PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

Delphi Corporation's (the Company) Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 (Form 10-K) could not be filed within the prescribed time period because the Company could not complete the preparation of the required information without unreasonable effort and expense. As previously announced in the Company's Form 8-K filed March 4, 2005, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors' internal investigation concluded that certain previously issued financial statements would need to be restated. The decision to delay filing of the Form 10-K was made in light of the Company's intention to restate its financial statements and related independent auditors reports for 2001 and subsequent periods.

The Company will not be in a position to file an Annual Report on Form 10-K without unreasonable effort or expense prior to the time at which the Audit Committee's internal investigation is completed and the restatements have been audited by the Company's independent auditors, Deloitte & Touche LLP. Although the Company is not able to predict with certainty when its investigation will be complete, it expects it will be able to issue any necessary restatement of prior historical financial statements on or before June 30, 2005 and become fully current in its filings of periodic reports with the SEC.
