FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

20 February 2004

MERGER UPDATE

Ashanti Goldfields Company Limited ("Ashanti") notes the announcement by AngloGold Limited ("AngloGold") earlier today that it has signed a stability agreement with the Government of Ghana, details of which were announced by AngloGold on 12 December 2003. Ashanti has today filed an application with the High Court of the Republic of Ghana (the "High Court") to convene the meeting at which Ashanti shareholders will consider and vote on the scheme of arrangement required to implement the merger (the "Scheme Meeting"). If Ashanti shareholders approve the merger at the Scheme Meeting then the High Court will be asked to confirm the scheme of arrangement at a subsequent hearing (the "Court Hearing"). Documents describing the merger and the scheme of arrangement will be posted to shareholders as soon as practicable once the dates for the Scheme Meeting and Court Hearing have been scheduled. It is currently anticipated that the Scheme Meeting will take place in early April and the merger with AngloGold will be completed by the end of April.

Ashanti shareholders are reminded that there can be no assurance that the merger with AngloGold will be completed. The implementation of the merger remains subject to, amongst other things, the approval by Ashanti shareholders and the confirmation of the scheme by the High Court.
