Dear Distributor:

Mentor Corporation ( Mentor ) prides itself on having provided innovative products and best-in-class service to surgeons worldwide for over 30 years. I am writing you today to inform you of an important next stage in the evolution of Mentor as an aesthetics market leader. Mentor and Johnson & Johnson announced today an agreement whereby Johnson & Johnson will acquire Mentor. The offer is conditioned on the tender of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock, and certain other closing conditions.

Mentor will operate as a stand-alone business unit reporting through ETHICON, Inc., a Johnson & Johnson company and leading provider of suture, mesh and other products for a wide range of surgical procedures. ETHICON is excited to strengthen its presence in aesthetic and reconstructive medicine by delivering a broad range of evidence-based solutions for innovation and enhanced patient outcomes. ETHICON and Mentor share a belief in the future growth of breast aesthetics in particular, and in the important role of breast aesthetics in patients' self esteem and quality of life. We are excited for Mentor to join the Johnson & Johnson family of companies. J&J has an established track record of enabling acquired companies to continue to operate as highly entrepreneurial organizations while enhancing the products and services they are able to deliver to the marketplace. Mentor and Johnson & Johnson are both dedicated to continuing to deliver the best science, level of service and a broad range of surgical aesthetic products to meet customer and patient needs.

Mentor's growth in many international markets has been the result of outstanding support and collaboration with our distribution partners around the world. A team of senior leaders from both Mentor and ETHICON will be working with our distributor colleagues to assure we continue to deliver the highest standard of service to our physician customers and their patients. We anticipate beginning these discussions in the first quarter of the New Year.

We look forward to and very much appreciate your ongoing support as we continue to service the vital plastic and reconstructive surgical physicians and patients worldwide.

Sincerely,

Josh Levine

President and Chief Executive Officer

Mentor Corporation
