PROXY STATEMENT

These proxy materials are delivered in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Cohen & Steers, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Cohen & Steers,” “we” or “our”), of proxies to be voted at Cohen & Steers' 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

You are invited to attend our 2005 Annual Meeting of Stockholders on Monday, May 9, 2005, beginning at 9:00 a.m., local time. The Annual Meeting will be held at our corporate headquarters located at 757 Third Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, New York 10017.

This Proxy Statement and form of proxy are being mailed starting March 31, 2005.

Items to Be Voted on at the Annual Meeting

The items of business scheduled to be voted on at the Annual Meeting are:

- the election of directors;
- the ratification of our independent registered public accounting firm; and
- any other business that is properly presented at the Annual Meeting.

Board Recommendation

Our Board of Directors recommends that you vote your shares “FOR” each of the nominees to the Board of Directors.

Stockholders Entitled to Vote

Holders of record of Cohen & Steers common stock at the close of business on March 10, 2005 are entitled to receive this notice and to vote their shares of Cohen & Steers common stock at the Annual Meeting. As of March 10, 2005, 35,388,736 shares of Cohen & Steers' common stock, par value $0.01 per share, were outstanding. Holders of common stock are entitled to one vote per share.

How to Vote

Mark your proxy, date, and sign it, and return it to Mellon Investor Services LLC in the postage-paid envelope provided. If the envelope is missing, please address your completed proxy card to Cohen & Steers, Inc., c/o Mellon Investor Services, LLC, Church Street Station, P.O. Box 1633, New York, New York 10277-1633.

Voting at the Annual Meeting

In the event you mail your proxy and you attend the Annual Meeting, you may revoke your proxy and cast your vote personally at the Annual Meeting. If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other holder of record, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the holder of record to be able to vote at the Annual Meeting.

All proxies that have been properly signed and returned and not revoked will be voted in accordance with your instructions at the Annual Meeting. If you sign and return your proxy card but do not give voting instructions, the shares represented by that proxy will be voted as recommended by the Board of Directors.

Voting on Other Matters

If you sign and return your proxy card and if any other matters are properly presented at the Annual Meeting for consideration, the persons named in the proxy will have the discretion to vote on those matters for you. At the date this Proxy Statement went to press, we did not know of any other matter to be raised at the Annual Meeting.

Revocation of Proxies

Proxies may be revoked at any time before they are exercised by:

- written notice to the Corporate Secretary of Cohen & Steers;
- timely delivery of a valid, later-dated proxy; or
- voting by ballot at the Annual Meeting.

Required Vote

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Abstentions and broker “non-votes” are counted as present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining a quorum. A broker “non-vote” occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power for that particular item and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner.

A plurality of the votes cast is required for Item 1, election of directors. The affirmative vote of holders of a majority of the shares of common stock for which votes are cast is required for Item 2, ratification of our independent registered public accounting firm. Abstentions and broker “non-votes” are not counted in the voting tally for purposes of Item 1.

Cost of Proxy Solicitation

We will pay the expenses of soliciting proxies. Proxies may be solicited in person or by mail, telephone, electronic transmission, and facsimile transmission on our behalf by directors, officers or employees of Cohen & Steers or its subsidiaries, without additional compensation. We will reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees, and fiduciaries that are requested to forward soliciting materials to the beneficial owners of the stock held of record by such persons.

List of Stockholders

A list of stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be available at the Annual Meeting and for ten days prior to the Annual Meeting, between the hours of 8:45 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., at our principal executive offices at 757 Third Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, New York 10017, by contacting the Corporate Secretary of Cohen & Steers.

Multiple Copies of Annual Report to Stockholders

In order to reduce printing and postage costs, we have undertaken an effort to deliver only one set of annual reports and one proxy statement to multiple stockholders sharing an address. This delivery method, called “householding,” is not being used, however, if we have received contrary instructions from one or more of the stockholders sharing an address. If your household has received only one set of annual reports and one proxy statement, we will deliver promptly a separate copy of the 2004 Annual Report on Form 10-K, the Summary Annual Report to Stockholders and this Proxy Statement to any stockholder who sends a written request to the Corporate Secretary, Cohen & Steers, Inc., at 757 Third Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, New York 10017. You may also contact the Corporate Secretary at (212) 832-3232. You can also notify us that you would like to receive separate copies of Cohen & Steers' annual reports and proxy statement in the future by writing our Corporate Secretary. Even if your household has received only one set of annual reports and one proxy statement, a separate proxy card has been provided for each stockholder account. Each proxy card should be signed, dated, and returned in the enclosed self-addressed envelope.

If your household has received multiple copies of Cohen & Steers' annual reports and proxy statement, you can request the delivery of single copies in the future by marking the designated box on the enclosed proxy card.

If you own shares of common stock through a bank, broker or other nominee and receive more than one set of annual reports and proxy statement, contact the holder of record to eliminate duplicate mailings.

Confidentiality of Voting

Cohen & Steers keeps all the proxies, ballots, and voting tabulations confidential as a matter of practice. Cohen & Steers only lets its Inspector of Election, Mellon Investor Services LLC, examine these documents. Occasionally, stockholders provide written comments on their proxy card, which are then forwarded to Cohen & Steers management by Mellon Investor Services, LLC.

Voting Results

Mellon Investor Services LLC, our independent tabulating agent, will count the votes and act as the Inspector of Election. We will publish the voting results in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2005, which we plan to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") in August 2005.

Annual Report

Cohen & Steers makes available free of charge through its website at cohenandsteers.com under the headings "Corporate Info/SEC Filings," its Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Current Reports on Form 8-K, and all amendments to those reports as soon as reasonably practicable after such material is electronically filed with or furnished to the SEC. Further, Cohen & Steers will provide, without charge to each stockholder upon written request, a copy of Cohen & Steers' Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Current Reports on Form 8-K, and all amendments to those reports. Neither the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 nor the 2004 Summary Annual Report to Stockholders is part of the proxy solicitation materials.

PRINCIPAL STOCKHOLDERS

As of March 21, 2005, our co-chairmen and co-chief executive officers, Martin Cohen and Robert Steers, each directly and indirectly owned approximately 37.98% of our outstanding common stock. As long as Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers own a majority of the voting power of our common stock, they will be able to elect our entire Board of Directors and generally to determine the outcome of all corporate actions requiring stockholder approval.

ITEM 1:
ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Information Concerning the Nominees and Directors

Cohen & Steers' amended and restated certificate of incorporation provides that the Board of Directors will consist of that number of directors determined from time to time by the Board of Directors. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AT COHEN & STEERS

We regularly monitor regulatory developments and review our policies, processes and procedures in the area of corporate governance to respond to such developments. As part of those efforts, we review federal laws affecting corporate governance, such as the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as well as rules adopted by the SEC and the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE").

Corporate Governance Guidelines

The Board of Directors has adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines that address the following key corporate governance subjects, among others: director qualification standards; director responsibilities; director access to management and, as necessary and appropriate, independent advisors; director compensation; director orientation and continuing education; management succession; and an annual performance evaluation of the Board of Directors. Cohen & Steers' Corporate Governance Guidelines is available at our corporate website at cohenandsteers.com under the headings "Corporate Info/Corporate Governance." Further, Cohen & Steers will provide a copy of this document without charge to each stockholder upon written request. Requests for copies should be addressed to the Corporate Secretary, Cohen & Steers, Inc., 757 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017.

Code of Business Conduct and Ethics

The Board of Directors has adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics for its directors, officers, and employees which addresses these important topics, among others: conflicts of interest; corporate opportunities; confidentiality of information; fair dealing; protection and proper use of Cohen & Steers assets; compliance with laws, rules and regulations (including insider trading laws); and encouraging the reporting of any illegal or unethical behavior. The Board of Directors has also adopted a Code of Ethics for its Senior Financial Officers. The purpose of the Code of Ethics for Senior Financial Officers is to promote honest and ethical conduct and compliance with the law, particularly as related to the maintenance of our financial books and records and the preparation of its financial statements. Director Independence

Background. Under the NYSE's corporate governance rules, no director qualifies as independent unless Cohen & Steers' Board of Directors affirmatively determines that the director has no "material relationship" with Cohen & Steers, either directly or as a partner, stockholder, or officer of an organization that has a relationship with Cohen & Steers. In addition, directors who have relationships covered by one of five bright-line independence tests established by the NYSE, as discussed below, may not be found to be independent.

The NYSE's director independence requirements are designed to increase the quality of board oversight at listed companies and to lessen the possibility of damaging conflicts of interests. The NYSE's corporate governance rules do not define every relationship that will be considered material for purposes of determining a director's independence from Cohen & Steers' management. Material relationships can include commercial, industrial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting, charitable, and familial relationships, among others. As the concern is a director's independence from Cohen & Steers' management, however, the NYSE does not view the ownership of even a significant amount of Cohen & Steers stock, by itself, as a bar to an independence finding.

NYSE's bright-line independence tests. The NYSE has adopted five bright-line independence tests for directors. Each of these tests describes a specific set of circumstances that will cause a director to be not independent from Cohen & Steers' management. For example, a director who is an employee of Cohen & Steers, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer of Cohen & Steers, is not independent until three years after the end of the employment relationship. The other bright-line independence tests address circumstances involving: the receipt of more than $100,000 per year in direct compensation from Cohen & Steers, except for certain permitted payments such as director fees; employment by or affiliations with Cohen & Steers' current or former internal or external auditors; interlocking directorates; and certain business relationships involving companies that make payments to, or receive payments from, Cohen & Steers above specified annual thresholds. For more information about the NYSE's bright-line director independence tests, including the NYSE commentary explaining the application of the tests, please go to the NYSE Web site at nyse.com.

Categorical standards of director independence adopted by the Board of Directors. The NYSE's corporate governance rules permit a listed company's board of directors to adopt categorical standards of director independence. Categorical standards are intended to assist a board in making determinations of independence. The NYSE recognizes that the adoption and disclosure of categorical standards provide investors with an adequate means of assessing the quality of a

board's independence and its independence determinations while avoiding the excessive disclosure of immaterial relationships.

At its meeting on March 4, 2005, the Board of Directors, acting upon the recommendation of its Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, adopted categorical standards to assist it in determining whether or not certain relationships between the members of the Board of Directors and Cohen & Steers or its affiliates and subsidiaries (either directly or as partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with Cohen & Steers) are material relationships for purposes of the listing standards of the NYSE. The categorical standards address: (i) relationships arising in the ordinary course of business, such as asset management, acting as trustee, or other financial service relationships, so long as the services are being provided in the ordinary course of business and on substantially the same terms and conditions, including price, as would be available to similarly situated customers; (ii) relationships where a director is an executive officer or an employee, or whose immediate family member is an executive officer, of another company that makes payments to, or receives payment from, Cohen & Steers for property or services in an amount which, in any single fiscal year, are less than the greater of $1,000,000 or two percent of the consolidated gross revenues of such other company; (iii) relationships where a director beneficially owns, or is an employee of another company that beneficially owns, less than 10% of Cohen & Steers' common equity; (iv) relationships where a director is an executive officer or an employee of another company to which Cohen & Steers is indebted, and the total amount of the indebtedness is less than one percent of the total consolidated assets of the company for which he or she serves as an executive officer or an employee; and (v) relationships where a director serves as an officer, director or trustee of a charitable organization, and Cohen & Steers' discretionary charitable contributions to the organization are less than the greater of $1,000,000 or two percent of that organization's consolidated gross revenues.

Independence determinations made by the Board of Directors. At its meeting on March 4, 2005, the Board of Directors made a determination as to the independence of each director, in accordance with the applicable NYSE corporate governance rules. The Board of Directors determined at this meeting that each of Messrs. Bruce, Rhein, Simon and Villani has no material relationship with Cohen & Steers (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with Cohen & Steers) and is "independent" as defined in the NYSE listing standards and the applicable SEC rules. Certain of these directors have or may have one or more relationships that meet the categorical standards of independence adopted by the Board of Directors. At this meeting, the Board of Directors considered, but did not believe to be material, the fact that Cohen & Steers, through its advisory clients, owned approximately 8% of the outstanding common stock of Health Care Property Investors, Inc., a company for which Mr. Rhein serves on the board of directors and is the chairman of the audit committee. The Board of Directors further determined that each of Messrs. Cohen and Steers were not independent. No director participated in the final determination of his or her own independence.

Consideration of Director Candidates

The policy of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is to consider properly submitted stockholder recommendations for candidates for membership on the Board of Directors as described below under "Identifying and Evaluating Candidates for Directors." In evaluating such recommendations, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee seeks to achieve a balance of knowledge, experience and capability on the Board of Directors and to address the membership criteria set forth below under "Director Qualifications." Any stockholder recommendations for consideration by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee should include the nominee's name and qualifications for Board of Directors membership. The recommending stockholder should also submit evidence of the stockholder's ownership of shares of Cohen & Steers, including the number of shares owned and the length of time of ownership. The recommendation should be addressed to the Corporate Secretary, Cohen & Steers, Inc., 757 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017.

Director Qualifications. Cohen & Steers' Corporate Governance Guidelines contain Board of Directors membership criteria that apply to Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee-recommended candidates for a position on Cohen & Steers' Board of Directors. The minimum qualifications for serving as a member of the Board of Directors are that a person demonstrate, by significant accomplishment in his or her field, an ability to make a meaningful contribution to the Board of Directors' oversight of the business and affairs of Cohen & Steers and that a person have an impeccable record and reputation for honest and ethical conduct in both his or her professional and personal activities. In addition, nominees for director are selected on the basis of, among other things, experience, knowledge, skills, expertise, diversity, ability to make independent analytical inquiries, understanding of Cohen & Steers' business environment and willingness to devote adequate time and effort to the responsibilities of the Board of Directors. Each director must represent the interests of all of Cohen & Steers' stockholders.

Identifying and Evaluating Candidates for Director. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee identifies potential nominees by asking current directors and executive officers to notify the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee if they become aware of persons meeting the criteria described above. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also may engage firms that specialize in identifying director candidates. As described above, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will also consider candidates recommended by stockholders.

Once a person has been identified by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee as a potential candidate, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may collect and review publicly available information regarding the person to assess whether the person should be considered further. If the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee determines that the candidate warrants further consideration, the Chairman or a person designated by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee contacts the person. Generally, if the person expresses a willingness to be considered and to serve on the Board of Directors, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee requests information from the candidate and reviews the person's accomplishments and qualifications. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's evaluation process does not vary based on whether or not a candidate is recommended by a stockholder, although the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may take into consideration the number of shares held by the recommending stockholder and the length of time that such shares have been held.

There are no nominees for election to our Board of Directors this year who have not previously served as a Cohen & Steers director.

Executive Sessions

Executive sessions of non-management directors are held at least four times a year. "Non-management directors" include all directors who are not Cohen & Steers officers. Currently, Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers are the only Cohen & Steers officers serving on the Board of Directors. Each session will be chaired by one of the non-management members of the Board of Directors on a rotating basis. Any non-management director can request that an additional executive session be scheduled.

Communications with the Board

The Board of Directors has established a process to receive communications from stockholders and other interested parties. Stockholders and other interested parties may contact any member (or all members) of the Board of Directors (including without limitation the director that presides over the executive sessions of non-management directors, or the non-management directors as a group), any Board of Directors committee or any chair of any such committee by mail or electronically. To communicate with the Board of Directors, any individual directors or any group or committee of directors, correspondence should be addressed to the Board of Directors or any such individual directors or group or committee of directors by either name or title. All such correspondence should be sent c/o General Counsel, Cohen & Steers, Inc., 757 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017. To communicate with any of our directors electronically, stockholders

should go to our corporate website at cohenandsteers.com. Under the headings “Corporate Info/Board of Directors/Contact the Board of Directors,” stockholders may find the e-mail address board_communications@cohenandsteers.com, which may be used for writing an electronic message to the Board of Directors, any individual director, or any group or committee of directors. Please follow the instructions on our website in order to send your message.

All communications received as set forth in the preceding paragraph will be opened by Cohen & Steers' Associate General Counsel for the sole purpose of determining whether the contents represent a message to our directors. Any contents that are not in the nature of advertising, promotions of a product or service, or patently offensive material will be forwarded promptly to the addressee. In the case of communications to the Board of Directors or any group or committee of directors, sufficient copies of the contents will be made for each director who is a member of the group or committee to which the envelope or e-mail is addressed. Concerns relating to accounting, internal controls or auditing matters are brought to the attention of the Chairman of the Audit Committee and handled in accordance with procedures established by the Audit Committee with respect to such matters.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE BOARD AND ITS COMMITTEES

The Board of Directors has three standing committees: an Audit Committee; a Compensation Committee; and a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The current charters for each of the Audit Committee, Compensation Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are available on our corporate website at cohenandsteers.com under the headings “Corporate Info/Corporate Governance.” Further, Cohen & Steers will provide a copy of these charters without charge to each stockholder upon written request. Requests for copies should be addressed to the Corporate Secretary, Cohen & Steers, Inc., 757 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017.

The Audit Committee

The Board of Directors has a standing Audit Committee composed of Messrs. Rhein (Chair), Bruce, Simon and Villani that satisfies the requirements of SEC Rule 10A-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Rule 10A-3 establishes listing standards relating to audit committees in the following areas: the independence of audit committee members; the audit committee's responsibility to select and oversee the company's independent registered public accounting firm; procedures for handling complaints regarding the company's accounting practices; the authority of the audit committee to engage advisors; and funding for the independent registered public accounting firm and any outside advisors engaged by the audit committee. As previously stated, the Board of Directors has determined that each of Messrs. Bruce, Rhein, Simon and Villani has no material relationship with Cohen & Steers (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with Cohen & Steers) and is “independent” as defined in the NYSE listing standards and the applicable SEC rules. Furthermore, the Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Rhein qualifies as an “audit committee financial expert” as defined in the SEC rules and the Board of Directors has determined that each of Messrs. Bruce, Rhein, Simon and Villani has accounting and related financial management expertise within the meaning of the listing standards of the NYSE.

The Audit Committee's primary purposes are to assist Board of Director oversight of the following: the integrity of Cohen & Steers' financial statements; the independent registered public accounting firm's qualifications and independence; the performance of Cohen & Steers' internal audit function and independent registered public accounting firm; and the compliance by Cohen & Steers with legal and regulatory requirements. The Audit Committee also prepares the audit committee report as required by the SEC's rules for inclusion in Cohen & Steers' annual proxy statement. The Audit Committee's charter, as approved by the Board of Directors on March 4, 2005, is included as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement.

The Audit Committee regularly holds separate sessions with Cohen & Steers' management, internal auditors, and independent registered public accounting firm. The Audit Committee's procedures for the pre-approval of the audit and permitted non-audit services are described in “

Item 2: Ratification of the Appointment of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm—Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policy.”

The Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is responsible for administering Cohen & Steers' stock award and incentive plans and establishing the compensation for Cohen & Steers' executive officers. The Compensation Committee is presently composed of Messrs. Villani (Chair), Bruce, Rhein and Simon. As previously stated, the Board of Directors has determined that each of Messrs. Bruce, Rhein, Simon and Villani has no material relationship with Cohen & Steers (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with Cohen & Steers) and is “independent” as defined in the NYSE listing standards and the applicable SEC rules.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for the following: assisting the Board of Directors by identifying individuals qualified to become Board of Directors members, and to recommend to the Board of Directors the director nominees for the next annual meeting of stockholders; recommending to the Board of Directors the Corporate Governance Guidelines applicable to Cohen & Steers; leading the Board of Directors in its annual review of the Board of Directors and management's performance; and recommending to the Board of Directors director nominees for each committee. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is presently composed of Messrs. Simon (Chair), Bruce, Rhein and Villani. As previously stated, the Board of Directors has determined that each of Messrs. Bruce, Rhein, Simon and Villani has no material relationship with Cohen & Steers (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with Cohen & Steers) and is “independent” as defined in the NYSE listing standards and the applicable SEC rules.

Meetings of the Board's Committees

The Board of Directors met three times during 2004. During 2004, the Board of Directors' committees held the following number of meetings: Audit Committee—three meetings; Compensation Committee—two meetings; Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee—two meetings. You should note that Cohen & Steers completed its initial public offering on August 18, 2004, at which time the Board of Directors was expanded to six members and at which time committee members were appointed. In 2004, each director then serving attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and each committee of the Board of Directors on which such director served.

The Board of Directors believes that it is important for stockholders to have the opportunity to meet and talk to the independent members of the Board of Directors. Therefore, the Board of Directors generally schedules a board meeting in conjunction with our annual stockholders' meeting and expects directors, absent valid reasons, to attend the stockholders' meeting. No annual meeting of stockholders has been held, since Cohen & Steers consummated its initial public offering in 2004.

Compensation of Directors

Our policy is not to pay director compensation to directors who are also our employees. Each outside director will receive an annual retainer of $50,000, half of which is payable quarterly in cash and half of which is payable quarterly in restricted stock units and $1,500 for each board or committee meeting attended by such director. The restricted stock units are granted under the Cohen & Steers, Inc. 2004 Stock Incentive Plan and are 100% vested on the date of grant. In general, the shares of common stock underlying the restricted stock units granted to a director will be delivered to the director on the third anniversary of the date of grant. Dividends on these restricted stock units are accrued and will be paid in cash on the delivery date of the shares of common stock underlying such restricted stock units. In addition, the chair of the Audit Committee receives an additional annual retainer of $7,500. Outside directors receive no compensation from Cohen & Steers other than compensation as directors of Cohen & Steers.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

In accordance with and to the extent permitted by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), the information contained in the following Report of the Audit Committee shall not be incorporated by reference into any of Cohen & Steers' future filings made under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed under the Exchange Act or the Securities Act.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Board of Directors has appointed an Audit Committee composed of four directors, each of whom is independent as defined in the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Rhein is an “audit committee financial expert,” as that term is defined in the SEC rules.

The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee. A copy of that charter is included as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement and is available on our corporate website at cohenandsteers.com under the headings “Corporate Info/Corporate Governance.” The Audit Committee's job is one of oversight as set forth in its charter. It is not the duty of the Audit Committee to prepare Cohen & Steers' financial statements, to plan or conduct audits, or to determine that Cohen & Steers' financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Cohen & Steers' management is responsible for preparing Cohen & Steers' financial statements and for maintaining internal control and disclosure controls and procedures. The independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for auditing the financial statements and expressing an opinion as to whether those audited financial statements fairly present the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows of Cohen & Steers in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed Cohen & Steers' audited financial statements with management and with Deloitte & Touche LLP, Cohen & Steers' independent registered public accounting firm for 2004.

The Audit Committee has discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP the matters required by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as amended and Rule 2-07 of Regulation S-X.

The Audit Committee has received from Deloitte & Touche LLP the written statements required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and has discussed Deloitte & Touche LLP's independence with Deloitte & Touche LLP, and has considered the compatibility of nonaudit services with the auditor's independence.

Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in Cohen & Steers' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 for filing with the SEC.

2005 Executive Officer Annual Compensation

On December 10, 2004, the Compensation Committee set the 2005 annual salary for each of our named executive officers as follows: Mr. Cohen ($500,000), Mr. Steers ($500,000), Mr. Harvey ($400,000), Mr. Corl ($300,000) and Mr. McCombe ($300,000). On March 4, 2005, the Compensation Committee determined the maximum incentive awards for each of our executive officers and for all of the employees of the firm as a whole. These annual incentive awards were expressed as a percentage of Cohen & Steers' pre-incentive and pre-tax operating income, excluding adjustments for extraordinary items. The Compensation Committee may exercise its discretion to reduce or eliminate an executive officer's award, based on its assessment of the officer's performance.

In order to retain Cohen & Steers' executive officers and promote stock ownership, for fiscal year 2005, 15% of the annual incentive awards made to the named executive officers will be mandatorily deferred pursuant to the Mandatory Stock Bonus Program under the Cohen & Steers 2004 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Stock Incentive Plan"). Under the terms of the Mandatory Stock Bonus Program, Cohen & Steers matches 25% of the mandatory deferred amount, and any dividends paid by Cohen & Steers on its common stock will be accrued in additional restricted stock units on such deferred and company match amounts. For fiscal year 2005, the deferred amount, the company match, and all accrued dividends vest on the third anniversary of the grant.

Our key employees, including the foregoing named executive officers, may voluntarily defer up to 25% of their annual incentive award pursuant to the Optional Stock Purchase Program under the Stock Incentive Plan. Prior to December 31, 2004, each of the foregoing named executive officers made their voluntary deferral election under the Optional Stock Purchase Program for the annual incentive bonus for fiscal year 2005. Under the terms of the Optional Stock Bonus Program, Cohen & Steers matches 25% of the voluntary deferred amount and any dividends paid by Cohen & Steers on its common stock will be accrued in additional restricted stock units on such deferred and company match amounts. Pursuant to the terms of the Optional Stock Purchase Program, the voluntarily deferred amounts are immediately vested and the company match and accrued dividends vest on the third anniversary of the grant. For fiscal year 2005, each of Messrs. Cohen (25%), Steers (25%), Harvey (25%) and Corl (10%) elected to defer a portion of their bonus pursuant to the Optional Stock Purchase Program.

Report of the Compensation Committee

The following is the compensation report to stockholders on Cohen & Steers' executive compensation policies with respect to compensation reported for fiscal year 2004. In accordance with the rules of the SEC, this report shall not be incorporated by reference into any of Cohen & Steers' future filings made under the Exchange Act or under the Securities Act, and shall not be deemed to be soliciting material or to be filed under the Exchange Act or the Securities Act.

Compensation Committee Report on Executive Compensation for Fiscal Year 2004

Introduction

The Compensation Committee, comprised entirely of independent directors, meets to review and approve the elements of the executive compensation program for key officers. In doing so, the Compensation Committee wants to maintain programs that are effective in attracting and retaining officers capable of making significant contributions to the long-term success of Cohen & Steers. The Compensation Committee will:

- Review Cohen & Steers' executive compensation programs for appropriate alignment with our financial results and shareholder interests;
- Review and adopt, or recommend to the Board of Directors, as appropriate, the adoption of new, or the amendment of existing, executive compensation plans, consistent with the best interests of Cohen & Steers' stockholders;
- Review and approve actions associated with the annual incentive compensation program including the setting of annual goals, review of actual performance, and determination of bonuses based on that performance;
- Approve actions involving the base salaries, incentive awards and grants, and long-term awards, perquisites and other personal benefits provided to Cohen & Steers' executive officers; and
- Review and prepare reports and other material related to executive compensation disclosure.

The Compensation Committee functions as follows:

- Reviews and aligns Cohen & Steers' financial performance with the compensation paid to its executive officers;
- Utilizes compensation data from appropriate comparable companies in the financial services industry and key management positions obtained from a nationally-recognized independent compensation consulting firm. This compensation data covers a peer group of selected investment management industry companies that compete in markets served by Cohen & Steers; and
- Obtains assistance from:
 - A nationally-recognized independent compensation consulting firm; and
 - Cohen & Steers' internal support staff.

Cohen & Steers' executive compensation program is designed to be competitive so as to attract and retain key talent and be very closely aligned with our financial performance and shareholder interests. Towards that end, a large proportion of year-end compensation is delivered through variable compensation tied to performance. In addition, a portion of year-end compensation is delivered in the form of restricted stock.

The three primary components of Cohen & Steers' executive compensation program are base salary, annual incentive awards (bonus) and long-term incentive awards.

Base salary

Cohen & Steers' philosophy is to compensate its executives with a higher proportion of variable compensation in relation to base salary. With this approach, the vast majority of the compensation for its executives involves a high proportion of pay that is "at risk"- specifically, the annual bonus and long-term incentive awards. This enables Cohen & Steers to meet the requirements of the highly competitive environment in which Cohen & Steers operates while ensuring that executives are compensated in a way that advances the short- and long-term interests of stockholders.

Annual incentive awards

Annual incentive awards are bonuses designed to provide a linkage among executive performance, annual objective performance measures and long-term increases in stockholder value.

For the 2004 award period, annual incentive awards were made to the five executive officers listed in the compensation table under the Cohen & Steers 2004 Annual Incentive Plan (the "Annual Incentive Plan"). The Annual Incentive Plan is designed to give the Compensation Committee the flexibility to make annual incentive awards that are comparable to those found in the marketplace in which Cohen & Steers competes for talent. Further, the Annual Incentive Plan is designed to permit the payment of annual incentive awards that are intended to qualify as deductible, performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Following our initial public offering, in October 2004, the Compensation Committee determined the maximum incentive awards for each of the five executive officers listed in the compensation table and for all of our employees as a whole. These annual incentive awards were expressed as a percentage of Cohen & Steers' pre-incentive and pre-tax operating income, excluding adjustments for extraordinary items. The Compensation Committee may exercise its discretion to reduce or eliminate an executive officer's award, based on its assessment of the officer's performance.

During the fourth quarter of 2004, the Compensation Committee took the actions necessary to arrive at the actual amount of the annual incentive award for each of the five executive officers listed in the compensation table and for all of the employees of the firm as a whole. As part of this process, the Committee calculated the amounts based on actual results in accordance with the Annual Incentive Plan. For the key executives, the Committee then reviewed a wide range of company, fund and individual performance factors before finalizing annual bonus awards. For the top five executives, bonus amounts were either at or below the calculated amounts.

In order to retain Cohen & Steers' executive officers and promote stock ownership, for fiscal year 2004, 15% of the annual incentive awards made to the executive officers listed in the compensation table were mandatorily deferred pursuant to the Mandatory Stock Bonus Program under the Cohen & Steers 2004 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Stock Incentive Plan"). Under the terms of the Mandatory Stock Bonus Program, Cohen & Steers matches 25% of the mandatory deferred amount, and any dividends paid by Cohen & Steers on its common stock will be accrued in additional restricted stock units on such deferred and company match amounts. For fiscal year 2004, the deferred amount, the company match, and all accrued dividends vest on the third anniversary of grant.

Our key employees, including the executive officers, may voluntarily defer up to 25% of their annual incentive award pursuant to the Optional Stock Purchase Program under the Stock Incentive Plan. Under the terms of the Optional Stock Bonus Program, Cohen & Steers matches 25% of the voluntary deferred amount and any dividends paid by Cohen & Steers on its common stock will be accrued in additional restricted stock units on such deferred and company match amounts. Pursuant to the terms of the Optional Stock Purchase Program, the voluntarily deferred amounts are immediately vested and the company match and accrued dividends vest on the third anniversary of the grant. For fiscal year 2004, each of Messrs. Cohen (25%), Steers (25%), Harvey (25%) and McCombe (20%) elected to defer a portion of their bonus pursuant to the Optional Stock Purchase Program.

Long-term incentive awards

Restricted stock units and other annual incentive share awards may be made pursuant to the Stock Incentive Plan. The purposes of the Stock Incentive Award Plan are to attract, retain and motivate executives of outstanding ability and to promote the identification of their interests with those of Cohen & Steers' stockholders. The Compensation Committee believes that Cohen &

Steers' current long-term incentive program is effective and that the use of restricted stock units is a competitive way to address the important issue of retaining key executive talent.

At the time of our initial public offering, we granted 1,024,258, 511,695 and 513,965 restricted stock units to Messrs. Harvey, Corl and McCombe, respectively, in fulfillment of previously awarded stock appreciation rights in connection with the termination of the Cohen & Steers Stock Appreciation Rights Plan. These restricted stock units are 100% vested, and, subject to the participant's compliance with certain restrictive covenants, the shares of common stock underlying the restricted stock units will be delivered to each participant as follows: 20% on January 31, 2006, 40% on January 31, 2007 and 40% on January 31, 2008. Holders of these restricted stock units will be provided with dividend equivalent payments in amounts equal to dividends, if any, we pay to holders of our common stock.

On December 10, 2004, the Compensation Committee granted 61,050, 18,315 and 24,420 restricted stock units to Messrs. Harvey, Corl and McCombe, respectively. Subject to the participant's compliance with certain restrictive covenants, the shares of common stock underlying the restricted stock units will vest one-third ratably on each of January 1, 2006, 2007 and 2008. The holders of these restricted stock units are not entitled to dividend equivalent payments.

Co-Chief Executive Officer compensation

Cohen & Steers has entered into identical employment agreements with its co-chief executive officers, Martin Cohen and Robert H. Steers. Each employment agreement provides for a base salary of $500,000 and an annual bonus payment of at least $1,000,000, but no more than $5,000,000, as determined by the Compensation Committee. The bonus amount for 2004, however, was limited to $1,000,000.

The Compensation Committee authorized Mr. Cohen's and Mr. Steers' compensation package for 2004, which included base salary and an incentive award (including company match restricted stock units). The Compensation Committee's decisions regarding Mr. Cohen's and Mr. Steers' compensation are reported to and discussed by the full Board of Directors at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

The Compensation Committee authorized a base salary in the amount of $500,000 and an incentive award under the Annual Incentive Plan of $1,000,000 to each of Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers. Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers each received $600,000 of this incentive award in the form of cash and the remainder of the amount was awarded to each of them in the form of restricted stock units as follows: $150,000 was mandatorily deferred by Cohen & Steers pursuant to the Mandatory Stock Bonus Program under the Stock Incentive Plan and $250,000 was voluntarily deferred by the executives pursuant to the Optional Stock Bonus Program under the Stock Incentive Plan. The Compensation Committee also approved a $37,500 company match of restricted stock units on the mandatory deferral and a $62,500 company match of restricted stock units on the voluntary deferral.

Tax policy

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code disallows a federal income tax deduction for compensation exceeding $1 million paid to the chief executive officer and any of the executive officers included in the compensation tables preceding this report, subject to certain exceptions.

Pursuant to transitional rules set forth in the regulations under Section 162(m) of the Code, the $1 million deduction limit did not apply to the compensation paid to the co-chief executive officers and any of the executive officers of Cohen & Steers in 2004 and are not expected to apply to the compensation paid to the co-chief executive officers and any of the executive officers of Cohen & Steers in 2005. Accordingly, all such compensation paid prior to such time should be deductible by Cohen & Steers. While the Compensation Committee currently seeks to maximize the deductibility of compensation paid to such executive officers, it will maintain flexibility to take other actions that may be based on considerations other than tax deductibility.

Conclusion

Based upon its review of Cohen & Steers' executive compensation program, the Compensation Committee has concluded that the program's basic structure is appropriate, competitive and effective to serve the purposes for which it was created.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

Messrs. Villani, Bruce, Rhein and Simon, none of whom are officers or former officers of Cohen & Steers or any of its subsidiaries, served as the members of the Compensation Committee after the initial public offering of Cohen & Steers common stock on August 12, 2004. Prior to the initial public offering, Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers, as the sole members of our Board of Directors, historically made all determinations regarding executive officer compensation.

From time to time, certain members of the Compensation Committee may have investments in various Cohen & Steers investment products. Such transactions are made in the ordinary course of business and on substantially the same terms as any other client of Cohen & Steers.

Employment Agreements with Martin Cohen and Robert H. Steers

We have entered into identical employment agreements with Martin Cohen and Robert H. Steers (each, an "Executive"). Each employment agreement provides for the Executive's employment as our co-chief executive officer and co-chairman of the Board of Directors for a term of three years, subject to automatic, additional one-year extensions unless either party gives the other 60 days prior notice that the term will not be extended.

Each employment agreement provides for an annual base salary of $500,000 and an annual bonus payment of at least $1,000,000, but no more than $5,000,000, as determined by the Compensation Committee. The bonus amount for 2004, however, was limited to $1,000,000. During the term, each Executive will be entitled to:

(1) employee benefits that are no less favorable than those employee benefits provided to him before the offering; and

(2) participate in all of our employee benefit programs on a basis which is no less favorable than is provided to any of our other executives.

Termination of Employment

Pursuant to each employment agreement, if the Executive's employment terminates prior to the expiration of the term due to his death or disability, the Executive will be entitled to receive:

(1) a payment equal to his target annual bonus for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs;

(2) any accrued, but unpaid, base salary through the date of termination; and

As set forth in each employment agreement, if an Executive's employment is terminated prior to the expiration of the term by Cohen & Steers without "cause" or by the Executive for "good reason" or if Cohen & Steers elects not to extend the term (each a "qualifying termination"), the Executive will be entitled, subject to his compliance with certain restrictive covenants, to a lump sum payment equal to two times (three times in the case of a qualifying termination that occurs on or following a change in control) the sum of his annual base salary and his target annual bonus for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs. Any termination by Cohen & Steers without cause within six months prior to a change in control will be deemed to be a termination of employment on the date of such change in control.

In the event of a termination of an Executive's employment which is not a qualifying termination or a termination due to the Executive's death or disability (including if the Executive resigns without good reason), the Executive will be entitled to receive only the accrued but unpaid salary through the date of termination and earned but unpaid bonus for the previously completed fiscal year.

Each employment agreement generally provides that, if the Executive's employment terminates for any reason other than by Cohen & Steers for cause, the Executive and his spouse and dependents will be entitled to continued coverage under Cohen & Steers' medical plans in which he was participating at the time of such termination for the remainder of his life, subject to payment by the Executive of the same premiums he would have paid during such period of coverage if he were an active employee.

Restrictive Covenants

Non-competition. Pursuant to each employment agreement, during the term of the agreement and, if the Executive's employment is terminated by Cohen & Steers for cause or by the Executive without good reason or the Executive elects not to extend the term, for one year following such termination of employment, the Executive generally will be prohibited from:

- (1) seeking to provide or providing investment advisory services to certain persons to whom Cohen & Steers or any of its affiliates render services;
- (2) soliciting or seeking to induce or actually inducing certain of Cohen & Steers' employees or employees of its affiliates to discontinue their employment with Cohen & Steers or hiring or employing such employees;
- (3) competing with Cohen & Steers and its affiliates;
- (4) acquiring a financial interest in, or otherwise becoming actively involved with, any competitive business; and
- (5) interfering with, or attempting to interfere with, business relationships between Cohen & Steers or any of its affiliates and its customers, clients, suppliers, partners, members or investors.

Confidentiality, Intellectual Property and Non-Disclosure. Each Executive is subject to customary confidentiality, intellectual property and non-disclosure covenants, including a covenant which, in general, prohibits the Executive from disclosing, retaining or using for his or any other person's benefit confidential information of Cohen & Steers and its affiliates and a covenant which, in general, requires the Executive to assign, transfer and convey to Cohen & Steers all rights and intellectual rights to any works of authorship, inventions, intellectual property, materials, documents or other work product by the Executive.

If the Executive breaches any of the restrictive covenants or the confidentiality, intellectual property or non-disclosure covenants, in addition to any remedies at law, the Executive agrees that Cohen & Steers will be entitled to cease making any payments or providing any benefit otherwise required by the employment agreement and obtain equitable relief in the form of specific performance, temporary restraining order, temporary or permanent injunction or any other equitable remedy which may then be available.

If a dispute arises out of the employment agreement with an Executive, Cohen & Steers will pay the Executive's reasonable legal fees and expenses incurred in connection with such dispute if the Executive prevails in substantially all material respects on the issues presented for resolution. In addition, each employment agreement provides that, in the event payments under an employment agreement or otherwise result in a parachute excise tax to the Executive, he will be entitled to a gross up payment equal to the amount of the excise tax, as well as the excise tax and income tax on the gross up payment.

Each employment agreement also provides that upon a termination of the Executive's employment for any reason, in general, the Executive will retain the right to use his name in connection with future business ventures.

COMMON STOCK PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The following graph compares the cumulative total stockholder return on Cohen & Steers' common stock from August 13, 2004 (the date Cohen & Steers common stock first began trading on the NYSE) through December 31, 2004, with the cumulative total return of the Standard & Poor's 500 Stock Index ("S&P 500") and the SNL Asset Manager Index*. The graph assumes the investment of $100 in Cohen & Steers' common stock and in each of the two indices on August 13, 2004 and the reinvestment of all dividends, if any. The initial public offering price of Cohen & Steers' common stock was $13.00 per share.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Cohen & Steers Mutual Funds

The mutual funds for which we are the investment advisor are funds that we established and are marketed under the Cohen & Steers name. Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers, our chairmen and co-chief executive officers, serve as directors and officers of each Cohen & Steers closed-end and open-end mutual fund. Mr. Steers serves as director, chairman and secretary and Mr. Cohen serves as a director, president and treasurer of each of the funds. Mr. Steers and Mr. Cohen do not receive compensation for their services from any Cohen & Steers mutual fund. There are no relationships between our other directors and the Cohen & Steers mutual funds or the institutional separate accounts for which we are the investment advisor.

In 2004, we earned advisory fee revenue of $77.6 million and administration fee revenue of $3.4 million from these affiliated funds. In 2004 distribution and service fee revenue from such funds aggregated $10.2 million.

S Corporation Distributions and Tax Indemnification Agreement

Since we were organized in 1986, we had been treated for federal and certain state income tax purposes as an S corporation under Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code and comparable state laws. As a result, our earnings had been taxed, with certain exceptions, directly to our stockholders, Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers, rather than to us, leaving our stockholders responsible for paying income taxes on these earnings. We historically paid distributions to our stockholders to enable them to pay their income tax liabilities as a result of our status as an S corporation and, from time to time, to distribute previously undistributed S corporation earnings and profits. We paid $37.7 million in S-corporation distributions to Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers in 2004, including a final distribution payment of $20.7 million on September 29, 2004, which included all of the previously undistributed taxable operating income earned by us prior to the revocation of our S-corporation election.

We have entered into a tax indemnification agreement with Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers. Although we believe that we have met the requirements for an S corporation, the agreement provides for, among other things, Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers to indemnify us for any additional U.S. federal and state income taxes, including interest and penalties, incurred by us if for any reason we are deemed to have been a C corporation during any period in which we reported our taxable income as an S corporation. The tax indemnification obligation of Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers will be limited to the aggregate amount of all distributions we made to them to pay taxes during any time that we reported our taxable income as an S corporation but are deemed to have been a C corporation. The agreement also provides for payment by Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers to us and by us to Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers to adjust for any increases or decreases in tax liability arising from a tax audit that affects our tax liability and results in a corresponding adjustment to the tax liability of Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers. We will increase, or gross up, our indemnification payments to Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers to the extent necessary to take into account the increase in current tax liability incurred by Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers on account of the indemnification payments. The amount of any payment cannot exceed the amount of benefit received by us or Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers attributable to the adjustment in tax liability. If we are required to make substantial payments under this tax indemnification agreement, it could adversely affect our financial condition.

Registration Rights Agreement

Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers have entered into a registration rights agreement with Cohen & Steers, pursuant to which we have granted to them, their affiliates and certain of their transferees the right, as described below, to require us to register under the Securities Act shares of common stock (and other securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for shares of common stock) held by them. Such registration rights are generally available to the rights holders until registration under the Securities Act is no longer required to enable them to resell the registrable securities owned by them. The registration rights agreement provides, among other things, that we will pay all expenses in connection with the first ten demand registrations requested by the rights holders and in connection with any registration commenced by us in which the rights holders participate through "piggyback" registration rights granted under such agreement. We have the right to postpone any demand registration if to register would require an audit of us other than our regular audit, if another registration statement which was not effected on Form S-3 has been declared effective under the Securities Act within 180 days or, for a period of 90 days, if we determine that it is in our best interests to do so. The rights of the rights holders to exercise their "piggyback" registration rights are subject to our right to reduce on a pro rata basis among all requesting holders the number of requested shares of common stock to be registered if in the opinion of the managing underwriter the total number of shares to be so registered exceeds that number which may be sold without having an adverse effect on the price, timing or distribution of the offering of the shares.

Agreements to Waive Investment Advisory Fees and Bear Expenses

We reduce the expenses of eight of the thirteen mutual funds for which we are the investment advisor by waiving investment advisory fees (which reduces our revenue by an amount equal to the fees waived) or bearing expenses (which increases our expenses by an amount equal to the expenses borne) otherwise payable by these funds. We have contractually agreed with:

- five of the eight closed-end mutual funds for which we are the investment advisor to waive up to 49% of our investment advisory fees for 10 years following the commencement of the fund's operations;
- two of the five open-end mutual funds for which we are the investment advisor to waive our investment advisory fees and/or reimburse the open-end mutual funds so that their expenses do not exceed between 1.15% and 2.30% of their net assets; and
- a third open-end mutual fund, Cohen & Steers Institutional Realty Shares, Inc., to bear all of this fund's operating expenses.

When we waive investment advisory fees or bear expenses otherwise payable by a mutual fund, this provides a direct benefit to the mutual fund investors by lowering the expenses associated with investing in the fund and improving the fund's investment performance. These agreements to waive fees and bear expenses reduce our revenue and increase our expenses, and thereby reduce our operating income, by an amount equal to the fees waived or expenses borne. We agree to waive investment advisory fees and bear expenses payable by a mutual fund because we believe this enhances the sales effort for the fund and thereby increases the assets that we manage.

Although the agreements we have with closed-end mutual funds to waive investment advisory fees otherwise payable by the funds specify that they are to begin to expire in 2006 and continuing through 2012, this would reduce the investment performance of the funds and may not occur. Each of our investment advisory agreements with a mutual fund, including the fees payable under the agreement, is subject, following the initial two year term, to annual approval by the mutual fund's Board of Directors, including at least a majority of the independent directors.

The table below describes each closed-end mutual fund's investment advisory fee that is scheduled to be charged giving effect to the amount of the fee that we have agreed to waive for each year.

We have also agreed to waive fees and/or bear expenses for Cohen & Steers Realty Income Fund, Inc. and Cohen & Steers Utility Fund, Inc. for a one-year period. In contrast to the fee waivers on the closed-end mutual funds, the decision of whether to extend the open-end mutual fund waivers and bear expenses is considered annually.

Internet Realty Partners, L.P.

Since March 2000, we have provided investment advisory and management services to Internet Realty Partners, L.P. (“IRP”), a limited partnership formed to invest in real estate-related technology companies. A number of our employees, including Mr. Cohen, Mr. Steers, Mr. Harvey, Mr. Corl, Mr. Derechin, Mr. McCombe and Mr. Stoller, have invested in and/or act in the capacity of directors or officers of IRP. In addition, Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers, and certain family trusts of Mr. Cohen and Mr. Steers, own in the aggregate a 50% interest in IRP Management, LLC (“IRP Management”), the general partner to IRP. Mr. Harvey owns a less than 5% interest in the General Partner. We are contractually entitled to a management fee for our services as investment advisor and manager equal to 2% of the value of the total commitments of the partners of IRP less the cost basis of any investments sold by IRP and distributed to the IRP partners. However, because it has been doubtful that IRP will be able to pay us our management fee, we did not record any revenue for this arrangement in 2003 and 2004. In addition, IRP Management is entitled to receive 25% of IRP's profits after repayment of the Partners' capital contributions (“Carried Interest Distributions”). As of this date, IRP Management has not received any Carried Interest Distributions and there is no current expectation that any Carried Interest Distributions will be made to IRP Management. As of December 31, 2004, the total assets of IRP were approximately $4.7 million.

Transactions with Directors

Gunn, Steers & Co., Inc., a company in which Mr. Steers' brother owns a minority interest (“Gunn Steers”), serves as an insurance broker for Cohen & Steers. Although Cohen & Steers makes no direct payments to Gunn Steers, Cohen & Steers has been informed that the various insurance carriers that provide insurance coverage to Cohen & Steers paid to Gunn Steers commissions in the amount of $110,825 in 2004.

From time to time, certain members of the Compensation Committee may have investments in various Cohen & Steers investment products. Such transactions are made in the ordinary course of business and on substantially the same terms as any other client of Cohen & Steers.

ITEM 2: RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

At its meeting on March 4, 2005, the Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of its Audit Committee, appointed Deloitte & Touche LLP to serve as Cohen & Steers' independent registered public accounting firm for the current fiscal year ending December 31, 2005. Representatives of the firm of Deloitte & Touche LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and will have an opportunity to make a statement if they so desire and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Recommendation of the Board

The Board of Directors recommends a vote “FOR” the ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm for the current fiscal year ending December 31, 2005.

Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policy

In accordance with the Cohen & Steers Audit Committee Pre-Approval Policy (the "Pre-Approval Policy"), all audit and non-audit services performed for Cohen & Steers by Cohen & Steers' independent registered public accounting firm were pre-approved by the Audit Committee, which concluded that the provision of such services by Deloitte &

Touche was compatible with the maintenance of that firm's independence in the conduct of its auditing functions.

The responsibility for pre-approval of audit and permitted non-audit services includes pre-approval of the fees for such services (even though the pre-approval of fees is not required by the SEC rules) and the other terms of the engagement.

Periodically, and no later than at its first meeting of each fiscal year, the Audit Committee reviews and pre-approves all audit, audit-related, tax and all other services that we expect to be performed by Cohen & Steers' independent registered public accounting firm for Cohen & Steers. The term of the pre-approval is 12 months from the date of pre-approval, unless the Audit Committee specifically provides for a different period.

In the intervals between the scheduled meetings of the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee delegates pre-approval authority under the Pre-Approval Policy to the Chairman of the Audit Committee. The Chairman must report any pre-approval decisions under the Policy to the Audit Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

REQUIREMENTS, INCLUDING DEADLINES, FOR SUBMISSION OF PROXY PROPOSALS, NOMINATION OF DIRECTORS AND OTHER BUSINESS OF STOCKHOLDERS

In accordance with the rules of the SEC, to be considered for inclusion in our Proxy Statement and form of proxy for our 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, a stockholder proposal must be received by us at our principal executive offices at 757 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017 by December 2, 2005. The proposal should be sent to the attention of the Corporate Secretary of Cohen & Steers.

In addition, our Bylaws set forth procedures to be followed by stockholders who wish to bring business before an annual meeting of stockholders or nominate candidates for election to the Board of Directors at an annual meeting of stockholders. Such procedures require that the stockholder give timely written notice to the Corporate Secretary of Cohen & Steers. To be timely, such notice must be delivered to the principal executive offices of Cohen & Steers not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, provided, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is more than 20 days before or more than 70 days after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder must be delivered not earlier than the 120th day prior to and not later than the later of the 90th day prior to such annual meeting or the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of such meeting is first made.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors knows of no other business to be presented at the meeting. If, however, any other business should properly come before the meeting, or any adjournment thereof, it is intended that the proxy will be voted with respect thereto in accordance with the best judgment of the persons named in the proxy.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Lawrence B. Stoller
Corporate Secretary

COHEN & STEERS, INC.
AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS CHARTER

The purpose of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) is to:

A. Provide assistance to the Board of Directors (the “Board of Directors”) of Cohen & Steers, Inc. (the “Company”) in fulfilling its responsibility to the stockholders of the Company with respect to its oversight of:

- (i) The quality and integrity of the Company's financial statements;
- (ii) The Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements;
- (iii) The independent auditor's qualifications and independence; and
- (iv) The performance of the Company's internal audit function and independent auditors.

B. Prepare the report that Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) rules require be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

II. STRUCTURE AND OPERATIONS

Composition and Qualifications

The Committee shall be comprised of three or more members of the Board of Directors, each of whom is determined by the Board of Directors to be “independent” under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (the “NYSE”) and the rules of the SEC. No member of the Committee may serve on the audit committee of more than three public companies, including the Company, unless the Board of Directors (i) determines that such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such member to effectively serve on the Committee and (ii) discloses such determination in the annual proxy statement.

All members of the Committee shall be financially literate (as such qualification is interpreted by the Board of Directors in its business judgment) and at least one member must be an “audit committee financial expert” as determined by the Board of Directors, in compliance with the criteria established by the SEC and the NYSE. Committee members may enhance their familiarity with finance and accounting by participating in educational programs conducted by the Company or by an outside consultant.

No member of the Committee shall receive compensation from the Company other than (i) director's fees for service as a director of the Company, including reasonable compensation for serving on the Committee and regular benefits that other directors receive and (ii) a pension or similar compensation for past performance, provided that such compensation is not conditioned on continued or future service to the Company.

Appointment and Removal

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors and shall serve until such member's successor is duly elected and qualified or until such member's earlier resignation or removal. The members of the Committee may be removed, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Chairman

Unless a Chairman is elected by the full Board of Directors, the members of the Committee shall designate a Chairman by the majority vote of the full Committee membership. The Chairman shall be entitled to cast a vote to resolve any ties. The Chairman will chair all regular sessions of the Committee and set the agendas for Committee meetings.

Delegation to Subcommittees

In fulfilling its responsibilities, the Committee shall be entitled to delegate any or all of its responsibilities to a subcommittee of the Committee.

III. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet at least quarterly, or more frequently as circumstances dictate. As part of its goal to foster open communication, the Committee shall periodically meet separately with each of management, the internal auditors and the independent auditors to discuss any matters that the Committee or each of these groups believe would be appropriate to discuss privately. In addition, the Committee should meet with the independent auditors and management quarterly to review the Company's financial statements in a manner consistent with that outlined in Section IV of this Charter. The Chairman or, if applicable, each co-Chairman of the Board of Directors or any member of the Committee may call meetings of the Committee. All meetings of the Committee may be held telephonically.

All non-management directors that are not members of the Committee may attend meetings of the Committee but may not vote. Additionally, the Committee may invite to its meetings any director, management of the Company and such other persons as it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities. The Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

The following functions shall be the common recurring activities of the Committee in carrying out its responsibilities. These functions should serve as a guide with the understanding that the Committee may carry out additional functions and adopt additional policies and procedures as may be appropriate in light of changing business, legislative, regulatory, legal or other conditions. The Committee shall also carry out any other responsibilities and duties delegated to it by the Board of Directors from time to time.

The Committee, in discharging its oversight role, is empowered to study or investigate any matter of interest or concern that the Committee deems appropriate. In this regard, the Committee shall have the authority to retain outside legal, accounting or other advisors for this purpose, including the authority to approve the fees payable to such advisors and any other terms of retention.

The Committee shall be given full access to the internal auditors, Board of Directors, corporate executives and independent accountants as necessary to carry out these responsibilities. While acting within the scope of its stated purpose, the Committee shall have all the authority of the Board of Directors.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee is not responsible for certifying the Company's financial statements or guaranteeing the auditor's report. The fundamental responsibility for the Company's financial statements and disclosures rests with management and the independent auditors.

Documents/Reports Review

1. Review with management and the independent auditors prior to public dissemination the Company's annual audited financial statements and quarterly financial statements, including the

A-2

Company's disclosures under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and a discussion with the independent auditors of the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61.

2. Review and discuss with management and the independent auditors the Company's earnings press releases (paying particular attention to the use of any "pro forma" or "adjusted" non-GAAP information), as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies. The Committee's discussion in this regard may be general in nature (i.e., discussion of the types of information to be disclosed and the type of presentation to be made) and need not take place in advance of each earnings release or each instance in which the Company may provide earnings guidance.

3. Perform any functions required to be performed by it or otherwise appropriate under applicable law, rules or regulations, the Company's by-laws and the resolutions or other directives of the Board, including review of any certification required to be reviewed in accordance with applicable law or regulations of the SEC.

Independent Auditors

4. Retain and terminate independent auditors and approve all audit engagement fees and terms.

5. Inform each registered public accounting firm performing work for the Company that such firm shall report directly to the Committee.

6. Oversee the work of any registered public accounting firm employed by the Company, including the resolution of any disagreement between management and the auditor regarding financial reporting, for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work.

7. Approve in advance any significant audit or non-audit engagement or relationship between the Company and the independent auditors, other than "prohibited non-auditing services".

The following shall be "prohibited non-auditing services": (i) bookkeeping or other services related to the accounting records or financial statements of the audit client; (ii) financial information systems design and implementation; (iii) appraisal or valuation services, providing fairness opinions or preparing contribution-in-kind reports; (iv) actuarial services; (v) internal audit outsourcing services; (vi) management functions or human resources; (vii) broker or dealer, investment adviser or investment banking services; (viii) legal services and expert services unrelated to the audit; and (ix) any other service that the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board prohibits through regulation.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, pre-approval is not necessary for services other than audit, review or attest services if: (i) the aggregate amount of all such non-audit services provided to the Company constitutes not more than five percent of the total amount of revenues paid by the Company to its auditor during the fiscal year in which the non-audit services are provided; (ii) such services were not recognized by the Company at the time of the engagement to be non-audit services; and (iii) such services are promptly brought to the attention of the Committee and approved prior to the completion of the audit by the Committee or by one or more members of the Committee who are members of the Board to whom authority to grant such approvals has been delegated by the Committee. The Committee may delegate to one or more of its members the authority to pre-approve any audit or non-audit services to be provided by the independent auditors so long as it is presented to the full Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

8. Review, at least annually, the qualifications, performance and independence of the independent auditors. In conducting its review and evaluation, the Committee should:

(a) Obtain and review a report by the Company's independent auditor describing: (i) the auditing firm's internal quality-control procedures; (ii) any material issues raised by the most recent internal quality-control review, or peer review, of the auditing firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the auditing firm, and any steps taken to deal with any such issues; and (iii) to assess the auditor's independence, all relationships between the independent auditor and the Company;

(b) Ensure the rotation of the lead audit partner at least every five years, and consider whether there should be regular rotation of the audit firm itself;

(c) Confirm with any independent auditor retained to provide audit services for any fiscal year that the lead (or coordinating) audit partner (having primary responsibility for the audit), or the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit, has not performed audit services for the Company in each of the five previous fiscal years of the Company; and

(d) Take into account the opinions of management and the internal auditors (or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function).

Financial Reporting Process

9. In consultation with the independent auditors, management and the internal auditors, review the integrity of the Company's financial reporting processes, both internal and external. In that connection, the Committee should obtain and discuss with management and the independent auditor reports from management and the independent auditor regarding: (i) all critical accounting policies and practices to be used by the Company; (ii) analyses prepared by management and/or the independent auditor setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including all alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed with the Company's management, the ramifications of the use of the alternative disclosures and treatments, and the treatment preferred by the independent auditor; (iii) major issues regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentations, including any significant changes in the Company's selection or application of accounting principles; (iv) major issues as to the adequacy of the Company's internal controls and any specific audit steps adopted in light of material control deficiencies; and (v) any other material written communications between the independent auditor and the Company's management.

10. Review periodically the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives, as well as off-balance sheet structures, on the financial statements of the Company.

11. Review with the independent auditor (i) any audit problems or other difficulties encountered by the auditor in the course of the audit process, including any restrictions on the scope of the independent auditor's activities or on access to requested information, and any significant disagreements with management and (ii) management's responses to such matters. Without excluding other possibilities, the Committee may wish to review with the independent auditor (i) any accounting adjustments that were noted or proposed by the auditor but were "passed" (as immaterial or otherwise), (ii) any communications between the audit team and the audit firm's national office respecting auditing or accounting issues presented by the engagement and (iii) any "management" or "internal control" letter issued, or proposed to be issued, by the independent auditor to the Company.

12. Review and discuss with the independent auditor the responsibilities, budget and staffing of the Company's internal audit function.

Legal Compliance/General

13. Review periodically, with the Company's counsel, any legal matter that could have a significant impact on the Company's financial statements.

14. Discuss with management and the independent auditors the Company's guidelines and policies with respect to risk assessment and risk management. The Committee should discuss the Company's major financial risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures.

15. Set clear hiring policies for employees or former employees of the independent auditors. At a minimum, these policies should provide that any registered public accounting firm may not provide audit services to the Company if the CEO or, if applicable, a co-CEO, controller, CFO, chief accounting officer or any person serving in an equivalent capacity for the Company was employed by the registered public accounting firm and participated in the audit of the Company within one year of the initiation of the current audit.

16. Establish procedures for: (i) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, or auditing matters; and (ii) the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

Reports

17. Prepare all reports required to be included in the Company's proxy statement, pursuant to and in accordance with applicable rules and regulations of the SEC.

18. Report regularly to the full Board of Directors including:

(i) with respect to any issues that arise with respect to the quality or integrity of the Company's financial statements, the Company's compliance with legal or regulatory requirements, the performance and independence of the Company's independent auditors or the performance of the internal audit function;

(ii) following all meetings of the Committee; and

(iii) with respect to such other matters as are relevant to the Committee's discharge of its responsibilities.

The Committee shall provide such recommendations as the Committee may deem appropriate. The report to the Board of Directors may take the form of an oral report by the Chairman or any other member of the Committee designated by the Committee to make such report.

19. Maintain minutes or other records of meetings and activities of the Committee.

V. ANNUAL PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

The Committee shall perform a review and evaluation, at least annually, of the performance of the Committee and its members, including by reviewing the compliance of the Committee with this Charter. In addition, the Committee shall review and reassess, at least annually, the adequacy of this Charter and recommend to the Board of Directors any improvements to this Charter that the Committee considers necessary or valuable. The Committee shall conduct such evaluations and reviews in such manner as it deems appropriate.
