About This Prospectus

Unless the context requires otherwise, reference in this prospectus to we, us, our, Brightpoint or the company refers to Brightpoint, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries, and the term you refers to a prospective investor.

On July 31, 2007, we acquired all of the capital stock of Dangaard Telecom A/S, a Danish company, from its sole shareholder, Dangaard Holding A/S. Dangaard Holding A/S subsequently changed its name to NC Telecom Holding A/S and is referred to in this prospectus as NC Holding or the selling shareholder. We are registering the shares of common stock covered by this prospectus on this shelf registration statement pursuant to a registration rights agreement that we entered into with NC Holding in connection with our acquisition of Dangaard Telecom.

Of the shares issued to NC Holding in connection with the acquisition, initially 3,000,000 shares were placed in escrow with American Stock Transfer & Trust Company to secure NC Holding's indemnification obligations under the acquisition agreement. We have previously made indemnification claims against NC Holding pursuant to the acquisition agreement which we believe are in excess of the value of these 3,000,000 shares. We understand that NC Holding intends to defend against these claims, and we can give no assurance that all or any part of our indemnification claims against NC Holding will be successful. Of these 3,000,000 shares, 2,000,000 remain in the escrow account and 1,000,000 shares have been released from escrow subject to our reservation of a right to assert a claim for indemnification. Although the 2,000,000 shares that remain in the escrow account are included in the shares covered by this prospectus, such shares may not be released from the escrow account until the proceeds of the sale of such shares have been deposited into the escrow account.

This prospectus is part of a registration statement that we have filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, or the SEC, using a shelf registration process. By using a shelf registration statement, the selling shareholder identified in this prospectus in the section entitled Selling Shareholder may, over time, offer and resell the shares of common stock covered by the shelf registration statement. We will not receive any proceeds from the resale by the selling shareholder of the shares of common stock covered by the shelf registration statement.

This prospectus provides you with some of the general terms that may apply to an offering of our common stock by the selling shareholder. Each time the selling shareholder offers shares of our common stock for resale pursuant to this prospectus, we will provide a prospectus supplement that will contain specific information about the terms of that specific offering and the specific manner in which such shares may be offered, including the offering price. This prospectus may not be used to offer or sell securities without a prospectus supplement describing the method and terms of the particular offering. Any prospectus supplement may also add to, update or change information contained in this prospectus. If there is an inconsistency between the information in this prospectus and the applicable prospectus supplement, you should rely on the information in the applicable prospectus supplement.

You should read carefully both this prospectus, including the information incorporated by reference herein as set forth herein under the heading Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference, and the applicable prospectus supplement, before making an investment decision.

The registration statement that contains this prospectus (including the exhibits to the registration statement) contains additional information about us and the common stock offered under this prospectus. That registration statement can be read at the SEC web site (www.sec.gov) or at the SEC offices mentioned herein under the heading Where You Can Find More Information.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this prospectus or the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act ) and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act ). These forward-looking statements are based on our current expectations, assumptions, estimates and projections about our business and our industry and include those relating to future events, performance and/or achievements. Actual future results may differ materially from the forward-looking statements included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus.

We have attempted to identify forward-looking statements by the use of words such as may, should, will, could, estimate, project, predict, potential, continue, anticipate, believe, plan, seek, expect, future and of these terms or other comparable expressions which are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements are only predictions and are not guarantees of future performance. They are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, some of which are beyond our control and difficult to predict and could cause our actual results to differ materially from those expressed or forecasted in, or implied by, the forward-looking statements. Some, but not all of the factors that may cause these differences will be discussed in the Risk Factors section of the applicable prospectus supplement and in other information incorporated by reference into this prospectus. All forward-looking statements attributable to us or persons acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by these cautionary statements and the risk factors contained in the applicable prospectus supplement or in documents incorporated by reference into this prospectus. Moreover, unless we are required by law to update them, we will not necessarily update any of these forward-looking statements after the date of this prospectus, either to conform them to actual results or to changes in our expectations.

Use of Proceeds

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of common stock by the selling shareholder named in this prospectus.

Selling Shareholder

On July 31, 2007, we acquired all of the capital stock of Dangaard Telecom A/S from its sole shareholder, NC Holding, pursuant to a stock purchase agreement dated as of February 19, 2007, as amended on April 19, 2007, May 17, 2007 and June 15, 2007, among us, NC Holding, Dangaard Telecom A/S and Nordic Capital Fund VI.

We are registering for resale the shares of common stock held by NC Holding pursuant to a registration rights agreement that we entered into with NC Holding in connection with our acquisition of Dangaard Telecom A/S. NC Holding may, in accordance with the terms of the registration rights agreement, offer and sell up to an aggregate of 30,000,000 shares of our common stock pursuant to this prospectus together with any applicable prospectus supplement.

Pursuant to the terms of the shareholder agreement that we entered into with NC Holding upon the closing of the Dangaard Telecom A/S acquisition, NC Holding has the right to propose between one and three individuals for election or appointment to our board of directors. This right is subject to the final approval of each such designee by our board's corporate governance and nominating committee, applying reasonable and uniform standards consistent with both its past practices and our corporate governance principles and after it determines that such designee satisfies the independence requirements under NASDAQ Marketplace Rules. This right is contingent upon the percentage of our common stock owned by NC Holding as follows:

for as long as it owns at least 27.5% of our then outstanding common stock, NC Holding will retain its designee proposal right with respect to three designees;

for as long as it owns at least 17.5% but less than 27.5% of our then outstanding common stock, NC Holding will retain its designee proposal right with respect to two designees; and for as long as it owns at least 7.5% but less than 17.5% of our then outstanding common stock, NC Holding will retain its designee proposal right with respect to one designee.

NC Holding currently owns 36.6% of our outstanding common stock, and three individuals it proposed for election or appointment, each of whom is independent of the Company under applicable Nasdaq Marketplace Rules, serve on our board of directors. In the event, and at such time as, the number of directors with respect to which NC Holding has designee proposal rights is reduced in accordance with the foregoing, upon request from us, NC Holding shall immediately cause the requisite number of its designated directors to resign from our board of directors.

Also pursuant to the terms of the shareholder agreement, until the earlier of (a) the date on which NC Holding owns less than 7.5% of our outstanding common stock and (b) the date on which NC Holding (i) owns less than 10% of our outstanding common stock, (ii) has no designee serving as a member of our board of directors and (iii) has irrevocably given up its director designee rights, NC Holding will be required to vote all of its shares in favor of all director candidates and shareholder proposals (other than those seeking approval to authorize a merger, sale of all or substantially all of our common stock or assets or other similar business combination or for matters related to the foregoing) recommended by our board of directors.

The applicable prospectus supplement for any offering of common stock by the selling shareholder will include the following information:

the nature of any position, office or other material relationship that the selling shareholder has with us or any of our affiliates;

the number of shares held by the selling shareholder before and after the offering; and the number of shares of our common stock offered by the selling shareholder.

Plan of Distribution

In accordance with the registration rights agreement, all costs, expenses and fees incurred in connection with the registration of the shares offered by this prospectus other than (i) those of any counsel and other experts retained by the selling shareholder, (ii) all fees and expenses of the underwriters, if any, for the offering not paid by the underwriters, and (iii) all underwriting discounts and commissions and transfer taxes, if any, shall be borne by us, up to a specified amount. Brokerage costs, if any, attributable to the sale of the selling shareholder's shares will be borne by the selling shareholder.

Shares of common stock may be sold to one or more underwriters for public offering and sale by them. Any underwriter involved in the offer and sale of shares of common stock will be named in the applicable prospectus supplement to the extent required.

The selling shareholder may:

sell shares of common stock in a firm commitment underwritten offering to one or more underwriters for resale to individuals or institutional investors;

sell shares of common stock in a block trade in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction; and enter into option or other types of transactions that require the selling shareholder to deliver our common stock to a broker-dealer or an affiliate thereof or other third party, who may then resell or transfer the common stock pursuant to this prospectus.

The selling shareholder also may resell all or a portion of the shares in open market transactions in reliance upon Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as permitted by that rule, Section 4(1) under the Securities Act, if available, or any other available exemption from registration under the Securities Act rather than under this prospectus.

In connection with the sale of shares of common stock, underwriters may be compensated in the form of underwriting discounts or commissions. The shares of common stock will be acquired by the underwriters for their own account and may be resold from time to time, at a fixed price or prices, which may be changed, or at market prices prevailing at the time of the sale, or at prices related to such prevailing market prices, or at negotiated prices. The shares of common stock may be offered to the public either through underwriting syndicates represented by one or more managing underwriters or directly by one or more of such firms. Unless otherwise set forth in the prospectus supplement, the obligations of underwriters to purchase the shares of common stock offered will be subject to certain conditions precedent and the underwriters will be obligated to purchase all the offered shares of common stock if any are purchased. Any public offering price and any discounts or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid by underwriters or dealers to other dealers may be changed from time to time.

We will describe in the applicable prospectus supplement any compensation that may be paid to underwriters in connection with the offering of shares of common stock, and any discounts, concessions or commissions allowed by underwriters to participating dealers. Dealers participating in the distribution of shares of common stock may be deemed to be underwriters, and any discounts and commissions received by them and any profit realized by them on resale of the shares of common stock may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions. We may enter into agreements to indemnify underwriters and dealers against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and to reimburse these persons for certain expenses.

The selling shareholder may enter into derivative or other hedging transactions with financial institutions. These financial institutions may in turn engage in sales of our common stock to hedge their position, deliver this prospectus in connection with some or all of those sales and use the shares covered by this prospectus to close out any short position created in connection with those sales. The selling shareholder may pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of our common stock covered by this prospectus to support a derivative or hedging position or other obligation and, if the selling shareholder defaults in the performance of its obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell our common stock from time to time pursuant to this prospectus. Such financial institution, pledgee or secured party will be an underwriter and will be identified in the applicable prospectus supplement (or a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement).

To facilitate the offering of shares of common stock, certain persons participating in the offering may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the price of the shares of common stock. This may include over-allotments or short sales of the securities, which involve the sale by persons participating in the offering of more securities than the selling shareholder sold to them. In these circumstances, these persons would cover such over-allotments or short positions by making purchases in the open market or by exercising their over-allotment option, if any. In addition, these persons may stabilize or maintain the price of the securities by bidding for or purchasing securities in the open market or by imposing penalty bids, whereby selling concessions allowed to dealers participating in the offering may be reclaimed if securities sold by them are repurchased in connection with stabilization transactions. The effect of these transactions may be to stabilize or maintain the market price of the securities at a level above that which might otherwise prevail in the open market. These transactions may be discontinued at any time.

Certain of the underwriters, dealers and their associates may engage in transactions with and perform services for us and the selling shareholder in the ordinary course of our respective businesses for which they receive compensation.

Under the registration rights agreement we entered into with NC Holding, we have agreed to indemnify NC Holding and its successors and permitted assigns against certain liabilities under the Securities Act.

The selling shareholder is subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the SEC's rules and regulations, including Regulation M, which provisions may limit the timing of purchases and sales of the shares by a selling shareholder.

In order to comply with certain states' securities laws, if applicable, the shares may be sold in those jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In certain states the shares may not be sold unless the shares have been registered or qualified for sale in such state, or unless an exemption from registration or qualification is available and is obtained.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Indiana Business Corporation Law ( IBCL ) provides that a corporation may indemnify any individual made a party to a proceeding (including a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation) because the individual is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against liability incurred in the proceeding if the individual acted in good faith and reasonably believed (i) in the case of conduct in the individual s official capacity with the corporation, that the individual s conduct was in the corporation s best interests and (ii) in all other cases, that the individual s conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation s best interests. In the case of any criminal proceeding, the individual must have also had either reasonable cause to believe the conduct was lawful or no reasonable cause to believe that it was unlawful. In addition, Section 23-1-37-9 and Section 23-1-37-13 provide that a corporation, unless limited by its articles of incorporation, must indemnify a director or officer who was wholly successful in the defense of any proceeding to which the director or officer was a party because the director or officer is or was a director or officer of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by the director or officer in connection with the proceeding.

Section 23-1-35-1(e) of the IBCL provides that a director is not liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to act, unless the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of the director s office in compliance with Section 23-1-35-1 and the breach or failure to perform constitutes willful misconduct or recklessness. Subject to this standard, Section 23-1-35-4 provides that a director who votes or assents to distributions in violation of the IBCL or the articles of incorporation is personally liable to the corporation for the amount of the illegal distribution and is entitled to contribution from the other directors who voted for or assented to such distribution and the shareholders who received the distribution.

Article VI of the Registrant s Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation outlines the necessary factors for compliance with Section 23-1-35-1 of the IBCL. In addition, Article VII of the Registrant s Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and Article XX of the Amended and Restated By-Laws of the Registrant provide in substance that, to the fullest extent permitted by Indiana law, each director and officer shall be indemnified by the Registrant against reasonable costs and expenses, including attorneys fees, and any liabilities which may be incurred in connection with any action to which he may be made a party by reason of having been a director or officer of the Registrant.

The indemnification provided by the Registrant s By-Laws is not deemed exclusive of or in any way to limit any other rights to which any person seeking indemnification may be entitled.

The Registrant has also entered into certain agreements wherein it has agreed, subject to certain limitations, to indemnify its officers and directors for judgments, fines, assessments, interest and other charges they may incur as a party, witness or other participant in any threatened, pending or completed actions, suits or proceeding by reason of their acting as an officer, director, employee or agent of the Registrant or any of its subsidiaries, provided that the indemnified party acted in good faith in a manner such person believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Registrant and, with respect to certain matters, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. The agreements also provide that upon a change of control of the Registrant, as defined in the agreements, the Registrant will be required to designate and set aside certain funds for possible future payments of the indemnified parties pursuant to the agreements.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

The Registrant maintains directors and officers liability insurance, the effect of which is to indemnify directors and officers of the Registrant and its subsidiaries against certain losses.

(a) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by such clauses is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the Registration Statement.

(b) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(d) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the Registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii) or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

(e) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the Registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities: The undersigned Registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned Registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned Registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

- (i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned Registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
- (ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned Registrant;
- (iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned Registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned Registrant; and
- (iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned Registrant to the purchaser.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be initial bona fide offering thereof.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to deliver or cause to be delivered with the prospectus, to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest annual report to security holders that is incorporated by reference in the prospectus and furnished pursuant to and meeting the requirements of Rule 14a-3 or Rule 14c-3 under the Exchange Act; and, where interim financial information required to be presented by Article 3 of Regulation S-X are not set forth in the prospectus, to deliver, or cause to be delivered to each person to whom the prospectus is sent or given, the latest quarterly report that is specifically incorporated by reference in the prospectus to provide such interim financial information.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
