Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 22, 2005, MetLife, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and MetLife Funding, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company ("Funding," and together with the Company, the "Borrowers"), entered into a Five-Year $1,500,000,000 Credit Agreement (the "Credit Agreement") among the Borrowers, a group of banks as lenders, Bank of America, N.A., as administrative agent and letter of credit issuer, Wachovia Bank, National Association, as syndication agent, Citibank, N.A., Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as co-documentation agents, and Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC and Banc of America Securities, LLC as joint lead arrangers and book managers. The proceeds of the Credit Agreement will be used for general corporate purposes and to support the Borrowers' commercial paper programs. All borrowings must be repaid by April 22, 2010, except that letters of credit outstanding on that date may remain outstanding until April 22, 2011. This Credit Agreement replaces a $1 billion credit agreement expiring in 2005.

Borrowings under the Credit Agreement are available upon customary terms and conditions for facilities of this type, including a requirement that the Company represent that no "default," as defined in the Credit Agreement, has occurred and is continuing at the time of a new borrowing under the Credit Agreement. The amount available under the Credit Agreement may be increased to a maximum amount of $2,000,000,000, provided that no "event of default," as defined in the Credit Agreement, has occurred and is continuing. The Company is required to maintain a consolidated net worth of $15 billion, and Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, must maintain adjusted statutory surplus of $7.75 billion. Amounts due under the Credit Agreement may be accelerated upon an event of default, such as a breach of a representation or covenant or the occurrence of bankruptcy, if not otherwise waived or cured.

On April 25, 2005, the Company entered into a $2,000,000,000 Amended and Restated Five-Year Letter of Credit and Reimbursement Agreement (the "L/C Agreement"), among the Company, The Travelers Life and Annuity Reinsurance Company, a South Carolina corporation ("TLARC"), a group of banks, financial institutions and other institutional lenders as lenders, Citibank, N.A. and Wachovia Bank, National Association ("Wachovia"), as co-administrative agents, Wachovia, as paying agent, BNP Paribas and Lloyds TSB Bank Plc, as co-syndication agents, Danske Bank A/G, as documentation agent, and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and Wachovia Capital Markets, LLC, as joint lead arrangers and joint bookrunners. Under the L/C Agreement, the Company agreed to unconditionally guarantee TLARC's reimbursement obligations with respect to reinsurance letters of credit issued pursuant to the L/C Agreement. The L/C Agreement amends an agreement under which Citigroup Insurance Holding Company, the parent company of TLARC, is the guarantor of TLARC's reimbursement obligations, but the Company does not replace Citigroup Insurance Holding Company as guarantor, and letters of credit continue to be issued under the existing unamended agreement, until the closing of the acquisition by the Company of TLARC and certain of its affiliates. The Agreement expires five years after that closing.

Borrowings under the L/C Agreement are available upon customary terms and conditions for facilities of this type, including a requirement that the Company represent that no "default" or "event of default," each as defined in the L/C Agreement, has occurred and is continuing at the time of a new borrowing under the L/C Agreement. The Company is required to maintain a consolidated net worth of $15 billion, and The Travelers Insurance Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Citigroup Insurance Holding Company, is required to maintain a risk based capital ratio of 2.5 to 1. Amounts due under the L/C Agreement may be accelerated upon an event of default, such as a breach of a representation or covenant or the occurrence of bankruptcy, if not otherwise waived or cured.
