PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CIDA renews managed services contract with CGI

Ottawa, Ontario, December 9, 2004 The Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) has selected CGI Group Inc. (CGI) (TSX: GIB.SV.A; NYSE: GIB) for a four-year managed services contract valued at CDN$15.8 million. CIDA is the federal agency charged with planning and implementing most of Canada's sustainable development programs in developing countries in order to reduce poverty and to contribute to a more secure, equitable and prosperous world.

This is a renewal of a previous managed services contract and has the potential of being extended for an additional six years. CGI will continue to manage all infrastructure support services for over 2,100 CIDA professionals and provide the Agency with a national service desk, onsite support services as well as systems and network management.

To address CIDA's new requirements for production support services and the implementation of proactive measures to enhance user support, CGI will leverage its core capabilities and its existing service delivery infrastructure. CGI will also provide a variety of information technology consulting services and strive to deliver continual cost reductions and process improvements to the Agency.

Evolving our services with our clients is key to maximizing value for them. We are pleased with the confidence our long-term client has placed in our ability to find efficiencies and better enable them to focus on their core business. Our Ottawa data center will play an important role in leveraging shared infrastructure to deliver savings, said Hicham Adra senior vice president and general manager, National Capital Region, CGI.

About CGI

PRESS RELEASE

The Canada Revenue Agency selects CGI for key IT initiatives

Ottawa, Ontario, December 9, 2004 The Canada Revenue Agency, the federal body that administers tax laws and several social and economic programs delivered through the tax system, has chosen CGI Group Inc. (CGI) (TSX: GIB.SV.A; NYSE: GIB) for a multi-year, multi-million dollar contract whereby CGI will be providing consulting and systems integration services in three main business areas including, the provision of resources for IT technical and information technology (IT) applications, and the provision of IT solutions for key Agency initiatives. The initiatives pertain to service availability and improvement, data centre recoverability and electronic commerce infrastructure as well as business intelligence and decision support. For over 15 years, CGI has successfully delivered over 50 projects for the Canada Revenue Agency.

CGI has recently expanded its know-how to include the delivery of innovative IT and business solutions specific to tax and revenue customers. The Agency can depend on CGI to deliver highly skilled professionals backed by a global organization recognized for the delivery of solid results based on implementing solutions that make business sense, said Hicham Adra senior vice president and general manager, National Capital Region, CGI.

Since contract award, CGI has successfully transitioned close to 200 consultants on this contract and has already recorded over CDN$40 million dollars in sales.
