(e) As of March 26, 2018, Prudential Bank (the "Bank"), the wholly owned subsidiary of Prudential Bancorp, Inc. (the "Company"), entered into a severance agreement (the "Severance Agreement") with Kevin Gallagher, Senior Vice President, Chief Lending Officer (the "Executive"). The Severance Agreement was approved by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Bank. Under the provisions of the Severance Agreement, the initial term of the Severance Agreement is until December 31, 2019, which term is subject to one year extensions thereof commencing December 31, 2019.

In the event the Executive's employment is terminated in connection with a change in control, as defined in the Severance Agreement, for other than cause, disability, retirement or death or the Executive terminates his employment as a result of certain adverse actions which are taken with respect to the Executive's employment (i.e., good reason) following a change in control, as defined, the Executive will be entitled to (i) a cash severance payment equal to one times his average annual cash compensation (salary and cash bonuses) based upon the five calendar years preceding the year in which the date of termination occurs (or such shorter period that he has been employed by the Bank), (ii) the maintenance until the earlier to occur of the passage of one year from the date of termination or until the Executive's full time employment with another employer (which provides substantially similar benefits to the Executive), of the Executive's continued participation in all group insurance, life insurance, health, dental and accidental death and disability insurance plans at no cost to the officer, and (iii) a lump sum cash payment equal to the projected cost of providing the Executive with benefits for two years pursuant to other employee benefit plans (excluding retirement plans and stock compensation plans) in which the Executive was entitled to participate. In the event the Executive's continued participation in any group insurance plan is barred or would trigger the payment of an excise tax under Section 4980D of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"), or if any such group insurance plan is discontinued, then the Bank will either (i) provide substantially similar benefits under an alternative plan or (ii) pay a lump sum cash amount to the Executive equal to the projected cost of providing continued coverage to the Executive until the one-year anniversary of the Executive's date of termination. The Severance Agreement provides that in the event any of the payments to be made thereunder or otherwise upon termination of employment are deemed to constitute "parachute payments" within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code, then such payments and benefits received thereunder shall be reduced by the minimum amount necessary to result in no portion of the payments and benefits being non-deductible by the Bank for federal income tax purposes.

Concurrent with the entrance into the Severance Agreement with Mr. Gallagher, the Bank entered into a substantially identical severance agreement with another senior officer of the Bank.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Severance Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
