Item 8.01. Other Events.

On February 11, 2010, PepsiCo, Inc. (the “Company”) issued a press release announcing its unaudited fiscal 2009 fourth quarter and full year financial results. Among other things, for the full year the Company reported net revenue of $43.2 billion, operating profit of $8.0 billion and earnings per share of $3.77 for its fiscal year ending December 26, 2009. It also reported net revenue of $13.3 billion, operating profit of $2.0 billion and earnings per share of $0.90 for the fourth quarter of such fiscal year. The Company indicated that it hopes to close its proposed acquisitions of The Pepsi Bottling Group, Inc. and PepsiAmericas, Inc. by the end of February 2010. The Company also announced that as a result of its recent integration planning efforts, the Company is now targeting pre-tax annualized synergies from the proposed bottler acquisitions of approximately $400 million once fully implemented by 2012, with one-time costs of about the same amount. Synergies to be realized in 2010 are expected to total approximately $125 to $150 million. The Company stated that it is still in the process of completing its integration planning. In addition, the Company stated that it expects to resume repurchasing its shares upon the close of the bottling acquisitions and anticipates that in 2010 share repurchases, together with a voluntary $600 million pension plan contribution, would total about $5 billion.
