Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

The disclosures under Item 5.02 below regarding a new employment agreement entered into with Karen J. Dearing and the related restricted stock award agreement awarding her restricted shares of common stock pursuant to the terms and conditions disclosed therein are incorporated by reference into this Item 1.01.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

On July 16, 2015, Sun Communities, Inc. (the “Company,” “we” or “us”) and Sun Communities Operating Limited Partnership entered into an employment agreement with Karen J. Dearing, our Chief Financial Officer, Executive Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer. The new employment agreement supersedes Ms. Dearing’s previous employment agreement entered into on March 7, 2011. The following description of the employment agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the agreement, a copy of which is attached to this Report as Exhibit 10.1.

Ms. Dearing’s employment agreement is for an initial term ending on June 30, 2020. The employment agreement is automatically renewable for successive one year terms thereafter unless either party timely terminates the agreement. Ms. Dearing will be paid an annual base salary of $425,000 during the term of the agreement. In addition to her base salary and in accordance with the terms of her employment agreement, Ms. Dearing is eligible for annual incentive compensation to be determined by the Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors in an amount up to 100% of her base salary. The bonus for each year will be determined and calculated as follows: (i) if and to the extent, in the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee and based on criteria approved by the Compensation Committee, the Company meets certain criteria and Ms. Dearing fulfills her individual goals and objectives for the applicable year, we will pay Ms. Dearing a bonus in an amount of up to 50% of her then current base salary; and (ii) we may pay up to an additional 50% her then current base salary to Ms. Dearing in the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee based on criteria determined by the Compensation Committee at the time of the determination of the bonus, which may be based on any number of individual, company and/or industry factors. Incentive compensation paid or payable to Ms. Dearing under the employment agreement shall not be deemed to be fully earned and vested, and must be repaid to the extent such incentive compensation becomes subject to clawback pursuant to the provisions of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, any rules promulgated thereunder or the rules and regulations of the New York Stock Exchange. Ms. Dearing’s incentive-based compensation, including equity-based incentive compensation, is also subject to our Clawback Policy, under which the Compensation Committee may seek recoupment of incentive compensation if any of our officers engages in fraud, willful misconduct or gross negligence that directly caused or otherwise directly contributed to the need for a material restatement of our financial results in order to comply with federal securities laws.

If Ms. Dearing’s employment is terminated by us without “cause” or by her for “good reason” (as those terms are defined in the employment agreement), she is entitled to be paid any accrued but unpaid salary, incentive compensation and benefits through the effective date of termination. In addition, subject to the execution of a general release and continued compliance with her non-competition and confidentiality covenants, Ms. Dearing is entitled to a continuation of salary for up to 12 months after termination. If Ms. Dearing’s employment is terminated due to death or disability, she (or her successors and assigns) is entitled to any accrued but unpaid salary, incentive compensation and benefits through the effective date of termination and a continuation of salary for up to 24 months.

If there is a “change of control” (as defined in the employment agreement) of the Company and either: (i) we terminate Ms. Dearing’s employment without “cause” within 24 months after the date of the change of control, (ii) Ms. Dearing terminates her employment for “good reason” within 24 months after the date of the change of control, or (iii) the form of the change of control transaction is a sale by us of all or substantially all of our assets and we or our successor do not expressly assume the employment agreement, then we are obligated to pay Ms. Dearing an amount equal to 2.99 times her then current base salary, and to continue to provide her health and insurance benefits for up to one year. In addition, in the case of any such triggering event, all stock options or other stock based compensation awarded to Ms. Dearing will become fully vested and immediately exercisable.

The non-competition clauses of Ms. Dearing's employment agreement preclude her from engaging, directly or indirectly, in the development, ownership, leasing, management, financing, or sales of manufactured housing communities, recreational vehicle communities or manufactured homes anywhere in the continental United States or Canada during the period she is employed by us and for a period of up to 24 months following the period she is employed by us; provided, however, that if we terminate Ms. Dearing's employment without "cause" the period of non-competition shall be reduced to twelve months following the period she is employed by us. Notwithstanding, Ms. Dearing's employment agreement does allow her to make passive investments in publicly-traded entities engaged in our business.

In connection with the execution of the employment agreement, and pursuant to a restricted stock award agreement, on July 16, 2015, we issued Ms. Dearing 20,000 restricted shares of our common stock, which will vest as follows:

Vesting Date	Shares Vested
July 16, 2018	7,000
July 16, 2019	7,000
July 16, 2020	4,000
