Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On June 26, 2007, Move, Inc. (the Company) entered into a letter agreement (Letter Agreement) with its Chief Operating Officer, Jack Dennison. The Letter Agreement acknowledges that the creation of the position of president of the Company, and Mr. Dennison's reporting to such new position since its creation, constitutes Good Reason as defined in Mr. Dennison's employment agreement with the Company dated March 2, 2002 (Employment Agreement), and a Diminution of Responsibilities as defined in the addendums to his subsequent stock option grants. The Letter Agreement provides that if Mr. Dennison resigns at any time prior to September 30, 2007, the terms and benefits provided in his Employment Agreement and the subsequent stock option grant addendums will govern such termination.

The Letter Agreement provides that if Mr. Dennison resigns or is terminated other than for cause, between September 30, 2007 and December 31, 2007, provided he executes a release of claims without revocation and enters into the consulting services agreement attached to the Letter Agreement, with a term ending on December 31, 2007: (i) all of his previously granted but unvested stock options shall immediately vest; and (ii) he shall receive the gross amount of $1,200,000.00, less all appropriate taxes and withholdings, payable in equal installments over twelve months; provided, however, that he will also receive any applicable tax gross up pursuant to his Employment Agreement. The foregoing amount represents full and complete satisfaction for any amounts that would have been due to Mr. Dennison under the Company's 2007 Executive Bonus Plan and his Employment Agreement.

The Letter Agreement also provides that if Mr. Dennison resigns or is terminated other than for cause, between September 30, 2007 and December 31, 2007, and Mr. Dennison has met as of September 30, 2007, certain individual performance criteria delivered to him in connection with the Letter Agreement, the stock options granted to him dated May 11, 2004, March 17, 2005 and June 22, 2006, shall be exercisable for a period of three years following his termination of employment. If Mr. Dennison is terminated due to death or disability on or before December 31, 2007, then the performance criteria shall be deemed met.

The Letter Agreement also provides that if Mr. Dennison resigns or his employment is terminated prior to December 31, 2007, he shall not be entitled to participate in any other bonus programs, including the 2007 Executive Bonus Plan, or receive additional stock options or other equity based incentives.

The Letter Agreement further provides that if Mr. Dennison resigns at any time after December 31, 2007, he waives any and all right to claim that the change in reporting structure set forth above constitutes Good Reason or a Diminution of Responsibilities.

The foregoing description of the Letter Agreement is qualified in its entirety by the terms of the Letter Agreement itself which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
