Acquisition of the Second Territory Business of ACON Laboratories, Inc. and Related Entities

On April 30, 2009, Inverness Medical Innovations, Inc. (the Company) completed its previously announced acquisition of the assets of ACON Laboratories, Inc. and certain related entities (collectively, ACON) business of researching, developing, manufacturing, distributing, marketing and selling lateral flow immunoassay and directly-related products (the Business) for the remainder of the world outside of the First Territory (as defined below), including China, Asia Pacific, Latin America, South America, the Middle East, Africa, India, Pakistan, Russia and Eastern Europe (the Second Territory Business). In connection with the closing of the acquisition of the Second Territory Business, the Company delivered an initial payment of $80 million in cash to ACON. The Company acquired ACON's Business in the United States, Canada, Western Europe (excluding Russia, the former Soviet Republics that are not part of the European Union and Turkey), Israel, Australia, Japan and New Zealand (the First Territory) in March 2006.

The aggregate purchase price for the Second Territory Business, including the $80 million initial payment described above, will be approximately $200 million based upon a multiple of either the Second Territory Business revenue or its pre-tax profits for calendar year 2008, as well as working capital and other customary adjustments. Except as described above, the remaining aggregate purchase price is expected to be paid in several installments with approximately eighty-five percent (85%) of the purchase price (the Initial Purchase Price Amount) being paid by the end of the third quarter or the beginning of the fourth quarter 2009. On July 1, 2009, the Company will pay an amount equal to 35% of the Initial Purchase Price Amount in cash or shares of the Company's common stock. On or prior to the tenth business day following a financing of at least $100 million in cash, the Company will pay the remainder of the Initial Purchase Price Amount (except for the July 1, 2009 payment), but in the event no such financing has been completed, the Company will pay any remaining Initial Purchase Price Amount on August 31, 2009, up to a maximum of $25 million, and thereafter will pay any further remaining Initial Purchase Price Amount on the last calendar day of succeeding months beginning on September 30, 2009, up to a maximum of $10 million per payment. Portions of the Initial Purchase Price Amount paid after the closing date will bear interest at a rate of four percent (4%) per annum. The remainder of the purchase price will be due in two final installments, each comprising 7.5% of the total purchase price, on the dates fifteen (15) and thirty (30) months after the closing. These amounts do not bear interest and may be paid in cash or a combination of cash (not less than approximately seventy-one percent (71%) of each payment) and shares of the Company's common stock (not more than approximately twenty-nine percent (29%) of each payment).

The actual number of shares of common stock to be issued in this transaction, if any, is determined by reference to a formula by which the value of the common stock to be issued by the Company is divided by a price per share equal to the volume weighted average price of the common stock during the ten trading days immediately preceding the date of issuance of such security. In connection with any issuance of common stock in this transaction, the Company is relying on an exemption from registration provided under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

The above description of the Acquisition Agreement entered into between the Company and ACON on March 16, 2009 is a brief summary of the significant provisions of the agreement. This summary is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copy of the Acquisition Agreement attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference herein.

Ltd., Jixun Lin and Feng Lin (collectively, the ACON Parties). The Amended and Restated Investor Rights Agreement requires the Company to use commercially reasonable efforts to register, within three (3) business days of issuance, the shares of its common stock issued as consideration for the transaction. If the Company files a registration statement to register the sale of its common stock, subject to certain exceptions, the Company has agreed to give notice to the ACON Parties and register their shares of the Company s common stock in such registration statement. The Amended and Restated Investor Rights Agreement also requires Mr. Zwanziger to give notice to the ACON Entities and allow the ACON Parties to sell a pro rata share of the common stock they have acquired as part of this transaction in the event that Mr. Zwanziger sells any shares of his common stock to a third party other than in an open market transaction.

The above description of the Amended and Restated Investor Rights Agreement is a brief summary of the significant provisions of the agreement.
