Item 5.03 – Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On and effective as of April 25, 2013, the Board of Directors of Rambus Inc. (“Rambus”) approved an Amended and Restated Bylaws of Rambus (the “Bylaws”). Sections 2.3 and 2.15 of the Bylaws were amended to revise and clarify the Company’s advanced notice procedures, including the requirements that stockholders must satisfy in order to validly nominate directors for election at, and to propose other business intended to be brought before, stockholder meetings.

As amended, the Bylaws establish an advance notice procedure for proposals that a stockholder wants to have brought before a stockholder meeting. Except for proposals properly made in accordance with Rule 14a-8 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, that are to be included in the Company’s proxy statement and are further discussed below, stockholder proposals to be presented must be timely received in accordance with the following deadlines:

To be timely, a stockholder proposal must be received by the Company’s corporate Secretary at the principal executive offices of the Company not later than the 45th day nor earlier than the 75th day before the one-year anniversary of the date the Company’s proxy statement was released to stockholders in connection with the previous year’s annual meeting. However, if no annual meeting was held in the previous year or if the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than 30 days prior to or delayed by more than 60 days after the one-year anniversary of the date of the previous year’s annual meeting, then notice must be received not earlier than the close of business on the 120th day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the 90th day prior to such annual meeting, or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such annual meeting is first made. Stockholder proposals to be presented at our 2014 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must be received by the Secretary of the Company at the Company’s principal executive offices not earlier than December 30, 2013 nor later than January 29, 2014.

Any notice must contain specific information concerning the matters to be brought before the meeting and must be given in proper written form. To be in proper written form, a stockholder’s notice to the Secretary of the Company shall set forth as to each matter of business the stockholder intends to bring before the annual meeting (i) a brief description of the business intended to be brought before the annual meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, (ii) the name and address of the stockholder(s) proposing such business and any “stockholder associated person” (as defined in the Bylaws), (iii) the class and number of shares of the Company which are held of record or are beneficially owned by the stockholder(s) or any stockholder associated person and any derivative positions held or beneficially held by the stockholder or any stockholder associated person, (iv) whether and the extent to which any hedging or other transaction or series of transactions has been entered into by or on behalf of such stockholder(s) or any stockholder associated person with respect to any securities or the Company, and a description of any other similar agreement, arrangement or understanding, the effect or intent of which is to mitigate loss to, or to manage the risk or benefit from share price changes for, or to increase or decrease the voting power of, such stockholder or any stockholder associated person with respect to any securities of the corporation, (v) any material interest of the stockholder(s) or stockholder associated person in such business and (vi) a statement whether such stockholder(s) or stockholder associated person will deliver a proxy statement and form of proxy to the Company’s stockholders representing at least the percentage of the corporation’s voting shares required under applicable law to carry the proposal. In addition, to be in proper written form, a stockholder’s notice to the Secretary of the Company must be supplemented not later than five days following the record date to disclose the information contained in clauses (iii) and (iv) in this paragraph as of the record date.

Alternatively, if a stockholder proposal is intended to be included in the Company’s proxy statement for our 2014 Annual Meeting of Stockholders it must satisfy SEC regulations under Rule 14a-8 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and be received not later than November 15, 2013.

A copy of the amendments to the Bylaws is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and is incorporated by reference herein. The procedures described above are currently effective and replace the procedures for advance notice described in the Company's proxy statement for the 2013 annual meeting of stockholders.
