The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc – update on ring-fencing plans

Further to the announcements of 30 September 2016 and 3 January 2017 relating to its future ring-fencing strategy, The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc (together with its subsidiaries, “RBS”) is today providing further details of its proposed ring-fencing transfer scheme and other restructuring steps relating to ring-fencing.

Introduction

The UK ring-fencing legislation requiring the separation of essential banking services from investment banking services will take effect from 1 January 2019. In order to comply with the UK ring-fencing requirements, RBS needs to undertake a significant reorganisation of its current legal entity structure and business model.

As also announced on 30 September 2016, one of the three principal corporate steps in that reorganisation is the transfer of certain personal and business banking businesses and commercial banking businesses of The Royal Bank of Scotland plc (“RBS plc”) to Adam & Company PLC (“Adam”) and National Westminster Bank Plc (“NatWest”). In addition, NatWest is to become issuer under the covered bond programme originally established by RBS plc (the “Covered Bond Programme”).

The Scheme

RBS intends to effect the above transfer by using a legal scheme called a Ring-Fencing Transfer Scheme (the “Scheme”) under Part VII of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (“FSMA”).

Accordingly, a petition was presented (the “Petition”) to the Court of Session in Scotland (the “Court”) on 17 November 2017 for an order under Part VII of FSMA approving the Scheme for the transfer to Adam and NatWest of the business referred to above.

A first hearing was held at the Court on 21 November 2017 and a hearing for the approval of the Scheme is expected to be held on 22 March 2018. If the Scheme is approved at that hearing, the effective date of the Scheme will be 30 April 2018 or any later date which RBS plc, Adam and NatWest may agree with the Prudential Regulation Authority and the Financial Conduct Authority.

Implementation of the Scheme is subject, amongst other matters, to Court and regulatory approvals.

Unless the context requires otherwise, capitalised terms used below are defined in the Scheme.

Other events

At the same time as the Scheme becomes effective, Adam will be renamed “The Royal Bank of Scotland plc” and RBS plc will be renamed “NatWest Markets Plc”.

Scottish Banknote issuance

RBS plc is currently authorised to issue banknotes in Scotland, in the name of The Royal Bank of Scotland plc. Subject to Parliament approving secondary legislation authorising the transfer of the right to issue Scottish banknotes, it is intended that on the date the Scheme becomes effective, RBS plc’s authority as issuer of banknotes in Scotland will be transferred to Adam. From that date, Adam will supersede RBS plc in respect of banknotes in circulation and issue banknotes in Scotland under its new name.

Additional restructuring steps

During the second half of 2018, it is proposed that NatWest Holdings Limited, as parent of the ring-fenced sub-group (which includes NatWest and Adam), will be transferred from RBS plc to The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc. This will occur through a dividend in specie of RBS plc's shares in NatWest Holdings Limited, following a reduction of capital in RBS plc (subject to Court and regulatory approvals as applicable). RBS plc will make a separate application to the Court for the reduction of capital.

Debt investors

RBS expects that The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc will continue to be primarily responsible for issuing external regulatory capital and MREL (minimum requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities) compliant instruments. Save as set out in this announcement with respect to the Covered Bonds and the Covered Bond Programme, the Scheme will not effect any change of issuer under any outstanding, externally-issued debt instruments.

Covered Bonds

RBS plc is currently the issuer under the Covered Bond Programme and carries out certain additional roles under the Covered Bond Programme. RBS Covered Bonds Limited Liability Partnership (the "LLP") guarantees payments of interest and principal of the covered bonds issued under the Covered Bond Programme (the "Covered Bonds").

It is proposed that, under the Scheme, NatWest will become issuer under the Covered Bond Programme, including in respect of any Covered Bonds issued that remain outstanding on the date on which the Scheme becomes effective. NatWest will also assume the additional roles currently carried out by RBS plc under the Covered Bond Programme (other than the roles of RBS plc as arranger and dealer in relation to the Covered Bond Programme, or its role as holder of any Covered Bonds). Accordingly, the following principal amendments to the Covered Bonds and the related Covered Bond Programme Transaction Documents are proposed to be made by the Scheme:

- Transferring Covered Bond Roles: Where the Covered Bonds or any Covered Bond Programme Transaction Document refer to RBS plc as issuer of the Covered Bonds or as the entity carrying out any other Transferring Covered Bond Roles, those references shall be construed as a reference to NatWest. The other Transferring Covered Bond Roles are cash manager to the LLP; seller and servicer of mortgage loans held by the LLP; lender to the LLP under the intercompany loan agreement; interest rate swap provider and covered bond swap provider to the LLP; and designated member of the LLP (see Schedule 4 of the Scheme Document).

- NatWest as sole seller and servicer: Currently, either RBS plc or NatWest may act as seller of mortgage loans to the LLP and as servicer of those mortgage loans. The Covered Bond Programme Transaction Documents will be amended, so that only NatWest carries out these roles (see Schedule 4 of the Scheme Document).

If the Scheme is ultimately approved by the Court, certain ancillary changes are expected to be made outside of the Scheme to the Covered Bond Programme, the LLP and its members. The principal changes are the resignation of RBS plc as a member of the LLP; the LLP being renamed as NatWest Covered Bonds LLP; the transfer by RBS plc to NatWest of its shares in one of the members of the LLP, RBS Covered Bonds (LM) Limited; and that member of the LLP being renamed as NatWest Covered Bonds (LM) Limited.

If you are in any doubt as to whether there is any tax or other impact on you as a result of the Scheme, please discuss such matters with your advisers or contact our Investor Relations team (central point of contact) indicated on our Fixed Income Investor website at www.investors.rbs.com. Otherwise, there is no requirement for investors in Covered Bonds to take any action.

Further information on the Scheme

Copies of the Petition, the full terms of the Scheme, a summary of its principal terms, the report of the skilled person relating to the Scheme and a summary of that report are available, free of charge, at www.rbs.com/ring-fencing or on request from RBS plc at 36 St Andrew Square, Edinburgh, EH2 2YB. A copy of any supplementary report of the skilled person will, if provided, also be so available. All of those documents will be available until the date of the Court hearing to approve the Scheme.

General information on RBS's ring-fencing plans is also available at www.rbs.com/ring-fencing which contains links to previous RBS announcements on its implementation of ring-fencing and to the FCA and PRA websites.

Making your views known

Any person who considers that they would be adversely affected by the carrying out of the Scheme has two alternative ways of making sure the Court considers their views.

a) Lodging formal objections with the Court

They have the right to lodge formal written objections (known as “Answers”) with the Court. If any person wishes to lodge Answers, they should seek independent legal advice. Answers are a formal Court document which must comply with the rules of the Court and are normally prepared by Scottish legal counsel. Answers must be lodged with the Court at Parliament House, Parliament Square, Edinburgh, EH1 1RQ within 42 days of the publication of the last of the notices relating to the Scheme, which is expected to be on or around 27 November 2017. The deadline for lodging Answers is 8 January 2018. In addition, Answers must be accompanied by a fee to the Court.

b) In writing or in person

The Court will also consider any other informal objections to the Scheme which are made in writing or in person at the hearing to consider approving the Scheme. If any person wishes to object in writing or in person at that hearing, they need to send a written statement of their views to all of the following:

- the Court (either by post or by hand) at the above address;

Edgar Filing: ROYAL BANK OF SCOTLAND GROUP PLC - Form 6-K

- RBS plc (either by post or by hand) at 36 St Andrew Square, Edinburgh, EH2 2YB; and
 - the Prudential Regulation Authority either:

by post to The Royal Bank of Scotland, Prudential Regulation Authority, Bank of England, Threadneedle Street, London, EC2R 8AH; or by submitting it online at <http://www.bankofengland.co.uk/pru/Pages/authorisations/structuralreform/representations.aspx>

If any person wishes to object in this way, they need to do this by 5 p.m. on 23 February 2018, in order to ensure that the Court will consider their objection at the hearing to consider approving the Scheme. No fee is payable to the Court for objecting in this way.

The Court may also consider any objections made in writing or in person at the hearing to consider approving the Scheme, although it may not do so if the process for objecting described above has not been followed.
