CUSIP NO. 758338107

The following constitutes Amendment No. 2 to the Schedule 13D filed by the undersigned (“Amendment No. 2”). This Amendment No. 2 amends the Schedule 13D as specifically set forth herein.

Item 2. Identity and Background.

Item 2 is hereby amended and restated to read as follows:

In connection with the purposes and objectives of the Reporting Persons, including the decision to withdraw the nomination of director candidates and proxy contest at the upcoming 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, as more fully described in Item 4 below, Joseph Grace, Edwin R. Lozano, James G. McRitchie, Gary W. Spiro, Mathew D. Tekulsky, Jeffrey T. Glidden, Jeffrey V. Hembrock, Bruce Nierenberg and David Robinov have disbanded the Section 13(d) group and shall cease to be Reporting Persons immediately upon the filing of this Amendment No. 2.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Item 4 is hereby amended to add the following:

On November 16, 2016, the Reporting Persons announced they had withdrawn their nomination of directors for election at the 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Issuer and issued the following statement:

“As a direct result of the steadfast efforts of The Committee, the Company has not only put forth four new independent Board nominees who seem to have the requisite industry, governance and financial expertise to properly oversee the Company, but has also finally separated the Chairman and CEO roles. While The Committee is grateful that the Company finally took the steps to enhance the composition of its Board, it remains disappointed, though not surprised, that CEO Chris Reed failed to appoint shareholder representatives to the Board, as agreed in principle a month ago. Nevertheless, The Committee believes its actions and recommendations are not only in the best interests of the Company but also of shareholders as evidenced by the 69% increase in the stock price to-date since The Committee formally engaged the Company on August 2, 2016.”

“With respect to voting on the proposals at the upcoming 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, the members of The Committee intend to vote their shares as follows:

Proposal 1: WITHHOLD votes against CEO Christopher J. Reed for failing to work in good faith with The Committee to appoint shareholder representatives to the Board.

Proposal 2: Vote AGAINST the auditor. After seven years, it is time the Company engaged a new auditor.

Proposal 3: Vote FOR the say-on-pay vote.

Proposal 4: Vote AGAINST re-pricing of previously issued stock options. Performance goals were not met. Re-pricing options would simply reward failure. Stockholders do not get the benefit of re-priced shares, why should employees?

Proposal 5: Vote FOR the bylaw amendment requiring Directors to resign if they fail to receive the required vote for re-election. There should be no “zombie” Directors.

Proposal 6: Vote FOR the shareholder proposal to require an independent Chairman. The Chairman should be separate from the CEO to ensure greater oversight and accountability.

Proposal 7: Vote FOR the shareholder proposal on proxy access. Allowing long-term shareholders to add up to two nominees to the corporate proxy will enhance the Board’s accountability to shareholders.”

“It is our hope that the newly constituted Board will be fully committed to representing the best interests of stockholders. We continue to be convinced that the Company has good products and can continue to grow with competent operational leadership and functional corporate governance. This has been sorely lacking under Chris Reed's tenure as CEO for the past 28 years and simply cannot continue. We will remain vigilant in monitoring what we hope will be a successful transformation from historically poor performance to enhancement of shareholder value under improved governance and leadership."
