Upon the redemption, Liberty became the holder of all of the businesses and assets formerly attributed to AT&T's Liberty Media Group. As a result of the redemption, Liberty became an independent, publicly traded company and, accordingly, AT&T no longer controls Liberty and has ceased to be a reporting person hereunder.

In connection with Liberty's acquisition of 100% of the outstanding capital stock of Video Services Corporation on December 22, 2000, and Liberty's subsequent contribution of Video Services Corporation to the Issuer (the "VSC Acquisition"), Liberty and the Issuer entered into the First Amended and Restated Credit Agreement, dated as of December 22, 2000 (the "Credit Agreement"), which, among other things, increased the aggregate amount of the convertible debt facility available under the Original Credit Agreement.

The Issuer used the proceeds of the Third Convertible Note in connection with its acquisition of a 99% ownership interest in Livewire Network Services, LLC from Ascent Entertainment Group, Inc., a consolidated subsidiary of Liberty.

The Convertible Notes are convertible into shares of the Issuer's Class B Common Stock at a conversion price of $10.00 per share. The First Convertible Note is
