Item 5. Other Events.

As previously reported, Applied Graphics Technologies, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company") commenced a tender offer on July 4, 2002 (the "Tender Offer") to purchase all of its outstanding 10% Subordinated Notes due 2005 (the "Notes") for an aggregate purchase price of $3,000,000. There are (pound)18,574,000 aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding (or $28,936,000 based on the exchange rate on July 29, 2002). The Tender Offer was originally scheduled to expire on July 30, 2002, but the Company has extended the Tender Offer until August 27, 2002, as the minimum tender condition has not been satisfied. As a result of the Tender Offer being extended, the Company did not pay the semi-annual interest on the Notes, which was due July 31, 2002. The failure to pay the interest on the Notes does not constitute an event of default, which would allow the holders thereof to accelerate the Notes, until the expiration of a thirty (30) day grace period. The Company's senior lenders have waived any event of default under the Company's senior credit agreement resulting from any failure to pay the interest on the Notes.
