Our Company

We are a major producer of ready-mixed concrete, precast concrete products and concrete-related products in select markets in the United States. We operate our business through our ready-mixed concrete and concrete-related products segment and our precast concrete products segment. We are a leading producer of ready-mixed concrete or precast concrete products in substantially all the markets in which we have operations. Ready-mixed and precast concrete products are important building materials that are used in a vast majority of commercial, residential and public works construction projects.

All of our operations are in (and all of our sales are made within) the United States. We operate principally in Texas, California and New Jersey/New York, with those markets representing approximately 36%, 25%, and 19%, respectively, of our consolidated revenues from continuing operations for the year ended December 31, 2010. According to publicly available industry information, those states represented an aggregate of 28% of the consumption of ready-mixed concrete in the United States in 2010 (Texas, 13.1%; California, 9.3%; and New Jersey/New York, 5.4%). Our consolidated revenues from continuing operations for the year ended December 31, 2010 were $455.7 million, of which we derived approximately 87.7% from our ready-mixed concrete and concrete-related products segment and 12.3% from our precast concrete products segment.

As of August 31, 2011, we had 102 fixed and 11 portable ready-mixed concrete plants, seven precast concrete plants and seven aggregates facilities. During 2010, these plants and facilities produced approximately 3.8 million cubic yards of ready-mixed concrete and 3.1 million tons of aggregates. We lease two of the seven aggregates facilities to third parties and retain a royalty on production from those facilities.

Our ready-mixed concrete and concrete-related products segment engages principally in the formulation, preparation and delivery of ready-mixed concrete to the job sites of our customers. We also provide services intended to reduce our customers' overall construction costs by lowering the installed, or in-place, cost of concrete. These services include the formulation of mixtures for specific design uses, on-site and lab-based product quality control, and customized delivery programs to meet our customers' needs.

Our marketing efforts primarily target concrete sub-contractors, general contractors, governmental agencies, property owners and developers and home builders whose focus extends beyond the price of ready-mixed concrete to product quality, on-time delivery and reduction of in-place costs. We generally do not provide paving or other finishing services, which construction contractors or subcontractors typically perform. To a lesser extent, this segment is also engaged in the mining and sale of aggregates and the resale of building materials, primarily to our ready-mixed concrete customers. These businesses are generally complementary to our ready-mixed concrete operations and provide us opportunities to cross-sell various products in markets where we sell both ready-mixed concrete and concrete-related products. We provide our ready-mixed concrete and concrete-related products from our continuing operations in north and west Texas, northern California, New Jersey, New York, Washington, D.C. and Oklahoma.

Our precast concrete products segment produces precast concrete products at seven plants in three states, with five plants in California, one in Arizona and one in Pennsylvania. Our customers choose precast technology for a variety of architectural applications, including free-standing walls used for landscaping, soundproofing and security walls, panels used to clad a building façade and storm water drainage. Our operations also specialize in a variety of finished products, among which are utility vaults, manholes, catch basins, highway barriers, curb inlets, pre-stressed bridge girders, concrete piles and custom-designed architectural products.

OFFERING SUMMARY

The following summary highlights certain material information contained elsewhere in this prospectus but does not contain all the information that you should consider before investing in the Notes. We urge you to read this entire prospectus, including the Risk Factors section and our consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes included elsewhere or incorporated by reference into this prospectus.

Issuer	U.S. Concrete, Inc.
Securities Offered	Up to $8,453,000 aggregate principal amount of the 9.5% Convertible Notes due 2015 (the Notes).
Maturity Date	August 31, 2015 (the Maturity Date).
Interest Rates and Payment Dates	The Notes bear interest at 9.5% per year (calculated using a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months), payable quarterly in cash in arrears on March 1, June 1, September 1 and December 1.
Use of Proceeds	The selling noteholders will receive all of the proceeds from the sale of the Notes offered by this prospectus. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of our Notes by the selling noteholders.
Conversion Rights	The Notes are convertible, at the option of the holder, at any time on or prior to maturity, into shares of our common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Common Stock), at an initial conversion rate of 95.23809524 shares of Common Stock per $1,000 principal amount of the Notes (as may be adjusted from time to time, the conversion rate). Holders of the Notes have the right to convert all or any portion of their Notes into the number of shares of Common Stock equal to the principal amount of the Notes to be converted divided by the conversion rate then in effect. The conversion rate is subject to adjustment to prevent dilution resulting from stock splits, stock dividends, combinations or similar events. There is no limitation as to the principal amount of the Notes you can convert at any time. In connection with any conversion, holders of the Notes to be converted will also have the right to receive accrued and unpaid interest on such Notes to the date of conversion (the Accrued Interest). We may elect to pay the Accrued Interest in cash or in shares of Common Stock. If we elect to satisfy our obligation to pay the Accrued Interest in shares, the number of shares issuable shall be determined by dividing the Accrued Interest by 95% of the trailing 10-day volume-weighted average price of the Common Stock. See Description of Capital Stock for information regarding certain terms of the Common Stock.
Additional Conversion Rights	If the closing price of the Common Stock exceeds 150% of the Conversion Price (as defined below) then in effect for at least 20 trading days during any consecutive 30-day trading period (the Conversion Event), we may provide, at our option, written notice (the Conversion Event Notice) of the occurrence of the Conversion Event to each holder of the Notes in accordance with the indenture governing the Notes (the Indenture) and file a press release or Form 8-K with the SEC regarding the occurrence of the Conversion Event.

Conversion Price means, per share of Common Stock, $1,000 divided by the applicable conversion rate, subject to adjustment. As of the date of this prospectus, the Conversion Price is approximately $10.50. Except as set forth in an Election Notice (as defined below), the right to convert the Notes with respect to the occurrence of the Conversion Event will terminate on the date that is 46 days following the date of the Conversion Event Notice (the Conversion Termination Date), such that you will have a 45-day period in which to convert your Notes up to the amount of the Conversion Cap (as defined below). Any Notes not converted prior to the Conversion Termination Date as a result of the Conversion Cap will be, at your election and upon written notice to us (the Election Notice), converted into shares of Common Stock on a date or dates prior to the date that is 180 days following the Conversion Termination Date (such date or dates to be specified in your Election Notice). A holder must deliver an Election Notice specifying its election with respect to the Conversion Event on or prior to the Conversion Termination Date. As used herein, Conversion Cap means the number of shares of Common Stock into which the Notes are convertible and that would cause the related holder to beneficially own (as such term is used in the Exchange Act) more than 9.9% of the Common Stock at any time outstanding.

Any Notes not otherwise converted prior to the Conversion Termination Date or specified for conversion in an Election Notice will be redeemable, in whole or in part, at our election at any time prior to maturity at par plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon to the Conversion Termination Date.

Interest on all of the Notes will cease to accrue on the Conversion Termination Date and substantially all of the covenants and related events of default contained in the Indenture will cease to be of any force and effect on the Conversion Termination Date (other than our obligation to convert, redeem or pay at maturity the Notes). The collateral securing the Notes and the related guarantees will be released on the Conversion Termination Date.

If the Conversion Event occurs on or prior to August 31, 2012, in addition to the shares issuable upon conversion or amounts received upon redemption, as applicable, the holders of the Notes will have a right to receive upon conversion, redemption or maturity, as applicable, the lesser of: (i) the aggregate amount of interest that would be payable from the Conversion Termination Date through August 31, 2012 (including any accrued and unpaid interest on such Notes to the Conversion Termination Date (or conversion date, if earlier)) and (ii) an aggregate amount equal to 15 months of interest (including any accrued and unpaid interest on such Notes to the Conversion Termination Date (or conversion date, if earlier)) (the amounts in clauses (i) and (ii), the Cash Conversion Amount). We may elect to pay the Cash Conversion Amount in cash or in shares of Common Stock. If we elect to satisfy our obligation to pay the Cash Conversion Amount in shares, the number of shares issuable will be determined by dividing the Cash Conversion Amount by 95% of the trailing 10-day volume-weighted average price of the Common Stock from the Conversion Termination Date.

We will pay the Cash Conversion Amount as follows: (i) on the Conversion Termination Date for all Notes converted prior to such date, (ii) on the date or dates specified in the Election Notice, if any, and (iii) on the date of the redemption or at maturity, as applicable, for all the other Notes.

Fundamental Change of Control
Make Whole; Repurchase Right

Upon the occurrence of a Fundamental Change of Control (as defined below), in addition to any conversion rights the holders of the Notes may have, each holder of Notes will have (i) a make-whole provision calculated as provided in the Indenture pursuant to which each holder may be entitled to additional shares of Common Stock upon conversion (the "Make Whole Premium"), and (ii) an amount equal to the interest on such Notes that would have been payable from the date of the occurrence of such Fundamental Change of Control (the "Fundamental Change of Control Date") through August 31, 2013, plus any accrued and unpaid interest from August 31, 2010 to the Fundamental Change of Control Date (the amount in this clause (ii), the "Make Whole Payment" and collectively with the Make Whole Premium, the "Fundamental Change of Control Make Whole"). We may elect to pay the Make Whole Payment in cash or in shares of Common Stock. If we elect to satisfy our obligation to make the Make Whole Payment in Common Stock, the number of shares issuable will be determined by (A) if the Fundamental Change of Control is a merger or consolidation described in clause (i) of the related definition (as set forth below) and all of the Common Stock as of such Fundamental Change of Control Date is exchanged for stock of the acquiror, dividing the Make Whole Payment by the implied price per share for the Common Stock in connection with such Fundamental Change of Control, with such shares being treated the same as all other shares of Common Stock in such Fundamental Change of Control and (B) in all other cases, dividing the Make Whole Payment by 95% of the trailing 10-day volume-weighted average price of the Common Stock immediately prior to such Fundamental Change of Control.

In lieu of the foregoing, upon the occurrence of a Fundamental Change of Control, the holders of Notes will have the right to require us to repurchase their Notes in cash at par plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon.

A "Fundamental Change of Control" will be deemed to occur at such time as: (i) U.S. Concrete consolidates with or merges with or into another person (other than any subsidiary of U.S. Concrete or a merger for the purpose of changing U.S. Concrete's jurisdiction of incorporation) and its outstanding voting securities are reclassified into, converted for or converted into the right to receive any other property or security, or U.S. Concrete sells, conveys, transfers or leases all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person (other than its subsidiary); provided that the foregoing will not constitute a fundamental change of control: (A) if persons that beneficially own U.S. Concrete's voting securities immediately prior to the transaction own, directly or indirectly, a majority of the voting securities of the surviving or transferee person immediately after the transaction in substantially the same proportion as their ownership of U.S. Concrete's voting securities immediately prior to the transaction or (B) if (1) at least 90% of the consideration paid for the Common Stock (and cash payments pursuant to dissenter's appraisal rights) in the merger or consolidation consists of common stock of a U.S. or non-U.S. company traded on a national securities exchange (or which will be traded or quoted when issued or exchanged in connection with such transaction) and (2) the market capitalization of the acquiror is at least equal to or greater than the market capitalization of U.S. Concrete on the trading day immediately preceding the day on which such merger or consolidation is publicly announced; (ii) any person or group (as such terms are used for purposes of Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act, whether or not applicable), other than U.S. Concrete or any of its subsidiaries or any employee benefit plan of it or such subsidiary, is or becomes the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the total voting power in the aggregate of all classes of U.S. Concrete's capital stock then outstanding and entitled to vote generally in elections of directors; or (iii) during any period of 12 consecutive months after August 31, 2010, persons who at the beginning of such 12 month period constituted U.S. Concrete's Board of Directors (the Board), together with any new persons whose election was approved by a vote of a majority of the persons then still comprising the Board who were either members of the Board at the beginning of such period or whose election, designation or nomination for election was previously so approved, cease for any reason to constitute a majority of the Board.

A Purchaser Party (as defined below) will not be entitled to receive a Fundamental Change of Control Make Whole upon the occurrence of a Fundamental Change of Control if (i) such Fundamental Change of Control is a merger, consolidation or sale with or into such Purchaser Party or any member of any group of which such Purchaser Party is a member or any of their respective affiliates; (ii) such Fundamental Change of Control is a transaction specified in clause (ii) of the Fundamental Change of Control definition and such Purchaser Party or any of its affiliates is a person or member of a group for purposes of such clause (ii); or (iii) the nominees of any such Purchaser Party or any member of any group which such Purchaser Party is a member or any of their respective affiliates constitute one or more of the new board members effecting such Fundamental Change of Control. A Purchaser Party means any beneficial owner who acquired the Notes from U.S. Concrete on August 31, 2010.

Redemption

Other than as provided under Additional Conversion Rights with respect to the Conversion Event, we do not have the right to redeem the Notes.

Guarantees

The Notes are unconditionally guaranteed by each of our existing and future direct or indirect domestic restricted subsidiaries (other than certain immaterial restricted subsidiaries) and any other of our subsidiaries that guarantee the Revolving Facility (collectively, the guarantors). As of the date of this prospectus, all of our subsidiaries are guarantors.

Ranking

The Notes and the guarantees thereof:

are the Issuer's and the guarantors' senior secured obligations;

rank senior in right of payment to any of the Issuer's and the guarantors existing and future subordinated indebtedness, rank equally in right of payment with all of the Issuer's and the guarantors existing and future senior indebtedness;

are effectively subordinated to all of our obligations under the Revolving Facility, to the extent of the value of collateral securing those obligations on a first-priority basis;

rank effectively senior in right of payment to any of the Issuer's and the guarantors' unsecured indebtedness to the extent of the value of the collateral for the Notes; and are structurally subordinated in right of payment to all existing and future indebtedness and other liabilities of the Issuer's non-guarantor subsidiaries.

Collateral

The Notes and related guarantees are secured by first-priority liens on certain of the property and assets directly owned by us and each of the guarantors, including material owned real property, fixtures, intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries and certain equipment, subject to permitted liens (including a second-priority lien in favor of the administrative agent under the Revolving Facility (the Revolving Facility Agent)) and certain exceptions (as described in the security documents governing the Notes (collectively, the Security Documents)). Obligations under the Revolving Facility and those in respect of hedging and cash management obligations owed to the lenders (and their affiliates) party to the Revolving Facility (collectively, the Revolving Facility Obligations) are secured by a second-priority lien on such collateral.

The Notes and related guarantees are also secured by a second-priority lien on our and the guarantors' assets securing the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis, including, inventory (including as extracted collateral), accounts, certain specified mixture trucks, chattel paper, general intangibles (other than collateral securing the Notes on a first-priority basis), instruments, documents, cash, deposit accounts, securities accounts, commodities accounts, letter of credit rights and all supporting obligations and related books and records and all proceeds and products of the foregoing, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions, as described in the Security Documents.

A material portion of the collateral which secures the Notes secures the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis and secures the Notes on a second-priority basis. The remaining collateral which secures the Notes (on a first-priority basis) also secures obligations under the Revolving Facility Obligations on a second-priority basis. See Risk Factors Risks Related to the Notes and the Common Stock There may not be sufficient collateral to pay all or any of the Notes.

The Indenture and the Security Documents provide that any capital stock and other securities of any of our subsidiaries will be excluded from the collateral to the extent the inclusion of such capital stock in the collateral would cause such subsidiary to file separate financial statements with the SEC pursuant to Rule 3-16 of Regulation S-X. See Risk Factors Risks Related to the Notes and the Common Stock The Notes are not secured by a portion of the capital stock of any foreign subsidiaries. In addition, the pledge of the securities of our subsidiaries that secures the Notes will exclude capital stock or any other securities of any of our subsidiaries in excess of the maximum amount of such capital stock or securities that could be included in the collateral without creating a requirement to file separate financial statements with the SEC for that subsidiary and Description of the Notes.

Intercreditor Agreement

U.S. Concrete and the guarantors entered into an intercreditor agreement with the collateral agent under the Security Documents (the Collateral Agent) and the Revolving Facility Agent (the Intercreditor Agreement).

The Intercreditor Agreement sets forth the terms on which the Revolving Facility Agent and the Collateral Agent are permitted to receive, hold, administer, maintain, enforce and distribute the proceeds of their respective liens upon the collateral. The Intercreditor Agreement grants (i) to the Revolving Facility Agent, the exclusive right to enforce rights, exercise remedies (including setoff) and make determinations regarding the release, disposition, or restrictions of the collateral which secures the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis and (ii) to the Collateral Agent under the Security Documents, the exclusive right to enforce rights, exercise remedies (including setoff) and make determinations regarding the release, disposition, or restrictions of the collateral which secures the Notes on a first-priority basis, in each case subject to limitations described therein, which limitations include an access right of the Revolving Facility Agent to exercise remedies in respect of its assets located on real property on which the Collateral Agent has a first-priority lien under the Security Documents.

See Description of the Notes Intercreditor Agreement for information regarding certain terms of the Intercreditor Agreement.

Risk Factors

Investing in the Notes involves substantial risks. In addition to the other information in this prospectus, you should carefully read and consider the risk factors set forth below and the risks and uncertainties discussed under Risk Factors in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010 and in our subsequent filings with the SEC that are incorporated herein by reference before deciding to invest in the Notes. Any such risks could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and liquidity. The price of the Notes could decline or our ability to make payments with respect to the Notes could be affected if one or more of these risks and uncertainties develop into actual events, causing you to lose all or part of your investment in the Notes. In assessing these risks, investors should also refer to the other information contained or incorporated by reference in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Certain statements in the Risk Factors section below and in the documents incorporated herein by reference are forward-looking statements. See Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.

Risks Related to the Notes and the Common Stock

There may not be sufficient collateral to pay all or any of the Notes.

The Revolving Facility Obligations are secured by first-priority liens on certain of our assets, including, inventory (including, as extracted collateral), accounts, certain equipment, chattel paper, general intangibles (other than collateral securing the Notes on a first-priority basis), instruments, cash, deposits accounts, securities accounts, letter of credit rights and all supporting obligations, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions. The Notes and related guarantees have a second-priority lien on such assets. The Notes are also secured by first-priority liens on substantially all of the other property and assets directly owned by the Company and the guarantors, including material owned real property, fixtures, intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries and certain equipment, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions. The Revolving Facility Obligations are secured by a second-priority lien on such assets.

With respect to the assets that secure the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis, the Notes are effectively junior to these obligations to the extent of the value of those assets. The rights of the holders of the Notes with respect to the collateral securing the Notes is limited pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement. Under the Intercreditor Agreement, the lenders under the Revolving Facility have the ability to restrict your right to proceed against the collateral over which the Revolving Facility Agent has a first-priority lien, subject to certain limitations and exceptions.

The collateral that secures the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis secures the Notes on a second-priority basis and is subject to any and all exceptions, defects, encumbrances, liens and other imperfections as may be or have been accepted by the lenders under the Revolving Facility and any other holders of first-priority liens on such collateral from time to time, whether existing on or after the date the Notes were issued. The existence of such exceptions, limitations, imperfections and liens could adversely affect the value of the collateral securing the Notes as well as the ability of the Collateral Agent to realize or foreclose on such collateral.

The value at any time of the collateral securing the Notes will depend on market and other economic conditions, including the availability of suitable buyers. By their nature, some or all of the pledged assets may be illiquid and may have no readily ascertainable market value. The value of the assets pledged as collateral for the Notes could be impaired in the future as a result of changing economic conditions, our failure to implement our business strategy, competition or other future trends. In the event of a foreclosure, liquidation, bankruptcy or similar proceeding, the proceeds from any sale or liquidation of the collateral may not be sufficient to pay our obligations under the Notes, in full or at all, together with our obligations under any other indebtedness that is secured on an equal and ratable basis by a first-priority lien on the collateral.

Accordingly, there may not be sufficient collateral to pay all of the amounts due on the Notes. Any claim for the difference between the amount, if any, realized by holders of the Notes from the sale of collateral securing the Notes and the obligations under the Notes will rank equally in right of payment with all of our other unsecured unsubordinated indebtedness and other obligations, including trade payables.

To the extent that third parties enjoy prior liens, such third parties may have rights and remedies with respect to the property subject to such liens that, if exercised, could adversely affect the value of the collateral. The Indenture does not require that we maintain a current level of collateral or maintain a specific ratio of indebtedness to asset values. Releases of collateral from the liens securing the Notes will be permitted under some circumstances (as discussed below).

The Security Documents generally allow us and our subsidiaries to remain in possession of, retain exclusive control over, to freely operate, and to collect, invest and dispose of any income from, the collateral securing the Notes. In addition, to the extent we sell any assets that constitute collateral, the proceeds from any such sale will be subject to the first-priority or second-priority lien, as applicable, securing the Notes to which the underlying assets were subject. In addition, if we sell any of our assets which constitute collateral securing the Notes and, with the proceeds from such sale, purchase assets which would not constitute collateral, the holders of the Notes would not receive a security interest in such purchased assets.

There are circumstances, other than repayment or discharge of the Notes, under which the collateral securing the Notes and guarantees will be released automatically, without your consent or the consent of the Trustee.

Under various circumstances, all or a portion of the collateral may be released, including:

in whole or in part, as applicable, as to all or any portion of property subject to such liens which have been taken by eminent domain, condemnation or other similar circumstances;

in whole upon:

- o satisfaction and discharge of the Indenture or as otherwise set forth in the Indenture;
- o a legal defeasance or covenant defeasance of the Indenture as described in the Indenture; or
- o the Conversion Termination Date;

in part, as to any property that (i) is sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of by us or any subsidiary guarantor (other than to us or another subsidiary guarantor) in a transaction not prohibited by the Indenture at the time of such sale, transfer or disposition or (ii) is owned or at any time acquired by a subsidiary guarantor that has been released from its guarantee in accordance with the Indenture, concurrently with the release of such guarantee; and in part, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Security Documents.

In addition, the guarantee of a subsidiary guarantor will be released in connection with a sale or merger of such subsidiary guarantor in a transaction not prohibited by the Indenture.

The Intercreditor Agreement limits the rights of the holders of the Notes and their control with respect to the collateral securing the Notes.

Under the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, at any time that obligations that have the benefit of the first-priority liens are outstanding, any actions that may be taken in respect of the related collateral, including the ability to cause the commencement of enforcement proceedings against such collateral and to control the conduct of such proceedings, and the approval of amendments to and waivers of past defaults under, the collateral documents, will be at the direction of the collateral agent for the related obligations. The Revolving Facility Agent will direct all such actions with respect to the collateral securing the Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis, for so long as such Revolving Facility Obligations are outstanding. As a result, the Collateral Agent under the Security Documents will not have the ability to control or direct such actions with respect to such collateral, even if the rights of the holders of Notes are adversely affected. Additionally, to the extent such collateral is released from securing the first-priority lien obligations, the second-priority liens securing the Notes will also automatically be released to the extent the holders of the Notes are obligated to release such liens under the Indenture.

The imposition of certain permitted liens will cause the assets on which such liens are imposed to be excluded from the collateral securing the Notes and the guarantees. There are also certain other categories of property that are also excluded from the collateral.

The Indenture permits certain liens in favor of third parties to secure additional debt, including purchase money indebtedness and capitalized lease obligations, and any equipment subject to such liens will be automatically excluded from the collateral securing the Notes and the guarantees to the extent the agreements governing such indebtedness prohibit additional liens. Our ability to incur purchase money indebtedness and capitalized lease obligations is subject to the limitations as described in the Indenture. In addition, certain categories of assets are excluded from the collateral securing the Notes and the guarantees, as described in the Security Documents. Excluded assets include, but are not limited to, among other things, leaseholds (except to the extent required to perfect a security interest in as-extracted collateral included in the collateral) and the proceeds thereof. If an event of default occurs and the Notes are accelerated, the Notes and the guarantees will rank equally with the holders of other unsubordinated and unsecured indebtedness of the relevant entity with respect to such excluded property.

The Notes are not secured by a portion of the capital stock of any foreign subsidiaries. In addition, the pledge of the securities of our subsidiaries that secures the Notes will exclude capital stock or any other securities of any of our subsidiaries in excess of the maximum amount of such capital stock or securities that could be included in the collateral without creating a requirement to file separate financial statements with the SEC for that subsidiary.

The Notes are secured by a pledge of the stock and other securities of our subsidiaries held by U.S. Concrete or the guarantors, other than securities in excess of 66% of the issued and outstanding equity interests of our foreign subsidiaries. Under the SEC regulations in effect on August 31, 2010, if the par value, book value as carried by us or market value (whichever is greatest) of the capital stock, other securities or similar ownership interests of a subsidiary of U.S. Concrete pledged as part of the collateral is greater than or equal to 20% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, such a subsidiary would be required to provide separate financial statements to the SEC. Therefore, the Indenture and the Security Agreement provide that any capital stock and other securities of any of our subsidiaries will be excluded from the collateral to the extent the inclusion of such capital stock in the collateral would cause such subsidiary to file separate financial statements with the SEC pursuant to Rule 3-16 of Regulation S-X. It may be more difficult, costly and time consuming for holders of the Notes to foreclose on the assets of a subsidiary than to foreclose on its capital stock or other securities, so the proceeds realized upon any such foreclosure could be significantly less than those that would have been received upon any sale of the capital stock or other securities of such subsidiary.

State law may limit the ability of the Collateral Agent to foreclose on the real property and improvements and leasehold interests included in the collateral.

The Notes are secured by, among other things, liens on owned real property and improvements located in the States of California, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Texas. The laws of those states may limit the ability of the Trustee and the holders of the Notes to foreclose on the improved real property collateral located in those states. Laws of those states govern the perfection, enforceability and foreclosure of mortgage liens against real property interests which secure debt obligations such as the Notes. These laws may impose procedural requirements for foreclosure different from and necessitating a longer time period for completion than the requirements for foreclosure of security interests in personal property. Debtors may have the right to reinstate defaulted debt (even if it has been accelerated) before the foreclosure date by paying the past due amounts and a right of redemption after foreclosure. Governing laws may also impose security first and one form of action rules which can affect the ability to foreclose or the timing of foreclosure on real and personal property collateral regardless of the location of the collateral and may limit the right to recover a deficiency following a foreclosure.

The holders of the Notes, the Trustee and the Collateral Agent also may be limited in their ability to enforce a breach of the no liens covenant. Some decisions of state courts have placed limits on a lenders ability to accelerate debt secured by real property upon breach of covenants prohibiting the creation of certain junior liens or leasehold estates may need to demonstrate that enforcement is reasonably necessary to protect against impairment of the lender s security or to protect against an increased risk of default. Although the foregoing court decisions may have been preempted, at least in part, by certain federal laws, the scope of such preemption, if any, is uncertain. Accordingly, a court could prevent the Trustee, the Collateral Agent and the holders of the Notes from declaring a default and accelerating the Notes by reason of a breach of this covenant, which could have a material adverse effect on the ability of holders to enforce the covenant.

Your rights in the collateral may be adversely affected by the failure to perfect security interests in certain collateral acquired in the future.

Applicable law requires that certain property and rights acquired after the grant of a general security interest can only be perfected at the time such property and rights are acquired and identified. The Trustee or the Collateral Agent may not monitor and we may not inform the Trustee or the Collateral Agent of any future acquisition of property and rights that constitute collateral and the necessary action may not be to properly perfect the security interest in such after acquired collateral. The Collateral Agent has no obligation to monitor the acquisition of additional property or rights that constitute collateral or the perfection of any security interest in favor of the Notes against third parties.

The collateral is subject to casualty risks and potential environmental liabilities.

We intend to maintain insurance or otherwise insure against hazards in a manner appropriate and customary for our business. There are, however, certain losses, including those due to fires, earthquakes, severe weather conditions and other natural disasters, that may be uninsurable or not economically insurable, in whole or in part. Insurance proceeds may not compensate us fully for our losses. If there is a complete or partial loss of any of the pledged collateral, the insurance proceeds may not be sufficient to satisfy all of our secured obligations, including the Notes, the related guarantees and the Revolving Facility.

In the event of a total or partial loss to any of our facilities, certain items of equipment or inventory may not be easily replaced. Accordingly, even though there may be insurance coverage, the extended period needed to manufacture or obtain replacement units or inventory could cause significant delays.

Moreover, the Collateral Agent or the Revolving Facility Agent, as applicable, may need to evaluate the impact of potential liabilities before determining to foreclose on collateral consisting of real property because secured creditors that hold a security interest in real property may be held liable under environmental laws for the costs of remediating the release or threatened release of hazardous substances at such real property. Consequently, such agent may decline to foreclose on such collateral or exercise remedies in respect thereof if it does not receive indemnification to its satisfaction from the holders of the Notes and/or the creditors under the Revolving Facility, as applicable.

Federal and state statutes allow courts, under specific circumstances, to void guarantees and require holders of the Notes to return payments received from guarantors.

Under the federal bankruptcy law and comparable provisions of state fraudulent transfer laws, a guarantee could be voided, or claims in respect of a guarantee could be subordinated to all other debts of that guarantor, if the guarantor at the time it incurred the indebtedness evidenced by its guarantee:

received less than reasonably equivalent value or fair consideration for the incurrence of its guarantee and was insolvent or rendered insolvent by reason of such incurrence;

was engaged in a business or transaction for which the guarantor's remaining assets constituted unreasonably small capital; or intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay those debts as they mature.

The measures of insolvency for purposes of these fraudulent transfer laws will vary depending upon the law applied in any proceeding to determine whether a fraudulent transfer has occurred. Generally, however, a guarantor would be considered insolvent if:

the sum of its debts, including contingent liabilities, was greater than the fair saleable value of all of its assets;

the present fair saleable value of its assets was less than the amount that would be required to pay its probable liability on its existing debts, including contingent liabilities, as they become absolute and mature; or it could not pay its debts as they become due.

We cannot assure you as to what standard a court would apply in determining whether a guarantor would be considered to be insolvent. If a court determined that a guarantor was insolvent after giving effect to the guarantee, it could void the guarantee of the Notes by a guarantor and require you to return any payments received from such guarantor.

Bankruptcy laws may limit your ability to realize value from the collateral.

The right of the Collateral Agent to repossess and dispose of the collateral upon the occurrence of an event of default under the Indenture is likely to be significantly impaired by applicable bankruptcy law if a bankruptcy case were to be commenced by or against us before the Collateral Agent repossessed and disposed of the collateral. Upon the commencement of a case under the Bankruptcy Code, a secured creditor such as the Collateral Agent is prohibited from repossessing its security from a debtor in a bankruptcy case, or from disposing of security repossessed from such debtor, without bankruptcy court approval, which may not be given. Moreover, the Bankruptcy Code permits the debtor to continue to retain and use collateral even though the debtor is in default under the applicable debt instruments, provided that the secured creditor is given adequate protection. The meaning of the term adequate protection may vary according to circumstances, but it is intended in general to protect the value of the secured creditor's interest in the collateral as of the commencement of the bankruptcy case and may include cash payments or the granting of additional security if and at such times as the bankruptcy court in its discretion determines that the value of the secured creditor's interest in the collateral is declining during the pendency of the bankruptcy case. A bankruptcy court may determine that a secured creditor may not require compensation for a diminution in the value of its collateral if the value of the collateral exceeds the debt it secures.

In view of the lack of a precise definition of the term "adequate protection" and the broad discretionary power of a bankruptcy court, it is impossible to predict:

how long payments under the Notes could be delayed following commencement of a bankruptcy case;

whether or when the Collateral Agent could repossess or dispose of the collateral;

the value of the collateral at the time of the bankruptcy petition; or whether or to what extent holders of the Notes would be compensated for any delay in payment or loss of value of the collateral through the requirement of "adequate protection."

Table of Contents

In addition, the Intercreditor Agreement provides that, in the event of a bankruptcy, the Collateral Agent may not object to a number of important matters with respect to the first-priority collateral of the lenders under the Revolving Facility following the filing of a bankruptcy petition so long as any obligation under the Revolving Facility is outstanding. After such a filing, the value of such collateral securing the Notes could materially deteriorate and you would be unable to raise an objection. The right of the holders of obligations secured by first-priority liens on the collateral to foreclose upon and sell the collateral upon the occurrence of an event of default also would be subject to limitations under applicable bankruptcy laws if we or any of our subsidiaries become subject to a bankruptcy proceeding.

Any disposition of the collateral during a bankruptcy case would also require permission from the bankruptcy court. Furthermore, in the event a bankruptcy court determines the value of the collateral is not sufficient to repay all amounts due in respect of the Revolving Facility Obligations and the Notes, the holders of the Notes would hold a secured claim to the extent of the value of the collateral to which the holders of the Notes are entitled (after the application of proceeds of the collateral securing Revolving Facility Obligations on a first-priority basis) and unsecured claims with respect to such shortfall. The Bankruptcy Code only permits the payment and accrual of post-petition interest, costs and attorney's fees to a secured creditor during a debtor's bankruptcy case to the extent the value of its collateral is determined by the bankruptcy court to exceed the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the obligations secured by the collateral.

Any future pledge of collateral may be avoidable in bankruptcy.

Any future pledge of collateral in favor of the Trustee or the Collateral Agent, including pursuant to any security documents delivered after the date of the Indenture, may be avoidable by the pledgor (a debtor in possession) or by its trustee in bankruptcy if certain events or circumstances exist or occur, including, among others, if (i) the pledgor is insolvent at the time of the pledge, (ii) the pledge permits the holders of the Notes to receive a greater recovery than if the pledge had not been given; and (iii) a bankruptcy proceeding in respect of the pledgor is commenced within 90 days following the pledge, or, in certain circumstances, a longer period.

Lien searches may not have revealed all liens on the collateral.

We cannot guarantee that the lien searches on the collateral securing the Notes revealed or will reveal any or all existing liens on such collateral. Any existing lien, including undiscovered liens, could be significant, could be prior in ranking to the liens securing the Notes and could have an adverse effect on the ability of the Collateral Agent to realize or foreclose upon the collateral securing the Notes.

Security over all of the collateral may not have been in place upon the date of issuance of the Notes or may not have been perfected on such date.

Certain security interests covering certain collateral, including mortgages on real property and related documentation, control agreements covering deposit accounts and securities accounts, and intellectual property security agreements covering trademarks may not have been in place on the date of issuance of the Notes or may not have been perfected on such date. To the extent a security interest in certain collateral was perfected following the date of the Indenture, it might be avoidable in bankruptcy. See above. Any future pledge of collateral might be avoidable in bankruptcy.

The conversion rate of the Notes may not be adjusted for all dilutive events.

The conversion rate of the Notes is subject to adjustment for specified events, like the issuance of shares of Common Stock to the Management Equity Incentive Plan or upon the exercise of the warrants or stock dividends on the Common Stock, stock splits, combinations or similar events. The conversion rate will not be adjusted for other events, such as the issuance of Common Stock for cash, that may adversely affect the trading price of the Notes or the Common Stock. We cannot assure you that an event that adversely affects the value of the Notes, but does not result in an adjustment to the conversion rate, will not occur.

Upon conversion of any Notes, we may pay cash in lieu of issuing shares of Common Stock or a combination of cash and shares of Common Stock for the Accrued Interest associated with such Notes. Therefore, holders of Notes may receive no shares of Common Stock or fewer shares of Common Stock than the number of shares of Common Stock into which the Accrued Interest is convertible.

We have the right to satisfy the Accrued Interest portion of our conversion obligations to converting holders by issuing shares of Common Stock, by paying the cash value of the Accrued Interest or a combination thereof.

Accordingly, upon conversion of all or a portion of the Notes, holders may receive fewer shares of Common Stock relative to the conversion value of the Notes (including the amount of the Accrued Interest). Further, our liquidity may be reduced to the extent we choose to deliver cash rather than shares of Common Stock to satisfy our Accrued Interest payment obligations, if any, in connection with the conversion of any Notes.

If you do not convert your Notes following receipt of a Conversion Event Notice, your Notes will no longer be convertible after the 45th day following the date of such Conversion Event Notice. Any Notes outstanding after termination of such conversion rights, will likely be illiquid, will no longer bear interest and will be redeemable by the Company at par plus accrued interest to the Conversion Termination Date at any time prior to maturity.

Following the occurrence of a Conversion Event and the delivery of a Conversion Event Notice to holders of the Notes, any Notes not converted into Common Stock prior to the 45th day following the date of such Conversion Event Notice will cease to be convertible (subject to certain exceptions related to Notes that cannot be converted in full due to the Conversion Cap). After such 45th day, the Notes will cease to accrue interest and the collateral securing the Notes and the guarantees will be released. The Company may, after such date, redeem any remaining Notes at any time prior to maturity but there is no guarantee the Company would elect to do so. After such 45th day, substantially all of the restrictive covenants in the Indenture and certain events of default contained therein will be eliminated. The elimination of these covenants and other provisions will permit the Company to take certain actions that could increase the credit risks with respect to the Company, adversely affect the market price and credit rating of the remaining Notes or otherwise be materially adverse to the interest of holders of Notes, which would otherwise not have previously been permitted pursuant to the Indenture.

Holders who do not convert will have limited liquidity due to the small number of Notes that are likely to remain outstanding, will no longer receive interest on their Notes and may be required to hold their Notes until maturity.

An event that adversely affects the value of the Notes may occur, and that event may not constitute a Fundamental Change of Control.

Some significant restructuring transactions may not constitute a Fundamental Change of Control, in which case we would not be obligated to repurchase the Notes or pay the Fundamental Change of Control Make Whole.

Upon the occurrence of a Fundamental Change of Control, you have the right to require us to repurchase your Notes. Alternatively, you have the right to receive the Fundamental Change of Control Make Whole. However, the definition of Fundamental Change of Control is limited to only certain transactions or events. Therefore, the fundamental change of control provisions will not afford protection to holders of the Notes in the event of other transactions or events that do not constitute a Fundamental Change of Control but that could nevertheless adversely affect the Notes. For example, transactions such as leveraged recapitalizations, refinancings, restructurings, or acquisitions initiated by us may not constitute a Fundamental Change of Control requiring us to repurchase the Notes or pay the Fundamental Change of Control Make Whole. In the event of any such transaction, the holders would not have the right to require us to repurchase the Notes or to pay the Fundamental Change of Control Make Whole, even though each of these transactions could increase the amount of our indebtedness, or otherwise adversely affect our capital structure or any credit ratings or otherwise adversely affect the value of the Notes.

We may not be able to repurchase Notes or pay in cash amounts contemplated under the Indenture upon the occurrence of certain events.

Upon the occurrence of a Fundamental Change of Control, the holders of the Notes will require us to pay the Fundamental Change of Control Make Whole, which consists of the Make Whole Premium and the Make Whole Payment, or to repurchase Notes, at par plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon. If applicable, we may elect to pay the Make Whole Payment portion of the Fundamental Change of Control Make Whole in cash or in shares of Common Stock. Furthermore, upon the occurrence of a Conversion Event on or prior to August 31, 2012, in addition to the shares issued upon conversion or amounts received upon redemption, as applicable, the holders of the Notes will have the right to receive the Cash Conversion Amount, which we may elect to pay in cash or shares of Common Stock.

It is possible that we will not have sufficient funds at the time of the occurrence of a Fundamental Change of Control or Conversion Event to make any required repurchase of Notes or to pay the Make Whole Payment in cash, in connection with the occurrence of a Fundamental Change of Control, or to pay the Cash Conversion Amount in cash, in connection with the occurrence of a Conversion Event. In addition, we have, and may in the future incur, other indebtedness with similar change of control provisions permitting other creditors to accelerate or to require us to repurchase our indebtedness upon the occurrence of similar events or on some specific dates.

Holders of the Notes are not entitled to any rights with respect to the Common Stock but are subject to any changes made with respect to the Common Stock.

Holders of the Notes are not entitled to any rights with respect to the Common Stock, including voting rights and rights to receive any dividends or other distributions on the Common Stock (except that holders of the Notes will have the right to have the conversion rate adjusted in certain circumstances), but are subject to all changes affecting the Common Stock. Holders of the Notes will only be entitled to rights as a holder of Common Stock if and when we deliver shares of Common Stock in connection with conversion of the Notes. For example, in the event that an amendment is proposed to our certificate of incorporation or our by-laws requiring stockholder approval and the record date for determining the stockholders of record entitled to vote on the amendment occurs prior to delivery of Common Stock on conversion, those converting holders of Notes will not be entitled to vote on the amendment, although they will nevertheless be subject to any changes in the powers, preferences or special rights of holders of Common Stock effected as a result of the amendment.

Holders of the Notes may be required to recognize income for tax purposes without a corresponding receipt of cash.

Holders of the Notes may be treated as receiving a constructive distribution (which may be taxed as a dividend or subject to U.S. withholding taxes) as a result of certain adjustments to the conversion rate of the Notes. A constructive distribution may give rise to taxable income without a corresponding receipt of cash, resulting in an out-of-pocket tax payment for some holders of the Notes. See Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations. We particularly urge potential purchasers of Notes to consult their own tax advisor regarding the tax consequences of adjustments to the conversion rate of the Notes.

The Internal Revenue Service may challenge the status of the Notes as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The status of the Notes as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes depends on a number of factors. While we intend to take the position that the Notes are debt for this purpose, there can be no assurance that the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) will not successfully challenge this position. If the Notes were not treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes could be materially different than those described under Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations.

The ability to transfer the Notes may be limited by the absence of an active trading market.

We have not listed, and do not currently intend to list, the Notes for trading on any stock exchange or market or automated quotation system. Holders of the Notes may be required to bear the risk of their investment for an indefinite period of time. Historically, the market for non-investment grade debt has been subject to substantial volatility, which could adversely affect the prices at which you may sell your Notes. In addition, the price of the Notes may decline depending upon prevailing interest rates, the market for similar notes, our operating performance and other factors.

Rating agencies may provide unsolicited ratings on the Notes that could cause the market value or liquidity of the Notes to decline.

We have not requested a rating of the Notes from any rating agency and believe it is unlikely that the Notes will be rated. However, if one or more rating agencies rate the Notes and assign the Notes a rating lower than the rating expected by investors, or reduces their rating in the future, the market price or liquidity of the Notes could be harmed.

Material Relationships with the Selling Stockholders

Registration Rights Agreement

In connection with the issuance of the Notes, we entered into a registration rights agreement, dated August 31, 2010 (the Registration Rights Agreement), under which we agreed, pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth therein, to register the Notes and the Common Stock into which the Notes convert. Under the Registration Rights Agreement, we were required to use commercially reasonable efforts to file a shelf registration statement, of which this prospectus forms a part, covering the resale by the Electing Holders (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) of the Notes that were Registrable Securities (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement) on or prior to September 1, 2011. Under the Registration Rights Agreement, we were also required to file a registration statement by February 28, 2011 covering the resale of shares of Common Stock that are issuable or have been issued upon conversion of the Notes and shares of our Common Stock issued by us to pay interest, premium or other amounts to holders of the Notes, by the Electing Holders, on a delayed or continuous basis. We filed a registration statement covering the resale of shares of Common Stock that constituted Registrable Securities for the Electing Holders as described above, and it was declared effective by the SEC on April 8, 2011. We were required to pay special interest if we failed to file either shelf registration statement by the applicable deadline or if any registration statement required by the Registration Rights Agreement ceases or ceased to be effective for more than 45 days with respect to any Registrable Securities. Special interest accrued from March 1, 2011 to March 18, 2011 with respect to the registration statement that covered the resale of shares of the Common Stock at a rate of approximately $350 per day.

The selling noteholders are also entitled to unlimited piggyback rights on any registrations with respect to an underwritten offering of securities by the Company for its own account, subject to certain exceptions. The foregoing registration rights are subject to customary limitations and exceptions, including the Company's right to defer the registration in certain circumstances and certain cutbacks by the underwriters.

Under the Registration Rights Agreement, we have agreed to indemnify each selling noteholder and its partners, directors, officers, affiliates, stockholders, members, employees, agents, trustees and each person, if any, who controls such noteholder against certain liabilities, including specified liabilities under the Securities Act. We have also agreed to indemnify any underwriters for such selling noteholders and their officers, directors and employees and each person, if any, who controls such underwriters to the same extent as provided with respect to the indemnification of the selling noteholders. The selling noteholders have agreed to indemnify us for liabilities arising under the Securities Act with respect to written information furnished to us by them or to contribute with respect to payments in connection with such liabilities. We have agreed to pay all expenses in connection with this offering, but not including any broker's commission or underwriter's discount or commission.

Plan of Distribution

We are registering the Notes covered by this prospectus to permit selling noteholders to conduct public secondary trading of these Notes from time to time after the date of this prospectus. We will not receive any of the proceeds of the sale of the Notes offered by this prospectus. The aggregate proceeds to the selling noteholders from the sale of the Notes will be the purchase price of the Notes less any discounts and commissions. A selling noteholder reserves the right to accept and, together with their agents, to reject, any proposed purchases of Notes to be made directly or through agents.

The Notes offered by this prospectus may be sold from time to time to purchasers:

directly by the selling noteholders and their successors, which include their donees, pledgees or transferees or their successors-in-interest, or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, who may receive compensation in the form of discounts, commissions or agent's commissions from the selling noteholders or the purchasers of the Notes. These discounts, concessions or commissions may be in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved.

The selling noteholders and any underwriters, broker-dealers or agents who participate in the sale or distribution of the Notes may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act. The selling noteholders identified as or affiliated with registered broker-dealers in the selling noteholders table above (under Selling Noteholders) are deemed to be underwriters with respect to securities sold by them pursuant to this prospectus. As a result, any profits on the sale of the Notes by such selling noteholders and any discounts, commissions or agent's commissions or concessions received by any such broker-dealer or agents may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. Selling noteholders who are deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. Underwriters are subject to certain statutory liabilities, including, but not limited to, Sections 11, 12 and 17 of the Securities Act.

The Notes may be sold in one or more transactions at:

fixed prices;

prevailing market prices at the time of sale;

through the writing of options, whether such options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise;

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;

block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the Notes as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;
an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

Table of Contents

privately negotiated transactions;

through the settlement of short sales;

sales pursuant to Rule 144 or Rule 144A;

broker-dealers may agree with the selling noteholder to sell a specified number of Notes at a stipulated price per share;

through any combination of the foregoing; or any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

These transactions may include block transactions or crosses. Crosses are transactions in which the same broker acts as an agent on both sides of the trade.

In connection with the sales of the Notes, the selling noteholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions which in turn may:

engage in short sales of the Notes in the course of hedging their positions;

sell the Notes short and deliver the Notes to close out short positions;

loan or pledge the Notes to broker-dealers or other financial institutions that in turn may sell the Notes;

enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions that require the delivery to the broker-dealer or other financial institution of the Notes, which the broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell under the prospectus; or enter into transactions in which a broker-dealer makes purchases as a principal for resale for its own account or through other types of transactions.

The Notes may be offered to the public either through underwriting syndicates represented by one or more managing underwriters or directly by one or more of such firms. The obligations of underwriters or dealers to purchase the Notes offered will be subject to certain conditions precedent and the terms of any agreement entered into with the underwriters. Any public offering price and any discount or concession allowed or reallocated or paid by underwriters or dealers to other dealers may be changes from time to time.

To our knowledge, there are currently no plans, arrangements or understandings between any selling noteholders and any underwriter, broker-dealer or agent regarding the sale of the Notes by the selling noteholders.

We have not applied, and do not intend to apply, for listing of the Notes on any national securities exchange or automated quotation system. Our Common Stock is listed on the Nasdaq Capital Market under the symbol USCR.

There can be no assurance that any selling noteholder will sell any or all of the Notes under this prospectus. Further, we cannot determine whether any such selling noteholder will transfer, devise or gift the Notes by other means not described in this prospectus. In addition, any Notes covered by this prospectus that qualify for sale under Rule 144 of the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than under this prospectus. The Notes covered by this prospectus may also be sold to non-U.S. persons outside the U.S. in accordance with Regulation S under the Securities Act rather than under this prospectus. The Notes may be sold in some states only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in some states the Notes may not be sold unless it has been registered or qualified for sale or an exemption from registration or qualification is available and complied with.

The selling noteholders and any other person participating in the sale of the Notes will be subject to the Exchange Act. The Exchange Act rules include, without limitation, Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the Notes by the selling noteholders and any other such person. In addition, Regulation M may restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the Notes to engage in market-making activities with respect to the particular Notes being distributed. This may affect the marketability of the Notes and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to the Notes.

Table of Contents

Underwriters, dealers or agents may be authorized to solicit offers by certain institutional investors to purchase securities from the selling noteholders pursuant to contracts providing for payment and delivery at a future date. Institutional investors with which these contracts may be made include, among others:

pension funds;

investment companies;

We have agreed to pay substantially all of the expenses incidental to the registration, offering and sale of the Notes to the public, including the payment of federal securities law and state blue sky registration fees, except that we will not bear any legal counsel fees (except as described below), underwriting fees, discounts or commissions or transfer taxes relating to the sale of the Notes.

Description of Capital Stock

On August 31, 2010 (the Effective Date), we and certain of our subsidiaries (collectively, the Debtors) consummated the transactions contemplated by the Debtors Plan, pursuant to Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, dated July 27, 2010, as confirmed by the Confirmation Order of the Bankruptcy Court entered on July 29, 2010, and emerged from Chapter 11 in accordance with the Plan.

On the Effective Date, the Old Common Stock was cancelled pursuant to the Plan. On the Effective Date, the Company issued an aggregate of approximately 11.9 million shares of common Stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Common Stock), pursuant to the Plan. In connection with the Plan, the Company adopted an Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the Certificate) and the Third Amended and Restated By-Laws (the By-laws), effective as of the Effective Date.

Set forth below is a description of the Common Stock and other relevant provisions of the Certificate and By-laws. This description of our capital stock is only a summary and is qualified by applicable law and by the provisions of our Certificate and By-laws, copies of which are available as set forth under Where You Can Find More Information.

Common Stock

The Certificate authorizes the issuance of 100,000,000 shares of Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share, and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share (the Preferred Stock). All of the Common Stock issued under the Plan is fully paid and non-assessable.

Each share of Common Stock (1) will have one vote on all matters voted upon by the stockholders of the Company; provided, however, that, except as otherwise required by law, holders of Common Stock, as such, shall not be entitled to vote on any amendment to the Certificate (including any certificate of designations relating to any series of Preferred Stock) that relates solely to the terms of one or more outstanding series of Preferred Stock if the holders of such affected series are entitled, either separately or together with the holders of one or more other such series, to vote thereon pursuant to the Certificate (including any certificate of designations relating to any series of Preferred Stock), (2) affords no cumulative voting or preemptive rights and (3) is not convertible, redeemable, assessable or entitled to the benefits of any sinking or repurchase fund.

Holders of Common Stock will be entitled to dividends in such amounts and at such times as our Board in its discretion may declare out of funds legally available therefor, subject to the preferences that may apply to any shares of preferred stock outstanding at the time.

Preferred Stock

Pursuant to the Certificate, we are authorized to issue blank check preferred stock, which may be issued from time to time in one or more series upon authorization by the Board. The Board, without further approval of the stockholders, is authorized to fix the dividend rights and terms, conversion rights, voting rights, redemption rights and terms, liquidation preferences, and any other rights, preferences and restrictions applicable to each series of the Preferred Stock. The issuance of Preferred Stock, while providing flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions and other corporate purposes could, among other things, adversely affect the voting power of the holders of the Common Stock and, under certain circumstances, make it more difficult for a third party to gain control of us, discourage bids for the Common Stock at a premium or otherwise affect the market price of the Common Stock.

Anti-takeover Effects of the Certificate and the Bylaws

Some provisions of the Certificate and the Bylaws may be deemed to have an anti-takeover effect and may delay or prevent a tender offer or takeover attempt that a stockholder might consider to be in its best interest, including those attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for the shares held by stockholders.

These provisions include:

Board vacancies

The Certificate authorizes the Board to fill vacant directorships or increase the size of the Board, which may deter a stockholder from removing incumbent directors and simultaneously gaining control of the Board by filling the vacancies created by this removal with its own nominees.

Cumulative voting

The Certificate does not grant our stockholders the right to cumulative voting in the election of directors. As a result, stockholders may not aggregate their votes for a single director.

Special meeting of stockholders

The Certificate provides that special meetings of our stockholders may be only be called by the Chairman of the Board or by the Board pursuant to a resolution a majority of the Board approves by an affirmative vote.

Authorized but unissued shares

Our authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock are available for future issuance without stockholder approval. These additional shares may be utilized for a variety of corporate purposes, including future public offerings to raise additional capital, corporate acquisitions and employee benefit plans. The existence of authorized but unissued shares of Common Stock and Preferred Stock could render more difficult or discourage an attempt to obtain control of a majority of the Common Stock by means of a proxy contest, tender offer, merger or otherwise.

Section 203 of Delaware General Corporation Law

As of the Effective Date, we were not subject to Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (as amended, the DGCL) because we did not have a class of voting stock that is listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders and we had not elected by a provision in our original Certificate or any amendment thereto to be governed by Section 203 of the DGCL. Upon the listing of our Common Stock on the Nasdaq on February 1, 2011, we became subject to Section 203 of the DGCL, except that the restrictions contained in Section 203 of the DGCL do not apply if the business combination is with an interested stockholder who became an interested stockholder before the time that our Common Stock was listed on the Nasdaq.

Transfer Agent

American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC is the transfer agent for the Common Stock.

Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Bylaws provide that each person who was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he, or a person for whom he is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the Company or, while a director or officer of the Company, is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust, enterprise or nonprofit entity, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, is indemnified and held harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, against all liability and loss suffered and expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by such person.

The rights conferred in the Bylaws includes the right to have the Company pay the expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition, provided, however, that, to the extent required by law, such payment of expenses in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding shall be made only upon receipt of an undertaking by the indemnitee to repay all amounts advanced if it should be ultimately determined that such indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified under the Bylaws or otherwise.

The Certificate provides that no director of the Company shall be personally liable to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for a breach of fiduciary duty as a director, subject to certain exceptions.

The Issuer will pay the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on the Notes in the manner described below. An installment of principal of, or interest on, the Notes will be considered paid on the date it is due if the Trustee or Paying Agent (other than the Issuer or an Affiliate thereof) holds on that date U.S. Legal Tender designated for and sufficient to pay the installment.

The Issuer will maintain or cause to be maintained an office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, where (a) Notes may be presented or surrendered for registration of transfer or for exchange (Registrar), (b) Notes may, subject to the terms of the Notes, be presented or surrendered for payment (Paying Agent) and (c) notices and demands to or upon the Issuer in respect of the Notes and the Indenture may be served. The Issuer may act as Registrar or Paying Agent, except that for the purposes of Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance and Discharge of Indenture, neither the Issuer nor any Affiliate of the Issuer may act as Paying Agent. The Registrar will keep a register of the Notes and of their transfer and exchange and the entries in such register will be conclusive as to the ownership of each of the Notes, absent manifest error. The Issuer, upon notice to the Trustee, may have one or more co-registrars and one or more additional paying agents reasonably acceptable to the Trustee. The term Registrar includes any co-registrar and the term Paying Agent includes any additional paying agent. The Issuer initially appointed the Trustee as Registrar and Paying Agent until such time as the Trustee has resigned or a successor has been appointed. The Issuer may change any Paying Agent or Registrar without notice to any Holder.

A Holder may transfer or exchange notes at the office of the Registrar in accordance with the Indenture. The Registrar and the Trustee may require a holder, among other things, to furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents. No service charge will be imposed for any registration of transfer or exchange of Notes, but the Issuer may require a holder to pay a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or similar governmental charge payable in connection therewith.

Without the prior written consent of the Issuer, the Registrar will not be required to register the transfer of or exchange of any Note (i) during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 days before the mailing of a notice of redemption of Notes and ending at the Close of Business on the day of such mailing, (ii) selected for redemption in whole or in part pursuant to Conversion, except the unredeemed portion of any Note being redeemed in part, and (iii) beginning at the opening of business on any Record Date and ending on the Close of Business on the related Interest Payment Date.

Any Holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note, by acceptance of such beneficial interest, agrees that transfers of beneficial interests in such Global Notes may be effected only through a book-entry system maintained by the Holder of such Global Note (or its agent) in accordance with the applicable legends thereon, and that ownership of a beneficial interest in the Note shall be required to be reflected in a book-entry system.

The registered Holder of a Note may be treated as the owner of it for all purposes.

Maturity; Interest

The Notes will mature on August 31, 2015.

The Notes bear interest at rate of 9.5% per annum from August 31, 2010 until maturity. The Issuer will pay interest quarterly on March 1, June 1, September 1 and December 1 of each year, or if any such day is not a Business Day, on the next succeeding Business Day (each an Interest Payment Date). Interest on the Notes accrues from the most recent date to which interest has been paid or, if no interest has been paid, from the date of original issuance. The Issuer will pay interest (including post-petition interest in any proceeding under any Bankruptcy Law) on overdue principal and premium, if any, from time to time on demand to the extent lawful at the rate equal to 2% per annum in excess of the then applicable rate on the Notes; it will pay interest (including post-petition interest in any proceeding under any Bankruptcy Law) on overdue installments of interest (without regard to any applicable grace periods) from time to time on demand at the same rate to the extent lawful. Interest on the Notes is computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months.

The Issuer will pay interest on the Notes to the Persons who are registered Holders of Notes at the Close of Business on the February 15, May 15, August 15 or November 15 next preceding the Interest Payment Date (each a Record Date), even if such Notes are canceled after such record date and on or before such Interest Payment Date, except as provided in the Indenture with respect to defaulted interest. The Issuer will pay principal, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes in such coin or currency of the United States of America as at the time of payment is legal tender for payment of public and private debts (U.S. Legal Tender). Principal, premium, if any, and interest on the Notes will be payable at the office or agency of the Issuer maintained for such purpose except that, at the option of the Issuer, the payment of interest may be made by check mailed to the Holders of the Notes at their respective addresses set forth in the register of Holders of Notes; provided, that for Holders that have given wire transfer instructions to the Issuer at least three Business Days prior to the applicable payment date, the Issuer will make all payments of principal, premium and interest by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the accounts specified by the Holders thereof. Until otherwise designated by the Issuer, the Issuer's office or agency in New York will be the office of the Trustee maintained for such purpose.

All references to interest with respect to the Notes, unless the context requires otherwise, includes interest and Additional Interest, if any, on the Notes.

Security

The Notes and the Guarantees are secured by first-priority liens on certain of the property and assets directly owned by the Issuer and each of the Guarantors, including material owned real property, fixtures, intellectual property, capital stock of subsidiaries and certain equipment, subject to permitted liens (including a second-priority lien in favor of the Bank Collateral Agent) and certain exceptions (as described in the Security Documents). Obligations under the ABL Facility and those in respect of hedging and cash management obligations owed to the lenders (and their affiliates) party to the ABL Facility are secured by a second-priority lien on such collateral.

The Notes and the Guarantees are also secured by a second-priority lien on the assets of the Issuer and the Guarantors securing the ABL Obligations (as defined below) on a first-priority basis, including, inventory (including as extracted collateral), accounts, certain specified mixture trucks, chattel paper, general intangibles (other than collateral securing the Notes on a first-priority basis), instruments, documents, cash, deposit accounts, securities accounts, commodities accounts, letter of credit rights and all supporting obligations and related books and records and all proceeds and products of the foregoing, subject to permitted liens and certain exceptions, as described in the Security Documents.

A material portion of the collateral which secures the Notes secures the ABL Obligations on a first-priority basis and secures the Notes on a second-priority basis. The remaining collateral which secures the Notes (on a first-priority basis) secures ABL Obligations on a second-priority basis. See Risk Factors Risks Related to the Notes and the Common Stock There may not be sufficient collateral to pay all or any of the Notes.

Intercreditor Agreement

On August 31, 2010, the Issuer and the Guarantors entered into the Intercreditor Agreement. The Intercreditor Agreement sets forth the terms of the relationship between the holders of the ABL Obligations and the holders of Notes Obligations (as defined below).

Restrictions on Claims Subject to Priority Treatment

The Intercreditor Agreement provides that the holders of the ABL Obligations are entitled to a first priority lien (subject to certain exceptions) on the ABL Collateral to secure (a) up to $80,000,000, less certain permanent commitment reductions under the ABL Facility as a result of the prepayment of such obligations with the net proceeds from any asset dispositions, of the principal amount of revolving loans and letters of credit, plus (b) interest, indemnities, fees, expenses and other obligations incurred under the ABL Facility and the documents, agreements and instruments governing the ABL Facility (collectively, the ABL Documents), plus (c) cash management obligations and obligations in respect of hedging arrangements owed to a lender under the ABL Facility or any affiliate of a lender (collectively, the ABL Obligations). The holders of Notes are entitled to a first priority lien (subject to certain exceptions) on the Notes Collateral to secure the principal, interest, fees and other obligations incurred by the Issuer and its subsidiaries under the Note Documents (collectively, the Notes Obligations). The holders of the ABL Obligations are also be entitled to a second priority lien (subject to certain exceptions) on the Notes Collateral to secure the ABL Obligations. The holders of the Notes Obligations are also be entitled to a second priority lien (subject to certain exceptions) on the ABL Collateral to secure the Notes Obligations.

Restrictions on Enforcement of Liens

The Intercreditor Agreement provides that so long as the ABL Obligations or Notes Obligations, as applicable, remain outstanding, whether or not any insolvency or liquidation proceeding has been commenced by or against the Issuer or any other Guarantor, the Noteholder Collateral Agent, the holders of the Notes, the Bank Collateral Agent and holders of ABL Obligations will not, as applicable, exercise or seek to exercise any rights or remedies (including setoff) with respect to any Collateral in respect of which such Person does not have a first priority lien.

The Intercreditor Agreement provides that the Bank Collateral Agent (on behalf of the holders of the ABL Obligations) or Noteholder Collateral Agent (on behalf of the holders of the Notes Obligations), as applicable, shall have the exclusive right, to enforce rights, exercise remedies (including setoff) and make determinations regarding the release and disposition with respect to the Collateral in which the Bank Collateral Agent or the Noteholder Collateral Agent, as applicable, has a first priority secured lien, without any consultation with or the consent of such other Person, subject to limitations and exceptions set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement.

The Intercreditor Agreement provides that, until the repayment in full and termination of the ABL Obligations has occurred, the Noteholder Collateral Agent and the holders of the Notes Obligations shall not take any action that would hinder, delay, limit or prohibit any exercise of remedies under the ABL Facility or other ABL Documents with respect to the ABL Collateral, including any collection, sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of the ABL Collateral, whether by foreclosure or otherwise, or that would challenge or contest such lien or that would subordinate the priority of the liens securing the ABL Obligations in respect of the ABL Collateral to the liens securing the Notes

Obligations or make the liens on the ABL Collateral securing the Notes Obligations equal ranking to the liens securing the ABL Obligations therein.

The Intercreditor Agreement provides that, until the repayment in full and termination of the Notes Obligations has occurred, the Bank Collateral Agent and the holders of the ABL Obligations shall not take any action that would hinder, delay, limit or prohibit any exercise of remedies under the Notes or Security Documents with respect to the Notes Collateral, including any collection, sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition of the Notes Collateral, whether by foreclosure or otherwise, or that would challenge or contest such lien or that would subordinate the priority of the liens securing the Notes Obligations in respect of the Notes Collateral to the liens securing the ABL Obligations or make the liens on the Notes Collateral securing the ABL Obligations equal ranking to the liens securing the Notes Obligations therein; provided, that the Intercreditor Agreement provides the Bank Collateral Agent the right of access to the Notes Collateral to process and prepare the ABL Collateral for sale and to sell or remove the ABL Collateral for a period of 120 days from the earlier of (i) the Bank Collateral Agent giving written notice to the Noteholder Collateral Agent of its election to request access to any parcel or item of Notes Collateral and (ii) the Bank Collateral Agent receiving written notice from the Noteholder Collateral Agent that the Noteholder Collateral Agent has acquired control or possession of relevant Notes Collateral or has, through the exercise of remedies or otherwise, sold such Notes Collateral to any third party purchaser.

Insolvency or Liquidation Proceedings

Until the repayment in full and termination of the ABL Obligations has occurred, if the Issuer or any Guarantor is subject to any insolvency or liquidation proceeding and the Bank Collateral Agent (acting at the direction of the requisite holders of ABL Obligations) permits:

- (1) the use of cash collateral constituting ABL Collateral; or
- (2) the Issuer or any Guarantor to obtain financing, whether from the holders of ABL Obligations or any other third party under applicable bankruptcy law secured by the Collateral (each, a Post-Petition ABL Financing); then the Noteholder Collateral Agent and the holders of Notes Obligations agree:
 - (a) that they will be deemed to have consented to (and will not oppose or raise any objection to or contest (or join with or support any third party opposing, objecting to or consenting) as a result of failure to provide adequate protection) such use of cash collateral or Post-Petition ABL Financing, subject to the limitations and exceptions set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement; and
 - (b) to the extent the liens on the ABL Collateral securing the ABL Obligations are subordinated to or pari passu with such Post-Petition ABL Financing, the liens securing the Notes Obligations on such ABL Collateral shall be deemed to be subordinated to (i) the liens securing such Post-Petition ABL Financing (and all obligations relating thereto) to the same extent and on the same terms and conditions as the liens securing the Notes Obligations are subordinated to the liens securing the ABL Obligations, (ii) any adequate protection provided to the Bank Collateral Agent or the holders of ABL Obligations and (iii) carve-out for professional and customary fees and expenses agreed to by the Bank Collateral Agent or the holders of ABL Obligations and approved by the relevant bankruptcy court.

- (1) the use of cash collateral constituting Notes Collateral; or
- (2) the Issuer or any Guarantor to obtain financing, whether from the holders of Notes Obligations or any other third party under applicable bankruptcy law secured by the Collateral (each, a Post-Petition Notes Financing); then the Bank Collateral Agent and the holders of ABL Obligations agree:
 - (a) that they will be deemed to have consented to (and will not oppose or raise any objection to or contest (or join with or support any third party opposing, objecting to or contesting)) such use of cash collateral or Post-Petition Notes Financing, subject to the limitations and exceptions set forth in the Intercreditor Agreement; and

- (b) to the extent the liens on the Notes Collateral securing the Notes Obligations are subordinated to or pari passu with such Post-Petition Notes Financing, the liens securing the ABL Obligations on such Notes Collateral shall be deemed to be subordinated to (i) the liens securing such Post-Petition Notes Financing (and all obligations relating thereto) to the same extent and on the same terms and conditions as the liens securing the ABL Obligations are subordinated to the loans securing the Notes Obligations, (ii) any adequate protection provided to the Noteholder Collateral Agent or the holders of Notes Obligations and (iii) carve-out for professional and customary fees and expenses agreed to by the Noteholder Collateral Agent or the holders of Notes Obligations and approved by the relevant bankruptcy court.

Each of the Bank Collateral Agent, the holders of the ABL Obligations, the Noteholder Collateral Agent and the holders of Notes agree that they will raise no objection or oppose a sale or other disposition of any Collateral free and clear of its second priority liens or other claims under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Law if the holder of the first priority secured lien in such Collateral has consented to such sale or disposition of such assets and the Person holding a second priority lien in the Collateral will be deemed to have consented under Section 363 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (and otherwise) to any sale supported by the Person holding the first priority secured lien in such Collateral and to have released their liens in such assets; provided, that the Bank Collateral Agent must receive at least 60 days prior notice of any sale of real property.

Until the repayment in full of the ABL Obligations, the Noteholder Collateral Agent and holders of Notes Obligations agree that none of them shall seek relief from the automatic stay of Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Law or from any other stay in any insolvency or liquidation proceeding in respect of the ABL Collateral, without the prior written consent of the Bank Collateral Agent and shall provide at least at least 30 days written notice prior to seeking any such relief with respect to the Collateral (unless otherwise agreed). Until the repayment in full of the Notes Obligations, the Bank Collateral Agent and holders of ABL Obligations agree that none of them shall seek relief from the automatic stay of Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Law or from any other stay in any insolvency or liquidation proceeding in respect of the Notes Collateral, without the prior written consent of the Noteholder Collateral Agent and shall provide at least at least 30 days written notice prior to seeking any such relief with respect to the Collateral (unless otherwise agreed).

The Noteholder Collateral Agent, the holders of Notes, the Bank Collateral Agent and the holders of the ABL Obligations agree that none of them shall oppose, object to or contest (or join with or support any third party opposing, objecting to or contesting) (i) any request by such Person for adequate protection in any insolvency or liquidation proceeding (or any granting of such request) in respect of the Collateral in which such Person has a first priority secured lien or (ii) any objection by the such Person to any motion, relief, action or proceeding based on such Person claiming a lack of adequate protection in respect of the Collateral in which such Person has a first priority secured lien.

Order of Application

The Intercreditor Agreement provides that, (i) any proceeds of any ABL Collateral pursuant to the enforcement of the ABL Facility or any ABL Document or the exercise of any remedial provision thereunder, shall be applied (in each case until such amounts are satisfied in full): first, to the costs and expenses of the Bank Collateral Agent and the holders of the ABL Obligations in connection with such enforcement; second, to the ABL Obligations in such order as specified in the ABL Facility (excluding any amounts in excess of the cap on ABL Obligations); third, to the Notes Obligations; and fourth, to any amounts in excess of the cap on ABL Obligations, and (ii) any proceeds of any Notes Collateral pursuant to the enforcement of the Notes or any Security Document or the exercise of any remedial provision thereunder, shall be applied (in each case until such amounts are satisfied in full): first, to the costs and expenses of the Noteholder Collateral Agent and the holders of the Notes Obligations in connection with such enforcement; second, to the Notes Obligations in such order as specified in the Notes; and third, to the ABL Obligations (including any amounts in excess of the cap on ABL Obligations). To the extent any excess proceeds remain after the above application, the Bank Collateral Agent or Noteholder Collateral Agent, as applicable, shall deliver to such other Person any proceeds of such Collateral held by it in the same form as received, with any necessary endorsements or as a court of competent jurisdiction may otherwise direct.

Release of Liens on Collateral

The Intercreditor Agreement provides that the (i) second priority lien held by the Noteholder Collateral Agent, on behalf of the holders of the Notes Obligations, on the ABL Collateral shall be automatically released upon the release, sale or disposition of the ABL Collateral which results in a release of the lien granted to the Bank Collateral Agent, on behalf of the holders of the ABL Obligations under the ABL Documents and (ii) second priority lien held by the Bank Collateral Agent, on behalf of the holders of the ABL Obligations, on the Notes Collateral shall be automatically released upon the release, sale or disposition of the Notes Collateral which results in a release of the lien granted to the Noteholder Collateral Agent, on behalf of the holders of the Notes Obligations under the Indenture and Security Documents. In order to effect such foregoing releases, the parties shall promptly execute and deliver any release documents and instruments as the other shall request.

Amendment of Security Documents

The Intercreditor Agreement provides that in the event the Bank Collateral Agent or the other holders of ABL Obligations and the relevant guarantors enter into any amendment, waiver or consent in respect of any guarantee or any security or collateral document with respect to the ABL Documents for the purpose of adding to, or deleting from, or waiving or consenting to any departures from any provisions of, any guarantee or any security or collateral document with respect to the ABL Documents or changing in any manner the rights of the Bank Collateral Agent, the other holders of ABL Obligations, the Issuer or any other guarantor thereunder, then to the extent such amendment, waiver or consent is with respect to the ABL Collateral, it shall apply automatically to any comparable provision of the Indenture and the comparable Security Document without the consent of the Noteholder Collateral Agent or the holders of the Notes Obligations and without any action by the Noteholder Collateral Agent, the Issuer or any other guarantor, provided, that, (i) no such amendment, waiver or consent shall have the effect of removing assets except to the extent that a release of such lien is permitted by the Intercreditor Agreement; and (ii) notice of such amendment, waiver or consent shall have been given to the Noteholder Collateral Agent no later than 30 days thereafter (although the failure to give any such notice shall in no way affect the effectiveness of any such amendment, waiver or consent).

The Intercreditor Agreement provides that in the event the Noteholder Collateral Agent or the other holders of Notes Obligations and the relevant guarantors enter into any amendment, waiver or consent in respect of any guarantee or any security or collateral document with respect to the Indenture and/or the Security Documents for the purpose of adding to, or deleting from, or waiving or consenting to any departures from any provisions of, any guarantee or any security or collateral document with respect to the Indenture and/or the Security Documents or changing in any manner the rights of the Noteholder Collateral Agent, the other holders of Notes Obligations, the Issuer or any other guarantor thereunder, then to the extent such amendment, waiver or consent is with respect to the Notes Collateral, it shall apply automatically to any comparable provision of the ABL Documents without the consent of the Bank Collateral Agent or the holders of the ABL Obligations and without any action by the Bank Collateral Agent, the Issuer or any other guarantor, provided, that, (i) no such amendment, waiver or consent shall have the effect of removing assets except to the extent that a release of such lien is permitted by the Intercreditor Agreement; and (ii) notice of such amendment, waiver or consent shall have been given to the Bank Collateral Agent no later than 30 days thereafter (although the failure to give any such notice shall in no way affect the effectiveness of any such amendment, waiver or consent).

Purchase Option

If an event of default has occurred and is continuing and remains uncured or unwaived for at least 30 days with respect to the ABL Obligations or the Notes Obligations, as the case may be, then all or a portion of the holders of the ABL Obligations or of the holders of the Notes Obligations, as the case may be, shall have the option at any time upon 5 business days' notice given (i) to the Noteholder Collateral Agent (in the case of the holders of the ABL Obligations) to purchase all of the Notes Obligations or (ii) to the Bank Collateral Agent (in the case of the holders of the Notes Obligations) to purchase all of the ABL Obligations, such purchase to be consummated in either case within 20 days after notice of election of such option. The purchase price shall be equal to the full amount of all ABL Obligations or Notes Obligations, as applicable, then outstanding and unpaid (including principal, interest, fees and expenses but excluding, any prepayment, make whole payment, termination or similar fees) and, with respect to the purchase of the ABL Obligations, shall include the delivery of cash collateral to the Bank Collateral Agent, in a manner and in such amounts as the Bank Collateral Agent determines is reasonably necessary to provide security for any issued and outstanding letter of credit, hedging obligations and cash management obligations comprising part of the ABL Obligations.

Release of Collateral

Collateral may be released from the Lien and security interest created by the Security Documents at any time or from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Security Documents, the Intercreditor Agreement or the Indenture. The Issuer and the Guarantors will be entitled to a release of property and other assets included in the Collateral from the Liens securing the Notes under one or more of the following circumstances:

- (i) to enable the Issuer or any Guarantor to sell, exchange or otherwise dispose of any of the Collateral to the extent not prohibited under Certain Covenants Limitations on Asset Sales;
- (ii) in the case of a Guarantor that is released from its Guarantee with respect to the Notes, the release of the property and assets of such Guarantor;
- (iii) pursuant to an amendment or waiver in accordance with Amendment, Supplement and Waiver;

(iv) pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement; or

(v) if the Notes have been discharged or defeased pursuant to Discharge of Indenture or Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance; provided, that in the case of any release in whole pursuant to clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) above, all amounts owing at such time to the Trustee under the Indenture, the Notes, the Notes Guarantees, the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement have been paid.

Table of Contents

To the extent applicable (if the Indenture is qualified under the TIA), the Issuer will cause TIA § 313(b), relating to reports, and TIA § 314(d), relating to the release of property or securities subject to the Lien of the Security Documents, to be complied with. Any release of Collateral permitted by the terms described above will be deemed not to impair the Liens under the Indenture, the Collateral Agreement and the other Security Documents in contravention thereof. Any certificate or opinion required by TIA § 314(d) may be made by an officer or legal counsel, as applicable, of the Issuer except in cases where TIA § 314(d) requires that such certificate or opinion be made by an independent Person, which Person will be an independent engineer, appraiser or other expert selected by or reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph, the Issuer will not be required to comply with all or any portion of TIA § 314(d) if it reasonably determines that under the terms of TIA § 314(d) or any interpretation or guidance as to the meaning thereof of the SEC and its staff, including no action letters or exemptive orders, all or any portion of TIA § 314(d) is inapplicable to any release or series of releases of Collateral. In addition, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Subsidiaries of the Issuer may, among other things, without any release or consent by the Trustee (and without the delivery of any Officers Certificate or any other documents under the Indenture, except as specified in this paragraph, but otherwise in compliance with the covenants of the Indenture and the Security Documents, conduct ordinary course activities with respect to the Collateral including, without limitation (i) selling or otherwise disposing of, in any transaction or series of related transactions, any property subject to the Liens and security interests created by the Indenture or any of the Security Documents which has become worn out, defective or obsolete or not used or useful in the business; (ii) abandoning, terminating, canceling, releasing or making alterations in or substitutions of any leases or contracts subject to the Liens and security interests created by the Security Documents; (iii) surrendering or modifying any franchise, license or permit subject to the Liens and security interests created by the Security Documents which it may own or under which it may be operating; (iv) altering, repairing, replacing or changing the location or position of and adding to its structures, machinery, systems, equipment, fixtures and appurtenances; (v) granting a license of any intellectual property; (vi) selling, transferring or otherwise disposing of inventory in the ordinary course of business; (vii) collecting accounts receivable in the ordinary course of business or selling, liquidating, factoring or otherwise disposing of accounts receivable in the ordinary course of business; (viii) making cash payments (including for the repayment of Indebtedness or interest and in connection with the Issuer's cash management activities) from cash that is at any time part of the Collateral in the ordinary course of business that are not otherwise prohibited by the Indenture or the Security Documents; and (ix) abandoning any intellectual property which is no longer used or useful in the Issuer's business. The Issuer must deliver to the Trustee within 30 calendar days following the end of each fiscal year (or such later date as the Trustee shall agree), an Officers Certificate to the effect that all releases and withdrawals during the preceding fiscal year in which no release or consent of the Trustee was obtained in the ordinary course of the Issuer's and its Subsidiaries' business were not prohibited by the Indenture. The Trustee will execute and deliver to the Issuer all documents reasonably requested to evidence any such releases of Collateral. In addition, in lieu of releasing the Liens created by any of the Mortgages, the Trustee or Collateral Agent will, at the request of the Issuer, to the extent necessary to facilitate future savings of mortgage recording tax in states that impose such taxes, assign such Liens to any such new lender or collateral agent.

Sufficiency of Collateral

In the event of foreclosure on the Collateral, the proceeds from the sale of the Collateral may not be sufficient to satisfy in full the obligations under the Notes and the ABL Obligations. The amount to be received upon such a sale would be dependent on numerous factors, including but not limited to the timing and the manner of the sale. In addition, the book value of the Collateral should not be relied on as a measure of realizable value for such assets. By its nature, portions of the Collateral may be illiquid and may have no readily ascertainable market value. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the Collateral can be sold in a short period of time in an orderly manner. The Collateral includes assets that may only be usable, and thus retain value, as part of the existing operating business of the Issuer and Subsidiaries. Accordingly, any such sale of the Collateral separate from the sale of certain of the operating businesses of Issuer and Subsidiaries may not be feasible or of significant value.

Certain Bankruptcy Limitations

The right of the Noteholder Collateral Agent to take possession and dispose of the Collateral following an Event of Default is likely to be significantly impaired by applicable bankruptcy law if a bankruptcy proceeding were to be commenced by or against the Issuer or the Guarantors prior to the Noteholder Collateral Agent having taken possession and disposed of the Collateral. Under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, a secured creditor is prohibited from taking its security from a debtor in a bankruptcy case, or from disposing of security taken from such debtor, without bankruptcy court approval. Moreover, the U.S. Bankruptcy Code permits the debtor in certain circumstances to continue to retain and to use collateral owned as of the date of the bankruptcy filing (and the proceeds, products, offspring, rents or profits of such Collateral) even though the debtor is in default under the applicable debt instruments; provided that the secured creditor is given adequate protection. The meaning of the term adequate protection may vary according to circumstances. In view of the lack of a precise definition of the term adequate protection and the broad discretionary powers of a bankruptcy court, it is impossible to predict how long payments under the Notes could be delayed following commencement of a bankruptcy case, whether or when the Noteholder Collateral Agent could repossess or dispose of the Collateral, or the value of the Collateral at the time of the commencement of such case whether or to what extent holders would be compensated for any delay in payment or loss of value of the Collateral through the requirement of adequate protection.

Table of Contents

Furthermore, in the event a bankruptcy court determines the value of the Collateral (after giving effect to any prior Liens) is not sufficient to repay all amounts due on the Notes and any other pari passu obligations, the holders of the Notes and such pari passu obligations would hold secured claims to the extent of the value of the Liens on the Notes Collateral, and would hold unsecured claims with respect to any shortfall.

Applicable federal bankruptcy laws permit the payment and/or accrual of post-petition interest, costs and attorneys' fees during a debtor's bankruptcy case only to the extent the claims are oversecured or the debtor is solvent at the time of reorganization. In addition, if the Issuer or the Guarantors were to become the subject of a bankruptcy case, the bankruptcy court, among other things, may avoid certain prepetition transfers made by the entity that is the subject of the bankruptcy filing, including, without limitation, transfers held to be preferences or fraudulent conveyances.

Redemption

Optional Redemption

On or after the Conversion Termination Date, the Issuer may redeem outstanding Notes, in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time, subject to the procedures described below, at a price (the Redemption Price) equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the Conversion Termination Date, plus, the Cash Conversion Amount, if any, in respect of the Notes to be redeemed; provided, that Notes subject to redemption will not include any Notes specified for conversion pursuant to an Election Notice as described in Conversion Event; Termination of Conversion Rights. Subject to the Conversion Cap, the Issuer may elect to pay the Cash Conversion Amount, in whole or in part, in shares of its Common Stock if certain conditions specified in the Indenture have been satisfied.

If the Issuer exercises its right to redeem the Notes, the Issuer will mail a notice of such redemption at least fifteen (15) and not more than forty-five (45) days prior to the Redemption Date to the Holders of the Notes to be redeemed.

In addition to any information required by law, each notice of redemption will specify the following:

- (i) the principal amount of Notes to be redeemed,
- (ii) the date fixed for redemption;
- (iii) the Redemption Price at which such Notes are to be redeemed (including the Cash Conversion Amount);
- (iv) the place or places of payment, and that payment will be made upon presentation and surrender of the physical certificate or certificates representing such Notes;
- (v) that the Redemption Price will be paid as specified in the notice and whether the Cash Conversion Amount will be paid in cash or in shares of Common Stock or a combination of cash and shares of Common Stock, and if payable all or in part in Common Stock, the method of calculating the amount of Common Stock to be delivered on the applicable payment date;
- (vi) that interest on such Notes ceased to accrue as of the Conversion Termination Date in accordance with the Indenture; and
- (vii) the right to convert such Notes expired on the Conversion Termination Date in accordance with the Indenture.

On or prior to the date fixed for redemption, the Issuer will deposit with a bank or trust company having an office or agency in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York an amount in cash sufficient to redeem on the date fixed for redemption all the Notes so called for redemption at the appropriate Redemption Price, together with the Cash Conversion Amount, if any.

If fewer than all of the outstanding Notes are to be redeemed, Notes to be redeemed will be selected by the Issuer from outstanding Notes not previously called for redemption by lot or pro rata (as near as may be) or by any other equitable method determined by the Issuer in its sole discretion. If fewer than all Notes represented by any certificate are redeemed, a new certificate shall be issued representing the unredeemed Notes without cost to the Holder thereof.

If notice of redemption has been given as described above, on and after the date fixed for redemption (unless the Issuer shall default in the payment of the Redemption Price, together with the Cash Conversion Amount), such Notes shall be deemed no longer outstanding and the Holders thereof shall have no right in respect of such Notes except the right to receive the Redemption Price thereof and the Cash Conversion Amount, if any.

Conversion

General

Subject to and upon compliance with the provisions of the Indenture, each Holder has the right at any time to convert the principal amount of its Notes, or any portion of such principal amount which is $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof, into shares of Common Stock; provided, that a Holder's right to convert Notes shall terminate upon the occurrence of a Conversion Event as described under Conversion Event Termination of Conversion Rights. The initial Conversion Rate is 95.23809524 shares of Common Stock per $1,000 principal amount of Notes.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a Holder has submitted Notes for purchase under Purchase at the Option of Holders Upon a Fundamental Change of Control, the Holder may convert such Notes only if the Holder first withdraws its Fundamental Change of Control Purchase Notice.

Conversion Procedures

In order to exercise the conversion right with respect to any interest in Global Notes, the Holder must complete the appropriate instruction form for conversion pursuant to the Depository's book-entry conversion program, furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents if required by the Issuer or the Trustee or Conversion Agent and pay any transfer taxes if required by the Indenture. In order to exercise the conversion right with respect to any Physical Notes, the Holder must:

- (i) complete and manually sign the conversion notice provided on the back of the Note (the Conversion Notice) or facsimile of the Conversion Notice;
- (ii) deliver such notice, which is irrevocable, and the Note to a Conversion Agent;
- (iii) if required, furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents; and
- (iv) if required, pay any transfer or similar tax.

The date on which the Holder satisfies all of the applicable requirements set forth above is the Conversion Date.

Settlement Upon Conversion

Upon any conversion, the Issuer will, subject to the provisions under Conversion, deliver to converting Holders, in respect of each $1,000 principal amount of Notes being converted, a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the then Conversion Rate.

Upon conversion, on the Conversion Payment Date, Holders will receive separate cash payment for accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the applicable Conversion Date (the Accrued Interest), unless such conversion occurs between a Record Date and the Interest Payment Date to which it relates. If Notes are converted after the Close of Business on a Record Date for the payment of interest but prior to the Open of Business on the related Interest Payment Date, Holders of such Notes at the Close of Business on such Record Date will receive in cash the interest payable on such Notes on the corresponding Interest Payment Date notwithstanding the conversion.

The Issuer may elect to pay the Accrued Interest to any Holder by delivery of shares of its Common Stock if and only if the following conditions have been satisfied:

- (i) the shares of Common Stock deliverable in payment of the Accrued Interest have a fair market value as of the Conversion Date of not less than the Accrued Interest;

For purposes of this clause, the fair market value of shares of Common Stock will be determined by the Issuer and will be equal to 95% of the average of the 10-day VWAP of the Common Stock for the 10 consecutive Trading Days immediately preceding the Conversion Date. The Issuer will provide such Holder written notice prior to the Conversion Payment Date that it will pay all or a portion of the Accrued Interest in shares of Common Stock.

Table of Contents

(ii) if the Issuer's Common Stock is listed on a United States national securities exchange, payment of the Accrued Interest may not be made in Common Stock unless such stock is, or shall have been, approved for listing on the United States national securities exchange on which the Issuer's Common Stock may then be listed prior to the Conversion Payment Date;

(iii) all shares of Common Stock which may be issued will be issued out of the Issuer's authorized but unissued Common Stock and, will upon issue, be duly and validly issued and fully paid and non-assessable free of any preemptive rights; and

(iv) payment of the Accrued Interest may not be made in Common Stock to any Person to the extent such payment would cause such Person to become a beneficial owner (as determined pursuant to Section 13 of the Exchange Act) of securities of the Issuer in excess of the Conversion Cap as provided in Conversion Cap; provided, that the foregoing shall not prevent the Issuer from making a payment in Common Stock to any other Person.

If all the conditions set forth above are not satisfied, the Accrued Interest will be paid by the Issuer only in cash.

If any fractional share would be issuable upon the conversion of any Notes, the Issuer will pay the current market value of the fractional shares in cash. The current market value of a fractional share will be determined (calculated to the nearest 1/1000th of a share) by multiplying the Last Reported Sale Price of the Common Stock on the relevant Conversion Date by such fractional share and rounding the product to the nearest whole cent. The Issuer will not issue fractional shares upon payment of Accrued Interest. If any fractional share would be issuable upon such payment, the Issuer shall make payment in an amount of such fractional share in cash.

Adjustment of Conversion Rate

The Conversion Rate will be adjusted from time to time by the Issuer for certain events, including:

- (1) if the Issuer pays a dividend in shares of Common Stock or makes a distribution in shares of Common Stock, in each case, to all or substantially all holders of Common Stock;
- (2) if the outstanding shares of Common Stock are subdivided into a greater number of shares of Common Stock or combined into a smaller number of shares of Common Stock (in each case, other than in connection with a Fundamental Change of Control);
- (3) if the Issuer issues rights (other than rights issued pursuant to a stockholder rights plan, and then in accordance with the last paragraph of this Adjustment of Conversion Rate subsection), warrants or options to all or substantially all holders of Common Stock entitling them to purchase, for a period expiring within 60 calendar days of the date of issuance, Common Stock at an aggregate price per share less than the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of Common Stock during the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on the Trading Day immediately preceding the time of announcement of the distribution;
- (4) if the Issuer, by dividend or otherwise, distributes to all or substantially all holders of its outstanding Common Stock, evidences of the Issuer's indebtedness or assets, including securities but excluding: (i) any dividends or distributions referred to in (1) above; (ii) shares delivered in connection with subdivisions of Common Stock referred to in (2) above; (iii) any rights, warrants or options referred to in (3) above; and, or (iv) any dividends or distributions referred to in (5) below (any of the foregoing hereinafter referred to as the Distributed Assets);
- (5) if the Issuer pays a dividend or otherwise distributes to all or substantially all holders of its Common Stock a dividend or other distribution of exclusively cash excluding any dividend or distribution in connection with the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Issuer; and
- (6) purchases of Common Stock pursuant to a tender offer or exchange offer made by the Issuer or any Subsidiary of the Issuer for all or any portion of Common Stock, to the extent that the Fair Market Value of cash and any other consideration included in the payment per share of Common Stock exceeds the Last Reported Sale Price of Common Stock on the Trading Day next succeeding the last date on which tenders or exchanges may be made pursuant to such tender offer or exchange offer (the Expiration Date).

In cases where the Fair Market Value of Distributed Assets and cash, other than the payment of a dividend or other distribution on Common Stock that consists of shares of Capital Stock of any class or series of, or similar equity interests in, a Subsidiary or other business unit of the Issuer (i.e., a spin-off) that are, or when issued, will be, traded or listed on The Nasdaq

Global Market, the Nasdaq Global Select Market, the New York Stock Exchange or any other United States national securities exchange or market, applicable to one share of Common Stock, distributed to holders of Common Stock:

(i) equals or exceeds the average of Last Reported Sale Prices of Common Stock during the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on the Trading Day immediately preceding the Ex-Dividend Date for such distribution, or

(ii) the average of the Last Reported Sale Prices of Common Stock during the 10 consecutive Trading Day period ending on the Trading Day immediately preceding the Ex-Dividend Date for such distribution exceeds the Fair Market Value of such Distributed Assets or cash so distributed by less than $1.00, rather than being entitled to an adjustment in the Conversion Rate, the Holder of a Note will be entitled to receive upon conversion, in addition to Common Stock, the Distributed Assets or cash, as applicable, that such Holder would have been entitled to receive if such Holder had been a record holder of Common Stock (on an as converted basis at the then applicable Conversion Rate) on the Record Date for determining the stockholders entitled to receive the distribution.

The Issuer is permitted to increase the Conversion Rate by any amount for a period of at least 20 Business Days if the increase is irrevocable during the period and the Issuer's Board of Directors determines that such increase would be in the best interest of the Issuer. The Issuer may also (but is not required to) increase the Conversion Rate as the Issuer's Board of Directors considers to be advisable to avoid or diminish any income tax to holders of Common Stock resulting from any dividend or distribution of Common Stock (or rights to acquire Common Stock) or from any event treated as such for income tax purposes.

Without limiting the foregoing, the Conversion Rate will not be adjusted for (A) the issuance of any shares of Common Stock pursuant to any present or future plan providing for the reinvestment of dividends or interest payable on the Issuer's securities or the investment of additional optional amounts in shares of Common Stock under any plan; (B) the issuance of any shares of Common Stock or options or rights to purchase such shares pursuant to any of the Issuer's present or future employee, director, trustee or consultant benefit plans, employee agreements or arrangements or programs including the Management Incentive Plan; (C) a change in the par value of Common Stock or (D) the issuance of shares of Common Stock or any securities convertible into or exchangeable or exercisable for shares of the Issuer's Common Stock or rights to purchase shares of Common Stock or such convertible, exchangeable or exercisable securities or the payment of cash upon repurchase or redemption thereof, except as otherwise provided.

All calculations will be made by the Issuer and not by the Trustee or Conversion Agent, and shall be made to the nearest cent or to the nearest one-ten thousandth (1/10,000th) of a share of Common Stock, as the case may be.

Whenever the Conversion Rate is adjusted as described above, the Issuer will publicly announce through a reputable national newswire in the United States the relevant information, file such press release with the SEC on Form 8-K and make this information available on the Issuer's website.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, the applicable Conversion Rate will not be adjusted if the Holders of the Notes are permitted to participate (as a result of holding the Notes and contemporaneously with holders of Common Stock) in any of the transactions that would otherwise give rise to adjustment as if such Holders of the Notes held a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the applicable Conversion Rate one Business Day prior to the effective date of the applicable transaction, multiplied by the principal amount (expressed in thousands) of Notes held by such Holder, without having to convert their Notes.

If the Issuer has in effect a rights plan while any Notes remain outstanding, Holders of Notes will receive, upon a conversion of such Notes, in addition to such shares of Common Stock, rights under the Issuer's stockholder rights plan unless, prior to such conversion, the rights have expired, terminated or been redeemed or unless the rights have separated from Common Stock. If the rights provided for in any rights plan that the Issuer's Board of Directors may adopt have separated from the Common Stock in accordance with the provisions of the rights plan so that Holders of Notes would not be entitled to receive any rights in respect of Common Stock that the Issuer delivers upon conversion of Notes, the Issuer will adjust the conversion rate at the time of separation as if the Issuer had distributed to all holders of the Issuer's Common Stock, shares of Capital Stock, evidences of indebtedness or other assets or property in accordance with this section, subject to readjustment upon the subsequent expiration, termination or redemption of such rights.

Effect of Reclassification, Consolidation, Merger or Sale

If the case of:

(a) any recapitalization, reclassification or change of the outstanding shares of Common Stock (other than a change in par value or as a result of a subdivision or combination), or

(b) any consolidation, merger or combination of the Issuer with or into another Person, or any sale, lease, transfer, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Issuer's assets and those of the Issuer's Subsidiaries taken as a whole to any other Person or Persons (other than to one or more of its subsidiaries), in each case, as a result of which holders of all or substantially all of the Common Stock receive stock, other securities or other property or assets (including cash or any combination thereof) with respect to or in exchange for such Common Stock, the Issuer or the successor or purchasing corporation, as the case may be, will execute with the Trustee a supplemental indenture providing that from and after the effective date of such transaction each such Note shall, without the consent of any Holders of Notes, become convertible into, in lieu of the Common Stock otherwise deliverable, the same type (in the same proportion) of the consideration that the holders of Common Stock received in such reclassification, change, consolidation, merger, sale, lease, transfer, conveyance or other disposition (such consideration, the Reference Property).

In all cases, the conditions relating to conversion of Notes will continue to apply following such transaction. If the transaction also constitutes a Fundamental Change of Control, a Holder converting Notes in connection with the Fundamental Change of Control will be entitled to receive Additional Shares and the Make Whole Payment in accordance with Adjustment Upon Fundamental Change of Control in the Fundamental Change of Control. If such transaction causes Common Stock to be converted into the right to receive more than a single type of consideration (determined based in part upon any form of stockholder election), the Reference Property shall be deemed to be the kind and amount of consideration elected to be received by a majority of shares of Common Stock voted for such an election (if electing between two types of consideration) or a plurality of shares of Common Stock voted for such an election (if electing between more than two types of consideration), as the case may be. The Issuer will not become a party to any such transaction unless its terms are consistent with the foregoing.

If, in the case of any such reclassification, change, consolidation, merger, sale, lease, transfer, conveyance or other disposition, the stock or other securities and assets received thereupon by a holder of Common Stock includes shares of stock or other securities and assets of a corporation other than the successor or purchasing corporation, as the case may be, in such reclassification, change, consolidation, merger, sale, lease, transfer, conveyance or other disposition, then the supplemental indenture will also be executed by such other corporation and shall contain such additional provisions to protect the interests of the Holders of the Notes as the Issuer's Board of Directors will reasonably consider necessary by reason of the foregoing, including to the extent practicable the provisions providing for the conversion rights.

The Issuer will cause notice of the execution of a supplemental indenture to be mailed or delivered to each Holder, within 20 calendar days after execution thereof. Simultaneously with providing such notice, the Issuer will announce through a reputable national newswire in the United States the relevant information and make this information available on the Issuer's website.

Adjustment Upon Fundamental Change of Control

If a Holder converts its Notes in connection with a Fundamental Change of Control, the Issuer will (i) increase the Conversion Rate for the Notes so surrendered for conversion by a number of additional shares of Common Stock (the Additional Shares) as described below and (ii) pay to such Holder the Make Whole Payment as described below. A conversion of Notes will be deemed for these purposes to be in connection with such Fundamental Change of Control if the notice of conversion of the Notes is received by the Conversion Agent during the period from the Effective Date of the Fundamental Change of Control to Close of Business on the Business Day immediately preceding the related Fundamental Change of Control Purchase Date.

The number of Additional Shares, if any, by which the Conversion Rate will be increased will be determined by reference to the table below, based on the date on which the Fundamental Change of Control becomes effective (the Effective Date) and the price (the Share Price) paid (or deemed paid) per share of Common Stock in the Fundamental Change of Control. If the Holders of the Common Stock receive only cash in a Fundamental Change of Control, the Share Price will be the cash amount paid per share of Common Stock. Otherwise, the Share Price shall be the 10-day VWAP preceding the Effective Date of such Fundamental Change of Control.

The Share Prices set forth in the column headings of the table below will be adjusted as of any date on which the Conversion Rate of the Notes is otherwise adjusted. The adjusted Share Prices will equal the Share Prices applicable immediately prior to such adjustment, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the Conversion Rate immediately prior to such adjustment giving rise to the share price adjustment and the denominator of which is the Conversion Rate as so adjusted. The number of Additional Shares set forth in such table will be adjusted in the same manner as the Conversion Rate as set forth in Adjustment of Conversion Rate.

The exact Share Prices and Effective Dates may not be set forth in the table above, in which case:

(i) if the Share Price is between two Share Price amounts in the table or the Effective Date is between two Effective Dates in the table, the number of Additional Shares by which the Conversion Rate will be increased will be determined by a straight-line interpolation between the number of Additional Shares set forth for the higher and lower Share Price amounts and the earlier and later Effective Dates, as applicable, based on a 365-day year.

(ii) if the Share Price is greater than $28.00 per share (subject to adjustment as set forth above), no Additional Shares will be added to the Conversion Rate.

(iii) if the Share Price is less than $6.21 per share (subject to adjustment as set forth above), no Additional Shares will be added to the Conversion Rate.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event will the total number of Additional Shares added to the Conversion Rate exceed 65.793 per $1,000 principal amount of Notes, subject to adjustments in the same manner as the Conversion Rate as set forth Adjustment of Conversion Rate.

In connection with a Fundamental Change of Control, and if a Holder converts its Notes in connection with such Fundamental Change of Control, in addition to the payment of the Additional Shares, the Issuer will be required to make an additional payment to such Holder in cash (the Make Whole Payment), which Make Whole Payment will equal the total amount of interest that would have accrued and become payable on such Notes from, but excluding, the Effective Date through and including August 31, 2013 (but including any accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes from the Issue Date through and including the Effective Date). The Make Whole Payment will be made on the applicable Conversion Payment Date. The Issuer may elect to pay the Make Whole Payment in Common Stock if certain conditions specified in the Indenture have been met.

A Purchaser Party will not be entitled to receive Additional Shares or the Make Whole Payment upon a Fundamental Change of Control, notwithstanding any conversion of such Purchaser Party's Notes, if such Fundamental Change of Control (i) is a merger, consolidation or sale with or into such Purchaser Party, or any member of any group of which such Purchaser Party is a member or any of their respective Affiliates; (ii) is a transaction specified in clause (ii) of the definition of Fundamental Change of Control if such Purchaser Party or any of its Affiliates is a person or a member of a group for purposes of such definition or (iii) if the nominees of any such Purchaser Party, or any member of any group of which such Purchaser Party is a member or any of their respective Affiliates constitutes one or more of new members of the Board of Directors effecting such Fundamental Change of Control. For purposes of this paragraph, group has the meaning it has in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act and person is used with the same meaning as that used within Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act, in each case whether or not applicable.

The Issuer will notify Holders, the Trustee and the Conversion Agent of the anticipated Effective Date of any Fundamental Change of Control on or prior to the later of (i) 10 calendar days prior to such Effective Date and (ii) 10 calendar days following the date on which the Issuer becomes aware (or should have become aware) of such anticipated Effective Date. The Issuer will publicly announce such information through a reputable national newswire in the United States, file such press release with the SEC on Form 8-K and shall make such information available on the Issuer's website.

Conversion Event; Termination of Conversion Rights

If the Last Reported Sale Price of the Common Stock for at least 20 Trading Days in a period of 30 consecutive Trading Days equals or exceeds 150% of the Conversion Price (a Conversion Event), the Issuer may deliver a notice (the Conversion Event Notice) with respect to such Conversion Event at any time within 20 Business Days of such Conversion Event. Simultaneously with providing the Conversion Event Notice, the Issuer will publicly announce the relevant information through a reputable national newswire in the United States, file such press release with the SEC on Form 8-K and make such information available on the Issuer's website.

Except as set forth by a Holder in an Election Notice (as defined below), a Holder's right to convert Notes shall automatically terminate, with no further action of the Issuer or any Holder, immediately prior to the Open of Business on the date that is 46 days following the date of the Conversion Event Notice (the Conversion Termination Date). A Holder may convert its Notes at any time in connection with a Conversion Event during the 45-day period from the date of the Conversion Event Notice to the Close of Business on the Business Day immediately preceding the Conversion Termination Date. A conversion of Notes will be deemed for these purposes to be in connection with a Conversion Event if notice of conversion is received by the Conversion Agent during the period from the date of the Conversion Event Notice to the Close of Business on the Business Day immediately preceding the Conversion Termination Date.

Any Notes not converted prior to the Conversion Termination Date as a result of the Conversion Cap will be, at such Holder's election, upon written notice to the Issuer delivered by such Holder (an Election Notice), converted into shares of Common Stock of the Issuer on a date (or dates) prior to the date that is 180 days following the Conversion Termination Date (such date or dates as specified in the Election Notice, the Cap Conversion Dates).

The Conversion Event Notice delivered by the Issuer will state the amount of the Cash Conversion Amount and whether the payment of the Cash Conversion Amount shall be made in cash, shares of Common Stock or a combination of cash and shares of Common Stock and the method of calculating the Cash Conversion Amount payment.

In addition to any other information provided by the Issuer, a Conversion Event Notice will:

- (i) state the events constituting the Conversion Event and the Conversion Rate then applicable to the Notes;
- (ii) state that the right to convert Notes will terminate immediately prior to the Open of Business on the date that is 46 days following the date of Conversion Event Notice;
- (iii) state that holders may convert Notes up to the Conversion Cap at any time prior to the Close of Business on the Business Day immediately preceding the Conversion Termination Date;
- (iv) state that any Holders who cannot convert the full amount of their Notes prior to the Conversion Termination Date due to the Conversion Cap may send an Election Notice to the Issuer and may elect to convert such Notes on any date or dates prior to the date that is 180 days following the Conversion Termination Date.
- (v) state that except for Notes specified for conversion pursuant to an Election Notice, any Notes not otherwise converted prior to the Conversion Termination Date may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer at any time in accordance with Redemption and will also state the Redemption Price therefor;
- (vi) state that interest will cease to accrue on all Notes as of the Conversion Termination Date;
- (vii) state that certain covenants (to be specified in such Conversion Event Notice) contained in the Indenture will cease to have any further force or effect as of the Conversion Termination Date and will state such other provisions of the Indenture that shall no longer apply; and
- (viii) state the amount of the Cash Conversion Amount, if any, payable on all Notes as a result of the Conversion Event and the dates which such Cash Conversion Amount may be paid.

If a Conversion Event occurs on or prior to August 31, 2012, in addition to shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Notes prior to the Conversion Termination Date, or amounts received upon redemption of the Notes or upon maturity thereof, the Issuer will be required to make an additional payment in cash (the Cash Conversion Amount) in respect of the Notes. The Cash Conversion Amount will be equal to the lesser of: (i) the aggregate amount of interest payable from (and including) the Conversion Termination Date to and including August 31, 2012 and (ii) an aggregate amount equal to 15 months of interest on the Notes (in each case including any accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes from the Issue Date to and including the Conversion Termination Date (or applicable Conversion Date, if earlier).

Table of Contents

Notwithstanding the above, the Issuer may elect to pay the Cash Conversion Amount by delivery of shares of its Common Stock if and only if certain conditions specified in the Indenture are satisfied.

On and after the Conversion Termination Date, interest shall cease to accrue on the Notes. In addition, after the Conversion Termination Date, certain provisions of the Indenture will cease to have any further force and effect with respect to any Notes not converted in connection with a Conversion Event (whether prior to the Conversion Termination Date or pursuant to an Election Notice) (the Remaining Notes), including those described under: (i)

Purchase at the Option of Holders Upon a Fundamental Change of Control; (ii) Conversion (other than certain provisions, including Conversion Cap); (iii) Certain Covenants (other than the Consolidated Secured Debt Ratio covenant); and (iv) Events of Default (other than clauses (i), (ii), (vi), (xi) and (xii) in the first paragraph thereof).

The Issuer will pay the Cash Conversion Amount as follows (each, a Cash Conversion Payment Date): (i) on the Conversion Termination Date for all Notes converted during the period from the date of the Conversion Event Notice to the Close of Business on the Business Day immediately preceding the Conversion Termination Date; (ii) on the date or dates specified for conversion in an Election Notice; and (iii) on the date of redemption or at maturity, as applicable for any Remaining Notes.

Conversion Cap

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, (a) a Person or any Affiliate thereof holding the Notes will not be entitled to convert any Notes (and the Issuer will not so convert any Notes), (b) the Issuer will not be entitled to settle any cash payments owing to any Person of Notes in shares of its Common Stock and (iii) shares of any acquiror (or successor) will not be issued upon conversion pursuant to the adjustment mechanisms contained in Effect of Reclassification, Consolidation, Merger or Sale in connection with a transaction governed by Effect of Reclassification, Consolidation, Merger or Sale or upon a Fundamental Change of Control to the extent, and only to the extent, such conversion, share settlement or issuance would cause such Person, together with its Affiliates, to become a beneficial owner (as determined pursuant to Section 13 of the Exchange Act and Rules 13d-3 and 13d-5 thereunder) of more than 9.9% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock (or such equivalent shares of an acquiror or successor) (the Conversion Cap). The Issuer will, within three Business Days of delivery by a Holder of a Conversion Notice, notify such Holder in writing of (i) the number of shares of Common Stock that would be issuable to such Holder if such conversion requested in such Conversion Notice were effected in full and (ii) the number of issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Issuer as of the most recent date such information is available to the Issuer. Whereupon, within three Business Days of such notice, the Issuer will issue to such Holder the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion up to the Conversion Cap. In connection with this paragraph, such Holder must furnish to the Issuer any information reasonably requested by the Issuer in connection with the Conversion Cap amount calculations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, to the extent any such issuance would cause a Holder or an Affiliate thereof to be a beneficial owner of more than 9.9% of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock (or successor shares), such conversion, share settlement or issuance upon conversion as the case may be will be void and of no effect. The limitations may not be waived at any time by any Holder. Any acquiror (or successor) or the Issuer will expressly assume the obligations of the Issuer in this paragraph with respect to the Notes in connection with any transaction governed by Effect of Reclassification, Consolidation, Merger or Sale or otherwise in connection with a Fundamental Change of Control.

Purchase at the Option of Holders Upon a Fundamental Change of Control

If a Fundamental Change of Control occurs, each Holder has the right to require the Issuer to purchase all of such Holder's Notes, or any portion thereof in principal amount that is equal to $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof, on a date specified by the Issuer that is not less than 25 Business Days nor more than 30 Business Days after the Fundamental Change of Control, subject to extension to comply with applicable law (the Fundamental Change of Control Purchase Date), at a purchase price in cash equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon to, but excluding, the Fundamental Change of Control Purchase Date (the Fundamental Change of Control Purchase Price), subject to the satisfaction by the Holder of the requirements set forth below. If the Fundamental Change of Control Purchase Date occurs after a Record Date and on or prior to the Interest Payment Date to which it relates, the Issuer will pay accrued and unpaid interest to the Holder of record as of the corresponding Record Date and the Fundamental Change of Control Purchase Price payable to the Holder of such

Note will be 100% of the principal amount of such Note.

A Fundamental Change of Control will be deemed to occur at such time as:

(i) The Issuer consolidates with or merges with or into another Person (other than any Subsidiary of the Issuer and its outstanding Voting Stock is reclassified into, converted for or converted into the right to receive any other property or security, or the Issuer sells, conveys, transfers or leases all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person (other than its Subsidiary); provided, that the foregoing shall not constitute a Fundamental Change of Control if (x) Persons that beneficially own the Issuer's Voting Stock immediately prior to the transaction own, directly or indirectly, a majority of the Voting Stock of the surviving or transferee Person immediately after the transaction in substantially the same proportion as their ownership of the

Issuer's Voting Stock immediately prior to the transaction or (y) such transaction is a consolidation, merger or sale, lease, conveyance or other disposition the purpose of which is to effect the Issuer's redomiciling;

(ii) Any person or group, other than the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries or any employee benefit plan of the Issuer or such Subsidiary, is or becomes the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the total voting power in the aggregate of all classes of the Issuer's capital stock then outstanding and entitled to vote generally in elections of directors; or

(iii) During any period of 12 consecutive months after the Issue Date, Persons who at the beginning of such 12 month period constituted the Issuer's Board of Directors, together with any new Persons whose election was approved by a vote of a majority of the Persons then still comprising its Board of Directors who were either members of the Board of Directors at the beginning of such period or whose election, designation or nomination for election was previously so approved, cease for any reason to constitute a majority of the Issuer's Board of Directors. For purposes of this definition, (i) beneficial owner is used as defined in Rules 13d-3 and 13d-5 under the Exchange Act, (ii) group has the meaning it has in Sections 13(d) and 14(d) of the Exchange Act and (iii) person is used with the same meaning as that used within Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act, in each case whether or not applicable.

A Fundamental Change of Control shall be deemed not to have occurred in the case of a merger or consolidation described in clause (i) of the definition of Fundamental Change of Control if (x) at least 90% of the consideration paid for the Issuer's Common Stock (other than cash payments for fractional shares and cash payments pursuant to dissenter's appraisal rights) in the merger or consolidation consists of common stock of a United States or non-United States company traded on a United States national securities exchange (or which will be so traded or quoted when issued or exchanged in connection with such transaction) and (y) the market capitalization of the acquiror in such merger or consolidation is at least equal to or greater than the market capitalization of the Issuer on the Trading Day immediately preceding the day on which such merger or consolidation is publicly announced.

Within five (5) calendar days after the occurrence of a Fundamental Change of Control, the Issuer must deliver to all Holders of record of the Notes a notice (the Fundamental Change of Control Issuer Notice) with respect to such Fundamental Change of Control. Simultaneously with providing such Fundamental Change of Control Issuer Notice, the Issuer must publicly announce the relevant information through a reputable national newswire in the United States, file such press release with the SEC on Form 8-K and make such information available on the Issuer's website.

The Fundamental Change of Control Issuer Notice will:

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Issuer will not be required to make an offer to purchase the Notes after the Maturity Date or after the Conversion Termination Date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no Notes may be purchased by the Issuer at the option of the Holders if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing other than an Event of Default that is cured by the payment of the Fundamental Change of Control Purchase Price on the Fundamental Change of Control Purchase Date.

The definition of Fundamental Change of Control includes a phrase relating to the conveyance, transfer, sale or lease of all or substantially all of our assets. There is no precise, established definition of the phrase substantially all under applicable law. Accordingly, the ability of a Holder to require us to purchase its Notes as a result of the conveyance, transfer, sale or lease of less than all of our assets may be uncertain.

If a Fundamental Change of Control were to occur, we may not have enough funds to pay the Fundamental Change of Control Purchase Price. Our ability to repurchase the Notes for cash may be limited by restrictions on our ability to obtain funds for such repurchase through dividends from our subsidiaries, the terms of our then-existing borrowing arrangements or otherwise. See Risk Factors Risks Related to the Notes and the Common Stock We may not be able to repurchase Notes or pay in cash amounts contemplated under the Indenture upon the occurrence of certain events. If we fail to purchase the Notes when required following a Fundamental Change of Control, we will be in default under the Indenture. In addition, we have, and may in the future incur, other indebtedness with similar change in control provisions permitting our holders to accelerate or to require us to purchase our indebtedness upon the occurrence of similar events or on some specific dates.

Certain Covenants

The Indenture contains, among others, the following covenants:

For purposes of clause (ii) above, the following shall be deemed to be cash:

Table of Contents

(i) The amount (without duplication) of any Indebtedness (other than Subordinated Indebtedness) of the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary that is expressly assumed by the transferee in such Asset Sale and with respect to which the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, is unconditionally released by the holder of such Indebtedness,

(ii) The amount of any obligations received from such transferee that are within 90 days converted by the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary to cash (to the extent of the cash actually so received), and

(iii) The Fair Market Value of (i) any assets (other than securities) received by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary to be used by it in the Permitted Business, (ii) Equity Interests in a Person that is a Restricted Subsidiary or in a Person engaged in a Permitted Business that shall become a Restricted Subsidiary immediately upon the acquisition of such Person by the Issuer or (iii) a combination of (i) and (ii).

If at any time any non-cash consideration received by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary, as the case may be, pursuant to clause (ii) of the preceding paragraph in connection with any Asset Sale is repaid or converted into or sold or otherwise disposed of for cash (other than interest received with respect to any such non-cash consideration), then the date of such repayment, conversion or disposition shall be deemed to constitute the date of an Asset Sale hereunder and the Net Available Proceeds thereof shall be applied in accordance with this covenant.

If the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary engages in an Asset Sale, the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary shall, by no later than 12 months following the later of the consummation thereof and the Issuer's or Restricted Subsidiary's receipt of the Net Available Proceeds, have applied all or any of the Net Available Proceeds therefrom to:

(i) If such Net Available Proceeds are proceeds of an Asset Sale of any asset that constitutes Collateral, prepay permanently or repay permanently any Indebtedness secured by such Collateral Security Documents; provided, that if such Net Available Proceeds are proceeds of an Asset Sale of ABL Collateral, such Net Available Proceeds shall be applied as required under the ABL Facility;

(ii) If such Net Available Proceeds are proceeds of any Asset Sale (other than an Asset Sale of Collateral), to permanently reduce any Other Pari Passu Indebtedness; provided, however, that if any Pari Passu Indebtedness is so reduced, the Issuer will equally and ratably reduce Indebtedness under the Notes by making an offer to all holders of Notes to purchase at a purchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, the pro rata principal amount of the Notes; or

(iii) (A) invest in the purchase of assets (other than securities) to be used by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary in, or make capital expenditure with respect to, the Permitted Business, (B) acquire Equity Interests in a Person that is a Guarantor or in a Person engaged in a Permitted Business that shall become a Guarantor immediately upon the consummation of such acquisition or (C) a combination of (A) and (B). The Issuer will be deemed to have complied with the provisions set forth in this paragraph if (i) within 365 days after the Asset Sale that generated the Net Available Proceeds, the Issuer (or the applicable Restricted Subsidiary) has entered into and not abandoned or rejected a binding agreement to acquire all or substantially all of the assets of, or any Equity Interests of another Permitted Business or to make a capital expenditure or acquire other assets that are used or useful in a Permitted Business or to make a capital expenditure or acquire other assets that are used or useful in a Permitted Business and that acquisition or capital expenditure is thereafter completed within 180 days after the end of such 365-day period or (ii) in the event such binding agreement described in the preceding clause (i) is canceled or terminated for any reason before such Net Available Proceeds are applied, the Issuer (or the applicable Restricted Subsidiary) enters into another such binding commitment within 180 days of such cancellation or termination of the prior binding commitment; provided that if any second binding commitment is later canceled or terminated for any reason or not entered into before such Net Available Proceeds are applied within 180 days of such second binding commitment, then such Net Available Proceeds shall constitute Excess Proceeds (as defined below). In addition, during the period following the entering into of a binding agreement with respect to an Asset Sale and prior to the consummation thereof (which period cannot exceed 365 days), cash (whether or not actual Net Available Proceeds of such Asset Sale) used for the purposes described in subclause (A), (B) and (C) of this clause (iii) that are designated as uses in accordance with this clause (iii), and not previously or subsequently so designated in respect of any other Asset Sale, shall be deemed to be Net Available Proceeds applied in accordance with this clause (iii).

The amount of Net Available Proceeds not applied or invested as provided in this paragraph will constitute Excess Proceeds.

When the aggregate amount of Excess Proceeds equals or exceeds $15.0 million, the Issuer will be required to make an offer to purchase from all Holders and, if applicable, make an offer to purchase or redeem any Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations of the Issuer the provisions of which require the Issuer to do so with the proceeds from any Asset Sales, in an aggregate principal amount of Notes and such Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations equal to the amount of such Excess Proceeds as follows:

Table of Contents

(i) The Issuer will (a) make an offer to purchase (a Net Proceeds Offer) to all Holders in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Indenture, and (b) make an offer to purchase or redeem any such Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations (and permanently reduce the related loan commitment (if any) in an amount equal to the principal amount so redeemed), pro rata in proportion to the respective principal amounts of the Notes and such other Indebtedness required to be redeemed or purchased, the maximum principal amount of Notes and Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations that may be purchased or redeemed out of the amount (the Payment Amount) of such Excess Proceeds;

(ii) The offer price for the Notes will be payable in cash in an amount equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes tendered pursuant to a Net Proceeds Offer, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon, if any, to the date such Net Proceeds Offer is consummated (the Offered Price), in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Indenture and the redemption price for such Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations (the Pari Passu Indebtedness Price) shall be as set forth in the related documentation governing such Indebtedness;

(iii) If the aggregate Offered Price of Notes validly tendered and not withdrawn by Holders thereof exceeds the pro rata portion of the Payment Amount allocable to the Notes, Notes to be purchased will be selected on a pro rata basis; and

(iv) Upon completion of such Net Proceeds Offer in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the amount of Excess Proceeds with respect to which such Net Proceeds Offer was made shall be deemed to be zero, if applicable, and released from the Asset Sale Proceeds Account.

To the extent that the sum of the aggregate Offered Price of Notes tendered pursuant to a Net Proceeds Offer and the aggregate Pari Passu Indebtedness Price paid to the holders of such Other Pari Passu Lien Obligations is less than the Payment Amount relating thereto (such difference constituting a Net Proceeds Surplus), the Issuer may use the Net Proceeds Surplus, or a portion thereof, for general corporate purposes, subject to the provisions of the Indenture.

Upon the commencement of a Net Proceeds Offer, the Issuer shall send, by first class mail, a notice to the Trustee and to each Holder at its registered address. The notice shall contain all instructions and materials necessary to enable such Holder to tender Notes pursuant to the Net Proceeds Offer. Any Net Proceeds Offer shall be made to all Holders. The notice, which shall govern the terms of the Net Proceeds Offer, shall state:

(i) That the Net Proceeds Offer is being made pursuant to this covenant;

(ii) The Payment Amount, the Offered Price, and the date on which Notes tendered and accepted for payment shall be purchased, which date shall be at least 30 days and not later than 60 days from the date such notices is mailed (the Net Proceeds Payment Date);

(v) That Holders electing to have any Notes purchased pursuant to any Net Proceeds Offer shall be required to surrender the Notes, with the form entitled Option of Holder to Elect Purchase on the reverse of the Note completed, or transfer by book-entry transfer, to the Issuer, a Depository, if appointed by the Issuer, or the Paying Agent at the address specified in the notice at least three days before the Net Proceeds Payment Date;

(vi) That Holders shall be entitled to withdraw their election if the Issuer, the Depository or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, receives, not later than the Net Proceeds Payment Date, a notice setting forth the name of the Holder, the principal amount of the Note the Holder delivered for purchase and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing his election to have such Note purchased;

(vii) That if the aggregate principal amount of Notes surrendered by Holders exceeds the Payment Amount, the Issuer shall select the Notes to be purchased on a pro rata basis (with such adjustments as may be deemed appropriate by the Issuer so that only Notes in denominations of $1,000, or integral multiples thereof, shall be purchased); and (viii) That Holders whose Notes were purchased only in part shall be issued new Notes equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the Notes surrendered (or transferred by book-entry).

The Issuer shall publicly announce the results of the Net Proceeds Offer on the Net Proceeds Payment Date.

However, if the Net Proceeds Payment Date is on or after an interest Record Date and on or before the related Interest Payment Date, any accrued and unpaid interest shall be paid to the Person in whose name a Note is registered at the Close of Business on such Record Date, and no Additional Interest shall be payable to Holders who tender Notes pursuant to the Net Proceeds Offer.

The Issuer will comply with applicable tender offer rules, including the requirements of Rule 14e-1 under the Exchange Act and any other applicable laws and regulations in connection with the purchase of Notes pursuant to a Net Proceeds Offer. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the provisions of this covenant, the Issuer shall comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this covenant by virtue of this compliance.

(c) The Issuer will, or will cause the Guarantors to, deliver to the Noteholder Collateral Agent, at the Issuer's sole cost and expense, with respect to each such Material Real Property, (i) corporate and local law Opinions of Counsel, as the Noteholder Collateral Agent or the Trustee shall reasonably request (which opinions shall confirm, among other

In addition, whether or not required by the SEC, the Issuer will file a copy of all of the information and reports referred to in clauses (i) and (ii) above with the SEC for public availability within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and regulations (unless the SEC will not accept the filing) and make the information available to securities analysts and prospective investors upon request.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the Issuer will be deemed to have complied with its obligations in the preceding two paragraphs following the filing of the Shelf Registration Statement and prior to the effectiveness thereof if the Shelf Registration Statement includes the information specified in clause (i) above at the times it would otherwise be required to file such Forms. If any direct or indirect parent of the Issuer has complied with the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, if applicable, and has furnished the Holders of Notes, or filed electronically with the SEC's Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis and Retrieval System (or any successor system), the reports described herein with respect to such parent (including any financial information required by Regulation S-X relating to the Issuer and the Guarantors), the Issuer shall be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions of this covenant.

Limitations on Designation of Unrestricted Subsidiaries

The Issuer may designate any Subsidiary (including any newly formed or newly acquired Subsidiary) of the Issuer as an Unrestricted Subsidiary under the Indenture (a Designation) only if:

(i) No Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of or after giving effect to such Designation; and

(ii) Either (A) the Subsidiary to be so Designated has total assets of $1,000 or less; or (B) the Issuer would be permitted to make, at the time of such Designation, (x) a Permitted Investment or (y) an Investment pursuant to the first paragraph of Limitations on Restricted Payments, in either case, in an amount (the Designation Amount) equal to the Fair Market Value of the Issuer's proportionate interest in such Subsidiary on such date.

No Subsidiary may be Designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary if such Subsidiary or any of its Subsidiaries owns (i) (A) any Equity Interests (other than Qualified Equity Interests) of the Issuer or (B) any Equity Interests of any Restricted Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary of the Subsidiary to be so Designated or (ii) is a Person with respect to which neither the Issuer nor any Restricted Subsidiary has any direct or indirect obligations (A) to subscribe for additional Equity Interests or (B) to maintain or preserve the Person's financial condition or cause the Person to achieve any specified levels of operating results, unless such obligation is a Permitted Investment or is otherwise permitted under Limitations on Restricted Payments.

If, at any time, any Unrestricted Subsidiary fails to meet the requirements of the two preceding paragraphs as an Unrestricted Subsidiary, it shall thereafter cease to be an Unrestricted Subsidiary for purposes of the Indenture and any Indebtedness of the Subsidiary and any Liens on assets of such Subsidiary shall be deemed to be incurred by a Restricted Subsidiary as of the date and, if the Indebtedness is not permitted to be incurred under Limitations on Additional Indebtedness or the Lien is not permitted under Limitations on Liens, the Issuer shall be in default of the applicable covenant.

The Issuer may redesignate an Unrestricted Subsidiary as a Restricted Subsidiary (a Redesignation) only if:

(i) No Default shall have occurred and be continuing at the time of and after giving effect to such Redesignation; and

(ii) All Liens, Indebtedness and Investments of such Unrestricted Subsidiary outstanding immediately following such Redesignation would, if incurred or made at such time, have been permitted to be incurred or made for all purposes of the Indenture.

All Designations and Redesignations must be evidenced by resolutions of the Board of Directors of the Issuer, delivered to the Trustee, certifying compliance with the foregoing provisions.

Table of ContentsInformation Regarding Collateral

Insurance

The Issuer and Guarantors (x) will cause any insurance policies covering any Collateral to be endorsed or otherwise amended to include a customary lender's loss payable endorsement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, which endorsement shall provide that, from and after the Issue Date, subject to the terms, conditions and provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement, if the insurance carrier shall have received written notice from the Trustee of the occurrence and continuance of an Event of Default, the insurance carrier shall pay all proceeds otherwise payable to the Grantors under such policies directly to the Trustee during the continuance of an Event of Default; (y) cause each such policy to provide that it shall not be canceled, modified or not renewed (i) by reason of nonpayment of premium upon not less than 10 days' prior written notice thereof by the insurer to the Trustee (giving the Trustee the right to cure defaults in the payment of premiums) or (ii) for any other reason upon not less than 30 days' prior written notice thereof by the insurer to the Trustee; (c) will deliver to the Trustee, prior to the cancellation, modification or nonrenewal of any such policy of insurance, a draft copy of a renewal or replacement policy (or other evidence of renewal of a policy previously delivered to the Trustee) and reasonably promptly thereafter deliver a duplicate original copy of such policy together with evidence reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee of payment of the premium as required by such insurance.

The Grantors will notify the Trustee promptly whenever any separate insurance concurrent in form or contributing in the event of loss with that required to be maintained under this covenant is taken out by any Grantor; and promptly deliver to the Trustee a duplicate copy of such policy or policies.

Upon any consolidation, combination or merger of the Issuer or a Guarantor, or any transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer in accordance with the foregoing, in which the Issuer or such Guarantor is not the continuing obligor under the Notes or its Note Guarantee, except as provided in General Note Guarantees Release of a Guarantor, the surviving entity formed by such consolidation or into which the Issuer or such Guarantor is merged or the Person to which the conveyance, lease or transfer is made will succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of, the Issuer or such Guarantor under the Indenture, the Notes, the Note Guarantees, the Security Documents and Intercreditor Agreement with the same effect as if such surviving entity had been named therein as the Issuer or such Guarantor and, except in the case of a lease, the Issuer or such Guarantor, as the case may be, will be released from the obligation to pay the principal of and interest on the Notes or in respect of its Note Guarantee, as the case may be, and all of the Issuer's or such Guarantor's other obligations and covenants under the Notes, the Indenture and its Note Guarantee, if applicable.

- (viii) Failure by the Issuer or any Guarantor (A) to comply with any other agreement or covenant in the Indenture (other than the Consolidated Secured Debt Ratio covenant), the Security Documents or the Intercreditor Agreement and continuance of this failure for 60 days after notice of the failure has been given to the Issuer by the Trustee or by the Holders of at least 25% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding and (B) to comply with the Consolidated Secured Debt Ratio covenant and continuance of this failure to comply for 30 days after notice of the failure has been given to the Issuer by the Trustee or by Holders of at least 25% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding;
- (ix) Event of default under any mortgage, indenture or other instrument or agreement under which there is issued Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary, whether such Indebtedness now exists or is incurred after the Issue Date, if such event of default is a default relating to a failure to pay at stated maturity thereof or would enable or permit the holder or holders thereof or any trustee or agent on their behalf to cause such Indebtedness to become due and payable prior to scheduled maturity and such event of default continues for a period of twenty (20) days, provided, that the principal amount of such Indebtedness, together with any other Indebtedness with respect to which a default has occurred and is continuing, aggregates $10.0 million or more;
- (x) One or more final non-appealable judgments or orders that exceed $10.0 million in the aggregate (net of amounts covered by insurance or bonded) for the payment of money have been entered by a court or courts of competent jurisdiction against the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary and such judgment or judgments have not been satisfied, stayed, annulled, discharged or rescinded within 60 days after the applicable judgment becomes final and non-appealable;

Table of Contents

(2) Appoints a Custodian of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary or a Custodian for all or substantially all of the assets of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary, or

(3) Orders the liquidation of the Issuer or any Significant Subsidiary, and the order or decree remains unstayed and in effect for 60 consecutive days;

(xiii) Any Note Guarantee of any Significant Subsidiary ceases to be in full force and effect (other than in accordance with the terms of such Note Guarantee and the Indenture) or is declared null and void and unenforceable or found to be invalid or any Guarantor denies its liability under its Note Guarantee (other than by reason of release of a Guarantor from its Note Guarantee in accordance with the terms of the Indenture and the Note Guarantee); or

(xiv) Any security interest and Lien purported to be created by any Security Document with respect to any Collateral, individually or in the aggregate, having a fair market value in excess of $5.0 million at any time shall cease to be in full force and effect, or shall cease to give the Noteholder Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the applicable Noteholder Secured Parties, the Liens, rights, powers and privileges purported to be created and granted thereby (including a perfected first priority security interest in and Lien on, all of the Collateral thereunder (except as otherwise expressly provided in the Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement or Security Documents)) in favor of the Noteholder Collateral Agent, or shall be asserted by the Issuer or any other Guarantor not to be, (or any action shall be taken by the Issuer or any Guarantor to discontinue unless otherwise permitted) a valid, perfected, first priority (except as otherwise expressly provided in the Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreement or Security Documents) security interest in or Lien on the Collateral covered thereby; except in each case to the extent that any such loss of perfection or priority results from the failure of the Trustee or Noteholder Collateral Agent to maintain possession of certificates actually delivered to it representing securities pledged under the Security Documents) or take other actions required to maintain the creation, perfection or priority of such security interest and Lien.

If an Event of Default specified in clause (xi) or (xii) above with respect to the Issuer occurs, all outstanding Notes will become due and payable without any further action or notice. If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default specified in clause (xi) or (xii) above with respect to the Issuer) occurs and is continuing under the Indenture, the Trustee, by written notice to the Issuer, or the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, by written notice to the Issuer and the Trustee, may declare (an acceleration declaration) all amounts owing under the Notes to be due and payable immediately. Upon such acceleration declaration, the aggregate principal of and accrued and unpaid interest on the outstanding Notes will become due and payable immediately; provided, however, that after such acceleration, but before a judgment or decree based on acceleration, the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of such outstanding Notes may rescind and annul such acceleration:

(i) if the rescission would not conflict with any judgment or decree;

(ii) if all existing Events of Default have been cured or waived except nonpayment of principal and interest that has become due solely because of this acceleration;

(iii) to the extent the payment of such interest is lawful, interest on overdue installments of interest and overdue principal, which has become due otherwise than by such declaration of acceleration, has been paid;

(iv) if the Issuer has paid to the Trustee its reasonable compensation and reimbursed the Trustee of its expenses, disbursements and advances; and

(v) in the event of a cure or waiver of an Event of Default of the type set forth in clause (xi) or (xii) in the first paragraph of this Events of Default section, the Trustee shall have received an Officers Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel that such Event of Default has been cured or waived.

No such rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right consequent thereto.

Subject to the terms, conditions, and provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement, if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may pursue any available remedy by proceeding at law or in equity to collect the payment of principal of, or interest on, the Notes or to enforce the performance of any provision of the Notes or the Indenture.

The Trustee may maintain a proceeding even if it does not possess any of the Notes or does not produce any of them in the proceeding. A delay or omission by the Trustee or any Holder in exercising any right or remedy accruing upon an Event of Default will not impair the right or remedy or constitute a waiver of or acquiescence in the Event of Default.

Table of Contents

Subject to the provisions of the Indenture, the Holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Notes by notice to the Trustee may waive an existing Default and its consequences, except a continuing Default in the payment of principal of, or interest on, any Note as specified in clause (i) or (ii) of the first paragraph of this Events of Default section; provided, however, that the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then-outstanding Notes may rescind an acceleration and its consequences, including any related payment default that resulted from such acceleration. When a Default is waived, it is cured and ceases.

The Holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Notes may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on it. Subject to the duties of the Trustee in the Indenture, however, the Trustee may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with any law or the Indenture, that the Trustee determines may be unduly prejudicial to the rights of another Holder, or that may involve the Trustee in personal liability; provided, that the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee which is not inconsistent with such direction.

In the event the Trustee takes any action or follows any direction pursuant to the Indenture, the Trustee will be entitled to indemnification against any loss or expense caused by taking such action or following such direction.

No Holder will have any right to institute any proceeding with respect to the Indenture or for any remedy thereunder, unless the Trustee:

- (i) has failed to act for a period of 60 days after receiving written notice of a continuing Event of Default by such Holder and a request to act by Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of Notes outstanding;
- (ii) has been offered indemnity satisfactory to it in its reasonable judgment; and
- (iii) has not received from the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes a direction inconsistent with such request.

However, such limitations do not apply to a suit instituted by a Holder of any Note for enforcement of payment of the principal of or interest on such Note on or after the due date therefor (after giving effect to the grace period specified in clause (i) in the first paragraph of this Events of Default section).

The Issuer is required to deliver to the Trustee annually a statement regarding compliance with the Indenture and promptly (and in any event within 15 days) after any Officer of the Issuer becomes aware of the occurrence of any Default a statement specifying the Default and what action, if any, the Issuer is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.

If a Default occurs and is continuing and the Trustee receives actual notice of such Default, the Trustee shall mail to each Holder notice of the uncured Default within 30 days after such Default occurs. Except in the case of a Default in payment of principal of, or interest on, any Note, including an accelerated payment and the failure to make a payment on the Change of Control Payment Date pursuant to a Change of Control Offer or the Net Proceeds Payment Date pursuant to a Net Proceeds Offer, or a Default in complying with the provisions of Certain Covenants Limitations on Mergers, Consolidations, Etc., the Trustee may withhold the notice if and so long as the Board of Directors, the executive committee, or a trust committee of directors and/or Responsible Officers, of the Trustee in good faith determines that withholding the notice is in the interest of the Holders.

Amendment, Supplement and Waiver

Subject to certain exceptions, the Issuer, the Guarantors and the Trustee and Noteholder Collateral Agent together, with the written consent (which may include consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for Notes) of the Holder or Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding may amend or supplement the Indenture, the Notes or the Note Guarantees or other Note Documents, without notice to any other Holders. Subject to certain exceptions, the Holder or Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes may waive compliance with any provision of the Indenture, the Notes or the Note Guarantees or the other Note Documents without notice to any other Holders.

Notwithstanding the above, without the consent of each Holder affected, no amendment or waiver may:

- (i) reduce, or change the maturity, of the principal of any Note;
- (ii) reduce the rate of or extend the time for payment of interest on any Note;

Table of Contents

(iii) reduce any amounts payable upon redemption, conversion or any Fundamental Change of Control or Conversion Event or change the date on, or the circumstances under, which any Notes are subject to redemption or purchase (other than provisions of Purchase at the Option of Holders Upon a Fundamental Change of Control and Certain Covenants Limitations on Asset Sales, except that if a Fundamental Change of Control has occurred, no amendment or other modification of the obligation of the Issuer to repurchase the Notes upon a Fundamental Change of Control may be made without the consent of each Holder of the Notes affected);

(iv) reduce the Fundamental Change of Control Purchase Price, the number of Additional Shares or Make Whole Payment in connection with a Fundamental Change of Control or the Cash Conversion Amount in connection with a Conversion Event or amend or modify in any manner adverse to the Holders the Issuer's obligations to make such payments;

(v) make any Note payable in money or currency other than that stated in the Notes;

(vi) expressly subordinate in right of payment such Note or any Note Guarantee to any other Indebtedness of the Issuer or any Guarantor;

(vii) reduce the percentage of Holders necessary to consent to an amendment or waiver to the Indenture or the Notes;

(viii) waive a continuing default in the payment of principal of or premium or interest on any Notes (except a rescission of acceleration of the Notes by the Holders thereof as provided in the Indenture and a waiver of the payment default that resulted from such acceleration);

(ix) impair the rights of Holders to receive payments of principal of or interest on the Notes on or after the due date therefor or to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on the Notes;

(x) release any Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary from any of its obligations under its Note Guarantee or the Indenture, except as permitted by the Indenture;

(xi) make any change in these amendment and waiver provisions; or

(xii) make any change that adversely affects the conversion rights of any Holder of the Notes, including any change to the provisions set forth under Conversion.

In addition, without the consent of the Holders of at least $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding, (a) no amendment to the Indenture, the Notes, the Note Guarantees or other Note Documents may release all or substantially all of the Collateral from the Liens securing the Notes and (b) no amendment to, or waiver of, the provisions of the Indenture, the Notes, the Note Guarantees or other Note Documents may alter the priority of the Liens securing the Collateral in any manner that adversely affects the rights of the Holders of the Notes, in each case other than in accordance with the terms of the applicable Note Documents.

The Issuer and the Trustee and the Noteholder Collateral Agent together, may amend or supplement the Indenture, the Notes, the Note Guarantees or any other Note Documents without notice to or consent of any Holder:

(i) to cure any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency;

(ii) to provide for uncertificated Notes in addition to or in place of certificated Notes;

(iii) to provide for the assumption of the Issuer's obligations to the Noteholder Secured Parties in the case of a merger, consolidation or sale of all or substantially all of the assets, in accordance with Certain Covenants Limitations on Mergers, Consolidations, Etc.;

(iv) to release any Guarantor from any of its obligations under its Note Guarantee or the Indenture (to the extent permitted by the Indenture);

- (ix) to release Collateral from the Lien pursuant to the Indenture, the Security Documents and the Intercreditor Agreement when permitted or required by such agreements;
- (x) to make, complete or confirm any grant of Collateral permitted or required by the Indenture or any of the Security Documents or to the extent required under the Intercreditor Agreement, to conform any Security Documents to reflect amendments or other modifications to comparable provisions under ABL Facility security documents; or
- (xi) to amend the Intercreditor Agreement pursuant to Section 10.5 thereof or otherwise enter into an Intercreditor Agreement in respect of an ABL Facility permitted hereby.

Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance

The Issuer may elect to have its obligations and the obligations of the Guarantors discharged with respect to the outstanding Notes, Note Guarantees and the Security Documents. Upon the Issuer's exercise of such option, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth below, be deemed to have been discharged from their obligations with respect to all outstanding Notes, Note Guarantees and the Security Documents on the date the conditions set forth below are satisfied (hereinafter, Legal Defeasance). For this purpose, Legal Defeasance means that the Issuer and the Guarantors shall be deemed to have paid and discharged the entire Indebtedness represented by the outstanding Notes, the Note Guarantees, the Indenture and the Security Documents which shall thereafter be deemed to be outstanding only for the purposes of application of the trust money as set forth in the Indenture and the other sections of the Indenture referred to in (i) and (ii) below, and to have satisfied all its other obligations under such Notes and the Indenture and the Guarantors shall be deemed to have satisfied all of their obligations under the Note Guarantees, the Indenture and the Security Documents (and the Trustee and the Noteholder Collateral Agent, on demand of and at the expense of the Issuer, shall execute proper instruments acknowledging the same), except for the following provisions which shall survive until otherwise terminated or discharged under the Indenture:

- (i) The rights of Holders of outstanding Notes to receive, solely from the trust fund, and as more fully set forth in the Indenture, payments in respect of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such Notes when such payments are due;
- (ii) The Issuer's obligations with respect to the Notes under certain provisions in the Indenture relating to the Notes and the covenant in the Indenture relating to the maintenance of office or agency;
- (iii) The rights, powers, trusts, duties and immunities of the Trustee and Noteholder Collateral Agent under the Indenture and the Issuer's and Guarantors' obligations in connection therewith; and
- (iv) The Legal Defeasance provisions of the Indenture.

In addition, the Issuer may elect to have its obligations and the obligations of the Guarantors released with respect to most of the covenants under the Indenture and the Security Documents, and thereafter any omission to comply with such obligations shall not constitute an Event of Default. Upon the Issuer's exercise of such option, the Issuer and the Guarantors shall, subject to the satisfaction of the conditions described below, be released from their respective obligations under the covenants under the Indenture and the Security Documents, except as described otherwise in the Indenture (hereinafter, Covenant Defeasance), and the Notes shall thereafter be deemed not outstanding for the purposes of any direction, waiver, consent or declaration or act of Holders (and the consequences of any thereof) in connection with such covenants, but shall continue to be deemed outstanding for all other purposes under the Indenture (it being understood that such Notes shall not be deemed outstanding for accounting purposes). For this purpose, Covenant Defeasance means that, with respect to the outstanding Notes, the Issuer and the Guarantors may omit to comply with and shall have no liability in respect of any term, condition or limitation set forth in any such covenant, whether directly or indirectly, by reason of any reference elsewhere to any such covenant or by reason of any reference in any such covenant to any other provision in the Indenture or in any other document and such omission to comply shall not constitute an Event of Default, but, except as described above, the remainder of the Indenture and such Notes shall be unaffected thereby. In addition, upon the Issuer's exercise of Covenant Defeasance, certain Events of Default will no longer apply.

In order to exercise either Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance:

(i) the Issuer must irrevocably deposit with the Trustee, in trust, for the benefit of the Holders, U.S. Legal Tender, U.S. Government Obligations or a combination thereof, in such amounts as will be sufficient (without reinvestment), in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent public accountants selected by the Issuer, to pay the principal of and interest on the

Notes on the stated date for payment or on the Redemption Date of the principal or installment of principal or interest on the Notes,

(ii) in the case of Legal Defeasance, the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel in the United States confirming that:

(1) the Issuer has received from, or there has been published by the Internal Revenue Service, a ruling, or

(2) since the date of the Indenture, there has been a change in the applicable United States federal income tax law, in either case to the effect that, and based thereon this Opinion of Counsel shall confirm that, the Holders will not recognize income, gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes as a result of such Legal Defeasance and will be subject to United States federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such Legal Defeasance had not occurred,

(iii) in the case of Covenant Defeasance, the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel in the United States reasonably acceptable to the Trustee confirming that the Holders will not recognize income, gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes as a result of such Covenant Defeasance and will be subject to United States federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if the Covenant Defeasance had not occurred,

(iv) no Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date of such deposit (other than a Default resulting from the borrowing of funds to be applied to such deposit),

(v) the Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance shall not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a Default under the Indenture or a default under any other material agreement or instrument to which the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries is bound (other than any such Default or default resulting solely from the borrowing of funds to be applied to such deposit),

(vi) the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officers Certificate stating that the deposit was not made by it with the intent of preferring the Holders over any other of its creditors or with the intent of defeating, hindering, delaying or defrauding any other of its creditors or others, and

(vii) the Issuer shall have delivered to the Trustee an Officers Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that the conditions provided for in, in the case of the Officers Certificate, clauses (i) through (vi) and, in the case of the Opinion of Counsel, clauses (ii) and/or (iii) and (v) of this paragraph have been complied with.

The Collateral will be released from the Lien securing the Notes, as provided under the caption Release of Collateral, upon a Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance in accordance with the provisions described above.

Discharge of Indenture

The Issuer may terminate its obligations under the Notes, the Indenture and the Security Documents and the obligations of the Guarantors under the Note Guarantees, the Indenture and the Security Documents and the Indenture and the Security Documents shall cease to be of further effect (except for certain obligations regarding the registration of transfer or exchange of Notes, conversion, covenants regarding payment and maintenance of existence and other provisions specified in the Indenture, which shall survive until all of the Notes are no longer outstanding), if:

(i) all the Notes that have been authenticated and delivered (except lost, stolen or destroyed Notes which have been replaced or paid and Notes for whose payment money has been deposited in trust or segregated and held in trust by the Issuer and thereafter repaid to the Issuer or discharged from this trust) have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation, or

(ii) (a) all Notes not delivered to the Trustee for cancellation otherwise have become due and payable, will become due and payable, or may be called for redemption, within one year and the Issuer has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee funds in trust sufficient to pay and discharge the entire Indebtedness (including all principal and accrued interest) on the Notes not theretofore delivered to the Trustee for cancellation,

(1) the Issuer has paid all sums then due and payable by it under the Indenture, and

Table of Contents

(2) the Issuer has delivered irrevocable instructions to the Trustee to apply the deposited money toward the payment of the Notes at maturity or on the Redemption Date, as the case may be.

In addition, the Issuer must deliver an Officers Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent to satisfaction and discharge have been complied with.

Calculations in Respect of Notes

Except as otherwise provided in the Indenture, the Issuer (or its agents) will be responsible for making all calculations called for under the Indenture or the Notes. The Issuer (or its agents) will make all such calculations in good faith and, absent manifest error, its calculations will be final and binding on Holders. The Issuer (or its agents) upon request will provide a schedule of its calculations to each of the Trustee and the Conversion Agent, and each of the Trustee and Conversion Agent is entitled to rely conclusively upon the accuracy of such calculations without independent verification. The Trustee will deliver a copy of such schedule to any Holder upon the written request of such Holder.

Trustee

The Trustee will not be responsible for and makes no representation as to the validity or adequacy of the Indenture or the Notes, it will not be accountable for the Issuer's use of the proceeds from the Notes, and it will not be responsible for any statement of the Issuer in the Indenture or any document issued in connection with the sale of Notes or any statement in the Notes other than the Trustee's certificate of authentication. The Trustee makes no representations with respect to the effectiveness or adequacy of the Indenture.

The Holders of not less than a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Notes may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on it, subject to certain exceptions. If a Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee shall exercise such of the rights and powers vested in it by the Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of his or her own affairs. The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by the Indenture at the request, order or direction of any of the Holders pursuant to the provisions of the Indenture, unless such Holders shall have offered to the Trustee reasonable security or indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred therein or thereby.

Book-Entry; Delivery and Form

General

The Notes were initially issued in fully registered global form in minimum denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess of $1,000. The Notes were initially represented by permanent global notes (the Global Notes).

The Global Notes were deposited upon issuance with the Trustee, as custodian for The Depository Trust Company (DTC), in New York, New York, and registered in the name of DTC or its nominee for credit to an account of a direct or indirect participant in DTC (including the Euroclear System (Euroclear) or Clearstream Banking, S.A. (Clearstream)), as described below under Depository Procedures.

Except as set forth below, the Global Notes may be transferred, in whole and not in part, only to another nominee of the depository or to a successor of the depository or its nominee. Beneficial interests in the Global Notes may not be exchanged for securities in certificated form except in the limited circumstances described below under Exchange of Global Notes for Certificated Notes.

Transfers of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will be subject to the applicable rules and procedures of DTC and its direct or indirect participants, which may change from time to time.

Depository Procedures

The following is a description of the operations and procedures of DTC. These operations and procedures are solely within the control of DTC and are subject to changes by it. We take no responsibility for these operations and procedures and urge investors to contact the system or their participants directly to discuss these matters.

DTC has advised us that DTC is a limited-purpose trust company created to hold securities for its participating organizations (collectively, the Participants) and to facilitate the clearance and settlement of transactions in those securities between the Participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of its Participants. The Participants include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and certain other organizations. Access to DTC's system is also available to other entities such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Participant, either directly or indirectly (collectively, the Indirect Participants). Persons who are not Participants may beneficially own securities held by or on behalf of DTC only through the Participants or the Indirect Participants. The ownership interests in, and transfers of ownership interests in, each security held by or on behalf of DTC are recorded on the records of the Participants and Indirect Participants.

DTC has also advised us that, pursuant to procedures established by it:

upon deposit of the Global Notes, DTC will credit the accounts of the Participants designated by the registrar with portions of the principal amount of the Global Notes; and ownership of these interests in the Global Notes will be shown on, and the transfer of ownership of these interests will be effected only through, records maintained by DTC (with respect to the Participants) or by the Participants and the Indirect Participants (with respect to other owners of beneficial interest in the Global Notes).

All interests in a Global Note may be subject to the procedures and requirements of DTC.

The laws of some states require that certain Persons take physical delivery in definitive form of securities that they own. Consequently, the ability to transfer beneficial interests in a Global Note to such Persons will be limited to that extent. Because DTC can act only on behalf of the Participants, which in turn act on behalf of the Indirect Participants, the ability of a Person having beneficial interests in a Global Note to pledge such interests to Persons that do not participate in the DTC system, or otherwise take actions in respect of such interests, may be affected by the lack of a physical certificate evidencing such interests.

EXCEPT AS DESCRIBED BELOW, OWNERS OF INTEREST IN THE GLOBAL NOTES WILL NOT HAVE SECURITIES REGISTERED IN THEIR NAMES, WILL NOT RECEIVE PHYSICAL DELIVERY OF SECURITIES IN CERTIFICATED FORM AND WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED THE REGISTERED OWNERS OR HOLDERS THEREOF UNDER THE INDENTURE FOR ANY PURPOSE.

Payments in respect of the principal of, and interest and premium, if any, on a Global Note registered in the name of DTC or its nominee will be payable to DTC in its capacity as the registered holder under the Indenture. Under the terms of the Indenture, we and the Trustee will treat the Persons in whose names the Notes, including the Global Notes, are registered as the owners of the Notes for the purpose of receiving payments and for all other purposes. Consequently, neither we, nor the Trustee nor any agent of us or the Trustee has or will have any responsibility or liability for:

any aspect of DTC's records or any Participant's or Indirect Participant's records relating to or payments made on account of beneficial ownership interest in the Global Notes or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any of DTC's records or any Participant's or Indirect Participant's records relating to the beneficial ownership interests in the Global Notes; or any other matter relating to the actions and practices of DTC or any of its Participants or Indirect Participants.

DTC has advised us that its current practice, upon receipt of any payment in respect of securities such as the Notes (including principal and interest), is to credit the accounts of the relevant Participants with the payment on the payment date unless DTC has reason to believe it will not receive payment on such payment date. Each relevant

Participant is credited with an amount proportionate to its beneficial ownership of an interest in the principal amount of the relevant security as shown on the records of DTC. Payments by the Participants and the Indirect Participants to the beneficial owners of Notes will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices and will be the responsibility of the Participants or the Indirect Participants and will not be the responsibility of DTC, the Trustee or us. Neither we nor the trustee will be liable for any delay by DTC or any of the Participants or the Indirect

Participants in identifying the beneficial owners of the Notes, and we and the trustee may conclusively rely on and will be protected in relying on instructions from DTC or its nominee for all purposes.

Transfers between the Participants will be effected in accordance with DTC's procedures, and will be settled in same-day funds.

DTC has advised us that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a holder of Notes only at the direction of one or more Participants to whose account DTC has credited the interests in the Global Notes and only in respect of such portion of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes as to which such Participant or Participants has or have given such direction. However, if there is an Event of Default under the Indenture, DTC reserves the right to exchange the Global Notes for legended notes in certificated form, and to distribute such notes to its Participants.

Although DTC has agreed to the preceding procedures to facilitate transfers of interests in the Global Notes among participants in DTC, it is under no obligation to perform or to continue to perform such procedures, and may discontinue such procedures at any time. Neither we nor the Trustee nor any of their respective agents will have any responsibility for the performance by DTC or its participants or indirect participants of its obligations under the rules and procedures governing its operations.

Exchange of Global Notes for Certificated Securities

A Global Note is exchangeable for definitive Notes in registered certificated form (Certificated Securities) if: DTC (a) notifies us that it is unwilling or unable to continue as depository for the Global Notes or (b) has ceased to be a clearing agency registered under the Exchange Act and, in either case, we fail to appoint a successor depository;

we, at our option and subject to the procedures of DTC, elect to exchange the Global Notes (in whole but not in part) for definitive securities and deliver a written notice to such effect to the Trustee; or there has occurred and is continuing a Default or Event of Default with respect to the Notes.

In addition, beneficial interests in a Global Note may be exchanged for Certificated Securities upon prior written notice given to the Trustee by or on behalf of DTC in accordance with the respective indenture. In all cases, Certificated Securities delivered in exchange for any Global Note or beneficial interests in Global Notes will be registered in the names, and issued in any approved denominations, requested by or on behalf of the depository (in accordance with its customary procedures) and will bear any applicable restrictive legend required by applicable law.

Table of ContentsMaterial U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations

The following is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax considerations regarding the acquisition, ownership and disposition (including a conversion into Common Stock) of the Notes and the ownership and disposition of Common Stock received upon a conversion of the Notes. This discussion is based on existing provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), final and temporary Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, administrative pronouncements or practice, judicial decisions, and interpretations of the foregoing, all as of the date hereof. Future legislative, judicial or administrative modifications, revocations or interpretations, which may or may not be retroactive, may result in U.S. federal income tax consequences significantly different from those discussed herein. This discussion is not binding on the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the IRS). No ruling has been or will be sought or obtained from the IRS with respect to any of the U.S. federal income tax consequences discussed herein. There can be no assurance that the IRS will not challenge any of the conclusions described herein or that a U.S. court will not sustain such challenge.

This summary deals only with beneficial owners of Notes that hold Notes or Common Stock (as the case may be) as capital assets within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. This summary is not a complete analysis of all of the potential tax considerations of such transactions and does not address all tax considerations that might be relevant to particular holders in light of their personal circumstances or to persons that are subject to special tax rules, including, without limitation, holders that are banks, financial institutions, tax-exempt organizations, S corporations, partnerships or other pass-through entities, insurance companies, broker dealers, dealers or traders in securities or currencies, U.S. expatriates or former long-term residents of the United States, taxpayers subject to the alternative minimum tax, individual retirement accounts or other tax deferred accounts, traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities holdings, insurance companies, real estate investment trusts, regulated investment companies, persons that hold Notes or Common Stock as a position in a straddle, or as part of a synthetic security or hedge, conversion transaction, constructive sale or other integrated investment, or U.S. Holders that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar or Non-U.S. Holders (as defined below), except as described below. Moreover, this summary does not discuss the effect of any other U.S. federal tax laws (such as estate and gift tax laws) or applicable state, local or foreign tax laws.

As used herein, a U.S. Holder, means a beneficial owner of Notes or Common Stock that is (1) an individual citizen or resident of the United States as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (2) a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (3) an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source, or (4) a trust if either (a) a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over the trust's administration and one or more United States persons have the authority to control all of the trust's substantial decisions or (b) it has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a United States person. A Non-U.S. Holder means a beneficial owner of Notes or Common Stock that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, an individual, corporation, estate or trust that is not a U.S. Holder.

If an entity that is classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes is a beneficial owner of Notes or Common Stock, the tax treatment of a partner in the partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and other entities that are classified as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes and persons holding Notes or Common Stock through a partnership or other entity classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes are urged to consult their own tax advisors.

THE FOLLOWING DISCUSSION IS FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY AND IS NOT INTENDED TO BE LEGAL OR TAX ADVICE. INVESTORS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE APPLICATION OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS TO THEIR PARTICULAR SITUATIONS AS WELL AS ANY TAX CONSEQUENCES ARISING UNDER OTHER U.S. FEDERAL TAX LAWS OR THE LAWS OF ANY STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN TAXING JURISDICTION OR UNDER ANY APPLICABLE TAX TREATY.

Characterization of the Notes as Debt

The U.S. federal income tax consequences to the holders of the Notes will depend upon the characterization of the Notes for U.S. federal income tax purposes. We believe that the Notes are debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Our determination that the Notes are debt is binding on a holder of the Notes unless such holder explicitly discloses on its tax return that it is taking a different position in the manner required by applicable Treasury Regulations. The balance of this discussion assumes that the Notes will be respected as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Our determination, however, is not binding on the IRS. There can be no assurance that the IRS will not successfully challenge this position. If any of the Notes were treated as equity, adverse consequences could result to the Company and to holders of such Notes.

Table of ContentsU.S. HoldersPayments of Interest on the NotesStated Interest

Assuming that the Notes are not treated as contingent payment debt instruments under applicable Treasury Regulations (as described under Additional Interest below), payments of interest made to a U.S. Holder in respect of the Notes, including any accrued and unpaid interest deemed to have been paid upon conversion, will be subject to U.S. federal income tax as ordinary income when received or accrued, in accordance with such U.S. Holder's regular method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Additional Interest

Under certain circumstances (see Description of the Notes Redemption Optional Redemption, Description of the Notes Conversion Adjustment Upon Fundamental Change of Control and Description of the Notes Conversion Conversion Event; Termination of Conversion Rights), we may be required to pay additional interest on the Notes. Our obligation to make payments of additional interest may implicate the provisions of Treasury Regulations relating to contingent payment debt instruments. Although the issue is not free from doubt, we believe that the possibility of such additional payments pursuant to the terms of the Notes is remote and therefore we do not treat the Notes as contingent payment debt instruments for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Our determination that the possibility of such additional payments provided for under the Notes is remote is binding on a holder unless such holder explicitly discloses on its tax return that it is taking a different position in the manner required by applicable Treasury Regulations. If we become obligated to pay additional interest, we intend to take the position that such amounts will be treated as ordinary interest income and taxed as described under Stated Interest above. Our determination, however, is not binding on the IRS. If the IRS were to take a contrary position regarding our determination, a U.S. Holder may be required to accrue interest income based upon a comparable yield, regardless of the holder's method of accounting. The comparable yield is the yield at which we would issue a fixed rate non-convertible debt instrument with no contingent payments, but with terms and conditions similar to those of the Notes, and that yield would be higher than the stated coupon on the Notes. In addition, any gain on the sale, exchange, retirement or other taxable disposition of the Notes (including any gain realized on the conversion of a Note) would be recharacterized as ordinary income. U.S. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the possible application of the contingent payment debt instrument rules to the Notes and the tax treatment of the receipt of any additional interest on the Notes.

The remainder of this discussion assumes that the Notes are not treated as contingent payment debt instruments.

Market Discount

The market discount provisions of the Code may apply to U.S. Holders that acquire Notes for less than the stated principal amount thereof. In general, a debt instrument other than a debt instrument with a fixed maturity of one year or less that is acquired by a U.S. Holder in the secondary market will be treated as acquired with market discount if the debt instrument's stated redemption price at maturity exceeds the tax basis of the debt instrument in the holder's hands immediately after its acquisition, unless such excess is less than a statutorily defined de minimis amount.

In general and subject to the discussion below, any gain recognized by a U.S. Holder on the disposition of a Note (or shares of Common Stock received upon conversion of such Note) having market discount generally will be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount that accrued on the Note while held by such U.S. Holder. Unless the U.S. Holder elects to accrue market discount on a constant-yield basis, market discount will accrue on a straight-line basis over the term remaining on the Note. Subject to certain exceptions, such as when a holder elects to include market discount in gross income currently (as described below), a U.S. Holder that acquires a Note having market discount may be required to defer the deduction of a portion of the interest expense on any indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry the Note until the taxable year in which the U.S. Holder disposes of the Note.

A U.S. Holder that acquires a Note with market discount may elect to include market discount in gross income currently as it accrues (either on a straight-line basis or on a constant-yield basis). If a U.S. Holder makes such an election, the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the Note will be increased by any amount included in income. The election applies to all market discount obligations acquired by the U.S. Holder during or after the taxable year to which the election applies and may be revoked only with the consent of the IRS. If the election is made, the rules described above which treat gain realized as ordinary income and require deferral of certain interest deductions will not apply. Each U.S. Holder is urged to consult its tax advisors before making this election.

Notes Purchased at a Premium

A U.S. Holder may be subject to the rules applicable to amortizable bond premium if the holder acquires a Note at a purchase price in excess of the sum of all payments payable on the Notes after the purchase date other than payments of stated interest

Table of Contents

(Remaining Redemption Amount). For this purpose, the purchase price allocable to a Note is deemed to be the total purchase price reduced by an amount equal to the value of the right to convert the Note into Common Stock. In general, the amount of amortizable bond premium with respect to a Note will be equal to the excess, if any, of (i) the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the Note immediately after acquisition reduced by an amount equal to the value of the right to convert the Note into Common Stock over (ii) the Remaining Redemption Amount.

A U.S. Holder may elect to amortize such premium on a constant-yield basis as an offset to interest income over the period from the U.S. Holder's acquisition date to the Note's maturity date. A U.S. Holder that elects to amortize bond premium must reduce its adjusted tax basis in the Note by the amount of the amortized bond premium. An election to amortize bond premium applies to all taxable debt obligations held by the U.S. Holder during or after the taxable year for which the election is made. The election may be revoked only with the consent of the IRS. Amortizable bond premium is treated as a reduction of interest on the Note instead of as a deduction. The offset of amortizable bond premium against interest income on the Note occurs when the U.S. Holder takes the interest income into account under the U.S. Holder's regular method of tax accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

For a U.S. Holder that does not elect to amortize bond premium, the amount of such premium will be included in such holder's tax basis when the Note matures or is disposed of by such holder. Therefore, a U.S. Holder that does not elect to amortize premium and holds the Note to maturity will generally be required to treat the premium as capital loss when the Note matures.

Sale, Exchange, Redemption or Retirement of the Notes

Upon a sale, exchange, redemption or retirement of a Note (other than a conversion into Common Stock), a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between (i) the amount realized (including the amount of cash received and the fair market value of any property received, but excluding any amount attributable to accrued but unpaid interest not previously included in income) and (ii) such U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the Note at the time of such sale, exchange, redemption or retirement. A U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in a Note will generally be equal to the U.S. Holder's purchase price for the Note, increased by market discount previously included in income, and decreased by any amortized bond premium and any cash payment previously made on the Note other than payments of qualified stated interest. Subject to the treatment of a portion of any gain as ordinary income to the extent of any market discount accrued on the Note, such gain or loss will be capital gain or loss and will generally be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder held the Note for more than one year at the time of sale, exchange, redemption or retirement. Generally, long-term capital gain for non-corporate U.S. Holders, including individuals, is eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The amount deductible in respect of a capital loss is subject to limitations. Amounts attributable to accrued but unpaid interest are treated as ordinary income as described under Stated Interest above.

Conversion of the Notes into Shares of Common Stock

A U.S. Holder should not recognize gain or loss on the exchange of a Note for shares of Common Stock upon conversion, except to the extent of the fair market value of any shares of Common Stock received with respect to accrued but unpaid interest, which should be treated as ordinary income to the extent not previously included in income. The U.S. Holder should have an aggregate tax basis in the shares of Common Stock received in the conversion (including any fractional share for which cash is paid, but excluding shares attributable to accrued interest) equal to the aggregate tax basis of the Note converted. The tax basis in any shares of Common Stock attributable to accrued and unpaid interest will equal the fair market value of such shares when received. The holding period for shares of Common Stock received by the U.S. Holder upon conversion of a Note (other than shares attributable to accrued interest) should include the U.S. Holder's holding period for the Note surrendered in the conversion.

With respect to any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Common Stock, the U.S. Holder would be treated as if the fractional share had been issued and then redeemed for cash and would recognize capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share and (ii) the portion of the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in the Note that is allocated to the fractional share, as described under Sale, Exchange, Redemption or Retirement of the Notes above.

Constructive Distributions in Respect of the Notes

The terms of the Notes allow for changes in the conversion rate of the Notes in certain circumstances (see Description of the Notes Conversion Adjustment of Conversion Rate). A change in conversion rate that allows holders to receive more shares of Common Stock on conversion may increase the holders proportionate interests in our earnings and profits or assets. In that case, a holder would be treated as though it received a distribution in the form of shares of our Common Stock, in an amount equal to the value, as of the date of such constructive distribution, of the additional Common Stock that the holder would be entitled to receive upon a conversion of the Notes by virtue of the change in the conversion rate. Such a constructive stock distribution could be taxable to the holders, even though they did not actually receive any cash or other property. Not all changes in conversion rate that allow holders to receive more shares of Common Stock on conversion, however, increase the holders proportionate interests in the Company. For instance, a change in conversion rate simply could prevent the dilution of the holders' interests upon a stock split or other change in capital structure. Changes of this type, if made by a bona fide, reasonable adjustment formula, are not treated as constructive stock distributions. Conversely, if an event occurs that dilutes the holders' interests and the conversion rate is not adjusted, the resulting increase in the proportionate interests of our stockholders could be treated as a taxable stock distribution to them.

Any taxable constructive stock distributions resulting from a change to, or failure to change, the conversion rate generally would be treated in the same manner as a distribution paid in cash or other property. Such constructive distribution would be treated as a taxable dividend to the recipient to the extent of our current or accumulated earnings and profits, with any excess treated as a non-taxable return of capital or as capital gain, in the manner described under Distributions on Shares of Common Stock below. Generally, a U.S. Holder's tax basis in a Note will be increased to the extent any such constructive distribution is treated as a dividend. It is unclear whether any such constructive dividends would be eligible for the reduced rate of U.S. federal income tax currently applicable to certain dividends received by non-corporate holders or the dividends-received deduction applicable to corporations.

Distributions on Shares of Common Stock

Distributions in respect of the shares of Common Stock received upon a conversion of the Notes, other than certain pro rata distributions of Common Stock, will be treated as dividends for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the extent paid out of our current or accumulated earnings and profits, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles, and will be includible in income by U.S. Holders and taxable as ordinary income when received. If a distribution on shares of Common Stock exceeds our current and accumulated earnings and profits, the excess will be treated first as a non-taxable return of capital, which reduces a holder's tax basis in the shares of Common Stock, and any distribution in excess of the holder's tax basis in the shares of Common Stock will be treated as capital gain, which will be long-term capital gain if the holder's holding period exceeds one year.

Dividends received by non-corporate U.S. Holders (with respect to taxable years beginning no later than December 31, 2012) from us generally will qualify for reduced rates of taxation on qualified dividend income if certain holding period and other requirements are met. Dividends will be eligible for the dividends received deduction if the U.S. Holder is an otherwise qualifying corporate holder that meets the holding period and other requirements for the dividends received deduction.

Sale, Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of Shares of Common Stock

A U.S. Holder generally will recognize capital gain or loss on a sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of shares of Common Stock. A U.S. Holder's gain or loss will equal the difference between the amount realized by the holder and the holder's adjusted tax basis in the share of Common Stock. The amount realized by a U.S. Holder will equal the amount of any cash plus the fair market value of any other property received for the shares of Common Stock. Except to the extent of any accrued market discount as discussed above, the gain or loss recognized by a U.S. Holder on a sale or exchange of the shares of Common Stock will be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holder's holding period for the shares of Common Stock exceeds one year. In the case of a non-corporate U.S. Holder, long-term capital gains are subject to taxation at favorable rates. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Additional Tax on Passive Income

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 2012, U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates or trusts and whose income exceeds certain thresholds generally will be subject to a 3.8% Medicare contribution tax on unearned income, including, among other things, interest income, dividend income and capital gains from the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of, the Notes or Common Stock, subject to certain limitations and exceptions.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

A U.S. Holder may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding tax (currently at a rate of 28%) on payments of (i) interest and principal on the Notes, (ii) proceeds (including additional interest) from the sale or other disposition (including a redemption or conversion) of the Notes or the shares of Common Stock and (iii) dividends on the Common Stock. Certain holders (including, among others, corporations and certain tax-exempt organizations) are generally not subject to information reporting and backup withholding provided their exemptions are properly established. A U.S. Holder generally will be subject to backup withholding if such holder is not otherwise exempt and such holder: fails to provide its taxpayer identification number, fails to certify that such number is correct, fails to certify that such U.S. Holder is not subject to backup withholding, or otherwise fails to comply with the applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amounts withheld may be credited against a holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle such holder to a refund, provided such holder timely furnishes certain information to the IRS. U.S. Holders should consult with their own tax advisors regarding the application of backup withholding to their particular situation, the availability of exemptions from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining such exemptions, if available.

Non-U.S. Holders

Treatment of the Notes

Subject to the discussion below regarding backup withholding, payments of principal and interest (including interest deemed to be received upon conversion) on the Notes by a Non-U.S. Holder will be exempt from U.S. federal income or withholding tax, provided that: (i) such Non-U.S. Holder does not own, actually or constructively, 10% or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of our stock entitled to vote, and is not a controlled foreign corporation related, directly or indirectly, to us through stock ownership; (ii) such Non-U.S. Holder certifies on an IRS Form W-8BEN (or successor form), under penalties of perjury, that it is not a United States person and provides its name and address or otherwise satisfies applicable documentation requirements; and (iii) such payments are not effectively connected with the conduct by such Non-U.S. Holder of a trade or business in the United States (or, where a tax treaty applies, are not attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment).

If a Non-U.S. Holder cannot satisfy the requirements above, payments of interest made to the Non-U.S. Holder will be subject to a 30% U.S. federal withholding tax, unless the Non-U.S. Holder qualifies for a reduced rate of withholding, or is able to claim a valid exemption, under a tax treaty (generally, by providing an IRS Form W-8BEN claiming treaty benefits) or by establishing that such interest is not subject to withholding tax because it is effectively connected with the Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States (generally, by providing an IRS Form W-8ECI, as described below).

Any gain realized upon the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of Notes generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless:

- (i) that gain is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States by the Non-U.S. Holder (and, where a tax treaty applies, is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment); or
- (ii) the Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of that disposition and certain other conditions are met.

In addition, accrued but unpaid interest (including accrued market discount) not previously included in income is not treated as gain subject to these rules, but rather is subject to the rules regarding interest described above.

If a Non-U.S. Holder of the Notes is engaged in a trade or business in the United States, the Non-U.S. Holder, although exempt from the U.S. federal withholding tax discussed above, generally will be subject to regular U.S. federal income tax on a net basis on interest and on any gain realized on the sale, exchange, or other taxable disposition of Notes in the same manner as if it were a U.S. Holder to the extent such interest or gain is effectively connected with such Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of the U.S. trade or business (and, in the case of certain tax treaties, is attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base within the United States). In lieu of the certificate described above, such Non-U.S. Holder will be required to provide to the withholding agent a properly executed IRS Form W-8ECI (or successor form) in order to claim an exemption from withholding tax. In addition, if such Non-U.S. Holder is a foreign corporation, it may be subject to a branch profits tax equal to 30% (or such lower rate provided by an applicable tax treaty) of its effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments.

Shares of Common Stock

Subject to the discussion below, any dividends paid to a Non-U.S. Holder with respect to the shares of Common Stock (and any deemed dividends resulting from certain adjustments, or the failure to make certain adjustments, to the number of shares of Common Stock to be issued upon conversion of the Notes, as discussed in U.S. Holders' Constructive Distributions in Respect of the Notes above) will be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a 30% rate or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable tax treaty. In order to obtain a reduced rate of U.S. federal withholding tax under an applicable income tax treaty, a Non-U.S. Holder will be required to provide a properly executed IRS Form W-8BEN (or successor form) certifying its entitlement to benefits under the treaty. Because a constructive distribution deemed received by a Non-U.S. Holder would not give rise to any cash from which any applicable withholding tax could be satisfied, we may set off any such withholding tax against any cash payments of interest payable on the Notes, shares of the Non-U.S. Holder's Common Stock or sales proceeds subsequently paid or credited to the Non-U.S. Holder.

Dividends received by a Non-U.S. Holder that are effectively connected with such Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, where a tax treaty applies, are attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment) are not subject to U.S. federal withholding tax, but instead are subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at the applicable graduated individual or corporate rates. Such Non-U.S. Holder will be required to provide to the withholding agent a properly executed IRS

Table of Contents

Form W-8ECI (or successor form) in order for effectively connected income to be exempt from U.S. federal withholding tax. In addition, if such Non-U.S. Holder is a corporation, it may be subject to a branch profits tax of 30% (or such lower rate provided by an applicable treaty) of its effectively connected earnings and profits for the taxable year, subject to certain adjustments.

Any gain realized by a Non-U.S. Holder upon the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of shares of Common Stock generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax unless: (i) that gain is effectively connected with such Non-U.S. Holder's conduct of a trade or business in the United States (and, where a tax treaty applies, is attributable to a U.S. permanent establishment); or (ii) the Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who is present in the United States for 183 days or more in the taxable year of that disposition and certain other conditions are met.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

In general, a Non-U.S. Holder will be subject to information reporting and backup withholding with respect to payments made by us with respect to the Notes or the shares of Common Stock unless the Non-U.S. Holder provides to the withholding agent an IRS Form W-8BEN or IRS Form W-8ECI (or successor form) and such withholding agent does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that such Non-U.S. Holder is a United States person. In addition, information reporting and, depending on the circumstances, backup withholding will apply to the proceeds of the sale, exchange or other taxable disposition of the Notes or Common Stock made within the United States or conducted through certain U.S. financial intermediaries unless the payor receives the IRS Form described above and does not have actual knowledge or reason to know that the Non-U.S. Holder is a United States person as defined under the Code or the Non-U.S. Holder otherwise establishes an exemption. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Amounts withheld as backup withholding may be credited against a holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and the holder may obtain a refund of any excess amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules by timely filing an appropriate claim for refund with the IRS and furnishing any required information.

Withholdable Payments to Foreign Financial Entities and Other Foreign Entities

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, or FATCA, will impose a U.S. federal withholding tax of 30% on certain payments to foreign financial institutions, investment funds and other non-US persons that fail to comply with information reporting requirements in respect of their direct and indirect U.S. shareholders and/or U.S. accountholders. Such payments would include our dividends and the gross proceeds from the sale or other disposition of our Common Stock. IRS guidance indicates that, under future regulations, this withholding will apply to payments of dividends on our Common Stock made on or after January 1, 2014 and to payments of gross proceeds from a sale or other disposition of our Common Stock made on or after January 1, 2015. Under certain circumstances, a Non-U.S. Holder might be eligible for refunds or credits of such taxes. Prospective investors are encouraged to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the possible implications of this legislation on their investment in our Common Stock.

Item 14. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Directors liability; indemnification of directors and officers. Section 145(a) of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides, in general, that a corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, because the person is or was a director or officer of the corporation. Such indemnity may be against expenses (including attorneys fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and if, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, the person did not have reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful.

Section 145(b) of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides, in general, that a corporation shall have the power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor because the person is or was a director or officer of the corporation, against any expenses (including attorneys fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to be indemnified for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 145(g) of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides, in general, that a corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director or officer of the corporation against any liability asserted against the person in any such capacity, or arising out of the person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the person against such liability under the provisions of the law. Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation provides that, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, a director will not be liable to us or our stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. In addition, our by-laws provide that we will indemnify each director and officer and may indemnify employees and agents, as determined by our board, to the fullest extent provided by the laws of the State of Delaware.

The foregoing statements are subject to the detailed provisions of Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law and our Certificate and By-laws.

Section 102 of the Delaware General Corporation Law permits the limitation of directors' personal liability to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duties as a director except for (i) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, (iii) breaches under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, which relates to unlawful payments of dividends or unlawful stock repurchase or redemptions, and (iv) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Item 17. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

1. To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
 - i. To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - ii. To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement.
 - iii. To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;
2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
4. That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:
 - i. If the registrant is subject to Rule 430C, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a registration statement relating to an offering, other than registration statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.
5. That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities: The undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:
 - i. Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
 - ii. Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

- iii. The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

- iv. Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.
- 6. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
