Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard;
Transfer of Listing

On November 4, 2010, Community Central Bank Corporation (the “Company”) received a notice from The Nasdaq Stock Market stating that the minimum bid price of the Company’s common stock was below $1.00 per share for 30 consecutive business days and that the Company was therefore not in compliance with Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 5450(a)(1). The notification letter does not affect the listing of the Company’s common stock on The Nasdaq Capital Market at this time and it will continue to trade under the symbol CCBD.

The notification letter states that the Company will be afforded 180 calendar days, or until May 3, 2011, to regain compliance with the minimum closing bid price requirement. To regain compliance, the closing bid price of the Company’s common stock must meet or exceed $1.00 per share for at least ten consecutive business days. If the Company does not regain compliance by May 3, 2011, Nasdaq will provide the Company a written notification that its common stock will be delisted. The Company is eligible for an additional 180 calendar day grace period, however, if it meets the initial listing standards, with the exception of bid price, for The Nasdaq Capital Market.

During the 180 calendar period described above, the Company will monitor the bid price for its common stock and will consider available options to resolve the deficiency and regain compliance with the Nasdaq minimum bid price requirement. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to regain or maintain compliance with the minimum bid price rule or other listing criteria or that an appeal, if taken, would be successful.
