ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS

Emerson Radio Corp. (the "Company") has been advised by MTV Networks, a division of Viacom International Inc. ("MTVN"), that MTVN has elected not to renew the license agreements (the "License Agreements") pursuant to which MTVN licenses to the Company the Nickelodeon name, trademark and logo, along with several of Nickelodeon's other trademarks and logos. In connection therewith, the Company and MTVN have extended the existing terms of the License Agreements, each of which was to expire in December 2006, through March 31, 2007. The Company will also have a 90-day "sell-off" period immediately following the end of such terms, as extended, during which the Company will have an opportunity to fill orders for and ship products that contain the trademarks and logos licensed under the respective License Agreements. The cumulative average of the net revenues generated by the Company under the License Agreements during the period from October 2003 through December 2006 accounted for approximately 11.3% of the total net revenue generated by the Company during such period. However, as previously disclosed in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the amount of revenue generated under the License Agreements had decreased significantly for the first six months of fiscal 2007 as compared to the same period in fiscal 2006. As previously disclosed, the Company has entered into a new license agreement during fiscal 2007 and intends to continue to pursue additional license agreements in the future.
