Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers
Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) On March 24, 2015, Banner Corporation's (the "Company") Board of Directors approved certain amendments to the Company's 2014 Omnibus Incentive Plan (the "Plan") and amended and restated the Plan to incorporate the amendments. The amendments include provisions that impose additional restrictions upon the ability of an award to become fully vested (e.g., in the case of restricted stock, restricted stock units or performance awards) or fully exercisable (e.g., in the case of stock options or stock appreciation rights) upon the occurrence of a change in control (as defined in the Plan). As amended, the Plan states, as a default provision, that an award will not become fully vested or exercisable (as the case may be) in connection with a change in control unless a "double trigger" requirement is satisfied. Under this double trigger requirement, if a change in control occurs prior to when an award would otherwise become fully vested or exercisable, and the awardee experiences an involuntary separation from service (as defined in the Plan) during the 12-month period following the date of such change in control, then the full vesting or exercisability of such award will be accelerated to the date of the awardee's involuntary separation from service. If the recipient of the award does not experience an involuntary separation from service during this 12-month period, then the vesting or exercisability of the award will remain subject to the other vesting or exercisability provisions of the award and the Plan. However, if at the effective time of the change in control the successor to Banner's business and/or assets does not either assume the outstanding award or replace the outstanding award with an award that is determined by the Plan Committee to be at least equivalent in value to such outstanding award on the date of the change in control, then the full vesting or exercisability of the award shall be accelerated to the earliest date of the change in control. In the case of performance-based awards, the award may also describe, in a double trigger situation, whether and the extent to which any performance-based conditions will be considered satisfied, and the extent to which the performance-based compensation will be paid.

Although the double trigger provisions described above reflect the default rule for awards granted under the Plan, an award may be granted with different vesting, exercisability or performance award payment provisions.
