Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Directors and officers of the Company may be indemnified by the Company against certain actions pursuant to the Connecticut Business Corporation Act (the "CBCA"). A charter amendment was approved by the Company's shareholders on May 4, 1998 providing enhanced indemnification of directors and officers of the Company and providing for indemnification of employees and agents of the Company in certain circumstances, both as authorized by the CBCA effective January 1, 1997. The Company's charter, as amended, affords to directors and officers the right to be indemnified to the fullest extent permitted by law. This right means that a director or officer will be indemnified against expenses and liabilities incurred in connection with any applicable proceeding so long as his or her conduct did not (i) involve a knowing and culpable violation of law by such person, (ii) enable such person or an associate, as defined in Section 33-840 of the CBCA, to receive an improper personal economic gain, (iii) show a lack of good faith and a conscious disregard for the duty of such person to the Company under circumstances in which such person was aware that his or her conduct or omission created an unjustifiable risk of serious injury to the Company, (iv) constitute a sustained and unexcused pattern of inattention that amounted to an abdication of such person's duty to the Company, or (v) create liability under Section 33-757 (liability for unlawful distributions) of the CBCA. The Company's charter, as amended, also obligates the Company to advance the expenses of a director or officer so long as the director or officer promises to repay the advance if it is later determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification by the Company.

The Company has in effect liability insurance policies covering certain claims against any of its officers or directors by reason of certain breaches of duty, neglect, error, misstatement, omission or other act committed or alleged to have been committed by such person in his or her capacity as officer or director.
