting on May 28th, 2015.”
