ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

OCTOBER 15, 2003

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of First Bancshares, Inc. (Corporation) to be used at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Corporation (Meeting). The Meeting will be held at the Days Inn Conference Room, 300 East 19th Street, Mountain Grove, Missouri, on Wednesday, October 15, 2003, at 2:00 p.m., Central Time. The accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders and this Proxy Statement are being mailed to stockholders on or about September 12, 2003. The Corporation is the holding company for First Home Savings Bank (Savings Bank).

VOTING AND PROXY PROCEDURE

Stockholders Entitled to Vote. Stockholders of record as of the close of business on August 29, 2003, are entitled to one vote for each share of common stock of the Corporation (Common Stock) then held. As of August 29, 2003, the Corporation had 1,638,677 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding. As provided in the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation, record holders of the Corporation's Common Stock who beneficially own, either directly or indirectly, in excess of 10% of the Corporation's outstanding shares are not entitled to any vote with respect to the shares they hold in excess of the 10% limit.

If you are a beneficial owner of the Corporation's Common Stock held by a broker, bank or other nominee (i.e., in "street name"), you will need proof of ownership to be admitted to the Meeting. A recent brokerage statement or letter from a bank or broker are examples of proof of ownership. If you want to vote your shares of the Corporation's Common Stock held in street name in person at the Meeting, you will have to get a written proxy in your name from the broker, bank or other nominee who holds your shares.

Quorum. The presence, in person or by proxy, of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Meeting. Abstentions will be counted as shares present and entitled to vote at the Meeting for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum. Broker non-votes will be considered shares present for purposes of determining a quorum.

Voting. The Board of Directors solicits proxies so that each stockholder has the opportunity to vote on the proposal to be considered at the Meeting. When a proxy card is returned properly signed and dated, the shares represented thereby will be voted in accordance with the instructions on the proxy card. Where no instructions are indicated, proxies will be voted FOR the election of the nominee for director set forth below. If a stockholder of record attends the Meeting, he or she may vote by ballot.

The directors to be elected at the Meeting will be elected by a plurality of the votes cast by stockholders present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote. Stockholders are not permitted to cumulate their votes for the election of directors. Votes may be cast for or withheld from the nominee. Votes that are withheld and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the election because the nominee receiving the greatest number of votes will be elected.

If a stockholder does not return a signed and dated proxy card, or does not attend the Meeting and vote in person, his or her shares will not be voted.

Revocation of a Proxy. Stockholders who execute proxies retain the right to revoke them at any time. Proxies may be revoked by written notice delivered in person or mailed to the Secretary of the Corporation or by filing a later dated and signed proxy prior to a vote being taken on a particular proposal at the Meeting. Attendance at the Meeting will not automatically revoke a proxy, but a stockholder of record in attendance may request a ballot and vote in person, thereby revoking a prior granted proxy.

If your Common Stock of the Corporation is held in street name, you will receive instructions from your broker, bank or other nominee that you must follow in order to have your shares voted. Your broker or bank may allow you to deliver your voting instructions via telephone or the Internet. Please see the instruction form that accompanies this proxy statement. If you wish to change your voting instructions after you have returned your voting instruction form to your broker or bank, you must contact your broker or bank.

Participants in the First Home Savings Bank ESOP. If a stockholder is a participant in the First Home Savings Bank Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the ESOP), the proxy card represents a voting instruction to the trustees of the ESOP as to the number of shares in the participant's plan account. Each participant in the ESOP may direct the trustees as to the manner in which shares of Common Stock allocated to the participant's plan account are to be voted. Unallocated shares of Common Stock held by the ESOP and allocated shares for which no voting instructions are received will be voted by the trustees in the same proportion as shares for which the trustees have received voting instructions.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

Persons and groups beneficially owning in excess of 5% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock are required to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and furnish a copy to the Corporation, certain reports disclosing such ownership pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act). Based upon such reports, the following table sets forth, as of the close of business on August 29, 2003, certain information as to those persons who were beneficial owners of more than five percent of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. Management knows of no persons other than those set forth below who owned more than five percent of the outstanding shares of Common Stock at the close of business on August 29, 2003. The table also sets forth, as of the close of business on August 29, 2003, certain information as to shares of Common Stock beneficially owned by the Corporation's directors, "named executive officers," and all directors and executive officers as a group.

In accordance with Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act, a person is deemed to be the beneficial owner, for purposes of this table, of any shares of Common Stock if he or she has voting and/or investment power with respect to such security. The table includes shares owned by spouses, other immediate family members in trust, shares held in retirement accounts or funds for the benefit of the named individuals, and other forms of ownership, over which shares the persons named in the table may possess voting and/or investment power. Shares held in accounts under the Savings Bank's ESOP as of the close of business on August 29, 2003, as to which the holders have voting power but not investment power, are also included as follows: all executive officers and directors as a group, 29,386 shares. This table also includes shares of Common Stock subject to outstanding options exercisable within 60 days of the close of business on August 29, 2003, pursuant to the 1993 Stock Option Plan (Option Plan). Shares of Common Stock subject to outstanding options exercisable within 60 days from August 29, 2003 are as follows: Mr. Glass, 18,000 shares; Dr. Moore, 5,000 shares; and Mr. Schumacher, 2,000 shares. This table also includes shares of Common Stock awarded to participants under the Savings Bank's Management Recognition and Development Plan (MRDP) which became fully vested as of December 23, 1998.

Under the terms of the ESOP, the trustees will vote unallocated shares and allocated shares for which no voting instructions are received in the same proportion as shares for which the trustees have received voting instructions from participants. As of the close of business on August 29, 2003, 226,944 shares have been allocated to participants' accounts, excluding allocations to individuals who no longer participate in the ESOP. The trustees of the ESOP are Directors Romines, Glass and Moody.

(4)

Based on information disclosed in a Schedule 13D, dated May 27, 2003, filed with the SEC.

(5)

SEC regulations define the term "named executive officer" to include the chief executive officer, regardless of compensation level, and the four most highly compensated executive officers, other than the chief executive officer, whose total annual salary and bonus for the last completed fiscal year exceeded $100,000. Mr. Romines and Mr. Schumacher were the Corporation's only "named executive officers" for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003.

(6)

Mr. Romines and Mr. Schumacher are also directors of the Corporation.

PROPOSAL I - ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Corporation's Board of Directors consists of five members. The Corporation's Bylaws provide that directors are elected for terms of three years, one-third of whom are elected annually. Two directors will be elected at the Meeting, who will serve for three year terms, or until his successor has been elected and qualified. The Board of Directors, acting in its capacity as the Nominating Committee, has nominated for election as directors Harold F. Glass and Dr. James F. Moore, Jr. Mr. Glass and Dr. Moore are currently directors of the Corporation and the Savings Bank.

It is intended that the proxies solicited by the Board of Directors will be voted for the election of the above named nominees. If the nominees are unable to serve, the shares represented by all valid proxies will be voted for the election of such substitutes as the Board of Directors may recommend. At this time, the Board knows of no reason why the nominees might be unavailable to serve.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote "FOR" the election of Mr. Glass and Dr. Moore.

The following table sets forth as to the nominee for election at the meeting and each director continuing in office, his name, age, and the year he first became a director. Unless otherwise indicated, the principal occupation listed for each person below has been his occupation for the past five years.

(1) Value of unexercised in-the-money stock options equals the market value of shares covered by in-the-money options on June 30, 2003 less the option exercise price. Options are in-the-money if the market value of shares covered by the options is greater than the exercise price.

Employment Agreement. The Savings Bank has entered into a three-year employment agreement with Charles W. Schumacher who serves as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Savings Bank. The agreement, which was entered into in 2000, established a salary of $95,000, for that year which was paid by the Savings Bank and which may be increased at the discretion of the Board of Directors or an authorized committee of the Board. Under the agreement, Mr. Schumacher's salary may not be decreased during the term of the employment agreement without his prior written consent. The agreement is terminable by the Savings Bank or the Corporation for just cause at any time or in certain events specified by Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) regulations. The employment agreement provides for severance payments and other benefits in the event of involuntary termination of employment in connection with any change in control of the Savings Bank and the Corporation. Severance payments also will be provided on a similar basis in connection with a voluntary termination of employment where, subsequent to a change in control, Mr. Schumacher is assigned duties inconsistent with his position, duties, responsibilities and status immediately prior to such change in control. The term "change in control" is defined in the agreement as, among other things, any time during the period of employment when a change of control is deemed to have occurred under regulations of the OTS or a change in the composition of more than a majority of the Board of Directors of the Corporation occurs.

In the event of a change in control, the severance payment pursuant to the agreement will equal 2.99 times Mr. Schumacher's base compensation, as defined in Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (Code), during the preceding five years. Such amount will be paid within ten days following the termination of employment. Assuming the compensation of Mr. Schumacher is not increased and a change in control of the Savings Bank and the Corporation occurred during the year ended June 30, 2003, Mr. Schumacher would be entitled to severance payments of approximately $284,000. Section 280G of the Code, states that severance payments which equal or exceed three times the base compensation of the individual are deemed to be "excess parachute payments" if they are contingent upon a change in control. Individuals receiving excess parachute payments are subject to a 20% excise tax on the amount of such excess payments, and the Savings Bank and the Corporation are not entitled to deduct the amount of such excess payments.

The agreement restricts Mr. Schumacher's right to compete against the Savings Bank and the Corporation for one year from the date of termination of the agreement if he voluntarily terminates his employment, except in the event of a change in control, or if the Savings Bank or the Corporation terminates his employment for cause.

The employment agreement between the Savings Bank and Mr. Romines previously disclosed was terminated upon Mr. Romines' retirement as President of the Savings Bank on December 31, 2001.

AUDIT COMMITTEE MATTERS

Audit Committee Charter. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a Charter approved by the Corporation's Board of Directors. The Audit Committee reports to the Board of Directors and is responsible for overseeing and monitoring financial accounting and reporting, the system of internal controls established by management and the audit process of the Corporation. The Audit Committee Charter sets out the responsibilities, authority and specific duties of the Audit Committee. The Charter specifies, among other things, the structure and membership requirements of the Audit Committee, as well as the relationship of the Audit Committee to the independent accountants, the internal audit department, and management of the Corporation.

Audit Committee Report. The Corporation's Audit Committee has issued the following report with respect to the audited financial statements of the Corporation for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003:

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed with the Corporation's management the Corporation's fiscal 2003 audited financial statements;

The Audit Committee has discussed with the Corporation's independent auditors (Kirkpatrick, Phillips & Miller, CPAs, P.C.) the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61;

The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board No. 1 (which relates to the auditors' independence from the Corporation and its related entities) and has discussed with the auditors their independence from the Corporation; and

Based on the review and discussions referred to in the three items above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the fiscal 2003 audited financial statements be included in the Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003.

Submitted by the Audit Committee of the Corporation's Board of Directors:

Dr. James F. Moore, Jr.

John G. Moody

Harold F. Glass

Independence and Other Matters. Each member of the Audit Committee is "independent," as defined, in the case of the Corporation, under The Nasdaq Stock Market Rules. The Audit Committee members do not have any relationship to the Corporation that may interfere with the exercise of their independence from management and the Corporation. None of the Audit Committee members are current officers or employees of the Corporation or its affiliates.

TRANSACTIONS WITH MANAGEMENT

Mr. Stephen H. Romines, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of the the Corporation and Vice President of the Savings Bank, is a practicing attorney and handles legal matters for the Savings Bank from time to time in this capacity without receiving any fees. Such activities include the drafting of legal documents, handling collection accounts and appearing in court on behalf of the Savings Bank.

In addition to performing legal services for the Savings Bank, Mr. Romines provides legal services, from time to time, for existing and potential customers of the Savings Bank. Such services are generally restricted to real estate transactions, such as the preparation of contracts, deeds, promissory notes, deeds of trust and examining abstracts of title, as well as a limited amount of estate planning and probate work. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, Mr. Romines received approximately $3,500 in legal fees from customers of the Savings Bank.

Mr. Harold F. Glass, a director of the Savings Bank and the Corporation, is a partner with the law firm of Millington, Glass & Love, which firm serves as legal counsel for the Corporation, the Savings Bank and its subsidiary. As counsel for the Corporation and the Savings Bank for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, Millington, Glass & Love was paid $7,000 in fees and expense reimbursement, which amount did not exceed 5% of the law firm's annual gross revenues.

The above-described transactions were made on terms no less favorable to the Savings Bank and the Corporation than ones with unaffiliated third parties.

The Savings Bank, like many financial institutions, has followed the policy of granting loans to its officers, directors and employees on the security of their primary residences and also makes consumer loans to such persons. Loans to such persons are made in the ordinary course of business on substantially the same terms, including interest rate and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons. Management believes that these loans neither involve more than the normal risk of collectability nor present other unfavorable features. The Savings Bank has never granted loans to its directors and officers on preferred terms. In accordance with the requirements of applicable law, loans to executive officers and directors of the Corporation or the Savings Bank are made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates, fees and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other persons, and, in the opinion of management, do not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features. At June 30, 2003, loans to directors and executive officers, including immediate family members, totaled $2,090,712.

COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(a) OF THE EXCHANGE ACT

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires certain officers of the Corporation and its directors, and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of any registered class of the Corporation's Common Stock, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC and the Corporation.

Based solely on a review of the report and written representations provided to the Corporation, the Corporation believes that during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003 other than the instances given below all filing requirements applicable to its reporting officers, directors and greater than ten percent beneficial owners were properly and timely complied with. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, Stephen H. Romines, President and Chief Executive Officer, filed two Forms 4, Statement of Changes in Beneficial Ownership of Securities, late, which were subsequently filed.

AUDITORS

The Board of Directors has renewed the Corporation's arrangements with Kirkpatrick, Phillips & Miller, CPAs, P.C., independent public accountants, to be its auditors for the 2004 fiscal year. A representative of Kirkpatrick, Phillips & Miller, CPAs, P.C. is expected to be present at the Meeting to respond to appropriate questions of stockholders, and will have the opportunity to make a statement if he desires.

Audit Fees. The aggregate fees billed to the Corporation by Kirkpatrick, Phillips & Miller, CPAs, P.C. for professional services rendered for the audit of the Corporation's financial statements for fiscal 2003 and 2002 and the reviews of the financial statements included in the Corporation's Forms 10-QSB for those years were $72,685 and $68,930, respectively.

Audit-Related Fees. The aggregate fees billed to the Corporation by Kirkpatrick, Phillips & Miller, CPAs, P.C. for professional services for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Corporation's financial statements for fiscal 2003 and 2002 were $3,415 and $1,595, respectively.

Tax Fees. The aggregate fees billed to the Corporation by Kirkpatrick, Phillips & Miller, CPAs, P.C. for professional services for tax compliance, tax advice, and tax planning services for fiscal 2003 and 2002 were $11,560 and $10,610, respectively.

All Other Fees.
