2002 ANNUAL MEETING OF
STOCKHOLDERS OF LIQUID AUDIO, INC.

PROXY STATEMENT OF
THE MUSICMAKER.COM, INC. GROUP

This proxy statement and the enclosed WHITE proxy card are being furnished to you, the holders of shares of common stock, par value $.001 per share, of Liquid Audio, Inc., a Delaware corporation, in connection with the solicitation by musicmaker.com, Inc. and other entities participating with musicmaker.com for use at the 2002 annual meeting of stockholders of the Company, and at any adjournments or postponements of the meeting. The other entities participating with musicmaker.com are Jewelcor Management, Inc., Barington Companies Equity Partners, L.P., Ramius Securities, LLC and Domrose Sons Partnership who, together with musicmaker.com, are referred to as the musicmaker.com group.

The musicmaker.com group is soliciting proxies to obtain control of the Company's board of directors. Our goal is to discontinue the Company's current operations, to arrest the continuing depletion of the Company's cash, to distribute excess cash to the Company's stockholders and to install management that is guided by the interests of stockholders and the maximization of stockholder value. Our nominees for director are committed to this platform. If elected, our nominees for director also intend to eliminate the stockholder rights plan adopted by the current board in 2001 and to propose amendments to the Company's charter and restated By-laws that would eliminate the staggered board, eliminate supermajority voting requirements and allow stockholders to act by written consent. The purpose of these actions is to promote corporate democracy and place control of the corporation firmly in the hands of stockholders acting by majority vote. Further, we believe our nominees will bring to the board the judgment, experience, energy and objectivity needed to produce the maximum value for the Company's stockholders.

The Company currently has five directors divided into three classes. The terms of the two Class III directors expire at the 2002 annual meeting. The musicmaker.com group is nominating two directors, Seymour Holtzman and James A. Mitarotonda, for election to this class.

In addition, we are proposing to amend the Company's By-laws to expand the board of directors by four positions and to provide that only stockholders can take action to fill the positions created by vacancies, including vacancies created by an expansion of the board. In order to adopt the amendments to the By-laws, a vote of two-thirds of the outstanding shares. Subject to the passage of these amendments, we are proposing four additional nominees, Joseph R. Wright, Jr., Jesse H. Choper, William J. Fox and Thomas E. Constance, for election as directors. If our proposed amendments to the By-laws are adopted and all of our nominees are elected, our nominees will represent six of the nine members of the Company's board of directors.

See "The Proposals" for a complete description of the actions that we propose. See "Information About The Musicmaker.com Group" and "Certain Other Information Regarding The Musicmaker.com Nominees" for information about the musicmaker.com group and about our nominees.

The Company has announced that the 2002 annual meeting will be held at 10:00 a.m. pacific time on July 1, 2002 in Redwood, California. The Company has also announced that the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the 2002 annual meeting is May 20, 2002.

The musicmaker.com group recommends that you vote for each of the proposals.

Your vote is important, no matter how many or how few shares of common stock you own. musicmaker.com urges you to sign, date and return the enclosed WHITE proxy card promptly in accordance with the instructions set forth below. Please do NOT sign any proxy card you may receive from the Company.

You are urged to sign and date the enclosed WHITE proxy card and return it in the enclosed envelope whether or not you plan to attend the 2002 annual meeting. If you need assistance in voting your shares of common stock, please call musicmaker.com's information agent, D.F. King & Co., Inc., toll-free at 1-800-431-9643 or if you are a bank or broker please call collect at 1-212-269-5550.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying WHITE proxy card are first being furnished to the Company's stockholders on or about June __, 2002.

INTRODUCTION

The musicmaker.com group seeks to maximize value for all of the Company's stockholders. The musicmaker.com group does not believe that such value can be achieved through the Company's current business model, under which the Company is spending almost $2 million each month while generating virtually no revenues. The musicmaker.com group has expressed its concerns to the Company and has requested that stockholders be represented on the Company's board of directors. To date, apart from one brief meeting, the Company has refused to meet with the musicmaker.com group or take any action to address our concerns.

The Failure of the Current Business Plan

Since its inception in 1996, the Company has depleted $103 million of the $189 million that it has raised. The Company has accumulated a deficit of $116 million on total revenues of just $10 million, not including so-called "business development" revenues from related parties. It is no wonder that the Company's equity market value has declined by approximately 95% in the last two years.

There is no indication that the fortunes of the Company are improving. In fact, contrary to what one would expect for a successful development stage company, the Company's revenues have been declining over the past several quarters. Indeed, in the most recently completed quarter ended March 31, 2002, the Company realized a grand total of $136,000 in revenues and a cash burn of $5,236,000. In its report on Form 10-Q filed for the quarter, the Company concedes:

"We expect to incur additional losses and negative cash flow from operations through at least mid-2003. Our revenues may not increase or even continue at their current levels and we may not achieve or maintain profitability or generate cash flow from operations in future periods. The digital music market may never develop to the extent that we are able to generate positive cash flows."

In a nod to this bleak outlook, in its report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 2001 the Company disclosed that in May 2001 it adopted "a corporate restructuring program to reduce expenses to preserve the Company's cash position while the digital music market develops." In the three quarters since adoption of this plan, the Company has squandered an additional $17 million of its cash and accumulated losses of over $16 million on revenues of just $720,000, not including so-called "business development" revenues from related parties.

The musicmaker.com group believes that the Company's recent operating results confirm its view that the Company's plan of continuing to pursue the business of digital delivery of music over the internet is not viable. We believe that if this plan is not terminated, it is likely to result in the gradual but inevitable exhaustion of the Company's remaining cash reserves.

Our representatives have on several occasions voiced our deep-seated concerns about the Company's strategic direction, prospects and cash drain with current management. Management has not been responsive to our concerns and, we believe, stockholder value has continued to suffer. In our view, stockholders must elect individuals to the Company's board whose focus will be first and foremost to eliminate the Company's cash drain, stabilize the deterioration in stockholder equity, terminate the Company's failed business plan and prudently pursue avenues for the enhancement of stockholder value. The musicmaker.com group does not believe that the current board has the focus or the incentive to achieve these goals because:

- o Having developed and presided over the Company's failed business plan, the current board lacks the objectivity to redirect the Company's business plan to one focused on stockholder value and returns.
- o The current board has a demonstrated inattentiveness to stockholder concerns. In the Company's three most recent earnings calls, Gerald W. Kearby, a founding director and chief executive officer of the Company whose term as a Class III director expires at the 2002 annual meeting, did not even entertain questions from analysts and stockholders.
- o The members of the current board and their affiliated entities own in the aggregate 1,877,338 shares or approximately 8.3% of the outstanding shares as compared with the 6,179,679 shares or approximately 28.93% of the outstanding shares that board members and their affiliated entities owned immediately following the Company's initial public offering. The collective financial incentive of the board members as stockholders in the Company to grow the value of its equity is declining.
- o Only two of the six directors who served on the Company's board at the time of its public offering less than three years ago are still in office. A revolving board room door suggests disaffection with the current board and its strategic direction at the highest levels.

Our Platform

In contrast, the musicmaker.com group is focused on the goal of achieving the greatest return to stockholders in which we will share on a pro rata basis. We have selected nominees with broad management, professional and financial experience. They are committed to the principles of our platform, with the goal of promoting stockholder value in the near term. In furtherance of these principles, if elected, our nominees intend to pursue:

- o immediate steps to slash the Company's general and administrative overhead and facility costs and drastically reduce the Company's use of operating cash;
- o avenues for the licensing or sale of the Company's technology, monetizing these assets in a manner that does not burden the Company's financial resources;
- o opportunities for using the Company's cash to acquire one or more businesses with positive cash flow and current profitability; and
- o a dividend to stockholders of cash that is not reasonably required for the Company's operations and acquisition program.

In addition to these actions designed to first preserve and then enhance the investment of stockholders in the Company, our nominees will act to eliminate the burdens that the Company's charter documents and current board have imposed on the exercise of corporate democracy at the Company. These steps include:

- o termination of the Company's stockholder rights plan, which imposes draconian penalties on stockholders or stockholder groups that beneficially own more than 15% of the Company's stock. Not only does such plan effectively prohibit accumulation of stockholdings in excess of this threshold, it may also have the effect of discouraging stockholders from collectively exercising their corporate democracy rights out of concern that they will be deemed to be a group owning more than 15% of the Company's shares.
- o subject to stockholder approval, amending the Company's charter to eliminate the staggered board and allow the Company's stockholders to elect the entire board on an annual basis;
- o subject to stockholder approval, amending the Company's charter to eliminate the requirement that a two-thirds vote of stockholders is required to modify the Company's By-laws and certain provisions of the charter, thereby allowing stockholders to act by no more than a simple majority of the outstanding shares; and
- o subject to stockholder approval, amending the Company's charter to eliminate the prohibition on stockholder action by written consent.

The nominees of the musicmaker.com group do not intend to hide behind the barricades erected by the Company's current board that restrict the power of stockholders to control their corporation. Unlike the current board, our director nominees are prepared to submit their performance to the judgment of stockholders, acting freely in the exercise of their electoral rights.

THE PROPOSALS

The musicmaker.com group is soliciting proxies from the holders of shares of common stock to elect nominees who will constitute a majority of the Company's board of directors. As described in more detail below, the proposals would accomplish this in two steps:

- o first, by electing two directors to fill the seats of the two existing Class III directorships that expire at the 2002 annual meeting; and

- o second, by amending the By-laws to expand the board of directors and authorize only stockholders to fill the newly created directorships, and by electing the four nominees of the musicmaker.com group to fill these new board positions.

The election of directors requires a plurality of the votes cast in the election. The amendments to the By-laws to expand the board and authorize only stockholders to fill vacancies requires a 66 2/3% majority of the shares outstanding on the record date for the 2002 annual meeting.

The musicmaker.com group recommends that you vote for each of the proposals by signing, dating and returning the enclosed WHITE proxy card.

Election of the Existing Class III Directors

Proposal No. 1 -- Election of musicmaker.com nominees as Class III Directors

Proposal No. 1 provides for the election of James A. Mitarotonda and Seymour Holtzman to serve as Class III directors until the 2005 annual meeting of stockholders. See "Certain Other Information Regarding The Musicmaker.com Nominees" for information concerning the background and experience of Messrs. Mitarotonda and Seymour Holtzman.

Amendment of the By-laws and Election of an Additional Four Directors

Proposal No. 2 -- Modification of Provision Regarding the Size of the Board of Directors

Proposal No. 2 provides for the amendment of Article III, Section 3.2 of the Restated By-laws of the Company to set the number of members of the board of directors at nine. The Restated By-laws currently provide that the board of directors shall consist of five (5) members, which number may be changed by an amendment to the Restated By-laws duly adopted by the board of directors or the stockholders or an amendment to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation. In particular, the amendment would delete the first sentence of Article III, Section 3.2 and substitute in its place the sentence "The board of directors shall consist of nine members."

The musicmaker.com group is proposing to increase the size of the board to facilitate the election of the musicmaker.com nominees to a majority of the positions on the board.

Proposal No. 3 -- Modification of Provision for Filling Board Vacancies

Proposal No. 3 provides for the amendment of Article III, Section 3.4 of the Restated By-laws to provide that any vacancies on the board of directors and newly created directorships may not be filled by the board of directors but only by action of the stockholders. The Restated By-laws currently provide that vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors elected by the stockholders may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office. In addition, the Restated By-laws currently provide that whenever the holders of any class of stock or series thereof are entitled to elect one or more directors by the certificate of incorporation, vacancies and newly created directorships of such class or classes or series may be filled by a majority of the directors elected by such class or series thereof then in office. Proposal No. 3 would eliminate the power of the board of directors to fill all vacancies and newly created directorships and vest such power in the stockholders. In particular, the amendment would delete the text of Article III, Section 3.4 and replace it with the following:

"Any director may resign at any time upon written notice to the attention of the Secretary of the corporation. When one or more directors shall resign from the board of directors, effective at a future date, such vacancy may only be filled by the stockholders entitled to vote thereon.

(a) Vacancies and newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors elected by all of the stockholders having the right to vote as a single class may only be filled by a majority of the stockholders entitled to vote thereon.

(b) Whenever the holders of any class or classes of stock or series thereof are entitled to elect one or more directors by the certificate of incorporation, vacancies and newly created directorships of such class or classes or series may only be filled by a majority of the stockholders entitled to vote thereon. If at any time, by reason of death or resignation or other cause, the corporation should have no directors in office, then any officer, or any stockholder, or any executor, administrator, trustee or guardian of a stockholder, or other fiduciary entrusted with like responsibility for the person or estate of a stockholder may call a special meeting of the stockholders in accordance with the provisions of the certificate of incorporation or bylaws, or may apply to the Court of Chancery for a decree summarily ordering an election as provided in Section 211 of Delaware General Corporation Law."

The musicmaker.com group understands that many if not most Delaware corporations empower both stockholders and existing board members with the ability to fill vacancies and newly created directorships in the board of directors, and the inability of the Company's stockholders to do so is symptomatic of the entrenchment strategy implemented by current management. In the future, it may be advisable to vest a concurrent power in the board to fill vacancies. At this time, however, we are proposing that only stockholders may fill vacancies to facilitate the election of the musicmaker.com nominees under Proposal No. 4.

Proposal No. 4 -- Election of musicmaker.com Nominees to fill the Four Newly Created Board seats

Proposal No. 4 provides for the election of Jesse H. Choper and William J. Fox to serve as Class I directors until the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders, the election of Thomas E. Constance to serve as a Class II director until the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders and Joseph R. Wright, Jr. to serve as a Class III director until the 2005 annual meeting of stockholders. See "Certain Other Information Regarding The Musicmaker.com Nominees" for information concerning the background and experience of Messrs. Choper, Fox, Constance and Wright.

While Proposal No. 4 requires the vote of only a plurality of shares voted, it is contingent on the adoption of Proposals No. 2 and 3, which each require a 66 2/3% vote of the shares outstanding on the record date for the 2002 annual meeting.

General

Each of the musicmaker.com nominees has consented to being named herein as a nominee for director of the Company and has agreed to stand for election as a director.

Although the musicmaker.com group has no reason to believe that any of the musicmaker.com nominees will be unable to serve as a director, if any musicmaker.com nominee is not available to serve, the musicmaker.com group expects that the remaining musicmaker.com nominees, upon taking office, will fill the vacancy with an individual willing to consider and implement the musicmaker.com group's proposals to maximize stockholder value.

King has informed musicmaker.com that, as of the date of this Proxy Statement, it does not hold any shares of the Company's common stock for its own account or for the accounts of others.

BACKGROUND OF AND REASONS FOR THE PROXY SOLICITATION

Background

On various dates from August 14, 2001 through March 5, 2002, members of the musicmaker.com group purchased a total of 1,568,100 shares of common stock in the open market for a total purchase price of $3,457,711, excluding commissions and related costs. The details of these purchases are set forth in Annex A attached to this Proxy Statement. All of the purchases were funded by working capital, which may have included margin loans made by brokerage firms in the ordinary course of business.

On October 8, 2001, musicmaker.com issued a press release indicating that it and certain other parties had acquired a 6.3% stock ownership stake in the Company and intended to acquire up to approximately an additional 8.6% stock ownership stake in the Company. On October 8, 2001, musicmaker.com also sent a letter to Gerald W. Kearby, the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, informing the Company of the acquisition of stock by musicmaker.com and certain other reporting persons and the intention of such group to acquire additional shares. In the letter, musicmaker.com requested that the number of directors on the Company's board of directors be increased from five to six and that individuals proposed by musicmaker.com be appointed to fill two current vacancies on the Company's board of directors and the one newly created seat. musicmaker.com also requested that the Company meet with musicmaker.com in order to discuss ways to enhance stockholder value.

On October 9, 2001, the musicmaker.com group filed with the SEC its Schedule 13D disclosing that the group members had acquired in excess of 5% of the outstanding shares of the common stock.

musicmaker.com received no response to its letter of October 8, 2001.

Edgar Filing: LIQUID AUDIO INC - Form PREN14A

On October 15, 2001, musicmaker.com sent a letter to Robert G. Flynn, Secretary of the Company, and Gerald W. Kearby, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. In the letter, musicmaker.com requested that the Company call a special meeting of stockholders of the Company on November 27, 2001 to elect Seymour Holtzman to fill the existing vacancy on the Company's board of directors, to replace the two directors currently on the board of directors whose term expires in 2002 with James A. Mitarotonda and Joseph R. Wright,, Jr. and to make certain amendments to the Company's Restated By-laws. In addition, musicmaker.com requested that the Company give musicmaker.com the opportunity to inspect and make copies of a complete list of the Company's stockholders.

On October 22, 2001, Steel Partners II, L.P., an existing stockholder of the Company, delivered a letter to the Company offering to acquire all the outstanding stock of the Company for $3.00 per share in cash.

On October 26, 2001, musicmaker.com sent a letter to Gerald W. Kearby, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, requesting that the Company meet with musicmaker.com to discuss, among other things, an offer by musicmaker.com to acquire the Company on terms at least comparable to those proposed by Steel Partners II, L.P.

On November 5, 2001, the Company issued a press release announcing that two individuals had been elected to fill the existing vacancies on the Company's board of directors and that the Company was not interested in pursuing the acquisition offer previously made by Steel Partners II, L.P. or musicmaker.com.

As a result of the Company's announcement, musicmaker.com sent the following letter to Gerald W. Kearby, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, on November 9, 2001:

Dear Mr. Kearby:

As the second largest stockholders of Liquid Audio, Inc., we at musicmaker.com, Inc. and the others in our group have become increasingly concerned about Liquid Audio's situation, and management's apparent failure to respond to the very serious issues facing the Company.

In particular, we were disturbed to see that management has decided to completely ignore both the premium acquisition proposal publicly announced by Steel Partners II, L.P., and our own offer to acquire the Company on terms at least comparable to the Steel Partners proposal (or, alternatively, to work with you on other approaches to enhance shareholder value). We were also taken aback to first learn of management's position through public news reports, rather than receiving the courtesy of a direct response to our October 26 letter to you and the Board. In fact, since we first contacted you privately more than one month ago to inform you of our stock ownership, you have refused to respond in any way to our repeated requests to meet with you.

Our interests are the same as any other public stockholder. Liquid Audio has never shown a profit and is losing extraordinary amounts of money with each passing day. In two years, the Company's stock has lost a staggering 95% of its market value. The consensus of the financial community seems to be that Liquid Audio's business model will never be successful and that the Company's value will only decline as it continues to spend money without results. We understand that at least two separate lawsuits have already been filed by Liquid Audio stockholders against the Company and its directors individually, alleging serious breaches of management's fiduciary duties.

In the face of this crisis, investors see management doing nothing to stem the Company's losses or promote shareholder value. At the same time, management has rejected out-of-hand serious offers to acquire the Company at a premium of more than 25% over the prior market price, and is refusing to even communicate with the Company's two largest stockholders.

Moreover, three weeks ago we requested that all Liquid Audio stockholders be given an immediate opportunity to vote as a group to fill the long-existing vacancies on the Company's Board of Directors. Instead of permitting the Company's stockholders to exercise their franchise, management reacted to our request by suddenly announcing last Monday that management had privately filled those long-vacant Board seats with its own designees.

The present situation cannot be good for management or for the Company's public stockholders, who continue to suffer from management's actions. We are writing separately, as concerned stockholders, to pursue our request under Delaware corporate law to inspect certain books and records of the Company. We also urge you once again to seriously and responsibly consider the acquisition proposals that have been presented to the Company, and to schedule a meeting with us promptly to discuss our own acquisition offer as well as other potential alternatives for the Company and its stockholders.

We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

/s/ Seymour Holtzman

James Mitarotonda
President and Chief Executive Officer
MUSICMAKER.COM, INC.

On December 6, 2001, James Mitarotonda met with management of the Company and expressed concerns about the continuing viability of the Company.

On December 18, 2001, musicmaker.com sent a letter to Robert G. Flynn, Secretary of the Company, and Gerald W. Kearby, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, informing the Company that at the 2002 annual meeting musicmaker.com intended to nominate certain individuals as directors and to propose certain amendments to the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Restated By-laws. In addition, musicmaker.com requested that it be given an opportunity to inspect the stockholder list.

As a follow-up to its letter of December 18, 2001, musicmaker.com sent a letter to Robert G. Flynn, Secretary of the Company, and Gerald W. Kearby, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, on December 20, 2001 notifying the Company that at the 2002 annual meeting musicmaker.com intended to propose an amendment to the Company's Restated By-laws increasing the size of the board of directors to ten and to fill the four newly created directorships with designated individuals.

On February 6, 2002, the Company announced that Silvia Kessel had resigned as a member of the Company's board of directors.

In response to such announcement, on February 12, 2002 musicmaker.com sent a letter to the Company's board of directors requesting that the Company schedule the 2002 annual meeting at the earliest possible date.

On February 22, 2002, musicmaker.com sent a letter to Gerald Kearby, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, setting forth musicmaker.com's willingness to acquire the Company at a price of $2.50 per share in cash.

In light of the Company's failure to schedule an annual meeting and to consider musicmaker.com's proposal to acquire the Company, on April 4, 2002, musicmaker.com sent the following letter to the Company's stockholders:

April 4, 2002

To Stockholders of Liquid Audio, Inc.

Dear Fellow Stockholder:

As you may know, musicmaker.com, Inc. and others in our group beneficially own an aggregate of approximately 6.9% of Liquid Audio's outstanding common stock. Together we are the Company's second largest stockholder.

We have repeatedly written to, and on one occasion met with, members of the Company's management and Board of Directors to express our deep concerns regarding the Company's financial situation and strategic direction. In our correspondence, as well as the one brief meeting to which management consented, we have indicated that we do not believe that management's current plans for the Company are viable. We think it is unlikely that the Company will realize any economic value from the license agreements it is entering into or the expensive litigation it is pursuing to protect technology which it is not able to successfully exploit. In fact, based on the experience of musicmaker's own business under its prior management, we question the business model underlying all of these license agreements and fear that they will yield little or no revenue for the Company.

We are convinced that the only reasonable path to preserving what value remains for stockholders is a sale of the Company, either to us or, if a more attractive opportunity emerges, to a third party. We also believe that, in all events, it is crucial that the interests of all shareholders be adequately represented on the Company's Board of Directors at the earliest possible time.

In October 2001, we wrote to the Company to indicate our interest in pursuing a potential acquisition of Liquid Audio at a price we then anticipated could be in the range of $3.00 per share - a premium of more than 25% over the market price at that time. Management eventually responded by rejecting out of hand what we believe was an attractive offer. Unfortunately, we believe the Company's situation has deteriorated further over the past four months.

Despite this deterioration, and the fact that the Company has lost 95% of its equity market value in the last two years while continuing to deplete cash rapidly under its current operating strategy, we believe that there is still value inherent in the Company. Accordingly, last month we wrote again to the Company to state our willingness to acquire the Company on a negotiated basis, through a merger with an appropriate acquisition entity, for a price of $2.50 per share in cash. This proposal is higher than the current market price of the Company's stock, and would provide the Company's stockholders with an immediate opportunity to realize value from their investment in the Company in excess of any presently available alternative. Once again, however, our proposal has been ignored by management.

Neither we nor any other potentially interested party can effectively pursue an acquisition proposal by, for example, making a tender offer directly to Liquid Audio's stockholders as long as management retains its so-called "poison pill" or shareholders' rights plan. However, assuming no further acceleration in the Company's deterioration, we are willing to commit to making a tender offer for the Company's stock if management would eliminate the "poison pill" and permit such an offer to proceed.

Edgar Filing: LIQUID AUDIO INC - Form PREN14A

In the meantime, it is vital that the interests of all stockholders be recognized at the Board level. We have given notice, in accordance with the Company's by-laws, of stockholder nominations for directors at the Company's 2002 Annual Meeting. We have also requested that management hold that meeting as soon as possible. Last year's annual meeting was held on June 1, and the Company's by-laws require the meeting to be held on the second Tuesday of May unless the Board of Directors has set a different date. In a February 12, 2002 letter to the Board of Directors, we indicated that if management did not commit to an expeditious meeting schedule by February 22, we must take that as a sign that management will attempt to delay holding an annual meeting. From management's continued silence on the subject, we fear the worst.

We told the Company months ago that we believed time was of the essence in addressing the Company's problems. That is more true than ever now. With every passing day, the Company expends substantial additional cash, the Company's perceived value declines, and the Company's alternatives and prospects are correspondingly reduced. The time for action has come.

Management's apparent indifference to stockholders - the real owners of the Company - is deeply disturbing. For two successive quarterly conference calls with the investor community management has ignored prevailing business practice and refused to accept questions. Management does not return phone calls or e-mails. Management's ownership interest in the Company, meanwhile, is minimal. It is your investment and our investment as stockholders that is at risk. Where management seems to lack both the will and the economic incentive to act, then we believe all stockholders must become more involved, and be prepared to protect their own interests through participation on the Board of Directors.

We believe the Company's public stockholders risk additional substantial losses if management continues to deplete cash, at a rate of approximately $5.5 million per quarter, while refusing to either discuss serious offers to acquire the Company at a premium or consider any other potential alternative to maximize value for the Company and its stockholders. Management has adopted an "ostrich strategy" of sticking its head in the sand, ignoring the realities facing the Company and hoping no one will notice. We notice, and we hope other stockholders will notice as well when they focus on the facts.

In your own best interests, we urge you to make your views known to management now. If you agree with us, let them know that stockholders will not tolerate a delay in this year's crucial annual meeting. Let them know that stockholders want the opportunity to consider and accept or reject for themselves a cash offer for their shares. On May 3, 2002, musicmaker.com filed a lawsuit against the Company in the Court of Chancery in the State of Delaware to compel the Company to hold its 2002 annual meeting and to require the Company to accept the nominations for directors and other proposals previously submitted by musicmaker.com.

On May 14, 2002, musicmaker.com sent the following letter to Robert G. Flynn, Secretary of the Company, Gerald W. Kearby, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and the board of directors of the Company:

Gentlemen:

We understand that Liquid Audio, Inc. has set July 1, 2002 as the date for its 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. Accordingly, we will suspend our lawsuit to compel a meeting, which is currently pending against the Company in Delaware Chancery Court.

As you are aware, on December 18, 2001 and December 20, 2001, we notified the Company of our intention to nominate certain individuals as directors of the Company and to present certain proposals at the 2002 Annual Meeting. For the avoidance of any doubt, we reaffirm our intention to nominate the named persons and to present our proposals, as set forth in our prior correspondence (copies of which are attached), except for the following. We will not be presenting our proposals to amend the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation and to rescind the Company's "shareholder rights plan." While we continue to believe that these actions are essential for the Company, we intend to focus our campaign on the key issue facing the stockholder electorate -- installing management that is guided by the interests of stockholders and not an unattainable business (or should we say "non-business") plan.

As we have previously indicated to you, we and other stockholders who have contacted us to express their views are deeply concerned about the ongoing depletion of the Company's cash and the other critical issues facing the Company. We expect that between now and the 2002 Annual Meeting the Company's board of directors and its management will take no action that will prejudice the rights of stockholders, including entering into any transaction to buy or sell the Company or any material amount of its assets or taking action that would deplete the Company's already dwindling cash supply. On the contrary, we demand that, even in advance of the Annual Meeting, management close down the Company's money losing operations and arrest the Company's senseless cash drain.

Edgar Filing: LIQUID AUDIO INC - Form PREN14A

We also advise you that we will hold the current board and management strictly accountable for any action taken in advance of the Annual Meeting that would effectively thwart the exercise of the right of the stockholder electorate to choose directors who will be responsive to the public owners of the Company and who will be guided first and foremost by their interests.

Very truly yours, musicmaker.com, Inc.

Who is entitled to vote?

If the Company's stock records show that you are a stockholder as of the close of business on the record date for the 2002 annual meeting, you are entitled to vote the shares of common stock that you held on such date. Even if you sell your shares after the record date for the 2002 annual meeting, you will retain the right to execute a proxy in connection with the 2002 annual meeting.

Edgar Filing: LIQUID AUDIO INC - Form PREN14A

Each outstanding share of common stock entitles its holder to cast one vote for each matter to be voted upon.

Can I attend the meeting?

All stockholders of record of the Company's common stock at the close of business on May 20, 2002, the record date for the 2002 annual meeting, or their designated proxies, are authorized to attend the 2002 annual meeting. If your shares are held of record by a bank, broker or other nominee, you will need to obtain a "legal proxy" form from your bank or broker if you wish to vote at the 2002 annual meeting.

What constitutes a quorum?

The holders of a majority of the Company's common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum at the 2002 annual meeting. Votes cast in person or by proxy at the 2002 annual meeting will be tabulated by the inspector of elections appointed for the 2002 annual meeting to determine whether or not a quorum is present. The inspector of elections will treat abstentions as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but abstentions will neither be counted as votes for, nor the withholding of authority for, the election of directors, but will have the effect of a vote against any other matter submitted to a vote of stockholders.

Shares held by nominees for beneficial owners will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present if the nominee has the discretion to vote on at least one of the matters presented at the 2002 annual meeting, even if the nominee may not exercise discretionary voting power with respect to other matters and voting instructions have not been received from the beneficial owner (a "broker non-vote"). Broker non-votes will not be counted as votes for or against any matter submitted to a vote of stockholders.

How do I vote?

Voting by proxy for holders of shares registered in the name of a brokerage firm or bank. If your shares are held by a broker, bank or other nominee (i.e., in "street name"), only your bank or broker can give a proxy with respect to your shares. You should receive a proxy card from your bank or broker which you must return in the envelope provided in order to have your shares voted. If you have not received a proxy card from your bank or broker, you may contact it directly to provide it with instructions on how you wish to vote. If you need assistance in dealing with your bank or broker, please contact D.F. King at (800) 431-9643 or collect at (212) 269-5550.

Voting by proxy for holders of shares registered directly in the name of the stockholder. If you hold your shares in your own name as a holder of record, you may vote your shares by marking, signing, dating and mailing the WHITE proxy card in the postage-paid envelope that has been provided to you by the musicmaker.com group. To vote your shares in accordance with your instructions at the 2002 annual meeting, we must receive your proxy as soon as possible but, in any event prior to the 2002 annual meeting.

Vote in person. If you are a registered stockholder and attend the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, you may deliver your completed WHITE proxy card in person. "Street name" stockholders who wish to vote at the 2002 annual meeting will need to obtain a "legal proxy" form from the broker, bank or other nominee that holds their shares of record and must bring that document to the meeting in order to vote in person at the 2002 annual meeting. If you need assistance, please contact D.F. King at (800) 431-9643 or collect at (212) 269-5550.

Edgar Filing: LIQUID AUDIO INC - Form PREN14A

What should I do if I receive a proxy card which is not WHITE?

If you submit a proxy to us by signing and returning the enclosed WHITE proxy card, do NOT sign or return the proxy card or follow any voting instructions provided by the Company's board of directors unless you intend to change your vote, because only your latest-dated proxy will be counted.

Can I revoke my proxy instructions?

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it has been exercised by:

- o submitting a written revocation with the Corporate Secretary of the Company or D.F. King;
- o submitting a duly executed proxy bearing a later date with the Corporate Secretary of the Company or D.F. King; or
- o appearing in person and voting by ballot at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders as described above under "How do I vote? -- Vote in Person."

Any stockholder of record as of the record date of the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders attending the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders may vote in person whether or not a proxy has been previously given, but the presence (without further action) of a stockholder at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders will NOT constitute revocation of a previously given proxy.

If you choose to revoke a proxy by giving written notice or a later-dated proxy to the Corporate Secretary of the Company, we would appreciate if you would assist us in representing the interests of stockholders on an informed basis by sending us a copy of your revocation or proxy or by calling D.F. King, at (800) 431-9643 or collect at (212) 269-5550. Remember, your latest-dated proxy is the only one that counts.

Will other matters be voted on at the annual meeting?

We are not now aware of any matters to be presented at the 2002 annual meeting other than the election of directors and the ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent auditors. If any other matters not described in the proxy statement are properly presented at the 2002 annual meeting, including matters incidental to the conduct of the 2002 annual meeting, proxies will be voted in accordance with the best judgment of the proxy holders.

If I plan to attend the annual meeting, should I still submit a proxy?

Whether you plan to attend the 2002 annual meeting or not, we urge you to submit a proxy. Returning the enclosed WHITE proxy card will not affect your right to attend the 2002 annual meeting.

How will my shares be voted?

If you give a proxy on the accompanying WHITE proxy card, your shares will be voted as you direct. If you submit a proxy to us without instructions, our representatives will vote your shares in favor of the Proposals. Submitting a WHITE proxy card will entitle our representatives to vote your shares in accordance with their discretion on matters not described in this proxy statement that may arise at the 2002 annual meeting, including matters incidental to the conduct of the 2002 annual meeting. Unless a proxy specifies otherwise, it will be presumed to relate to all shares held of record on the record date for the 2002 annual meeting by the person who submitted it.

How can I receive more information?

Edgar Filing: LIQUID AUDIO INC - Form PREN14A

If you have any questions about giving your proxy or about our solicitation, or if you require assistance, please call D.F. King at (800) 431-9643 or collect at (212) 269-5550.

Your vote is important. No matter how many or how few shares you own, please vote to amend the Restated By-laws to set the number of directors at nine and to authorize stockholders to fill vacancies on the board of directors and newly created directorships, and to elect the musicmaker.com Nominees by marking, signing, dating and mailing the enclosed WHITE proxy card promptly.

ANNEX B

OWNERSHIP OF COMMON STOCK

Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote on each of the proposals and the common stock is the only class of securities of the Company entitled to vote on the proposals. According to the Company's March 31, 2002 Form 10-Q, as of April 30, 2002 there were 22,745,624 shares of common stock outstanding.

The following table sets forth the share ownership of all persons who, to the knowledge of musicmaker.com, beneficially own more than 5% of the outstanding shares of common stock as of the date of this Proxy Statement. The information with respect to each stockholder is derived from the Schedule 14A filed by the Company with the SEC on April 23, 2001 and the Schedule 13D filed by Steel Partners II, L.P. with the SEC on July 30, 2001, as amended.

Edgar Filing: LIQUID AUDIO INC - Form PREN14A

Stockholder	Number of Shares Beneficially Owned (1)	Percentage Ownership
-----	-----	-----
Steel Partners II, L.P.	1,866,366	8.2%
The musicmaker.com group	1,568,100	6.9%

- (1) Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the SEC and generally includes voting or investment power with respect to securities. Shares of common stock subject to stock options and warrants currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days are deemed outstanding for purposes of computing the percentage ownership of the person holding the options and the percentage ownership of any group of which the holder is a member, but are not deemed outstanding for computing the percentage ownership of any other person. Except as indicated by footnote, and subject to community property laws where applicable, to the knowledge of musicmaker.com, the persons named in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock shown as beneficially owned by them.

ANNEX C

FORM OF PROXY SOLICITED ON BEHALF OF THE MUSICMAKER.COM INC. GROUP

The undersigned stockholder of Liquid Audio, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), on May 20, 2002 (the "record date"), hereby appoints James A. Mitarotonda or Seymour Holtzman or either of them, each with full power of substitution to act as proxies for the undersigned, and to vote all shares of common stock, par value $.001 per share, of the Company, which the undersigned would be entitled to vote if personally present at the 2002 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held on July 1, 2002, and at any and all postponements and adjournments thereof as indicated on this proxy.

IF YOU SIGN, DATE AND RETURN THIS CARD WITHOUT INDICATING YOUR VOTE ON ONE OR MORE OF THE FOLLOWING PROPOSALS, YOU WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE VOTED IN FAVOR OF SUCH PROPOSALS.
