Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 16, 2010, Ladish Co., Inc. (the Company), Allegheny Technologies Incorporated, a Delaware corporation (Parent), LPAD Co., a Wisconsin corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and PADL LLC, a Wisconsin limited liability company and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub 2), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, the Company will merge with and into Merger Sub (the Merger), with Merger Sub continuing as the surviving corporation, and immediately after the effectiveness of the Merger, the Company shall be merged with and into Merger Sub 2.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time and as a result of the Merger, each issued and outstanding share of the Company's common stock (other than shares owned by the Company, Parent or Merger Sub), par value $0.01 per share (Company Common Stock), will be converted into the right to receive the following (collectively, the Merger Consideration):

$24.00 in cash, plus

0.4556 of a share of the common stock, par value $0.10 per share, of Parent.

The Company, Parent, Merger Sub and Merger Sub 2 have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants regarding activities between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the Merger (including covenants of the Company regarding the conduct of its business), and to use their reasonable best efforts to consummate the Merger. In addition, the Company has made certain additional covenants, including covenants to cause a meeting of the Company's shareholders to be held to consider approval of the Merger; for the Company's board of directors to, subject to certain exceptions, recommend approval by its stockholders of the Merger Agreement; and for the Company not to solicit or facilitate proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions, or subject to certain exceptions, enter into discussions concerning alternative business combination transactions.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including approval of the Merger Agreement by holders of Company Common Stock, absence of any legal prohibition on consummation of the Merger, obtaining required governmental approvals, the accuracy of the representations and warranties (subject generally to a material adverse effect standard), material performance of all covenants and the delivery of customary legal opinions as to the federal tax treatment of the merger.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both the Company and Parent. Upon termination of the Merger Agreement, under specified circumstances, the Company may be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $31,000,000.

The foregoing description of the Merger and the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company, Parent or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties of the Company, on the one hand, and Parent, on the other hand, made solely for the benefit of the other. The assertions embodied in the representations and warranties of the Company are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedule that the Company delivered to Parent in connection with signing the Merger Agreement. The disclosure schedule contains information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties of the Company set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were used for the purpose of allocating risk between the Company and Parent. Accordingly, investors should not rely on the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement as characterizations of the actual state of facts about the Company or Parent.
