Item 5. Other Events.

On April 7, 2004 Command Security Corporation was served with a verified complaint filed in the United States District Court Southern District of New York naming Reliance Security Group, plc and Command as defendants. The complaint, brought by William C. Vassell in his capacity as a shareholder and party to the Shareholder Agreement between Reliance, Mr. Vassell and Command (filed as Exhibit 99.19 of the Form 8-K filed September 27, 2000 and incorporated herein by reference,) alleges that Reliance is in breach of the right of first refusal provision in the Shareholders Agreement and seeks various non-monetary forms of relief. With respect to Command, the complaint seeks to have the company notify its stock transfer agent that Reliance's shares are subject to the restrictions stated in the Shareholder Agreement. Mr. Vassell currently serves as Command's President, CEO and Chairman of the Board.
