The registrant has amended its non-fundamental investment policy in its entirety to read as follows:

NON- FUNDAMENTAL INVESTMENT POLICY
OF
STERLING CAPITAL CORPORATION

Policies With Respect to Security Investments

(a) The primary investment objective is long-term capital growth. To this end, Sterling generally invests directly or indirectly in equity securities, which it believes to offer attractive investment opportunities. Current income is not an important criterion in investment selection, and any such income is incidental. When Sterling believes it is desirable for defensive purposes, it may invest available funds, or sell portfolio securities and invest all or part of the proceeds, in investment grade corporate bonds, debentures or preferred stock, governmental obligations, bankers' acceptances, commercial paper, registered investment companies or certificates of deposit, or funds may be retained in cash. Sterling may engage in transactions in commodity futures or futures options contracts for hedging purposes.

(b) Sterling will not invest more than 25% of the value of its total assets in the securities of any one issuer, or of any one or more issuers which may be controlled by Sterling and which, pursuant to the regulations under the Internal Revenue Code, may be deemed to be engaged in the same, similar or related trades or businesses, excluding registered investment companies.

(c) Sterling will not ordinarily invest in companies for the purpose of exercising control. However, when it believes that changing a company's business or management may create or enhance an investment opportunity it may invest or take other action for the purpose of exercising control.

(d) Sterling may invest in securities of other investment companies to the extent permitted by the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

(e) Although Sterling's policy with respect to portfolio turnover is that securities will normally be purchased and held for long-term capital appreciation with respect to at least two-thirds of its portfolio, the remaining one-third may be used to seek to realize short-term trading profits whenever, in the opinion of management, it is desirable to take advantage of apparent short-term trends, tax considerations and other relevant factors. The annual portfolio turnover rate is not expected to exceed 200%.

None of the above policies requires shareholder approval in order to be changed

Code of Ethics

The Registrant has adopted a Code of Ethics under Rule 17j-1 of the 1940 Act which permits its personnel to invest in securities, including securities that may be purchased or held by the Registrant, with the written approval and consent of the Registrant's designated compliance officer. The Registrant's Code of Ethics is attached as an exhibit to this filing and can be reviewed and copied at the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, D.C., by calling 1-202-942-8090; it is also available on the EDGAR database on the Commission's website at <http://www.sec.gov>; or after paying a duplicating fee, by electronic request at the following e-mail address: publicinfo@sec.gov; or by writing the Commission's Public Reference Section, Washington, D.C. 20549-0102

Proxy Voting Policies and Procedures

The Registrant's proxy voting policies and procedures that it uses to determine how to vote proxies' relating to portfolio securities is as follows:

Sterling Capital Corporation (the "Company") is uniquely structured as an internally managed closed-end investment company. Our research efforts, including the receipt and analysis of proxy material, are focused on the securities in the Company's portfolio, as well as alternative investment opportunities. We vote proxies relating to our portfolio securities in the best long-term interests of the Company.

Our investment approach stresses fundamental security analysis, which includes an evaluation of the integrity, as well as the effectiveness of management personnel. In proxy material, we review management proposals and management recommendations relating to shareholder proposals in order to, among other things, gain assurance that management's positions are consistent with its integrity and the long-term interests of the company. We generally find this to be the case and, accordingly, give significant weight to the views of management when we vote proxies.

Proposals that may have an impact on the rights or privileges of the securities held by the Company would be reviewed very carefully. The explanation for a negative impact could justify the proposal; however, if such justification were not present, we would vote against a significant reduction in the rights or privileges associated with any of our holdings.

Proposals relating to corporate governance matters are reviewed on a case-by-case basis. When they involve changes in the state of incorporation, mergers or other restructuring, we would, if necessary, complete our review of the rationale for the proposal by contacting company representatives and, with few exceptions, vote in favor of management's recommendations.

Proposals relating to anti-takeover provisions, such as staggered boards, poison pills and supermajorities could be more problematic. They would be considered in light of our assessment of the capability of current management, the duration of the proposal, the negative impact it might have on the attractiveness of the company to future "investors," among other factors. We can envision circumstances under which we would vote against an anti-takeover provision.

Generally, we would vote with management on proposals relating to changes to the company's capital structure, including increases and decreases of capital and issuances of preferred stock; however, we would review the facts and circumstances associated with each proposal before finalizing our decision.

Well-structured stock option plans and management compensation programs are essential for companies to attract and retain high caliber management personnel. We generally vote in favor of proposals relating to these issues; however, there could be an occasion on which we viewed such a proposal as over reaching on the part of management or having the potential for excessive dilution when we would vote against the proposal.

Corporations should act in a responsible manner toward their employees, the communities in which they are located, the customers they serve and the world at large. We have observed that most stockholder proposals relating to social issues focus on a narrow issue and the corporate position set forth in the proxy material provides a well-considered response demonstrating an appropriate and responsible action or position. Accordingly, we generally support management recommendations on these types of proposals; however, we would consider each proposal on a case-by-case basis.

We take voting proxies of securities held in our portfolio very seriously. As indicated above, it is an integral part of the analytical process at Sterling Capital Corporation. Each proposal and any competing interests are reviewed carefully on a case-by-case basis. Generally, we support and vote in accordance with the recommendations of management; however, the overriding basis for the votes we cast is the best long-term interests of the Company.

Scheuer, Mr. Scheuer's wife (see note (d) below), 34,068, 482,976, 204,097 and 200,904 shares, respectively, are held for the four children of Mr. Scheuer (see notes (e), (f), and (g) below), 54,600 shares are held for a revocable trust for the benefit of three of Mr. Scheuer's children, 312,793 shares are held for seven trusts for the benefit of seven of Mr. Scheuer's grandchildren, and 101,000 shares are held for Mrs. Marcelle Halpern. The shares of the Corporation's Common Stock that are reflected in the table as being beneficially owned by Gaymark do not include 68,696 shares which Gaymark has an option to acquire. Windy Gates is a New York corporation of which Mr. Scheuer is President, a director and a shareholder. The other shareholders of Windy Gates are Mr. Scheuer's wife and four children. In addition, an aggregate of 156,600 shares are held directly by two trusts, the beneficiaries of which are two of Mr. Scheuer's grandchildren. Since Mr. Scheuer acts as attorney-in-fact for such persons and as trustee for such trusts and is

President of Windy Gates, he also may be deemed to be a beneficial owner of such 1,630,867 shares. In addition, Gaymark holds 101,000 shares for Mrs. Halpern, for whom Mr. Scheuer acts as attorney-in-fact. Mr. Scheuer may be deemed to be a beneficial owner of all of such shares. Since Mr. Reisner acts as trustee for such trusts, he may be deemed a beneficial owner of such 406,393 shares. Except to the extent that Mr. Reisner may be deemed to be a beneficial owner by virtue of shared investment power as set forth above, Mr. Reisner disclaims any beneficial ownership in all such shares.

(d) Of the 221,397 shares (approximately 8.9% of the Corporation's outstanding stock) of which Mrs. Scheuer may be deemed to be a beneficial owner, 166,797 shares are held for her account by Gaymark and 54,600 shares are held by Gaymark for the account of a revocable trust for the benefit of three of her children, which trust's shareholdings in the Corporation are described in note (b) above, of which trust Mrs. Scheuer is a trustee. trust for the benefit of Judith Scheuer and two of her siblings, and 102,250 shares are held by Gaymark for the account of two trusts for the benefit of Judith Scheuer's children, which trusts' shareholdings in the Corporation are described in note (b) above, of which trusts Judith Scheuer is a trustee. Judith Scheuer disclaims any beneficial ownership in the shares held by Gaymark for the account of such trusts.

(h) The computation of 2,078,396 (approximately 83.1% of the Corporation's outstanding Common Stock) shares reported in this column includes all shares which may be deemed to be beneficially owned as described in the foregoing notes, but eliminates the duplication that would arise from including more than one beneficial owner of the same shares. Such shares do not include 68,696 shares, which Gaymark has an option to acquire.

Since as indicated above, Mr. Walter Scheuer, Mr. Wayne Reisner, and Gaymark directly or indirectly together own or hold with power to vote in excess of 50% of the Registrant's outstanding voting securities, such persons have the ability to assure the passage or defeat of any proposal submitted to the Registrant's shareholders at any annual or special meeting of the Registrant's shareholders.

(b) The information set forth in paragraph (a) of Item 11, as amended, of Part I of Form N-2 previously filed with the Commission is hereby incorporated by reference.

(c) The officers and directors of the Registrant as a group directly or indirectly (including shares deemed beneficially owned by shared investment power) beneficially own 2,078,396 shares (or 83.1%) of the Registrant's outstanding voting shares. The Registrant has no investment advisor or advisory board.
