Item 8.01 Other Events.

On June 5, 2007, The Upper Deck Company (Upper Deck) and Northwood Investors LLC (together with Upper Deck, the Upper Deck Plaintiffs), a purported stockholder of The Topps Company, Inc. (the Company), commenced a lawsuit in the Delaware Court of Chancery against the Company, certain directors of the Company (the Director Defendants), The Tornante Company LLC (Tornante), funds affiliated with Madison Dearborn Partners, LLC (collectively, Madison Dearborn), Tornante-MDP Joe Holding LLC (Parent), an entity owned by Tornante and Madison Dearborn, and Tornante-MDP Joe Acquisition Corp. (Merger Sub), a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent. In their joint complaint, the Upper Deck Plaintiffs assert, among other things, that: (i) the Company and the Director Defendants breached the confidentiality agreement, dated March 19, 2007 (the Confidentiality Agreement), between Upper Deck and the Company, which Confidentiality Agreement was entered into during the go-shop period under the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 5, 2007 (the Merger Agreement), by and among the Company, Parent and Merger Sub; (ii) the Company and the Director Defendants fraudulently induced Upper Deck into entering into the Confidentiality Agreement; (iii) the Director Defendants breached their fiduciary duties to the stockholders of the Company; and (iv) Tornante and Madison Dearborn aided and abetted the Director Defendants in the breach of their fiduciary duties to the stockholders of the Company.

The Upper Deck Plaintiffs are seeking the following relief from the Court in respect of their claims: (i) an injunction preventing the defendants, including the Company, from enforcing the standstill provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement that prohibit Upper Deck from, among other things, directly or indirectly engaging in (A) a tender offer to acquire all or part of the Company's outstanding capital stock or (B) the solicitation of proxies from stockholders of the Company in order to vote against approval of the Merger Agreement at any meeting of the Company's stockholders called for the purpose of any such vote; (ii) an injunction preventing the Company from holding its special meeting of stockholders for the purpose of voting on the Merger Agreement (which meeting is scheduled for June 28, 2007) until such time as Upper Deck is released from its standstill obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement; (iii) a declaration that Upper Deck is excused from its standstill obligations under the Confidentiality Agreement; (iv) an order directing the defendants to jointly and severally account to the Upper Deck Plaintiffs for any and all damages that they suffer or incur in connection with the alleged wrongdoing on the part of the defendants; (v) a declaration that Tornante and Madison Dearborn are liable for aiding and abetting the alleged breaches of fiduciary duties by the Director Defendants; (vi) an award of all costs, including attorneys' and expert fees, incurred by the Upper Deck Plaintiffs in connection with the lawsuit; and (vii) such other relief as may be just and proper under the circumstances. The Court has scheduled a hearing for June 11, 2007 to address the Upper Deck Plaintiffs' demands for an injunction.

Notwithstanding the Upper Deck Plaintiffs' commencement of the above-described lawsuit, the Company is continuing to engage in discussions and negotiations with Upper Deck and its counsel and financial advisors, and is permitting them to continue to conduct a due diligence review of the Company, relating to a possible acquisition of the Company by Upper Deck. The Company's Board of Directors has not yet made any determination as to whether Upper Deck's current indication of interest in acquiring the Company either constitutes a superior proposal within the meaning of the Merger Agreement or may reasonably be expected to result in a superior proposal.
