On December 23, 2008, Freddie Mac (formally known as the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation) announced that the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA), as Conservator of Freddie Mac, has appointed the following directors to Freddie Mac's Board of Directors (the Board), effective as of December 18, 2008: Barbara T. Alexander; Linda B. Bammann; Carolyn H. Byrd; Robert R. Glauber; Laurence E. Hirsch; Christopher S. Lynch; David M. Moffett; Nicolas P. Retsinas; Eugene B. Shanks, Jr.; and Anthony A. Williams. These individuals are referred to below as the new directors. Mr. Moffett is Freddie Mac's Chief Executive Officer.

As a result of these appointments, the company's Board currently consists of 11 members: non-executive Chairman John A. Koskinen (appointed by the Conservator on September 16, 2008); three directors who were on the Board prior to FHFA's appointment as Conservator on September 6, 2008 (Barbara T. Alexander, Robert R. Glauber and Nicolas P. Retsinas); and seven directors new to the Board of Freddie Mac.

The following is a brief biographical description of each of the directors:

Mr. Moffett is not independent because of his current employment with Freddie Mac. Mr. Williams is not independent because of payments made by Freddie Mac in 2005 and 2006 to an affiliate of Friedman, Billings, Ramsey Group, Inc. This affiliate provided brokerage services to Freddie Mac in connection with transactions in agency securities during 2005 and 2006, and the payments were related to such services. As described above, Mr. Williams has been employed by an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of Friedman, Billings, Ramsey Group, Inc. since January 2007.

Background

Upon its appointment as Conservator on September 6, 2008, FHFA immediately succeeded to all rights, titles, powers and privileges of Freddie Mac, and of any stockholder, officer or director of Freddie Mac with respect to Freddie Mac and its assets. Accordingly, as of such date, the Board and its committees ceased to have any authority to act. As disclosed in Freddie Mac's Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2008, after its appointment the Conservator indicated its intention to appoint a Board of Directors to which it would delegate specified roles and responsibilities. In connection with the appointment of the new directors, FHFA, as Conservator, has delegated certain roles and responsibilities to the reconstituted Board, as discussed below.

Board Composition

The Conservator has determined that the Board will have a non-executive Chairman, and will consist of a minimum of nine and not more than 13 directors, with the Chief Executive Officer as the only corporate officer serving as a member. With the appointments by the Conservator on December 18, the Board currently consists of 11 directors. Subsequent vacancies may be filled by the Board, subject to review by the Conservator.

Authority of the Board and New Board Committees

The directors will serve on behalf of, and will exercise authority as directed by, the Conservator. The Conservator has instructed the Board that it should consult with and obtain the approval of the Conservator before taking action in the following areas:

Actions involving capital stock, dividends, the Senior Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement between the company and the U.S. Department of the Treasury, increases in risk limits, material changes in accounting policy, and reasonably foreseeable material increases in operational risk;

Creation of any subsidiary or affiliate or any substantial transaction between Freddie Mac and any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, except for transactions undertaken in the ordinary course (e.g., the creation of a trust, real estate mortgage investment conduit (REMIC), real estate investment trust (REIT) or similar vehicle);

Matters that relate to conservatorship, such as, but not limited to, the initiation and material actions in connection with significant litigation addressing the actions or authority of the Conservator, repudiation of contracts, qualified financial contracts in dispute due to conservatorship status, and counterparties attempting to nullify or amend contracts due to conservatorship status;

Actions involving hiring, compensation and termination benefits of directors and officers at the executive vice president level and above. Regardless of title, this includes executive positions with the functions of Chief Operating Officer, Chief Financial Officer, General Counsel, Chief Business Officer, Chief Investment Officer, Treasurer, Chief Compliance Officer, Chief Risk Officer and Chief/General/Internal Auditor;

Actions involving the retention and termination of external auditors, and law firms serving as consultants to the Board;

Settlements in excess of $50 million of litigation, claims, regulatory proceedings or tax-related matters;

Any merger with or purchase or acquisition of a business involving consideration in excess of $50 million; and

Actions that in the reasonable business judgment of the Board at the time that the action is taken is likely to cause significant reputation risk.

The Board will have four standing committees: Audit; Business and Risk; Compensation; and Nominating and Governance. The committee members are as follows:

Audit Committee

Lynch (chair)
Bammann
Byrd
Glauber

Business and Risk Committee

Alexander (chair)
Hirsch
Retsinas
Shanks
Williams

Compensation Committee

Shanks (chair)
Alexander
Bammann
Lynch

Nominating and Governance Committee

Glauber (chair)
Byrd
Hirsch
Retsinas

The duties of other standing Board committees in existence on September 6, 2008 will be merged into one of these four committees as the directors deem appropriate in consultation with the Conservator, and their charters will be revised in consultation with the Conservator to reflect the merged duties and any additional changes as may be necessary or appropriate.

Transactions with Institutions Related to the New Directors

In the ordinary course of business, we were a party since January 1, 2007, and expect to continue to be a party during the remainder of 2008, to certain business transactions with institutions affiliated with certain of the new directors. Management believes that the terms and conditions of the transactions were no more and no less favorable to us than the terms of similar transactions with unaffiliated institutions to which we are, or expect to be, a party.

As discussed above, Mr. Lynch retired from KPMG LLP as an audit partner in May 2007. Since January 1, 2007, KPMG has provided consulting services to Freddie Mac, involving payments from Freddie Mac of approximately $64.6 million.

Director Compensation

FHFA has approved compensation for the Board members, as set forth below. The compensation was effective for Mr. Koskinen as of September 16, 2008, the date of his appointment as non-executive Chairman, and was effective for the other non-executive directors as of December 18, 2008. All such compensation will be in cash. Mr. Moffett, as an executive employee of the company, will not receive any additional compensation for his service as a member of the Board.

Annual Retainer for Non-Executive Chairman	$ 290,000
Annual Retainer for Other Non-Executive Directors	$ 160,000

Committee Service

Annual Retainer for Audit Committee Chair	$ 25,000
Annual Retainer for Business and Risk Committee Chair	$ 15,000
Annual Retainer for Committee Chair (other than Audit and Business and Risk)	$ 10,000

Indemnification Agreements

Freddie Mac is entering into an indemnification agreement with each of the directors (each, an indemnitee). The indemnification agreements will be effective as of the date of the respective director's appointment to the Board, except that the indemnification agreements of Ms. Alexander and Messrs. Glauber, Moffett and Retsinas will be effective as of September 6, 2008. A copy of the form of indemnification agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.2 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference. The principal terms of the indemnification agreement are as follows: The indemnification agreement provides that Freddie Mac will indemnify the indemnitee to the fullest extent permitted by Freddie Mac's Bylaws and Virginia law. This obligation includes, subject to certain terms and conditions, indemnification against all liabilities and expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the indemnitee in connection with any threatened or pending action, suit or proceeding, except such liabilities and expenses as are incurred because of the indemnitee's willful misconduct or knowing violation of the criminal law. The indemnification agreement provides that Freddie Mac will advance, if requested by the indemnitee, such expenses, subject to repayment by the indemnitee of any funds advanced if it is ultimately determined that the indemnitee is not entitled to indemnification. The rights to indemnification under the indemnification agreement are not exclusive of any other right the indemnitee may have under any statute, agreement or otherwise. Freddie Mac's obligations under the indemnification agreement will continue after the indemnitee is no longer a director or officer of the company with respect to any possible claims based on the fact that the indemnitee was a director or officer, and the indemnification agreement will remain in effect in the event the conservatorship is terminated. The indemnification agreement also provides that indemnification for actions instituted by FHFA will be governed by the standards set forth in FHFA's Notice of Proposed Rulemaking published in the Federal Register on November 14, 2008, proposing an amendment to FHFA's interim final Golden Parachute Payments regulation to address prohibited and permissible indemnification payments.

Item 8.01. Other Events

As previously disclosed, on December 9, 2003, Freddie Mac entered into a consent order and settlement with the Office of Federal Housing Enterprise Oversight, the predecessor to FHFA, under which Freddie Mac agreed to undertake certain remedial actions related to governance, corporate culture, internal controls, accounting practices, disclosure and oversight. On November 21, 2008, FHFA terminated the consent order upon FHFA's determination that Freddie Mac has met the requirements of the consent order.
