Dear Shareholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a special meeting of shareholders of Slade's Ferry Bancorp. (Slade's Ferry) to be held at the Advanced Technology and Manufacturing Center (ATMC), 151 Martine Street, Fall River, Massachusetts 02723 on January 17, 2008 at 10:00 a.m., local time. At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve a merger agreement (the merger agreement) under which Slade's Ferry will merge with and into Independent Bank Corp. (Independent).

If the merger agreement is approved and the merger is subsequently completed, each share of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive either $25.50 in cash or 0.818 shares of Independent common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares. Subject to election and proration procedures described in this document, you will be entitled to elect to receive your merger consideration in the form of Independent common stock, cash or a combination of both. All elections are subject to adjustment to ensure that 25% of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash, and 75% of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive Independent common stock. Independent common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the trading symbol INDB. On December 4, 2007, the closing price of Independent common stock was $27.83 per share.

The merger cannot be completed unless the shareholders of Slade's Ferry approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Slade's Ferry's board of directors unanimously adopted and approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement is advisable and in the best interests of Slade's Ferry and its shareholders, and accordingly unanimously recommends that shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

This document serves as the proxy statement for the special meeting of shareholders of Slade's Ferry and the prospectus for the shares of Independent common stock to be issued in the merger, and includes detailed information about the special meeting, the merger, and the documents related to the merger. We urge you to read this entire document carefully, including the discussion in the section titled Risk Factors beginning on page 9. You can also obtain information about Slade's Ferry and Independent from documents that have been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Your vote is important. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card or by submitting a proxy through the Internet or by telephone as described on the enclosed proxy card. If you submit a properly signed proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote FOR approval of the merger agreement. The failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Sincerely,

Mary Lynn D. Lenz
President and Chief Executive Officer

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved the shares of Independent common stock to be issued in the merger or determined if this document is accurate or adequate. This document is dated December 7, 2007, and is first being mailed to Slade s Ferry shareholders on or about December 12, 2007.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS
To Be Held On January 17, 2008

A special meeting of shareholders of Slade s Ferry Bancorp. will be held at the Advanced Technology and Manufacturing Center (ATMC), 151 Martine Street, Fall River, Massachusetts 02723 on January 17, 2008 at 10:00 a.m., local time, for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of October 11, 2007, by and among Independent Bank Corp., Rockland Trust Company, Slade s Ferry Bancorp. and Slade s Ferry Trust Company, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to the accompanying document, and the transactions contemplated thereby;
2. To consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of that meeting, to approve the merger agreement; and
3. To consider and act upon any other matters as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of that meeting.

The Slade s Ferry board of directors has fixed the close of business on December 7, 2007 as the record date for the special meeting. Accordingly, only shareholders of record on that date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. If you do not vote in person or by proxy, the effect will be a vote against approval of the merger agreement.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

Peter G. Collias

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

Q: Why am I receiving this document?

A: Independent Bank Corp. and Slade's Ferry Bancorp. have agreed to the acquisition of Slade's Ferry by Independent under the terms of a merger agreement that is described in this document. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this document as Appendix A. In order to complete the merger, Slade's Ferry shareholders must vote to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Slade's Ferry will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to obtain this approval. This document contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, the special meeting of Slade's Ferry shareholders, and other related matters, and you should read it carefully. The enclosed voting materials for the special meeting allow you to vote your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock without attending the special meeting.

Q: What will happen in the merger?

A: In the proposed merger, Slade's Ferry will merge with and into Independent, with Independent being the surviving corporation. In addition, Slade's Ferry Trust Company, Slade's Ferry's banking subsidiary (Slades Bank), will merge with and into Rockland Trust Company, Independent's banking subsidiary (Rockland Trust), with Rockland Trust being the surviving entity.

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: You will receive merger consideration in a per share amount equal to either $25.50 in cash or 0.818 shares of Independent common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares. You may elect to receive your merger consideration in cash, Independent common stock, or a combination of both. However, the form of merger consideration you actually receive may differ from the form of consideration you elect to receive. This is because the consideration to be received by Slade's Ferry shareholders is subject to allocation procedures, which are intended to ensure that 25% of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash, and 75% of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive Independent common stock. As a result, if more Slade's Ferry shareholders make valid elections to receive either Independent common stock or cash than is available as merger consideration under the merger agreement, those Slade's Ferry shareholders electing the over-subscribed form of consideration will have the over-subscribed consideration proportionately reduced and will receive a portion of their consideration in the other form, despite their election.

Q: Will I receive any fractional shares of Independent common stock as part of the merger consideration?

A: No. Fractional shares of Independent common stock will not be issued in the merger. Instead, Independent will pay you the cash value of a fractional share measured by the average of the closing sale prices of Independent common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the five trading days ending on the day before the completion of the merger.

Q: How do I make an election as to the form of merger consideration I wish to receive?

A: No later than 20 business days prior to the anticipated election deadline (which will be a date mutually agreed upon by Slade's Ferry and Independent), we will mail to you separately an election form and letter of transmittal for the surrender of your Slade's Ferry stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration. Along with those documents, you will receive detailed instructions describing the procedures you must follow to make your election. We also will publicly announce the election deadline, which will be before the closing date for the merger.

We are not making any recommendation to you as to whether or not you should elect to receive cash, shares of Independent common stock or a combination of each in the merger. You should evaluate your own specific circumstances and investment preferences in making your election.

Table of Contents

Q: Can I elect to receive my merger consideration in the form of cash with respect to a portion of my Slade s Ferry shares and Independent common stock with respect to the rest of my Slade s Ferry shares?

A: Yes. The election form and letter of transmittal will permit you, subject to the proration procedures described in this document, to receive at your election:

all of your merger consideration in the form of shares of Independent common stock;

all of your merger consideration in the form of cash; or a portion of your merger consideration in cash and the remaining portion in shares of Independent common stock.

Please see the examples set forth in the section of this document titled The Merger Agreement Election Procedures beginning on page 44 of this document.

Q: Will I be able to trade the shares of Independent common stock that I receive in the merger?

A: You may freely trade the shares of Independent common stock issued in the merger, unless you are an affiliate of Slade s Ferry. The shares will be quoted on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol INDB. Persons who are considered affiliates (generally directors, officers and 10% or greater shareholders) of Slade s Ferry must comply with Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933 if they wish to sell or otherwise transfer any of the shares of Independent common stock that they receive in the merger. We will notify you if we believe you are an affiliate of Slade s Ferry.

Q: What will happen to shares of Independent common stock in the merger?

A: Each share of Independent common stock outstanding will remain outstanding as a share of Independent common stock, and the rights of each share of common stock will not change as a result of the merger. After the merger, however, the current shareholders of Independent as a group will own approximately 83.9% of Independent, a percentage ownership of the combined organization smaller than such shareholder s percentage ownership of Independent before the merger. Because of this, Independent s current shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Independent than they have before the merger.

Q: What are the material federal income tax consequences of the merger to me?

A: In general, if you are a U.S. holder (as defined under Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 63 of this document) and exchange all of your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock for shares of Independent common stock, you will not recognize either gain or loss for federal income tax purposes, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Independent common stock.

If you are a U.S. holder and exchange your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock for a combination of cash and Independent common stock, you generally will recognize gain, but not loss, for federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of cash you receive in the merger; or (2) the amount, if any, by which the sum of the fair market value, as of the effective time of the merger, of any shares of Independent common stock that you receive, and the amount of cash you receive in the merger, exceeds your adjusted tax basis in your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock.

If you exchange all of your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock solely for cash in the merger, you will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and your tax basis in the Slade's Ferry common stock surrendered. Any capital gain or loss recognized generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if you held the shares of Slade's Ferry common stock for more than one year at the time the merger is completed. Long-term gain of an individual generally is subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax of 15%.

Table of Contents

For a more detailed discussion of the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger and certain requirements, see Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 63 of this document.

The above described tax treatment may not apply to all Slade s Ferry shareholders. We strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Q: What are the conditions to completion of the merger?

A: The obligations of Independent and Slade s Ferry to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain closing conditions contained in the merger agreement, including the receipt of required regulatory approvals, tax opinions and approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby by Slade s Ferry shareholders.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We will complete the merger when all of the conditions to completion contained in the merger agreement are satisfied or waived, including obtaining customary regulatory approvals and the approval of the merger agreement by Slade s Ferry shareholders at the special meeting. We currently expect to complete the merger during the first calendar quarter of 2008. However, because fulfillment of some of the conditions to completion of the merger, such as receiving required regulatory approvals, is not entirely within our control, we cannot predict the actual timing.

Q: What shareholder approvals are required to complete the merger?

A: For Slade s Ferry, the affirmative vote of holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Slade s Ferry common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. For Independent, no approval of shareholders is needed and no vote will be taken.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting of shareholders of Slade s Ferry will be held at the Advanced Technology and Manufacturing Center (ATMC), 151 Martine Street, Fall River, Massachusetts 02723 on January 17, 2008 at 10:00 a.m., local time.

Q: What will happen at the special meeting?

A: At the special meeting, Slade s Ferry shareholders will consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and consider and act upon any other matters as may properly come before the special meeting. If, at the time of the special meeting, there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, we may ask you to consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, so that we can solicit additional proxies.

Q: Does Slade s Ferry s board of directors recommend voting in favor of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby?

A: Yes. After careful consideration, Slade s Ferry s board of directors unanimously recommends that Slade s Ferry shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Q: Are there any risks that I should consider in deciding whether to vote for approval of the merger agreement?

A: Yes. You should read and carefully consider the risk factors set forth in the section in this document titled Risk Factors beginning on page 9.

Table of Contents

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: You should carefully read and consider the information contained in or incorporated by reference into this document, including its appendices. It contains important information about the merger, the merger agreement, Independent and Slade s Ferry. After you have read and considered this information, you should complete and sign your proxy card and return it in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope or submit a proxy through the Internet or by telephone as soon as possible so that your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock will be represented and voted at the special meeting.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, bank or other nominee, will my broker, bank or other nominee automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your broker, bank or other nominee will not vote your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock unless you provide instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote. You should fill out the voter instruction form sent to you by your broker, bank or other nominee with this document.

Q: What if I fail to submit my proxy card or to instruct my broker, bank or other nominee?

A: If you fail to submit your proxy card or to instruct your broker, bank or other nominee to vote your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock and you do not attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person, your shares will not be voted and this will have the same effect as a vote against approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Q: Can I attend the special meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. Although the Slade s Ferry board of directors requests that you return the proxy card accompanying this document, all Slade s Ferry shareholders are invited to attend the special meeting. Shareholders of record on December 7, 2007 can vote in person at the special meeting. If your shares are held by a broker, bank or other nominee, then you are not the shareholder of record and you must bring to the special meeting appropriate documentation from your broker, bank or other nominee to enable you to vote at the special meeting.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have submitted my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. If you have not voted through your broker, bank or other nominee, you can change your vote at any time after you have submitted your proxy card and before your proxy is voted at the special meeting.

You may deliver a written notice bearing a date later than the date of your proxy card to the clerk/secretary of Slade s Ferry, stating that you revoke your proxy.

$25.50 in cash (which is referred to as the cash consideration); or

0.818 shares of Independent common stock, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share (which is referred to as the stock consideration).

You will have the opportunity to elect the form of consideration that you receive in the merger in exchange for your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock. You may elect to receive a portion of your merger consideration in cash and the remaining portion in shares of Independent common stock. However, your right to receive the form of consideration that you elect for your shares will be subject to allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement. These allocation procedures are intended to ensure that 25% of the outstanding shares of Slade s Ferry common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive cash, and 75% of these shares of Slade s Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive Independent common stock.

Independent will not issue fractional shares. Instead, Slade s Ferry shareholders who receive Independent common stock will receive the value of any fractional share in cash based on the average of the last sale prices of a share of Independent common stock, as reported on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, for the five trading days preceding the closing date of the merger, rounded to the nearest whole cent.

Election Procedures (see pages 44-45)

The shares of Slade s Ferry common stock that you hold will be exchanged for cash, Independent common stock or a combination of cash and Independent common stock as chosen by you, subject to the allocation procedures described in the merger agreement. Prior to the closing date of the merger, you will be sent an election form and detailed instructions to permit you to choose your preferred consideration. You have the following choices:

you may elect to receive $25.50 per share in cash in exchange for all shares of Slade s Ferry common stock that you hold;

you may elect to receive 0.818 shares of Independent common stock in exchange for all shares of Slade s Ferry common stock that you hold, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share;

you may elect to receive the cash consideration with respect to a portion of the shares of Slade s Ferry common stock that you hold, and the stock consideration with respect to your remaining shares; or you may make no election with respect to the consideration to be received by you in exchange for your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock.

You will have a limited period of time in which to complete the election form and return it as instructed. The election form will be mailed to you at least 20 business days prior to the anticipated election deadline (which will be a date mutually agreed upon by Slade s Ferry and Independent). Since the actual election deadline is not currently known, Independent will publicly announce the date of the election deadline as soon as practicable after it is determined. You will need to surrender your Slade s Ferry stock certificates to receive the appropriate consideration, but you should not send us any certificates now. You will receive detailed instructions on how to exchange your stock certificates along with your election form. If you do not submit an election form, you will receive instructions on where to surrender your Slade s Ferry stock certificates after the merger is completed.

If your shares or a portion of your shares of Slade s Ferry common stock are held in street name by a broker, bank or other nominee, an election form will be mailed to the broker, bank or other nominee with respect to those shares.

If you hold a portion of your shares in an individual retirement account and the remaining portion of your shares is held directly in your name, you will receive two election forms: one for your shares held in the individual retirement account and one for the shares held directly in your name.

Allocation Procedures (see pages 45-49)

The merger agreement provides for overall limitations on the amount of cash and shares of Independent common stock available in the merger as follows:

25% of the total number of outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive the cash consideration; and

75% of these shares of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration.

As a result, whether you receive the amount of cash and/or stock you request in your election form will depend in part on the elections of other Slade's Ferry shareholders. You may not receive exactly the form of consideration that you elect in the merger, and you may instead receive a pro rata amount of cash and Independent common stock.

If you have a preference for receiving either cash or Independent common stock for your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock, you should return the election form indicating your preference. Slade's Ferry shareholders who make an election will be accorded priority over those shareholders who make no election in instances where the cash consideration or stock consideration must be re-allocated in order to achieve the required ratio of Slade's Ferry shares being converted into the right to receive cash and Independent common stock. If you do not make an election, you will be allocated cash and/or Independent common stock depending on the elections made by other Slade's Ferry shareholders. Please see the examples set forth in the section of this proxy statement/prospectus titled The Merger Agreement Allocation Procedures beginning on page 45. However, even if you do make an election, the form of merger consideration you actually receive may differ from the form of merger consideration you elect to receive.

The market price of Independent common stock will fluctuate between the date of this document, the date of your election and the effective time of the merger. Because the exchange ratio is fixed, such fluctuations will alter the value of the shares of Independent common stock that you may receive in the merger. In addition, because the tax consequences of receiving cash will differ from the tax consequences of receiving Independent common stock, you should carefully read the section in this proxy statement/prospectus titled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 63.

What Holders of Slade's Ferry Stock Options Will Receive (see page 50)

Immediately before we complete the merger, any outstanding Slade's Ferry stock options will be cancelled, and each option holder will be entitled to receive cash equal to the number of Slade's Ferry shares subject to that holder's option(s), multiplied by the excess, if any, of $25.50 over the per-share exercise price of that holder's option, less any required withholding taxes.

Dividend Policy of Independent; Dividends from Slade's Ferry (see page 52)

The holders of Independent common stock receive dividends as and when declared by Independent's board of directors. Independent declared quarterly cash dividends of $0.16 per share of common stock for each quarter in 2006 and dividends of $0.17 per share of common stock for each of the first three quarters of 2007. Following the completion of the merger, subject to approval and declaration by Independent's board of directors, Independent expects to continue paying quarterly cash dividends on a basis consistent with past practices.

Prior to completion of the merger, Slade s Ferry shareholders will continue to receive any regular quarterly dividends declared and paid by Slade s Ferry, at a rate not to exceed $0.09 per share of Slade s Ferry common stock.

Source of Funds

Independent's obligation to complete the merger is not conditioned upon Independent obtaining financing. Independent anticipates that approximately $27.6 million will be required to pay the aggregate cash merger consideration to Slade's Ferry shareholders and option holders. Independent intends to finance the cash component of the transaction through internal cash resources, including existing borrowing capabilities or other sources of liquidity available to Rockland Trust.

Slade's Ferry's Financial Advisor Has Provided an Opinion as to the Fairness of the Merger Consideration, from a Financial Point of View, to Slade's Ferry Shareholders (see pages 32-38)

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW), has provided an opinion to Slade's Ferry's board of directors, dated as of October 11, 2007, that, as of that date and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the consideration to be received by the holders of Slade's Ferry common stock in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders. We have attached to this proxy statement/prospectus the full text of KBW's opinion as Appendix B, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW in connection with its opinion. We urge you to read the opinion in its entirety. KBW's opinion is addressed to Slade's Ferry's board of directors, is directed only to the consideration to be paid in the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder as to how that shareholder should vote on the merger agreement. Pursuant to an engagement letter between Slade's Ferry and KBW, Slade's Ferry has agreed to pay KBW a fee, a substantial portion of which is payable only upon completion of the merger.

Slade's Ferry's Board of Directors Recommends that Slade's Ferry Shareholders Vote FOR Approval of the Merger Agreement (see page 24)

Slade's Ferry's board of directors has unanimously determined that the merger agreement is advisable and in the best interests of Slade's Ferry and its shareholders and accordingly unanimously recommends that Slade's Ferry shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

In determining whether to approve the merger agreement, Slade's Ferry's board of directors consulted with certain of its senior management and with its legal and financial advisors. In arriving at its determination, Slade's Ferry's board of directors also considered the factors described under The Merger Recommendation of Slade's Ferry's Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger.

Interests of Slade's Ferry's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger (see pages 40-42)

Some of the directors and executive officers of Slade's Ferry have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of other Slade's Ferry shareholders generally. These interests include rights of executive officers under employment agreements and change of control agreements with Slade's Ferry, rights under Slade's Ferry's equity-based benefit programs and awards, and rights to continued indemnification and insurance coverage by Independent after the merger for acts and omissions occurring before the merger. In addition, Independent entered into non-competition agreements with Mary Lynn D. Lenz, Slade's Ferry's President and Chief Executive Officer, and Deborah A. McLaughlin, Slade's Ferry's Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer/Chief Financial Officer, under which Ms. Lenz and Ms. McLaughlin will each be paid $100,000 by Independent on the effective date of the merger.

Slade's Ferry's board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement.

Slade s Ferry Directors and Certain Executive Officers Have Agreed to Vote in Favor of the Merger Agreement (see page 62)

On October 11, 2007, the directors and certain executive officers of Slade s Ferry had sole or shared voting power over 301,442 shares, or 7.4%, of the outstanding shares of Slade s Ferry common stock and

Table of Contents

449,882 shares, or approximately 10.5%, of the fully diluted shares of Slade s Ferry common stock. These directors and officers have agreed with Independent to vote their shares of Slade s Ferry common stock in favor of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Boards of Directors after the Merger (see page 43)

Contingent upon consummation of the merger, one current Slade s Ferry director will be elected to the boards of directors of Independent and Rockland Trust. Independent will select the director in its sole discretion. He or she will become a member of the class of Independent s and Rockland Trust s boards that has the longest term remaining.

Non-Solicitation (see pages 55-57)

Slade s Ferry has agreed that it will not solicit or knowingly encourage any inquiries or proposals regarding any acquisition proposals by third parties. Slade s Ferry may respond to unsolicited proposals in certain circumstances if required by Slade s Ferry s board of directors fiduciary duties. Slade s Ferry must promptly notify Independent if it receives any acquisition proposals.

Conditions to Complete the Merger (see pages 57-58)

Each of Independent s and Slade s Ferry s obligations to complete the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of mutual conditions, including:

the approval of the merger agreement by Slade s Ferry shareholders;

the approval of the listing of Independent common stock to be issued in the merger on the NASDAQ Global Select Market;

the effectiveness of the registration statement with respect to the Independent common stock to be issued in the merger under the Securities Act of 1933, and the absence of any stop order or proceedings initiated or threatened by the Securities and Exchange Commission for that purpose;

the receipt and effectiveness of all regulatory approvals, registrations and consents (none of which shall contain a burdensome condition, as defined below), and the expiration of all waiting periods required to complete the merger; and the absence of any statute, regulation, rule, decree, injunction or other order in effect by any court or other governmental entity that prohibits completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Each of Independent s and Slade s Ferry s obligations to complete the merger is also separately subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including:

the receipt by the party of a legal opinion from its counsel with respect to certain federal income tax consequences of the merger;

the other company s representations and warranties in the merger agreement being true and correct, in all material respects, and the performance by the other party in all material respects of its obligations under the merger agreement.

Independent s obligation to complete the merger is further subject to the conditions that:

the number of outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock shall not exceed 4,062,353, except to the extent increased as a result of the exercise of stock options;

each Slade's Ferry director and executive officer must deliver to Independent an agreement to vote the shares of Slade's Ferry common stock beneficially owned by him or her in favor of the merger agreement;

Table of Contents

Slade s Ferry must deliver to Independent releases from certain employees regarding the termination of their employment and the satisfaction of all payments due to them;

Mary Lynn D. Lenz and Deborah A. McLaughlin must deliver to Independent non-competition agreements; and the environmental assessments contemplated by the merger agreement shall be completed and shall not indicate the existence of a condition or matter the cost of which is reasonably likely to exceed $50,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate.

Slade s Ferry s obligation to complete the merger is further subject to the condition that Independent s board of directors has approved a donation in the amount of $100,000 by Independent to a charity or charities of Slade s Ferry s choice.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (see pages 58-59)

Independent and Slade s Ferry may mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement without completing the merger, even if Slade s Ferry shareholders have approved the merger agreement. Also, either of Independent or Slade s Ferry can terminate the merger agreement in various circumstances, including the following:

if any regulatory approval necessary for consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is not obtained;

if the merger is not completed by April 30, 2008;

if the other party breaches the merger agreement in a way that would entitle the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement not to consummate the merger, subject to the right of the breaching party to cure the breach by the earlier of 30 days following written notice or two business days before April 30, 2008 (unless it is not possible due to the nature or timing of the breach for the breaching party to cure the breach); or if Slade s Ferry s shareholders do not approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Additionally, Independent may terminate the merger agreement if:

Slade s Ferry has materially breached its non-solicitation obligations described under The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions beginning on page 55;

Slade s Ferry s board fails to recommend in this proxy statement/prospectus the approval of the merger agreement;

Slade s Ferry s board of directors recommends, proposes or publicly announces its intention to recommend or propose, to engage in an Acquisition Transaction with any party other than Independent or a subsidiary of Independent; or

Slade s Ferry breaches its obligation to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of shareholders for the purpose of approving the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Slade s Ferry may also terminate the merger agreement if Independent s average daily closing stock price falls below $24.56 for the ten trading days prior to receipt of the final regulatory approval necessary for consummation of the merger, and the decrease in the trading price of Independent common stock over a specified period exceeds by 20% or more the decrease in the trading prices of an index group over that period. If Slade's Ferry exercises this right, Independent will have the option to increase the ratio of Independent common stock to be exchanged for Slade's Ferry common stock or to augment stock consideration with cash consideration, in which case no termination will be deemed to have occurred.

Slade's Ferry may also terminate the merger agreement if it enters into a Superior Proposal as described under The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions, so long as it pays a termination fee of $3.5 million.

Table of Contents

Termination Fee (see pages 59-61)

Slade s Ferry has agreed to pay a termination fee of $3.5 million to Independent if the merger agreement is terminated under any of the circumstances described in The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement.

Slade s Ferry Will Hold a Special Meeting of Shareholders on January 18, 2008 (see page 24)

Slade s Ferry will hold a special meeting of shareholders at the Advanced Technology and Manufacturing Center (ATMC), 151 Martine Street, Fall River, Massachusetts 02723 on January 17, 2008 at 10:00 a.m., local time. Slade s Ferry shareholders will be asked:

to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; to vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies; and to consider and act upon any other matters as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

You can vote at the Slade s Ferry special meeting if you owned Slade s Ferry common stock at the close of business on December 7, 2007. On that date, there were 4,063,333 shares of Slade s Ferry common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, approximately 7.4% of which were owned and entitled to be voted by Slade s Ferry directors and executive officers and their affiliates. You can cast one vote for each share of Slade s Ferry common stock you owned on that date. In order to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Slade s Ferry common stock entitled to vote must vote in favor of doing so.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (see page 39)

Completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement is subject to various regulatory approvals, including approval from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Board of Bank Incorporation of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Independent and Slade s Ferry have completed, or will complete, filing all of the required applications and notices with regulatory authorities. Although we do not know of any reason why we would not be able to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if we will receive them.

Rights of Independent Shareholders Differ From Those of Slade s Ferry Shareholders (see pages 72-79)

When the merger is completed, those Slade s Ferry shareholders who receive Independent common stock as consideration in the merger will automatically become Independent shareholders. The rights of Independent shareholders differ from the rights of Slade s Ferry shareholders in important ways. Many of these differences relate to provisions in Independent s articles of organization and bylaws that differ from those of Slade s Ferry. Some of these provisions are intended to make a takeover of Independent harder if Independent s board of directors does not approve it.

The Merger Generally Will Be Tax-Free to Holders of Slade s Ferry Common Stock to the Extent They Receive Independent Common Stock (see pages 63-66)

The exchange by U.S. holders of Slade s Ferry common stock for Independent common stock has been structured to be generally tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except that:

U.S. holders of Slade s Ferry common stock that receive both cash and Independent common stock generally will recognize gain, but not loss, to the extent of the cash received; the gain recognized will be equal to the lesser of the excess, if any, of the sum of the cash and the fair market value of the Independent common stock received in the merger, over the tax basis in the shares of Slade s Ferry common stock surrendered by the U.S. holder in the merger, or the amount of cash received;

Table of Contents

U.S. holders of Slade s Ferry common stock that receive only cash generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and their tax basis in the Slade s Ferry common stock surrendered; and

U.S. holders of Slade s Ferry common stock generally will recognize gain or loss with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Independent common stock that the former Slade s Ferry shareholders would otherwise be entitled to receive.

Holders of Slade s Ferry common stock should consult with their own tax advisors as to the tax consequences of the merger in their particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Comparative per share market price information (see page 13)

Independent common stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol INDB and Slade s Ferry common stock trades on the NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol SFBC. The following table presents the closing sale prices of Independent common stock and Slade s Ferry common stock on October 11, 2007, the last trading day before we announced the merger agreement and December 4, 2007, the last practicable trading day prior to mailing this document. The table also presents the equivalent value of the merger consideration per share of Slade s Ferry common stock on those dates, calculated by multiplying the closing price of Independent common stock on those dates by 0.818, which represents the fraction of a share of Independent common stock that Slade s Ferry shareholders electing to receive Independent common stock would receive in the merger for each share of Slade s Ferry common stock, assuming no proration.

Date	Independent Closing Price	Slade s Ferry Closing Price	Equivalent per Share Value
October 11, 2007	$ 30.25	$ 15.30	$ 24.74
December 4, 2007	$ 27.83	$ 23.07	$ 22.76

The market prices of both Independent common stock and Slade s Ferry common stock will fluctuate prior to the merger. You should obtain current stock price quotations for Independent common stock and Slade s Ferry common stock.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including Independent's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, Slade's Ferry's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 and the matters addressed under the heading Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 12 of this document, you should carefully consider the following risk factors and uncertainties in deciding whether to vote to approve and adopt the merger agreement. See also the section entitled, Where You Can Find More Information on pages 80-82 before voting.

Slade's Ferry shareholders may receive a form of consideration different from what they elect. While each Slade's Ferry shareholder may elect to receive all cash, all Independent common stock, or a combination of cash and Independent stock in the merger, the pools of cash and Independent common stock available for all Slade's Ferry shareholders will be fixed amounts (subject to the provisions of the merger agreement). Seventy-five percent of the total number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock shall be converted into stock consideration and twenty-five percent shall be converted into cash consideration. As a result, if either a cash or stock election proves to be more popular among Slade's Ferry shareholders, and you choose the election that is more popular, you might receive a portion of your consideration in the form you did not elect.

Slade's Ferry shareholders cannot be sure of the value of the merger consideration they will receive, because Slade's Ferry shareholders will not control the form of merger consideration they receive and the market price of Independent common stock will fluctuate. Upon completion of the merger, each share of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive merger consideration consisting of shares of Independent common stock and/or cash pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement. Because Independent is issuing its shares at a fixed exchange ratio as part of the merger consideration, if you receive your consideration in stock form, any change in the market price of Independent common stock prior to completion of the merger will affect the value of the merger consideration that you will receive. Any number of factors can cause a change in stock price, including general market and economic conditions, changes in the businesses of Independent and/or Slade's Ferry, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond our control. You should obtain current market quotations for shares of Independent common stock and for shares of Slade's Ferry common stock. Even with these estimates, however, at the time of the election deadline, Slade's Ferry shareholders will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the value of the stock they would receive upon completion of the merger due to the possibility of further fluctuation. The date that you will receive your merger consideration depends on the completion date of the merger, which is uncertain. The completion date of the merger might be later than expected due to unforeseen events, such as delays in obtaining regulatory approvals.

Slade's Ferry will have the option to terminate the merger agreement if, as described elsewhere in this proxy statement/prospectus, the price of Independent stock drops by a certain agreed upon margin and there is not a corresponding drop in value of the NASDAQ Bank Index. If these conditions are both met, and Slade's Ferry elects to terminate the agreement, Independent will then have the option to make an upward adjustment to the amount of consideration that Slade's Ferry shareholders would receive. There is no guarantee, however, that Independent will choose to make such an upward adjustment.

The tax consequences of the merger for Slade's Ferry shareholders will be dependent upon the merger consideration received. The tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the merger consideration received by you. You generally will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock solely into shares of Independent common stock. However, you generally will be taxed to the extent you receive cash in exchange for your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock or instead of any fractional share of Independent common stock that you would otherwise be entitled to receive. For a more detailed discussion of the tax consequences of the merger to you, see the section entitled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 63 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Slade s Ferry executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Slade s Ferry shareholders. Executive officers of Independent and Slade s Ferry negotiated the terms of the merger agreement, and Independent s and Slade s Ferry s boards of directors unanimously approved this agreement. In considering these facts and the other information contained in this document, you should be aware that Slade s Ferry s executive officers and directors are expected to receive certain compensation and benefits in connection with the merger, including payments and benefits resulting from the settlement of existing employment agreements and defined contribution supplemental executive retirement agreements, the vesting of defined benefit supplemental executive retirement agreements, the entry into non-competition agreements with certain executive officers and the vesting of unvested restricted stock awards. See Interests of Slade s Ferry s Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger on pages 40-42 for more information.

Table of Contents

We may fail to realize all of the anticipated benefits of the merger, particularly if the integration of Independent s and Slade s Ferry s businesses is more difficult than we expect. The success of the merger will depend, in part, on our ability to successfully combine the businesses of Independent and Slade s Ferry. We may fail to realize some or all of the anticipated benefits of the transaction if the integration process takes longer than expected or is more costly than expected. Furthermore, any number of unanticipated adverse occurrences for either the business of Slade s Ferry or Independent may cause us to fail to realize some or all of the expected benefits. The integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company s ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect our ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. Each of these issues might adversely affect either Independent, Slade s Ferry, or both during the transition period, resulting in adverse effects on Independent following the merger. As a result, revenues may be lower than expected or prices may be higher than expected and the overall benefits of the merger may not be as great as anticipated.

The fairness opinion obtained by Slade s Ferry from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances between signing the merger agreement and the merger. The fairness opinion of Keefe Bruyette & Woods, Inc., Slade s Ferry s financial advisor, does not speak as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinion. Changes in the operations and prospects of Independent or Slade s Ferry, general market and economic conditions and other factors which may be beyond the control of Independent and Slade s Ferry, and on which the fairness opinion was based, may alter the value of Independent or Slade s Ferry or the prices of shares of Independent common stock or Slade s Ferry common stock by the time the merger is completed.

The merger agreement limits Slade s Ferry s ability to pursue alternatives to the merger. The merger agreement requires Slade s Ferry and its subsidiaries to cease any prior discussions relating to acquisition or merger proposals and not to solicit, initiate, knowingly encourage, discuss or negotiate any inquiry or proposal that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, as defined by the merger agreement, except in limited circumstances provided in the merger agreement. Except in limited circumstances provided in the merger agreement, Slade s Ferry s board of directors may not withhold, withdraw or modify its recommendation in favor of the merger or approve or recommend any Acquisition Proposal and may not allow Slade s Ferry to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or other agreement relating to any Acquisition Proposal. Slade s Ferry s board of directors may withdraw its recommendation and take other actions specified by the merger agreement if it receives a competing Acquisition Proposal that it reasonably believes is credible and if the board determines in good faith that the terms of the proposal are more favorable from a financial point of view to Slade s Ferry s shareholders than the merger, that the transaction contemplated by such proposal is reasonably likely to be consummated on the terms set forth and for which the financing, to the extent required, is committed. In all other instances, however, any solicitation in violation of the merger agreement would entitle Independent to terminate the merger agreement. These non-solicitation provisions might discourage a potential acquiror from making an offer to Slade s Ferry.

Certain provisions of Independent s articles of organization and bylaws may prevent or delay future transactions or other changes that shareholders in the combined company may believe are desirable. Following completion of the merger, the rights of former Slade s Ferry shareholders who receive the stock consideration will be governed by Independent s articles of organization and bylaws, in addition to the provisions of Massachusetts law. The articles of organization and bylaws of Independent contain provisions that are in addition to, or different from, the provisions set forth in Slade's Ferry's articles of incorporation and bylaws. These provisions could prevent or delay future transactions or other changes that the combined company's shareholders may believe to be in their best interests. These additional or different provisions include: the percentage of shareholders needed to call a special meeting, the maximum age and minimum number of directors, the possibility of an additional class of directors to be elected by preferred shareholders, the ability of shareholders to repeal bylaws and provisions for approval of business combinations. See Comparison of Rights of Shareholders of Slade's Ferry and Independent on pages 72-79 for more information regarding the differences between the rights of Independent shareholders and Slade's Ferry shareholders.

Slade's Ferry's shareholders will have less influence as shareholders of Independent than as shareholders of Slade's Ferry. Slade's Ferry's shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of Slade's Ferry and on other matters affecting Slade's Ferry. After the merger, the shareholders of Slade's Ferry as a group will own approximately 16.1% of Independent. When the merger occurs, each Slade's Ferry shareholder who receives shares of Independent common stock will become a shareholder of Independent with a percentage ownership of the combined organization much smaller than such shareholder's percentage ownership of Slade's Ferry. Because of this, Slade's Ferry's shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of Independent than they now have on the management and policies of Slade's Ferry.

The unaudited pro forma financial data included in this document is preliminary and Independent's actual financial position and results of operations after the merger may differ materially from the unaudited pro forma financial data included in this document. The unaudited pro forma financial data in this document are presented for illustrative purposes only and are not necessarily indicative of what the combined company's actual financial position or results of operations would have been had the merger been completed on the dates indicated. These data reflect adjustments, which are based upon preliminary estimates, to allocate the purchase price to Slade's Ferry's net assets. The purchase price allocation reflected in this document is preliminary, and final allocation of the purchase price will be based upon the actual purchase price and the fair value of the assets and liabilities of Slade's Ferry as of the date of the completion of the merger. In addition, subsequent to the merger completion date, there may be further refinements of the purchase price allocation as additional information becomes available. Accordingly, the final purchase accounting adjustments may differ materially from the pro forma adjustments reflected in this document. See Summary Historical and Unaudited Pro Forma Financial Information beginning on page 13 for more information.

The merger is subject to the receipt of consents and approvals from government entities that may impose conditions that could have an adverse effect on Independent. Before the merger may be completed, various approvals or consents must be obtained from the various bank regulatory and other authorities in the United States and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. These governmental entities, including the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Federal Reserve Board, and Division of Banks of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, may impose conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. While Independent and Slade's Ferry do not currently expect that any such conditions or changes would be imposed, there can be no assurance that they will not be, and such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of Independent following the merger, any of which might have a material adverse effect on Independent following the merger. Independent is not obligated to complete the merger if the regulatory approvals received in connection with the completion of the merger include any conditions or restrictions that would constitute a Burdensome Condition as defined in the merger agreement. See The Merger Regulatory Approvals Required to Complete the Merger on page 39 of this proxy statement/prospectus for more information.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains or incorporates by reference a number of forward-looking statements regarding the financial condition, results of operations, earnings outlook, and business prospects of Independent, Slade's Ferry and the potential combined company and may include statements for the period following the completion of the merger. - (1) Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Interpretation (FIN) No. 46 Revised. Consolidation of Variable Entities – an Interpretation of Accounting Research Bulletin FIN. 51 (FIN 46R) required the Company to deconsolidate its two subsidiary trusts (Independent Capital Trust III and Independent Capital Trust IV) on March 31, 2004. The result of deconsolidating these subsidiary trusts is that trust preferred securities of the trusts, which were classified between liabilities and equity on the balance sheet (mezzanine section), no longer appear on the consolidated balance sheets of the Company. The related minority interest expense also is no longer included in the consolidated statement of income. Due to FIN 46R, the junior subordinated debentures of the parent company that were previously eliminated in consolidation are now included in the consolidated balance sheets within total borrowings. The interest expense on the junior subordinated debentures is included in the calculation of net interest margin of the consolidated company, negatively impacting the net interest margin by approximately 0.13% for the twelve months ending December 31, 2004 on an annualized basis and 0.16% for the fiscal years to follow. There is no impact on net income as the amount of interest previously recognized as minority interest is equal to the amount of interest expense.
- (2) Calculated by dividing total stockholders' equity by the net outstanding shares as of the end of each period.
- (3) Calculated by dividing stockholders' equity less goodwill and core deposit intangible by the net outstanding shares as of the end of each period.
- (4) In 2002, prior to the adoption of FIN 46R, the write-off of trust preferred issuance costs were recorded directly to equity and shown on the income statement as a reduction to Net Income to calculate Net Income Available to Common Shareholders. These ratios were determined using Net Income.
- (5) Ratios for the nine-month periods are reported on an annualized basis.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2007 and unaudited pro forma condensed combined consolidated statements of income for the year ended December 31, 2006 and for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 combine the historical financial statements of Independent and Slade's Ferry. The unaudited pro forma financial statements give effect to the proposed merger of Slade's Ferry with and into Independent as if the merger occurred on September 30, 2007 with respect to the balance sheet, and on January 1, 2007 and January 1, 2006 with respect to the statements of income for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 and the year ended December 31, 2006, respectively. The unaudited pro forma financial statements give effect to the proposed merger under the purchase method of accounting.

The purchase method of accounting requires that all of Slade's Ferry assets and liabilities be adjusted to their estimated fair values as of the date of acquisition. For purposes of the unaudited pro forma financial statements, fair value of September 30, 2007 assets and liabilities has been estimated by Independent's management using market information available on September 30, 2007. Accordingly, these adjustments are only approximations. This information may not necessarily be indicative of the financial position or results of operations that would have occurred if the merger had been consummated on the date or at the beginning of the periods indicated or which may be obtained in the future. Upon consummation of the merger, Independent will make adjustments as of the date of consummation based on appraisals and estimates.

The unaudited pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under one set of assumptions, does not reflect benefits of expected cost savings or opportunities to earn additional revenue and, accordingly, does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the combined company would have been had our companies been combined during this period.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

At the special meeting, Slade s Ferry shareholders as of the record date will be asked to consider and vote on the following proposals:

2. To consider and vote upon a proposal to adjourn the special meeting to a later date or dates, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of that meeting, to approve the Agreement; and
3. To act upon such other matters as may properly come before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of that meeting.

Recommendation of Slade s Ferry s Board of Directors

Slade s Ferry s board of directors has determined that the merger agreement is advisable and in the best interests of Slade s Ferry and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and FOR the adjournment proposal.

Only shares affirmatively voted for approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including shares represented by properly executed proxies that do not contain voting instructions, will be counted as votes FOR the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Brokers who hold shares of Slade's Ferry common stock in street name for a customer who is the beneficial owner of those shares may not exercise voting authority on the customer's shares with respect to the actions proposed in this document without specific instructions from the customer. Proxies submitted by a broker that do not exercise this voting authority are referred to as broker non-votes. If your broker holds your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock in street name, your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote by filling out the voter instruction form sent to you by your broker with this document.

Accordingly, you are urged to mark and return the enclosed proxy card to indicate your vote, submit a proxy through the Internet or by telephone by following the instructions included on the enclosed proxy card, or fill out the voter instruction form, if applicable.

Abstentions and broker non-votes will be included in determining the presence of a quorum at the special meeting, but will have the same effect as voting against approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. A majority of the votes properly cast is required to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of that vote.

Proxy Solicitation

Slade s Ferry will pay the costs of soliciting proxies. In addition to solicitation by mail, directors, officers and employees acting on behalf of Slade s Ferry may solicit proxies for the special meeting in person or by telephone, facsimile or other means of communication. fiduciaries for forwarding of proxy solicitation materials to beneficial owners of shares held of record by these brokerage houses, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries, and Slade s Ferry will reimburse these brokerage houses, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the solicitation. Slade s Ferry has also engaged Georgeson Inc., a proxy soliciting firm, to assist in the solicitation of proxies for a fee of $7,000 plus per item and out-of-pocket expenses.

Dissenters Rights of Appraisal

Slade s Ferry is incorporated under Massachusetts law. Slade s Ferry believes that, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 156D, Section 13.02 of the Massachusetts General Laws, shareholders of Slade s Ferry are not entitled to dissent to the merger and assert appraisal rights under Sections 13.01 to 13.03 of Chapter 156D because shareholders will receive only cash and/or marketable securities (as that term is defined in Section 13.01 of Chapter 156D) for their shares and no director, officer, or controlling shareholder has a direct or indirect material financial interest in the merger other than in his, her or its capacity as a shareholder of Slade s Ferry or as a director, officer, employee or consultant of Slade s Ferry pursuant to a bona fide arrangement with Slade s Ferry. A copy of Part 13 of Chapter 156D will be provided to any shareholder of Slade s Ferry upon request.

Stock Certificates

You should not send in any certificates representing Slade s Ferry common stock at this time. Prior to the anticipated closing date of the merger, you will receive separate instructions for the exchange of your certificates representing Slade s Ferry common stock. For more information regarding these instructions, please see the section in this document titled The Merger Agreement Exchange of Slade s Ferry Stock Certificate for Independent Certificates beginning on page 49 of this document.

Proposal to Approve Adjournment of the Special Meeting

Slade s Ferry is submitting a proposal for consideration at the special meeting to authorize the named proxies to approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting if there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting. Even though a quorum may be present at the special meeting, it is possible that Slade s Ferry may not have received sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement by the time of the special meeting. In that event, Slade s Ferry would need to adjourn the special meeting in order to solicit additional proxies. The adjournment proposal relates only to an adjournment of the special meeting for purposes of soliciting additional proxies to obtain the requisite shareholder vote to approve the merger agreement. Any other adjournment of the special meeting (e.g., an adjournment required because of the absence of a quorum) would be voted upon pursuant to the discretionary authority granted by the proxy. If the special meeting is adjourned for 30 days or less, Slade s Ferry is not required to give notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting if the new time and place is announced at the meeting before adjournment, unless the board of directors fixes a new record date for the special meeting.

The adjournment proposal relates only to an adjournment of the special meeting occurring for purposes of soliciting additional proxies for approval of the merger agreement proposal in the event that there are insufficient votes to approve that proposal. Each of the Slade s Ferry board of directors and the presiding officer of the special meeting retains full authority to the extent set forth in Slade s Ferry s bylaws and under Massachusetts law to adjourn the special meeting for any other purpose, or to postpone the special meeting before it is convened, without the consent of any Slade s Ferry shareholders.

THE MERGER

General

Under the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Slade's Ferry will be merged with and into Independent, with Independent being the surviving corporation. At the effective time of the merger, each share of Slade's Ferry common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of the shareholder, be converted into the right to receive either:

$25.50 in cash (which is referred to as the cash consideration); or

0.818 shares of Independent common stock (which is referred to as the stock consideration).

You will have the opportunity to elect the form of consideration to be received for all shares of Slade's Ferry common stock that you hold, subject to proration procedures set forth in the merger agreement. You may elect to receive a portion of your merger consideration in cash and the remaining portion in shares of Independent common stock. The proration procedures included in the merger agreement are intended to ensure that twenty-five percent of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock will be exchanged for cash and seventy-five percent will be exchanged for shares of Independent common stock.

Background of the Merger

Slade's Ferry's board of directors and senior management have regularly reviewed Slade's Ferry's strategic alternatives and assessed various opportunities for increasing long-term shareholder value, including opportunities for enhancing earnings internally, opportunistic de novo branching, and acquiring and/or affiliating with other financial institutions. Although the board of directors and management have generally pursued the goal of increasing long-term shareholder value by remaining an independent financial institution focused on profitable growth, the board and management have also been acutely aware in recent years of changes in the financial services industry and the competitive challenges facing smaller financial institutions. These challenges have included increasing government regulation, increasing expense burdens and commitments for technology and training, expenses related to Sarbanes-Oxley Act compliance, an interest rate environment resulting in the compression of net interest margin and increasing customer expectations for sophisticated products and services. The reviews of Slade's Ferry's strategic alternatives included periodic assessments by outside financial advisors of Slade's Ferry's financial performance and return to shareholders, stock trading patterns, and trends in the financial marketplace, including merger and acquisition activity, both local and nationwide. Often, these reviews included discussions of the board of directors' fiduciary duties with Slade's Ferry's legal counsel and its financial advisor.

As part of Slade's Ferry's periodic reviews and updates, the board of directors conducted a strategic planning session on June 11, 2007. The strategic planning session was coordinated by EPG, Inc., a consulting firm that provides asset and liability management, investment and strategic planning advice to Slade's Ferry. At the session, Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW), Slade's Ferry's financial advisor, delivered a presentation that generally discussed market conditions and strategic alternatives and Thacher Proffitt & Wood llp (Thacher Proffitt), Slade's Ferry's legal counsel, delivered a presentation regarding strategic alternatives and fiduciary duties in connection therewith. The board of directors did not resolve to embrace any specific course of action, and determined that further discussions regarding Slade's Ferry's business plan, market conditions and strategic alternatives were appropriate. Thereafter, another strategic planning session was scheduled to be held on July 26, 2007.

At the July 26, 2007 strategic planning session, KBW and Thacher Proffitt delivered updated presentations to the board of directors. Representatives of EPG, Inc. also attended the strategic planning session. KBW's presentation provided a general overview of Slade's Ferry's banking franchise, described certain financial institutions that could have an interest in acquiring Slade's Ferry should the board of directors decide to take steps in that direction, and generally described certain New England transactions that would be comparable to an acquisition of Slade's Ferry. Thacher Proffitt's presentation detailed the considerations that the board of directors and management should focus on in the context of a merger or acquisition. At the conclusion of the planning session, the board of directors resolved to take steps towards exploring a potential sale of Slade's Ferry and narrowed the list of potential acquirors to four of the financial institutions included in the KBW presentation. The board of directors also authorized the engagement of KBW to act as Slade's Ferry's financial advisor in connection with exploring a potential transaction.

During the next two weeks, KBW and Slade's Ferry prepared certain financial and other non-public information regarding Slade's Ferry that would be delivered to the four potential acquirors. On August 9, 2007, KBW was authorized to contact certain potential acquirors to gauge their interest in a transaction with Slade's Ferry.

Between August 13 and August 16, 2007, four potential acquirors entered into confidentiality agreements with KBW, as agent for Slade's Ferry, and KBW delivered a confidential information memorandum to those potential acquirors. The four potential acquirors were: Independent, Company A, Company B, and Company C.

During the morning of August 22, 2007, Mary Lynn D. Lenz, Slade's Ferry's President and Chief Executive Officer, and Deborah A. McLaughlin, Slade's Ferry's Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer/Chief Financial Officer, met with representatives of Company C and during the afternoon met with representatives of Independent to discuss Slade's Ferry's business.

On August 28, 2007, KBW received letters containing initial indications of interest in acquiring Slade's Ferry from Independent, Company A, and Company B. Each of the indications of interest was subject to due diligence investigations of Slade's Ferry by the potential acquirors and their representatives. Company C declined to submit an indication of interest for undisclosed reasons.

Independent proposed a transaction in which Independent would acquire Slade's Ferry in a merger transaction for a mixture of cash and Independent stock. The purchase price would equal $24.50 per share, seventy five percent of which would be paid in Independent common stock and twenty five percent would be paid in cash.

Company A proposed a transaction in which Company A would acquire Slade's Ferry in a merger transaction for $27.00 per share in cash.

Company B proposed a transaction in which Company B would acquire Slade's Ferry in a merger transaction for a mixture of cash and Company B common stock. The purchase price would be in the range of $22.00 to $24.00 per share, with approximately seventy five percent paid in Company B common stock and twenty five percent paid in cash.

On August 29, 2007, Slade's Ferry's board of directors held a meeting to review the indications of interest from Independent, Company A, and Company B. Representatives of KBW attended the meeting and Thacher Proffitt participated via teleconference. KBW updated the board of directors on the financial performance and market performance of the three companies and reviewed the price, form of consideration, and other transaction details as outlined in their respective indications of interest. The board of directors voted to instruct KBW to explore whether Independent would be willing to increase its bid to a level the board considered to be competitive with Company A's bid. The board further determined that if Independent was unable to do so, then Slade's Ferry would invite Company A only, and not Independent, to conduct due diligence.

Following conversations with KBW, Independent on August 29, 2007 increased its bid but, in the opinion of Slade's Ferry's board of directors, that increase was insufficient to make the bid competitive with Company A's bid. As a result, Company A was invited to conduct due diligence on Slade's Ferry, and management and Thacher Proffitt were authorized to begin negotiations with Company A. Company A conducted due diligence on Slade's Ferry between August 30, 2007 and September 18, 2007. Company A's due diligence review continued even after the initial draft merger agreement was delivered to Thacher Proffitt by Company A s counsel on September 17, 2007.

Table of Contents

The draft merger agreement contained what Slade's Ferry believed to be the final terms of Company A's offer. The draft merger agreement contemplated a transaction in which Slade's Ferry would be acquired in exchange for $27.00 per share in cash.

During the afternoon of September 18, 2007, Company A's financial advisor informed KBW that Company A was decreasing the merger consideration it was offering to $24.00 per share in cash. Company A's financial advisor claimed that the decrease in merger consideration offered was based on certain aspects of Company A's due diligence review of Slade's Ferry. KBW communicated this information to Paul C. Downey, Slade's Ferry's lead independent director, Ms. Lenz, Ms. McLaughlin, and representatives of Thacher Proffitt. A series of discussions regarding Company A's offer were then held between Slade's Ferry and its advisors and Company A and its advisors. These discussions were terminated the morning of September 19, 2007.

On September 19, 2007, Slade's Ferry's executive committee, along with representatives of KBW and Thacher Proffitt, held a telephonic meeting and the executive committee authorized KBW to contact Independent in order to ascertain whether Independent remained interested in a possible acquisition of Slade's Ferry at the level of consideration reflected in its revised proposal on August 29, 2007.

A representative of Independent informed KBW that Independent remained interested in a potential transaction if Slade's Ferry agreed to enter into an exclusivity agreement for a period of time. Slade's Ferry and Independent thereafter entered into an exclusivity agreement that was effective as of September 24, 2007 pursuant to which Slade's Ferry agreed to negotiate exclusively with Independent and not solicit other acquisition proposals until after the exclusivity period ended on October 18, 2007.

On September 24, 2007 Independent delivered to KBW a revised indication of interest. The revised indication of interest contemplated a transaction in which Independent would acquire Slade's Ferry for a mixture of cash and Independent common stock. Twenty five percent of Slade's Ferry's outstanding common stock would receive cash consideration of $26.00 per share. Seventy five percent would receive Independent common stock based on a fixed exchange ratio that, based on the closing price of Independent stock on September 21, 2007 (the last trading day prior to the date of the indication of interest), equaled approximately $26.20 worth of Independent common stock per share.

Independent and Slade's Ferry began their due diligence review of each other during the week that began on Monday, September 24, 2007 and continued their due diligence investigation through Wednesday, October 10, 2007. On October 2, 2007, Thacher Proffitt received the initial draft of the merger agreement from Independent's counsel. The first draft of the merger agreement stated that twenty five percent of the aggregate purchase price would be paid in cash at $25.80 per share and seventy five percent of the aggregate purchase price would be paid in Independent common stock. The first draft of the merger agreement stated that the exact number of shares of Independent common stock would be based on a fixed exchange ratio that, at the time, equaled $25.71 per share of Slade's Ferry common stock (based on Independent's October 1, 2007 closing price), but would fluctuate based on Independent's stock price. The reduction in the per share price from Independent's revised indication of interest reflected an updated number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock outstanding.

Over the next week, the parties and their advisors negotiated the terms of the merger agreement. On October 10, 2007, Independent and its financial advisor informed Slade's Ferry and KBW that, based upon the results of its due diligence review, Independent would need to decrease its offer. A series of discussions ensued between the parties and their representatives and, while a specific price was not given, Independent and its financial advisor indicated that the purchase price would possibly be as low as $25.00 per share. Following extensive negotiation among the parties and their representatives, the parties agreed, subject to approval by their respective boards of directors, to a purchase price of $25.50 per share and a fixed exchange ratio of 0.818 shares of Independent common stock for each share of Slade's Ferry common stock. All final open items in the merger agreement were resolved on October 11, 2007.

On October 11, 2007, a special meeting of Slade's Ferry's board of directors was held. Thacher Proffitt provided for the board of directors a detailed review of the terms of the Agreement, as well as the voting agreements to be entered into by each of the members of the board of directors and senior management, and the legal duties of the board of directors to Slade's Ferry's shareholders and potential conflicts of interest issues. KBW delivered a presentation which discussed the financial terms of the merger in detail. KBW then stated to the board of directors that it would render a written fairness opinion stating that, based upon and subject to the considerations described in its opinion, the per share merger consideration offered by Independent was fair from a financial point of view to Slade's Ferry shareholders. The board of directors then unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Shortly thereafter, the parties executed the merger agreement and issued a joint press release publicly announcing the transaction after markets closed that day.

Between the date of the merger agreement and the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, neither Slade's Ferry nor its representatives have been contacted by any party other than Independent with respect to a potential acquisition of Slade's Ferry.

Recommendation of Slade's Ferry's Board of Directors and Reasons for the Merger

After careful consideration, Slade's Ferry's board of directors determined that the merger agreement is advisable and in the best interests of Slade's Ferry and its shareholders. Accordingly, Slade's Ferry's board of directors adopted and approved the merger agreement, and unanimously recommends that Slade's Ferry shareholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

In reaching its determination that the merger agreement is advisable and in the best interests of Slade's Ferry and its shareholders, Slade's Ferry's board consulted with senior management and Slade's Ferry's financial and legal advisors, drew on its knowledge of the business, operations, properties, assets, financial condition, operating results, historical market prices and prospects of Slade's Ferry and Independent. In connection with its review and approval of the merger agreement and in the course of its deliberations, Slade's Ferry's board of directors also considered numerous factors, including the following positive and negative factors:

Positive Factors.

The value of the merger consideration being offered as compared to the book value, earnings per share and historical trading prices of Slade's Ferry's common stock.

The fact that Slade's Ferry shareholders who receive shares of Independent common stock should experience an increase in the liquidity for their shares as Independent's common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market and, historically, has a much larger volume of shares traded on a daily basis than trades in Slade's Ferry common stock.

Slade's Ferry's positive perception about Independent due to its understanding of, and review of information concerning, the business, results of operations, financial condition, competitive position and future prospects of Independent, including the results of its due diligence review of Independent.

The fact that Slade's Ferry shareholders who receive Independent common stock in the merger will likely receive dividend income from such investment in the future, which dividend income on an exchange basis is currently $0.56 per Slade's Ferry share on an annual basis.

Slade's Ferry's board of directors' belief that, given the current prospective environment in which Slade's Ferry operates, including the economic, competitive and regulatory conditions facing financial institutions generally and the trend toward consolidation in the banking and financial services industries, pursuing the merger with Independent would be more beneficial to shareholders than continuing to operate as an independent financial institution.

There is no financing contingency on the part of Independent to complete the merger, nor is approval by Independent's shareholders required.

The perceived ability of Independent to receive the requisite regulatory approvals in a timely manner.

Table of Contents

The terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including the parties' respective representations and warranties, the conditions to closing and termination provisions which the board believed provided adequate assurances about the current operations of Independent.

The transaction eliminates the necessity and business risks associated with Slade's Ferry undertaking the additional capital investment necessary to expand Slade's Ferry's product offerings as well as the expansion of its technology infrastructure in order to continue to grow the business franchise and shareholders value.

Negative Factors.

The provisions in the merger agreement limiting the amount of Slade's Ferry common stock that will be exchanged for cash and for stock which may result in some shareholders receiving a form of merger consideration other than that which they actually elected.

The merger agreement provides for Slade's Ferry's payment of a $3.5 million termination fee to Independent if the merger agreement is terminated under certain limited circumstances, although this factor was mitigated somewhat by the fact that such circumstances would generally involve the receipt of an acquisition proposal with a third party.

The merger agreement limits Slade's Ferry's ability to solicit or discuss alternative transactions during the pendency of the merger, although this was mitigated by the fact that Slade's Ferry's board is permitted, in certain circumstances in the exercise of its fiduciary duties, to engage in discussions with parties who submit an unsolicited proposal.

Some of Slade's Ferry's officers and directors may be deemed to have interests in the merger, described under Interests of Slade's Ferry's Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger beginning on page 40 of this document, that are in addition to or different from their interests as Slade's Ferry shareholders generally. This discussion of the information and factors considered by Slade's Ferry's board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered by the board. In view of the wide variety of factors considered by Slade's Ferry's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger and the complexity of these matters, Slade's Ferry's board of directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. Slade's Ferry's board of directors evaluated the factors described above, including asking questions of Slade's Ferry's management and Slade's Ferry's legal and financial advisors, and reached the unanimous decision that the merger was in the best interests of Slade's Ferry and its shareholders, its employees, its customers and the communities served by Slade's Ferry. In considering the factors described above, individual members of Slade's Ferry's board of directors may have given different weights to different factors. Slade's Ferry's board of directors considered these factors as a whole, and overall considered them to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

Opinion of Slade's Ferry's Financial Advisor

Slade's Ferry engaged KBW to render financial advisory and investment banking services to Slade's Ferry. KBW agreed to assist Slade's Ferry in assessing the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger with Independent to the shareholders of Slade's Ferry. Slade's Ferry selected KBW because KBW is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and is familiar with Slade's Ferry and its business. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of financial services companies and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

As part of its engagement, representatives of KBW attended the meeting of the Slade's Ferry board held on October 11, 2007, at which the Slade's Ferry board evaluated the proposed merger with Independent. At this meeting, KBW reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered an opinion that, as of such date, the consideration to Slade's Ferry shareholders in the merger was fair from a financial point of view. The Slade's Ferry board approved the merger agreement at this meeting.

The full text of KBW's written opinion is attached as Appendix B to this document and is incorporated herein by reference. Slade's Ferry shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW. The description of the opinion set forth herein is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

KBW's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion is directed to the Slade's Ferry board and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration offered to the Slade's Ferry shareholders. It does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any Slade's Ferry shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote at the Slade's Ferry special meeting on the merger or any related matter.

In rendering its opinion, KBW:

reviewed, among other things:

the merger agreement,

Annual Reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of Independent, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Independent,

Annual Reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of Slade's Ferry, and

Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Slade's Ferry;

held discussions with members of senior management of Slade's Ferry and Independent regarding:

past and current business operations,

regulatory relationships,

financial condition, and future prospects of the respective companies;

reviewed the market prices, valuation multiples, publicly reported financial condition and results of operations for Slade's Ferry and Independent and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies that KBW deemed to be relevant;

compared the proposed financial terms of the merger with the financial terms of certain other transactions that KBW deemed to be relevant; and performed other studies and analyses that it considered appropriate.

In conducting its review and arriving at its opinion, KBW relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to or otherwise made available to KBW or that was discussed with, or reviewed by KBW, or that was publicly available. KBW did not attempt or assume any responsibility to verify such information independently. KBW relied upon the management of Slade's Ferry and Independent as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections (and assumptions and bases therefor) provided to KBW. KBW assumed, without independent verification, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for Independent and Slade s Ferry are adequate to cover those losses. KBW did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals of any assets or liabilities of Independent or Slade s Ferry, nor did it examine or review any individual credit files.

The projections furnished to KBW and used by it in certain of its analyses were prepared by Slade s Ferry s and Independent s senior management teams. Slade s Ferry and Independent do not publicly disclose internal management projections of the type provided to KBW in connection with its review of the merger. As a result, such projections were not prepared with a view towards public disclosure. The projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, which are inherently uncertain, including factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the projections.

Table of Contents

For purposes of rendering its opinion, KBW assumed that, in all respects material to its analyses:

the merger will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement;

the representations and warranties of each party in the merger agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the merger agreement are true and correct;

each party to the merger agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents;

all conditions to the completion of the merger will be satisfied without any waivers; and in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the merger, including the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the merger.

KBW further assumed that the merger will be accounted for as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America, and that the conversion of Slade's Ferry's common stock into Independent common stock will be tax-free for Independent and Slade's Ferry. KBW's opinion is not an expression of an opinion as to the prices at which shares of Slade's Ferry common stock or shares of Independent common stock will trade following the announcement of the merger or the actual value of the shares of common stock of the combined company when issued pursuant to the merger, or the prices at which the shares of common stock of the combined company will trade following the completion of the merger.

In performing its analyses, KBW made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, which are beyond the control of KBW, Slade's Ferry and Independent. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by KBW are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, the KBW opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by the Slade's Ferry board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the Slade's Ferry board with respect to the fairness of the consideration.

The following is a summary of the material analyses presented by KBW to the Slade's Ferry board on October 11, 2007, in connection with its fairness opinion. The summary is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the KBW opinion or the presentation made by KBW to the Slade's Ferry board, but summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, KBW did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. Accordingly, KBW believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying its analyses and opinion. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses.

Summary of Proposal. The terms of the merger agreement call for each outstanding share of Slade's Ferry common stock to be converted into the right to receive $25.50 in cash or 0.818 shares of Independent. Slade's Ferry shareholders will have the right to elect either stock or cash with the constraint that the overall transaction must be consummated with 75% of the Slade s Ferry shares being exchanged for Independent stock and 25% being exchanged for cash.

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to Slade s Ferry, Independent or the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Financial Impact Analysis. KBW performed pro forma merger analyses that combined projected income statement and balance sheet information of Independent and Slade s Ferry. Assumptions regarding the accounting treatment, acquisition adjustments and cost savings were used to calculate the financial impact that the merger would have on certain projected financial results of Independent. In the course of this analysis, KBW used earnings estimates for Independent for 2007 and 2008 from a nationally recognized earnings estimate consolidator and used earnings estimates for Slade s Ferry for 2007 and 2008 from Slade s Ferry management. This analysis indicated that the merger is expected to be accretive to Independent s estimated earnings per share and cash earnings per share in 2008. Cash earnings were estimated by adding the anticipated core deposit intangible amortization expense to GAAP earnings. The analysis also indicated that the merger is expected to be accretive to book value per share and dilutive to tangible book value per share for Independent and that Independent would maintain well capitalized capital ratios. For all of the above analyses, the actual results achieved by Independent following the merger will vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. KBW performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate a range of the present values of after-tax cash flows that Slade s Ferry could provide to equity holders through 2012 on a stand-alone basis. In performing this analysis, KBW used earnings estimates for Slade s Ferry for 2008 from Company management and applied a range of long-term growth rates from 4.0% to 12.0% thereafter. The range of values was determined by adding (1) the present value of projected cash dividends to Slade s Ferry shareholders from 2008 to 2012, assuming an annual dividend payout ratio (percentages of earnings per share payable to shareholders) of approximately 40% and

(2) the present value of the terminal value of Slade's Ferry's common stock. In calculating the terminal value of Slade's Ferry, KBW applied multiples ranging from 13.0x to 21.0x to 2013 forecasted earnings. The dividend stream and the terminal value were discounted back to present value terms using 11% discount rate. This resulted in a range of values of Slade's Ferry from $10.78 to $23.40 per share.

KBW stated that the discounted cash flow present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology but noted that it relies on numerous assumptions, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of Slade's Ferry.

Other Analyses. KBW reviewed the relative financial and market performance of Slade's Ferry and Independent to a variety of relevant industry peer groups and indices. KBW also reviewed earnings estimates, balance sheet composition, historical stock performance and other financial data for Independent.

The Slade's Ferry board has retained KBW as an independent contractor to act as financial adviser to Slade's Ferry regarding the merger. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of banking businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, KBW has experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, KBW may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Slade's Ferry and Independent. As a market maker in securities KBW may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Slade's Ferry and Independent for KBW's own account and for the accounts of its customers.

Slade's Ferry and KBW have entered into an agreement relating to the services to be provided by KBW in connection with the merger. Slade's Ferry agrees to pay KBW a cash fee of $100,000 concurrently with the execution of a definitive agreement contemplating the consummation of a transaction, and a cash fee of $100,000 promptly after the mailing of any proxy statement or registration statement relating to the transaction. Finally, Slade's Ferry will pay to KBW at the time of closing of the transaction a cash fee (Contingent Fee) equal to 1.00% of the market value of the aggregate consideration offered in exchange for the outstanding shares of common stock of Slade's Ferry in the Transaction. The fees paid prior to the Contingent Fee payment will be credited against the Contingent Fee. Pursuant to the KBW engagement agreement, Slade's Ferry also agreed to reimburse KBW for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its retention and to indemnify against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Independent's Reasons for the Merger

The Independent board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger because it determined that the merger should strengthen Independent's existing franchise and increase long term shareholder value. The merger is consistent with Independent's geographic expansion strategy and should help Independent to accelerate loan and deposit growth in the contiguous markets where Slades Bank is now located. The merger should, in particular, significantly improve Independent's deposit market share in Bristol County, Massachusetts. The transaction is financially attractive to Independent and its shareholders because it allows Independent to add Slade's Ferry's loan and deposit base to that of Independent while simultaneously providing Independent with the opportunity to maintain and deepen relationships with Slade's Ferry's customers with Independent's deeper set of products. The Independent board of directors believes that the combined company should have the potential to realize a stronger competitive position and improved long-term operating and financial results, including revenue and earning enhancements.

After taking into account these and other factors, the Independent board of directors determined that the merger agreement and the merger were in the best interests of Independent and its shareholders and that Independent should enter into the merger agreement and complete the merger. Independent's board of directors evaluated the factors described above, including asking questions of Independent's management and Independent's legal and financial advisors, and reached the unanimous decision that the merger was in the best interests of Independent and its shareholders, its employees, its customers and the communities served by Independent. This discussion of the factors considered by Independent's board of directors is not exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered by the board. Independent's board of directors considered these factors as a whole, and overall considered them to be favorable to, and to support, its determination. Independent's board of directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. In considering the factors described above, individual members of Independent s board of directors may have given different weights to different factors.

Regulatory Approvals Required to Complete the Merger

The merger is subject to the condition that all consents and approvals of any governmental authority required to consummate the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement shall have been obtained and remain in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired or been terminated. The merger also is subject to the condition that none of such regulatory approvals shall impose a Burdensome Condition, which is defined in the merger agreement to mean any term, condition or restriction upon Independent or any of its subsidiaries that Independent reasonably determines would prohibit or materially limit the ownership or operation by Slade's Ferry or any of its subsidiaries, or by Independent or any of its subsidiaries, of all or any material portion of the business or assets of Slade's Ferry or any of its subsidiaries or Independent or its subsidiaries, or compel Independent or any of its subsidiaries to dispose of or hold separate all or any material portion of the business or assets of Slade's Ferry or any of its subsidiaries or Independent or any of its subsidiaries.

The consents and approvals of governmental authorities that Independent and Slade's Ferry believe are required to consummate the merger are as follows:

the FDIC's approval of the merger of Slades Bank with and into Rockland Trust;

the approval of the Board of Bank Incorporation of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to merge Slade's Ferry with and into Independent, with Independent being the surviving entity;

the approval of the Massachusetts Commissioner of Banks:

to merge Slades Bank with and into Rockland Trust, with Rockland Trust being the surviving entity; and for Rockland Trust to pay a special dividend to Independent to fund the aggregate Cash Consideration and certain expenses;

confirmation from the Massachusetts Housing Partnership Fund (the Housing Partnership Fund) that Independent has made arrangements satisfactory to the Housing Partnership Fund; and the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 or a waiver from the requirements of the Bank Holding Company Act.

The parties have filed all applications and notice materials necessary to obtain these regulatory approvals or nonobjections, including a request for a waiver from the requirements of the Bank Holding Company Act. The merger cannot be completed until such approvals and nonobjections have been obtained, are in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof have expired. The merger may not be consummated until 30 days after approval of the FDIC (or such shorter period as the FDIC may prescribe with the concurrence of the United States Department of Justice, but not less than 15 days), during which time the Department of Justice may challenge the Bank Merger on antitrust grounds. The commencement of an antitrust action by the Department of Justice would stay the effectiveness of the FDIC approval of the merger unless a court specifically orders otherwise. In reviewing the merger, the Department of Justice could analyze the merger's effect on competition differently than the FDIC, and it is possible that the Department of Justice could reach a different conclusion than the FDIC regarding the merger's competitive effects.

Independent and Slade's Ferry cannot assure you that all required regulatory approvals or nonobjections will be obtained, when they will be obtained or whether there will be conditions in the approvals or any litigation challenging the approvals. Independent and Slade s Ferry also cannot assure you that the United States Department of Justice or the Massachusetts State Attorney General will not attempt to challenge the merger on antitrust grounds, or what the outcome will be if such a challenge is made. Independent and Slade s Ferry are not aware of any other government approvals or actions that are required prior to the parties consummation of the merger. It is currently contemplated that if any such additional governmental approvals or actions are required, such approvals or actions will be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any such additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

Stock Exchange Listing

Listing of Independent Common Stock. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Independent must obtain approval for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market the shares of Independent common stock to be issued to Slade s Ferry shareholders in the merger.

Delisting and Deregistration of Slade s Ferry Common Stock. If the merger is completed, Slade s Ferry s common stock will be delisted from the NASDAQ Capital Market and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

INTERESTS OF SLADE S FERRY S EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS IN THE MERGER

In considering Slade s Ferry s board of directors recommendation to vote in favor of approval of the merger agreement, you should be aware that Slade s Ferry s executive officers and directors may have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, the interests of other Slade s Ferry shareholders generally. The Slade s Ferry board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, when it approved the merger agreement.

Equity Plans

The merger agreement provides that immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each outstanding Slade s Ferry stock option that remains unexercised, whether or not vested, will be cancelled. On the closing date, the holders of those options will be entitled to receive an amount of cash equal to (1) the number of shares of Slade s Ferry common stock provided for in the option multiplied by (2) the excess of $25.50 over the exercise price per share. The cash payment will be subject to any required withholding taxes. Since all outstanding Slade s Ferry stock options owned by Slade s Ferry directors and executive officers are currently vested and exercisable, none will vest and become exercisable by virtue of the merger. In addition, any unvested shares of Slade s Ferry restricted stock will become fully vested on the closing date. At that time, holders of Slade s Ferry restricted stock will be entitled to receive either $25.50 in cash or 0.818 shares of Independent common stock, plus cash in lieu of fractional shares. The value of restricted stock upon vesting will be subject to any required withholding taxes.

The following table sets forth the total number of options held by the named executive officers of Slade s Ferry, the executive officers of Slade s Ferry as a group and all non-employee directors of Slade s Ferry as a group, as well as the value of cash payments to be received therefore. In addition, the following table reflects the number of unvested shares of restricted stock held by the named executive officers of Slade s Ferry, the executive officers of Slade s Ferry as a group and all non-employee directors of Slade s Ferry as a group which will vest as a result of the merger, as well as the value of exchanging such unvested restricted stock for cash. The number of shares of Slade s Ferry common stock subject to stock options held by the executive officers and non-employee directors as of October 11, 2007 was 148,460 with a projected cash-out value of $1,027,637. The number of unvested shares of restricted stock held by executive officers and non-employee directors as of October 11, 2007 was 47,000 with a projected cash-out value of $1,198,500.

Termination Agreement and Releases

In connection with the merger, termination agreements (that include waiver and release provisions) have been entered into with Mary Lynn D. Lenz, Slade's Ferry's President and Chief Executive Officer, Deborah A. McLaughlin, Slade's Ferry's Executive Vice President and Chief Operations Officer/Chief Financial Officer, and Manuel J. Tavares, Slade's Ferry's Senior Vice President, which settle their pre-existing employment agreements and certain other benefit plans.

The termination agreements for Ms. Lenz, Ms. McLaughlin and Mr. Tavares provide that in settlement of certain portions of their employment agreements with Slade's Ferry and any defined contribution supplemental executive retirement plans, a lump sum cash payment will be made at closing to those executives. Such payments are currently estimated to be approximately $1,681,349 for Ms. Lenz, $412,829 for Ms. McLaughlin and $292,013 for Mr. Tavares. The amounts payable to Ms. McLaughlin and Mr. Tavares will be reduced, if necessary, to ensure that no portion of the amounts payable to them would be subject to excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or would be non-deductible to the payor by reason of Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.

In addition, Ms. Lenz will be provided with an indemnification payment for the excise taxes imposed under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code so that, after payment of the excise tax and all income and excise taxes imposed on the indemnification payments, Ms. Lenz will retain the same or approximately the same net-after tax amounts that she would have retained if there were no 20% excise tax imposed under Section 280G. The amount of this indemnification payment is currently estimated to be approximately $949,552.

Ms. Lenz and Mr. Tavares will also be provided with certain continuations of health and life insurances following the merger. The company car currently provided to Ms. Lenz by Slade's Ferry will also be transferred to her. The estimated value of this vehicle transfer is approximately $35,265.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans

Independent has agreed to honor the Defined Benefit Supplemental Executive Retirement Agreements (the Defined Benefit SERPs) between Slades Bank and each of Ms. Lenz and Mr. Tavares. The Defined Benefit SERPs provide for monthly payments of $3,000 and $1,500 to Ms. Lenz and Mr. Tavares, respectively, for 120 months following retirement and further provide for the provision of certain medical insurance benefits to Ms. Lenz and Mr. Tavares and their spouses.

Table of Contents

Change of Control Agreements

Independent has agreed to honor the change of control agreements between Slades Bank, Slade s Ferry and four of their officers. The change of control agreements provide that for one year following a change of control, if the officer is discharged without cause or if the officer resigns for good reason, the officer will be entitled to a lump sum payment equal to one times his or her salary as well as continued health and welfare benefits throughout the remaining term of the change of control agreement. A termination is deemed to occur with cause if the termination is due to personal dishonesty, willful misconduct, breach of fiduciary duty involving personal profit, intentional failure to perform stated duties, willful violation of any banking law, rule or regulation, conviction of a felony or final cease and desist order issued in response to conduct of the officer determined to be substantially deleterious to Slade s Ferry or Slades Bank or any material breach of the change of control agreement. The officer s resignation is deemed for good reason if the effective date of resignation occurs during the term of the change of control agreement, but on or after the effective date of a change of control. The cash payments which could be owed under these change of control agreements are currently estimated to be approximately $481,105 in aggregate.

Non-Competition Agreements

In connection with the merger, Independent entered into non-competition agreements with each of Ms. Lenz and Ms. McLaughlin. The non-competition agreements provide for standard non-competition, confidentiality, non-solicitation and non-interference provisions for a period of one year following the merger. In exchange for these non-competition agreements, each of Ms. Lenz and Ms. McLaughlin will be paid a lump sum of $100,000 on the effective date of the merger by Independent.

Indemnification and Insurance

The merger agreement provides that Independent will indemnify and hold harmless the present and former officers and directors of Slade s Ferry and its subsidiaries against costs or expenses, judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the merger, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the effective date of the merger, to the extent such indemnified party would have been indemnified, as a director or officer of Slade s Ferry or any of its subsidiaries under Slade s Ferry s bylaws. Independent will also continue to cover those persons for a period of six years following the effective date of the merger arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the merger, except that Independent is not required to expend more than 225% per year of the current amount expended by Slade s Ferry to maintain such insurance (less any premium credit that Slade s Ferry is entitled to on account of the merger) and that if Independent is unable to maintain or obtain such insurance it will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain as much comparable insurance.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary describes certain aspects of the merger, including material provisions of the merger agreement. This summary is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this document and is incorporated into this document by reference. You should read the merger agreement in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing the merger.

The Merger

Each of Slade s Ferry s board of directors and Independent s board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement, which provides for the merger of Slade s Ferry with and into Independent. Independent will be the surviving corporation in the merger. Each share of Independent common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will remain issued and outstanding as one share of common stock of Independent, and each share of Slade s Ferry common stock issued and outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be converted into either cash or Independent common stock, as described below. See Consideration To Be Received in the Merger below.

Independent's articles of organization will be the articles of organization, and Independent's bylaws will be the bylaws, of the combined company after the completion of the merger. The merger agreement provides that Independent may change the structure of the merger if consented to by Slade's Ferry (but Slade's Ferry's consent cannot be unreasonably withheld). No such change will alter the kind or amount of merger consideration to be provided under the merger agreement, or materially delay or jeopardize receipt of any required regulatory approvals or otherwise materially delay the consummations of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Simultaneously with the merger, Slades Bank (Slade's Ferry's bank subsidiary) will be merged with and into Rockland Trust (Independent's bank subsidiary). Following the bank merger, the corporate existence of Slades Bank will cease and Rockland Trust will be the surviving entity of the bank merger.

Effective Time and Completion of the Merger

The merger will be completed and will become effective upon the acceptance for filing by the Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts of the articles of merger related to the merger. However, we may agree to a later time for completion of the merger and specify that later time in the articles of merger in accordance with Massachusetts law.

We currently expect that the merger will be completed in the first quarter of 2008, subject to Slade's Ferry's shareholders' approval of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals and the expiration of all regulatory waiting periods. However, completion of the merger could be delayed if there is a delay in obtaining the required regulatory approvals or in satisfying any other conditions to the merger. There can be no assurances as to whether, or when, Slade's Ferry and Independent will obtain the required approvals or complete the merger.

Board of Directors of the Surviving Corporation

Prior to completion of the merger, Independent's board of directors will increase by one the number of directors constituting the entire board of directors, effective as of and contingent upon the occurrence of the effective time of the merger. Independent will elect from among those serving on Slade's Ferry's board of directors an individual to fill the vacancy and thereby become a director of Independent, effective as of and contingent upon the occurrence of the effective time of the merger. Independent may select the individual to be elected in its sole discretion. The new Independent director will become a member of the class of Independent's board of directors that has the longest time remaining until its directors' terms expire.

Consideration To Be Received in the Merger

In the merger, each outstanding share of Slade's Ferry common stock will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder, either:

$25.50 in cash (which is referred to as the cash consideration); or

0.818 shares of Independent common stock (which is referred to as the stock consideration), plus cash in lieu of any fractional share, subject to the allocation and proration procedures described below. Also subject to these procedures, you may elect to receive a portion of your merger consideration in cash and the remaining portion in shares of Independent common stock.

No fractional shares of Independent common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, each Slades Ferry shareholder will receive an amount of cash, in lieu of any fractional share, based on the average per share closing price of Independent common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market over the five trading days immediately preceding the closing date of the merger, rounded to the nearest whole cent.

Table of Contents

No interest will be paid with respect to any portion of the cash consideration payable in connection with the merger.

The merger agreement provides for overall limitations on the amount of cash and shares of Independent common stock available in the merger as follows:

25% of the total number of outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive the cash consideration; and

75% of the total number of outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration.

As a result, whether you receive the amount of cash and/or stock requested in your election form will depend in part on the elections of other Slade's Ferry shareholders. You may not receive exactly the form of consideration you elected in the merger, and you may instead receive a pro rata amount of cash or Independent common stock.

Election Procedures

No more than 40 and no less than 20 business days prior to the anticipated election deadline, each holder of record of Slade's Ferry common stock will be sent an election form and other appropriate and customary transmittal materials which will permit each Slade's Ferry shareholder:

to elect to receive $25.50 per share in cash in exchange for all shares of Slade's Ferry common stock held by the shareholder;

to elect to receive 0.818 shares of Independent common stock per share, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share, in exchange for all shares of Slade's Ferry common stock held by the shareholder;

to elect to receive the cash consideration with respect to a portion of the shares of Slade's Ferry common stock held by the shareholder and the stock consideration with respect to the remaining shares of Slade's Ferry common stock held by the shareholder; or to make no election with respect to the consideration to be received in exchange for the shareholder's shares of Slade's Ferry common stock, which are referred to as non-election shares.

If your shares or a portion of your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock are held in street name by a broker, bank or other nominee, an election form will be mailed to the broker, bank or other nominee with respect to those shares.

If you hold a portion of your shares in an individual retirement account and the remaining portion of your shares directly in your name, you will receive two election forms: one for your shares held in the individual retirement account and one for the shares held directly in your name.

An election form must be either accompanied by the Slade's Ferry stock certificates as to which the election form is being made, or must be accompanied by an appropriate guarantee of delivery of those stock certificates.

In order to be effective, a properly completed election form, together with stock certificates (or a properly completed notice of guaranteed delivery) must be submitted to the exchange agent on or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on a date mutually agreed upon by Independent and Slade's Ferry, which date will be no later than the fifth business day prior to the closing date. Independent will issue a press release announcing the date of the election deadline as promptly as practicable after the election deadline is determined.

If a Slade s Ferry shareholder either:

does not submit a properly completed election form in a timely fashion; or revokes his, her or its election form prior to the deadline for the submission of the election form and does not resubmit a properly completed election form by the election form deadline, the shares of Slade's Ferry common stock held by the shareholder will be designated non-election shares. The exchange agent will have reasonable discretion in determining whether any election revocation or change was properly or timely made and to disregard any immaterial defects in the election form.

If you have a preference for receiving either cash or Independent common stock for your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock, you should return the election form indicating your preference. Slade's Ferry shareholders who make an election will be accorded priority over those shareholders who make no election in instances where the cash consideration or stock consideration must be re-allocated in order to achieve the required ratio of Slade's Ferry shares being converted into the right to receive cash and Independent common stock. If you do not make an election, you will be allocated cash and/or Independent common stock depending on the elections made by other Slade's Ferry shareholders. However, even if you do make an election, the form of merger consideration that you actually receive may differ from the form of merger consideration that you elect to receive due to the allocation procedures described below.

The market price of Independent common stock will fluctuate between the date of this document, the date of your election and the effective time of the merger. Because the ratio of shares of Independent common stock to be exchanged for shares of Slade's Ferry common stock is fixed, such fluctuations will alter the value of the shares of Independent common stock that you may receive in the merger. In addition, because the tax consequences of receiving cash will differ from the tax consequences of receiving Independent common stock, you should carefully read the section in this document titled Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 63 of this document.

Generally, an election may be revoked or changed, but only by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline accompanied by a properly completed and signed revised form of election. If an election is revoked, or the merger agreement is terminated, and any certificates have been transmitted to the exchange agent, the exchange agent will promptly return those certificates to the shareholder who submitted those certificates via first-class mail or, in the case of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock tendered by book-entry transfer in the exchange agent's account at the Depository Trust Company, or DTC, by crediting such shares to an account maintained by such shareholder within DTC promptly following the termination of the merger or revocation of the election. Slade's Ferry shareholders will not be entitled to revoke or change their election following the election deadline. As a result, if you have made an election, you will be unable to revoke your elections or sell your shares of Slade's Ferry common stock during the interval between the election deadline and the date of completion of the merger. All election forms will be automatically revoked, and all Slade's Ferry stock certificates returned, if the exchange agent is notified in writing by Independent and Slade's Ferry that the merger agreement has been terminated.

The exchange agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the cash consideration or cash in lieu of fractional shares, cash dividends or distributions payable to any Slade's Ferry shareholder the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under any federal, state, local or foreign tax law. If the exchange agent withholds any amounts, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger as having been paid to the shareholders from whom they were withheld.

Allocation Procedures

A shareholder's ability to elect to receive cash or shares of Independent common stock in exchange for shares of Slade's Ferry common stock in the merger is subject to allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement. These allocation procedures are designed to ensure that 25% of the total number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be converted into cash, and 75% of these shares will be converted into shares of Independent common stock. As a result, whether you receive the amount of cash and/or stock you request in your election form will depend in part on the elections of other Slade s Ferry shareholders. You may not receive exactly the form of consideration that you elect in the merger, and you may instead receive a pro rata amount of cash and Independent common stock.

Through the use of examples, we illustrate below the possible adjustments to elections in connection with these allocation procedures. The first of our three examples assumes you make an effective stock election with respect to all of your Slade s Ferry shares. The second example assumes you make no election with respect to your Slade s Ferry shares. Finally, the third example assumes that you make an effective cash election with respect to all of your Slade s Ferry shares. You should note, however, that you are not required to elect to receive only cash or only Independent common stock. You may instead elect to receive cash with respect to a portion of your Slade s Ferry shares and shares of Independent common stock with respect to the rest of your Slade s Ferry shares.

Allocation if Too Many Shares of Independent Common Stock are Elected. If Slade s Ferry shareholders elect to receive more Independent common stock than Independent has agreed to issue in the merger, then all Slade s Ferry shareholders who elected to receive cash or who have made no election would receive the cash consideration with respect to their Slade s Ferry shares, and all Slade s Ferry shareholders who elected to receive Independent common stock would receive a pro rata portion of the available shares of Independent common stock calculated in the manner described below.

EXAMPLE #1: Assume that (1) 4,000,000 shares of Slade s Ferry common stock are outstanding immediately prior to the merger, (2) holders of 3,600,000 shares of Slade s Ferry common stock have made effective stock elections, (3) holders of 300,000 shares of Slade s Ferry common stock have made effective cash elections and (4) holders of 100,000 shares of Slade s Ferry common stock have made no election with respect to their shares. You hold 1,000 Slade s Ferry shares and have made an effective election to receive the stock consideration for those shares. In this example, pro-ration would be required with respect to the Slade s Ferry shareholders who elected the stock consideration because holders of more than 75% of the outstanding Slade s Ferry shares have elected to receive Independent common stock in the merger.

EXPLANATION #1:

Step 1. Derive the stock conversion number: the stock conversion number is the number of shares of Slade s Ferry common stock that are to be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The stock conversion number is equal to 75% of the number of shares of Slade s Ferry common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The stock conversion number for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$4,000,000 \text{ shares} \times 0.75 = 3,000,000 \text{ shares}$$

Step 2. Derive the stock fraction: the stock fraction equals the stock conversion number divided by the aggregate number of Slade s Ferry shares for which an effective stock election was made, and represents the fraction to be used in prorating the stock consideration. The stock fraction for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{stock conversion number}}{\text{stock election shares}} = \frac{3,000,000 \text{ shares}}{3,600,000 \text{ shares}} = 0.833$$

Step 3. Derive the stock consideration: the prorated stock consideration is the product of the stock fraction multiplied by the number of Slade s Ferry shares as to which you have made an effective stock election. This amount is then multiplied by the exchange ratio of 0.818. The prorated stock consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$0.833 \times 1,000 = 833$$

$$833 \times 0.818 = 681.4 \text{ shares of Independent common stock}$$

Because no fractional shares of Independent common stock will be issued in the merger, you would receive 681 shares of Independent common stock and cash for the additional 0.4 fractional share.

Step 4. Derive the cash consideration: the cash consideration that you will receive for your Slade's Ferry shares is the product of $25.50, multiplied by the remaining number of Slade's Ferry shares as to which you made an effective stock election. The cash consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$$25.50 \times (1,000 - 833) = $25.50 \times 167 = $4,258.50$$

Table of Contents

Thus, in this example, if you own 1,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock and have made an effective stock election for all of those shares, you would receive (subject to rounding):

681 shares of Independent common stock;

cash for the 0.4 fractional share of Independent common stock; and $4,258.50 in cash.

Allocation if Too Few Shares of Independent Common Stock are Elected. If Slade's Ferry shareholders elect to receive less Independent common stock than the merger agreement provides for Independent to issue in the merger, then all shares with respect to which Slade's Ferry shareholders have elected to receive stock consideration would be converted into the right to receive Independent common stock, and the shares for which Slade's Ferry shareholders have elected to receive cash or with respect to which no election was made would be treated in the manner illustrated below.

EXAMPLE #2: Assume that (1) 4,000,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock are outstanding immediately prior to the merger, (2) holders of 2,900,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock have made effective stock elections, (3) holders of 900,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock have made effective cash elections and (4) holders of 200,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock have made no election with respect to their shares. You hold 1,000 Slade's Ferry shares and have made no election with respect to those shares. In this example, proration would be required with respect to the shareholders who made no election with respect to their Slade's Ferry shares because holders of less than 75% of the outstanding Slade's Ferry shares have elected to receive Independent common stock in the merger, and the shortfall is less than the number of non-election shares.

EXPLANATION #2:

Step 1. Derive the stock conversion number: the stock conversion number is the number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock that are to be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The stock conversion number is equal to 75% of the number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The stock conversion number for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$4,000,000 \text{ shares} \times 0.75 = 3,000,000 \text{ shares}$$

Step 2. Derive the shortfall number: the shortfall number is the amount by which the stock conversion number exceeds the aggregate number of Slade's Ferry shares with respect to which the stock consideration was elected. The shortfall number for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$3,000,000 - 2,900,000 = 100,000 \text{ shares}$$

Step 3. Determine whether the shortfall number is less than or equal to the number of non-election shares: In this example, the shortfall number (100,000 shares) is less than the number of non-election shares (200,000 shares). As a result, all Slade's Ferry shares with respect to which an effective cash election was made would be converted into the right to receive the cash consideration, and the holders of non-election shares would receive a mix of stock consideration and cash consideration.

Step 4. Derive the stock fraction: the stock fraction equals the shortfall number divided by the aggregate number of Slade's Ferry shares for which no election was made, and represents the fraction to be used in pro-rating the stock consideration. The stock fraction for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{shortfall number}}{\text{non-election shares}} = \frac{100,000 \text{ shares}}{200,000 \text{ shares}} = 0.5$$

Step 5. Derive the stock consideration: the prorated stock consideration is the product of the stock fraction multiplied by the number of Slade s Ferry shares as to which you have made no election. This amount is then multiplied by the exchange ratio of 0.818. The prorated stock consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$0.5 \times 1,000 = 500$$

$$500 \times 0.818 = 409 \text{ shares of Independent common stock}$$

Because the number of shares of Independent common stock to be issued to you is not a fraction, you would not receive any cash in lieu of fractional shares.

Step 6. Derive the cash consideration: the cash consideration that you will receive for your Slade's Ferry shares is the product of $25.50, multiplied by the remaining number of Slade's Ferry shares as to which you made no election. The cash consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$$25.50 \times (1,000 - 500) = $25.50 \times 500 = $12,750$$

Thus, in this example, if you own 1,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock and made no election with respect to those shares, you would receive (subject to rounding):

409 shares of Independent common stock;

no cash in lieu of fractional shares;

$12,750 in cash.

EXAMPLE #3: Assume that (1) 4,000,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock are outstanding immediately prior to the merger, (2) holders of 2,800,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock have made effective stock elections, (3) holders of 1,100,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock have made effective cash elections and (4) holders of 100,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock have made no election with respect to their shares. You hold 1,000 Slade's Ferry shares and have made an effective election to receive the cash consideration for those shares. In this example, proration would be required with respect to the shareholders who made cash elections with respect to their Slade's Ferry shares because holders of less than 75% of the outstanding Slade's Ferry shares have elected to receive stock in the merger, and the shortfall is more than the number of non-election shares.

EXPLANATION #3:

Step 1. Derive the stock conversion number: the stock conversion number is the number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock that are to be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The stock conversion number is equal to 75% of the number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. The stock conversion number for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$4,000,000 \text{ shares} \times 0.75 = 3,000,000 \text{ shares}$$

Step 2. Derive the shortfall number: the shortfall number is the amount by which the stock conversion number exceeds the aggregate number of Slade's Ferry shares with respect to which the stock consideration was elected. The shortfall number for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$3,000,000 - 2,800,000 = 200,000 \text{ shares}$$

Step 3. Determine whether the shortfall number is less than or equal to the number of non-election shares: In this example, the shortfall number (200,000 shares) is greater than the number of non-election shares (100,000 shares). As a result, all Slade s Ferry shares with respect to which no election was made would be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration, and the holders of shares with respect to which an effective cash election was made would receive a mix of stock consideration and cash consideration.

Step 4. Derive the stock fraction: the stock fraction equals the amount by which the shortfall number exceeds the total number of non-election shares, divided by the aggregate number of Slade s

Table of Contents

Ferry shares for which an effective cash election was made, and represents the fraction to be used in prorating the stock consideration. The stock fraction for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{shortfall number} - \text{non-election shares}}{\text{cash election shares}} = \frac{(200,000 - 100,000)}{1,100,000} = \frac{100,000}{1,100,000} = 0.091$$

Step 5. Derive the stock consideration: the prorated stock consideration is the product of the stock fraction multiplied by the number of Slade's Ferry shares as to which you have made an effective cash election. This amount is then multiplied by the exchange ratio of 0.818. The prorated stock consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$0.091 \times 1,000 = 91$$

$$91 \times 0.818 = 74.4 \text{ shares of Independent common stock}$$

Because no fractional shares of Independent common stock will be issued in the merger, you would receive 74 shares of Independent common stock and cash for the additional 0.4 fractional share.

Step 6. Derive the cash consideration: the cash consideration that you will receive for your Slade's Ferry shares is the product of $25.50, multiplied by the remaining number of Slade's Ferry shares as to which you made an effective cash election. The cash consideration for the example above is calculated as follows:

$$$25.50 \times (1,000 - 91) = $25.50 \times 909 = $23,179.50$$

Thus, in this example, if you own 1,000 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock and made an effective cash election for all of those shares, you would receive (subject to rounding):

74 shares of Independent common stock;

cash for the 0.4 fractional share of Independent common stock; and $23,179.50 in cash.

Exchange of Slade's Ferry Stock Certificates for Independent Stock Certificates

On or before the closing date of the merger, Independent will cause to be delivered to the exchange agent certificates representing the shares of Independent common stock to be issued in the merger. In addition, Independent will deliver to the exchange agent an aggregate amount of cash sufficient to pay the aggregate amount of cash consideration payable in the merger, including an estimated amount of cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares of Independent common stock. Independent has selected Computershare to act as the exchange agent in connection with the merger.

Slade's Ferry shareholders who surrender their stock certificates and complete transmittal and election forms prior to the election deadline will automatically receive the merger consideration allocated to them promptly following completion of the allocation procedures.

No later than five business days following the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will mail to each Slade's Ferry shareholder of record at the effective time of the merger who did not previously surrender Slade's Ferry stock certificates with an election form, a letter of transmittal and instructions for use in surrendering the shareholder's

Slade s Ferry stock certificates. When such Slade s Ferry shareholders deliver their Slade s Ferry stock certificates to the exchange agent along with a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal and any other required documents, their Slade s Ferry stock certificates will be cancelled and in exchange they will receive, as allocated to them:

an Independent stock certificate representing the number of whole shares of Independent common stock that they are entitled to receive under the merger agreement;

a check representing the amount of cash that they are entitled to receive under the merger agreement; and/or a check representing the amount of cash that they are entitled to receive in lieu of any fractional shares.

No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash constituting merger consideration.

Slade's Ferry shareholders are not entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions on Independent common stock with a record date after the closing date of the merger until they have surrendered their Slade's Ferry stock certificates in exchange for an Independent stock certificate. After the surrender of their Slade's Ferry stock certificates, Slade's Ferry shareholders of record will be entitled to receive any dividend or other distribution, without interest, which had become payable with respect to their Independent common stock.

Independent will only issue a stock certificate for Independent common stock, a check for the cash consideration, or a check for cash in lieu of a fractional share in a name other than the name in which a surrendered Slade's Ferry stock certificate is registered if the exchange agent is presented with all documents required to show and effect the unrecorded transfer of ownership, together with evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid.

Stock Options and Restricted Stock

Stock Options. Immediately before the effective time of the merger, each outstanding option to acquire Slade's Ferry common stock, whether vested or unvested, which has not been previously exercised or cancelled, will be cancelled. In exchange for the cancellation of an option, the holder of that option be entitled to receive a cash payment from Slade's Ferry or Slades Bank in an amount equal to the product of:

the number of shares of Slade's Ferry common stock provided in the option; and the excess, if any, of $25.50 over the exercise price per share provided in the option.

The cash payment will be made without interest and will be net of all applicable withholding taxes. Slade's Ferry will obtain prior to the effective time of the merger, from each holder of a then-outstanding option, a written acknowledgement with respect to the termination of and payment for such options as described in this section. As of December 4, 2007, there were outstanding options to purchase 226,710 shares of Slade's Ferry common stock.

Restricted Stock. Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, all shares of Slade's Ferry restricted stock will fully vest, and all of the related shares will be treated as outstanding Slade's Ferry shares for all purposes under the merger agreement, including for purposes of the holders' right to receive the forms of election, make elections and receive the merger consideration. As of December 4, 2007, there were 53,000 shares of unvested Slade's Ferry restricted stock outstanding.

Shareholder Approval

Slade's Ferry has agreed to convene a special meeting of its shareholders to consider and vote upon approval of the merger agreement and any other matters required to be approved by Slade's Ferry's shareholders in order to permit consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Slade's Ferry will use its best efforts to convene the meeting within 45 days following the time when the registration statement becomes effective. Slade's Ferry has agreed to take all lawful action to solicit shareholder approval of the merger agreement, although under certain circumstances Slade's Ferry's board of directors may recommend to Slade s Ferry s shareholders a Superior Proposal (as defined below) based on its fiduciary duties, as described below under No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions.

Under the merger agreement, Slade s Ferry s board of directors must, at all times prior to and during the special meeting, recommend adoption of the merger agreement by Slade s Ferry s shareholders and may not withhold, withdraw, amend or modify its recommendation in any manner adverse to Independent or take any other action or make any other public statement inconsistent with its recommendation, except as and to the extent described below under No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions. Notwithstanding any change in recommendation, the merger agreement must be submitted to Slade s Ferry s shareholders for their approval.

No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions

Slade s Ferry has agreed that it, its subsidiaries and their officers and directors will not, and Slade s Ferry will use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of its and its subsidiaries representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage any inquiry with respect to, or the making of, any proposal that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal (as defined below);

participate in any negotiations regarding an Acquisition Proposal with, or furnish any nonpublic information relating to a Acquisition Proposal to, any party that has made or, to the knowledge of Slade s Ferry, is considering making an Acquisition Proposal; or engage in discussions regarding an Acquisition Proposal with any party that has made, or, to Slade s Ferry s knowledge, is considering making, an Acquisition Proposal.

However, prior to the time that Slade s Ferry s shareholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, if Slade s Ferry receives a written and unsolicited Acquisition Proposal that Slade s Ferry s board of directors reasonably believes to be credible, which the board of directors determines in good faith (after consultation with its financial advisors and outside counsel) is or could reasonably be expected to result in a Superior Proposal, Slade s Ferry may take the following actions:

furnish nonpublic information to the party making such Acquisition Proposal, but only if:

prior to so furnishing such information, Slade s Ferry has entered into a customary confidentiality agreement with such party;

all such information has previously been provided to Independent or is provided to Independent prior to or contemporaneously with the time it is provided to the party making such Acquisition Proposal; and engage or participate in any discussions or negotiations with such party with respect to the Acquisition Proposal.

Slade s Ferry must promptly advise Independent of the receipt of:

any proposal that constitutes or could reasonably be expected to lead to an Acquisition Proposal and the material terms of the proposal; and any request for non-public information relating to Slade s Ferry or any of its subsidiaries other than requests for information not reasonably expected to be related to an Acquisition Proposal.

Thereafter, Slade s Ferry must keep Independent reasonably informed on a reasonably current basis of the status of any such Acquisition Proposal (including any material change to the terms thereof).

Except as described in the following paragraph, Slade s Ferry s board of directors may not:

withhold, withdraw or modify (or publicly propose to withhold, withdraw or modify), in a manner adverse to Independent, its recommendation that Slade s Ferry shareholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; or approve or recommend (or publicly propose to approve or recommend) any Acquisition Proposal.

Table of Contents

Slade s Ferry may not, and its board of directors may not allow it to, and Slade s Ferry may not allow any of its subsidiaries to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement or other agreement (except for customary confidentiality agreements as described above) relating to any Acquisition Proposal.

Notwithstanding the previous paragraph, Slade s Ferry s board of directors may, prior to but not after the time Slade s Ferry s shareholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby:

change its recommendation that Slade s Ferry shareholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby; or terminate the merger agreement, in either case if and only if the board of directors has determined in good faith, after consulting with its outside counsel, that the failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors fiduciary duties. However, the board of directors may not take any such action in connection with an Acquisition Proposal unless:

the Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined below);

prior to terminating the merger agreement, Slade s Ferry provides written notice to Independent at least three business days in advance of its intention to take such action (which notice must specify all material terms and conditions of the Superior Proposal, including documentation related thereto and the identity of the party making the Superior Proposal);

during the three-day notice period, Slade s Ferry must negotiate with Independent in good faith should Independent propose to make adjustments in the terms and conditions of this merger agreement so that the Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Proposal; and the Acquisition Proposal continues to constitute a Superior Proposal after taking into account any amendments that Independent agrees to make to the merger agreement.

As used in the merger agreement, the term Acquisition Proposal means any proposal or offer with respect to any of the following involving Slade s Ferry:

any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination or other similar transaction;

any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of assets and/or liabilities that constitute a substantial portion of the net revenues, net income or assets of Slade s Ferry in a single transaction or series of transactions;

any tender offer or exchange offer for 25% or more of the outstanding shares of Slade s Ferry s capital stock or the filing of a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection therewith; or any public announcement by any party of a proposal, plan or intention to do any of the foregoing or any agreement to engage in any of the foregoing.

As used in the merger agreement, the term Superior Proposal means any bona fide written proposal made by a third party to acquire, directly or indirectly, including pursuant to a tender offer, exchange offer, merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction, for consideration consisting of cash and/or securities, more than 50% of the combined voting power of the shares of Slade s Ferry common stock then outstanding or all or substantially all of the assets of Slade s Ferry and otherwise:

on terms which Slade s Ferry s board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisor, to be more favorable from a financial point of view to Slade s Ferry s shareholders than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

that constitutes a transaction that, in the good faith judgment of Slade s Ferry s board of directors, is reasonably likely to be consummated on the terms set forth, taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal; and for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed.

Employee Benefits Matters

Benefit Plans. The merger agreement provides that following the effective date of the merger, Independent will provide those individuals who are employees of Slade s Ferry and its subsidiaries and who continue as employees of Independent or any of its subsidiaries with benefits under employee benefit plans (other than stock options and other equity-based plans) substantially comparable in the aggregate to those provided to similarly situated employees of Independent and its subsidiaries. Independent will make all commercially reasonable efforts to cause each benefit plan providing medical or dental benefits to continuing employees to waive any preexisting condition limitations relating to any conditions that were covered under the applicable medical or dental plans of Slade s Ferry and its subsidiaries, take into account all eligible expenses incurred for purposes of satisfying the deductible and coinsurance and waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to the continuing employee.

Severance Pay Plan. Independent will assume and honor the Severance Pay Plan of Slades Bank for a period of one year following the effective date of the merger. Under the Severance Pay Plan, an employee with at least one year of service is entitled to receive severance pay, in either a lump sum distribution or salary continuation over the severance period, if the employee s employment is terminated under circumstances constituting an involuntary severance without cause (including certain good reason resignations) within twelve months following, or within three months prior to, a change of control. Specifically, employees are eligible to receive two weeks severance pay for each completed year of service with certain employees to be entitled to a minimum of twelve weeks severance pay; provided, however, that no person shall receive severance pay in excess of twenty-six weeks irrespective of years of service.

In addition to the severance benefits provided above, if an employee elects to be paid severance over time rather than in a lump sum, the employee will also be eligible to receive continued medical and dental coverage for the duration of their severance period at no cost to the employee with any continuation thereafter (if permitted by COBRA) to be paid by the employee. If the employee elects to be paid in a lump sum distribution, the employee will be responsible for paying for any additional continuation of medical and dental coverage to the extent permitted by COBRA.

Conditions to Complete the Merger

Our respective obligations to complete the merger are subject to the fulfillment or waiver of mutual conditions, including:

the approval of the merger by Slade s Ferry shareholders;

the approval of the listing of Independent common stock to be issued in the merger on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, subject to official notice of issuance;

the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this document is a part, with respect to the Independent common stock to be issued in the merger under the Securities Act of 1933, and the absence of any stop order or proceedings initiated or threatened by the Securities and Exchange Commission for that purpose;

the receipt and effectiveness of all regulatory approvals, registrations and consents, and the expiration of all waiting periods required to complete the merger and the bank merger; and the absence of any statute, regulation, rule, decree, injunction or other order in effect by any court or other governmental entity that prohibits completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Each of Slade s Ferry s and Independent s obligations to complete the merger is also separately subject to the satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including:

the receipt by the party of a legal opinion from its counsel with respect to certain federal income tax consequences of the merger; and

the other company s representations and warranties in the merger agreement being true and correct in all material respects and the performance by the other party in all material respects of its obligations under the merger agreement.

Slade s Ferry s obligation to complete the merger is further subject to approval by Independent s Board of Directors of the donation in the amount of $100,000 by Independent to a charity or charities of Slade s Ferry s choosing.

Independent s obligation to complete the merger is further subject to the conditions that:

the number of outstanding shares of Slade s Ferry common stock shall not exceed 4,062,353, except to the extent increased as a result of the exercise of stock options outstanding on the date of the merger agreement;

each director and executive officer of Slade s Ferry having executed and delivered an agreement to vote the shares of Slade s Ferry common stock beneficially owned by him or her in favor of the merger agreement described further in the section entitled Voting Agreements on page 61 of this document;

delivery by Slade s Ferry to Independent of releases from certain employees of Slade s Ferry regarding the termination of employment of such employees as of the effective time of the merger and the satisfaction of all payments due to such employees including payments due as a result of the merger;

the delivery by Mary Lynn D. Lenz and Deborah A. McLaughlin to Independent of the non-competition agreement described further in the section entitled Interests of Slade s Ferry s Executive Officers and Directors in the Merger beginning on page 40 of this document; and the environmental assessments shall be completed and that such assessments shall not indicate the existence of a condition or matter the cost of which is reasonably likely to exceed $50,000 individually or $100,000 in the aggregate.

We cannot provide assurance as to when or if all of the conditions to the merger can or will be satisfied or waived by the appropriate party. As of the date of this document, we have no reason to believe that any of these conditions will not be satisfied.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

General. The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the completion of the merger by our mutual consent authorized by each of our boards of directors, as determined by a vote of a majority of its respective members, or by either Independent or Slade s Ferry if:

a governmental entity which must grant a regulatory approval as a condition to the merger or the bank merger denies approval of the merger or the bank merger or any governmental entity has issued an order prohibiting the merger or the bank merger and such action has become final and non-appealable;

the merger is not completed by April 30, 2008 (other than because of a material breach of the Agreement caused by the party seeking termination);

the other party breaches the merger agreement in a way that would entitle the party seeking to terminate the agreement not to consummate the merger, subject to the right of the breaching party to cure the breach by the earlier of: 30 days following written notice or 2 business days before April 30, 2008 (unless it is not possible due to the nature or timing of the breach for the breaching party to cure the breach); or

Slade s Ferry shareholders do not approve the merger agreement.

The merger agreement may also be terminated by Independent if Slade s Ferry has materially breached its non-solicitation obligations; the Slade s Ferry board has failed to recommend in this proxy statement the approval of the merger agreement, withdrawn, modified or qualified, or proposed to withdraw, modify or qualify, in any manner adverse to Independent, its recommendation that its shareholders approve the merger agreement; recommended, proposed or publicly announced its intention to recommend or propose, to engage in an Acquisition Transaction (as defined below under Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement) with any person other than Independent or a subsidiary or affiliate of Independent; or failed to call the special meeting of Slade s Ferry shareholders.

The merger agreement may also be terminated by Slade s Ferry if the average of the daily closing prices of Independent s common stock for the ten consecutive trading days immediately following regulatory approval of the merger is less than $24.56 and the decrease in the trading price of Independent common stock over a specified period exceeds by 20% or more the decrease in the trading prices of an index group over that period, provided that Independent will have the option to increase the ratio of Independent stock to be exchanged for Slade s Ferry common stock pursuant to a formula in the merger agreement or to augment the stock consideration with cash consideration, in which case no termination will be deemed to have occurred. The merger agreement may also be terminated by Slade s Ferry if it enters into a Superior Proposal, so long as it pays the termination fee described under Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement, below.

Effect of Termination. In the event the merger agreement is terminated as described above, the merger agreement will become void and neither Independent nor Slade s Ferry will have any liability under the merger agreement, except that:

both Independent and Slade s Ferry will remain liable for any willful breach of the merger agreement; and designated provisions of the merger agreement, including those relating to the termination fee, the payment of fees and expenses, non-survival of the representations and warranties, and confidential treatment of information will survive the termination.

Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement.

Conditions Requiring Payment of Termination Fee. Slade s Ferry has agreed to pay a termination fee in the amount of $3.5 million to Independent in the following circumstances:

If Slade s Ferry terminates the merger agreement because Slade s Ferry s board of directors has approved, and Slade s Ferry enters into, a definitive agreement with respect to a Superior Proposal (as defined above under No Solicitation of Alternative Transactions).

If Independent terminates the merger agreement because:

Slade s Ferry materially breaches its non-solicitation obligations;

Slade s Ferry s board of directors fails to recommend that Slade s Ferry shareholders approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, or the board withdraws the recommendation or modifies it in a manner adverse to Independent;

Slade s Ferry s board of directors recommends, proposes or publicly announces its intention to recommend or propose, to engage in an Acquisition Transaction (as defined below) with any party other than Independent or a subsidiary or affiliate of Independent; or

Slade s Ferry materially breaches its obligations to call, give notice of, convene and hold a meeting of Slade s Ferry shareholders in order to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

In the event that:

(1) an Acquisition Proposal, whether or not conditional, has been publicly announced or otherwise communicated or made known to Slade's Ferry's senior management or board of directors (or any person has publicly announced, communicated or made known an intention, whether or not conditional, to make an Acquisition Proposal) or (2) Slade's Ferry's board of directors has withheld, withdrawn or modified (or publicly proposed to withhold, withdraw or modify), in a manner adverse to Independent its recommendation, to the extent permitted under the no-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement, prior to or on the date of the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof at which the vote on the merger agreement is held;

the merger agreement is terminated:

by Independent or Slade's Ferry because Slade's Ferry shareholder approval is not obtained; by Independent or Slade's Ferry because the merger is not completed on or before April 30, 2008; or by Independent because Slade's Ferry breaches the merger agreement in a way that would entitle Independent not to consummate the merger, subject to the right of Slade's Ferry to cure the breach; and within 12 months following the date of termination, Slade's Ferry enters into a definitive agreement with respect to any Acquisition Transaction, or Slade's Ferry consummates any Acquisition Transaction, then Slade's Ferry must pay the termination fee to Independent. The amount paid will be offset by any amount previously paid for expense reimbursement as described below. Slade's Ferry must pay the termination fee prior to the earlier of Slade's Ferry entering into a definitive agreement for or consummating such Acquisition Transaction.

As used in the merger agreement, the term "Acquisition Transaction" means any of the following involving Slade's Ferry:

any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination or other similar transaction;

any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of assets and/or liabilities that constitute a substantial portion of the net revenues, net income or assets of Slade's Ferry in a single transaction or series of transactions; or any tender offer or exchange offer for 25% or more of the outstanding shares of Slade's Ferry or the filing of a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in connection therewith.

Conditions Requiring Expense Reimbursement. If the merger agreement is terminated, or could have been terminated, by Independent because:

Slade's Ferry shareholder approval is not obtained;

the merger is not completed on or before April 30, 2008; or Slade's Ferry breaches the merger agreement in a way that would entitle Independent not to consummate the merger, subject to the right of Slade's Ferry to cure the breach;

an Acquisition Proposal, whether or not conditional, has been publicly announced or otherwise communicated or made known to Slade s Ferry s senior management or board of directors (or any person has publicly announced, communicated or made known an intention, whether or not conditional, to make an Acquisition Proposal); or

Slade s Ferry s board of directors has withheld, withdrawn or modified (or publicly proposed to withhold, withdraw or modify), in a manner adverse to Independent its recommendation, to the extent permitted under the no-solicitation provisions of the merger agreement, prior to or on the date of the special meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof at which the vote on the merger agreement is held, but the $3.5 million termination fee has not been paid and is not payable because Slade's Ferry has not entered into a definitive agreement with respect to, or consummated any Acquisition Transaction, then Slade's Ferry must pay as promptly as possible (but in any event within three business days) following receipt of an invoice therefor up to $750,000 of Independent's reasonably documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses (including legal fees and expenses) actually incurred by Independent prior to the termination of the merger agreement proximately in connection with the negotiation, execution, delivery and performance of the merger agreement by Independent.

Amendment, Waiver and Extension of the Merger Agreement

Amendment. We may amend the merger agreement at any time prior to completion of the merger. However, after any approval of the merger agreement by the Slade's Ferry shareholders, there may not be, without further approval of the shareholders, any amendment of the merger agreement that requires such further approval under applicable law.

Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the completion of the merger, each of us, by action taken or authorized by our respective board of directors, to the extent legally allowed, may:

- extend the time for performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party under the merger agreement;

- waive any inaccuracies in the other party's representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement; and

- waive the other party's compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement.

Fees and Expenses

Except as described above under The Merger Agreement - Termination Fee and Expense Reimbursement, each party will bear all expenses incurred by it in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including fees and expenses of its own financial consultants, accountants and counsel.
