4 EXOR's enhanced Binding Offer clearly superior for PartnerRe common shareholders Total value consideration of $140.50 per share in cash Confirms all - cash binding offer of $137.50 per share in cash Special dividend of $3.00 per share payable to PartnerRe shareholders at closing to compensate for expected closing in early 2016 Delivers a 7% premium 1 to the unaffected trading value of the AXIS offer and a 14% premium 2 to the tangible book value per share delivered under the AXIS transaction All - cash offer – extended through August 11, 2015 – provides value certainty; “Go - Shop” provision until September 14, 2015 provides PartnerRe shareholders with comfort that maximum value will be achieved Superior value of EXOR all - cash offer at closing sustained in the future assuming PartnerRe shareholders reinvest cash received from EXOR in (re)insurance peers or other equities at an expected market return PartnerRe has effectively acknowledged the superiority of the EXOR Binding Offer by seeking enhanced terms with AXIS However, the advertised increase in the special dividend under the AXIS transaction delivers to PartnerRe shareholders less than $1.00 per share of incremental value after adjusting for: (i) ownership split; (ii) the reported declines in the second - quarter 2015 tangible book value of both PartnerRe and AXIS; and (iii) the costs associated with the 100 basis point increase in the dividend rate for PartnerRe preferred shares EXOR Binding Offer with enhanced $3.00 per share special dividend delivers greater value than increase in special dividend under AXIS transaction, confirming that EXOR's Binding Offer is superior with a further widened value advantage compared to the AXIS transaction EXOR's proposal also remains superior for preferred shareholders with a more conservative capital distribution plan and an unconditional offer to increase current dividend rates by 100 basis points (or its economic equivalent through January 2021) EXOR's proposed terms limit capital distributions to <67% of earnings through 2020, while AXIS / PartnerRe plans to distribute 125%+ of earnings through 2017 EXOR does not believe the IRS will treat the preferred shares in the EXOR proposed exchange offer as part of a “listed transaction” or “prohibited tax shelter” involving “fast - pay stock” and remains committed to delivering full enhancements to preferred shareholders

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY 1 2 1 – Unaffected trading value of the AXIS offer based on AXIS unaffected share price of $52.14 on 5/5/15 multiplied by the 2.18 exchange ratio plus the $17.50 special dividend 2 – Based on estimated pro forma tangible book value per share of ~$49 for the combined company as of 12/31/15, multiplied by the 2.18 exchange ratio plus the $17.50 special dividend 3 4 5

SUPERIOR AND IMPROVED OFFER FOR COMMON SHAREHOLDERS

6 EXOR's Binding Offer of $140.50 per share ($ 137.50 plus $3.00 of Special Dividend) represents a 7% premium to the implied unaffected value of the current AXIS transaction 2 EXOR's Binding Offer delivers approximately $17 of additional TBVPS to PartnerRe shareholders 4 All in, EXOR's transaction values PartnerRe at 1.28x P/TBV and at a 30% premium to the unaffected price ($114.14) 5 "Enhanced" AXIS offer fails to deliver meaningful increase in TBVPS to PartnerRe shareholders due to AXIS and PartnerRe 2Q'2015 book value losses and the costs associated with the 100 basis point increase in the dividend rate for PartnerRe preferred shares FULL, IMMEDIATE AND GUARANTEED VALUE TO P ARTNER R E COMMON SHAREHOLDERS AT CLOSING SUPERIOR VALUE AT CLOSING P ARTNER R E ' S OFFER VALUE COMPARISON 1 EXOR's Enhanced Binding Offer (All - Cash) $140.50 1 $123.72 Unaffected Value 2 +$9.33 +7% +$ 16.78 +14% Revised AXIS Transaction (~87% Stock) Pro Forma TBVPS 3 $131.17 1 - PartnerRe shareholders to continue to receive ordinary quarterly dividend of $0.70 per share until closing, in addition to t he $140.50 per share they will receive at closing of the EXOR transaction 2 - Consists of 2.18 shares of AXIS and special dividend of $ 17.50 per PartnerRe share. ILLUSTRATIVE FUTURE VALUE 1 – AXIS offer value equal to estimated pro forma TBVPS for AXIS multiplied by the exchange ratio of 2.18 plus the special pre - closing dividend of $ 17.50, including any additional ordinary dividends PartnerRe shareholders will receive under the AXIS Transaction. Pro forma TBVPS at year - end 2016 and year - end 2017 reflects net income based on projections disclosed in Form S - 4 Registration Statement filed 6/1/15, $ 200mn cost synergies phased in 50% in 2016 and 100% in 2017, pre - tax restructuring charge of $225mn (incurred 80% in Q4 2015 and 20% in 2016); excludes revenue dissynergies, upside from third party capital and incremental growth. All dividends compounded at 8.0% annual return based on estimated equity market return. All adjustments taxed at 16% assumed pro forma tax rate 2 – Equal to EXOR’s all - cash offer of $140.50 and two $0.70 PartnerRe quarterly dividends prior to assumed closing. Expected value of EXOR’s Binding Offer at year - end 2016 and year - end 2017 reflects 8.0% annual return based on estimated equity market return Headline Value of EXOR’s Enhanced Binding Offer $ 140 .50 EXOR Enhanced Binding Offer Value 2 AXIS Offer Value 1 EXOR’s enhanced all - cash Binding Offer delivers superior value to PartnerRe shareholders, both at closing and in the future Reinvesting the cash consideration from EXOR in (re)insurance peers or other equities at a market return would result in illustrative value of $ 166 by 2017 for PartnerRe shareholders Well exceeding the value potential of the AXIS transaction, even using AXIS/PartnerRe own unrealistic financial projections Will also enable PartnerRe shareholders to retain upside (if any) from rising interest rates or improved industry pricing SUPERIOR VALUE AFTER CLOSING

9 EXOR'S PROPOSAL IS SUPERIOR TO THE AXIS REVISED OFFER VALUE MAXIMIZATION OPTION VALUE CERTAINTY x EXOR's $140.50 per share all - cash offer provides PartnerRe's shareholders with absolute value certainty EXOR's revised offer terms provide PartnerRe with a "Go - Shop" provision until September 14, 2015 , giving PartnerRe's shareholders comfort that maximum value will be delivered x Uncertain value driven by business performance: negative TBV growth at both AXIS and PartnerRe in 2Q'2015 illustrates the volatility and the potential value decline at closing of a predominantly share deal No "Go - Shop" provided to both companies to explore superior alternatives which, as the EXOR offer demonstrates, are clearly available in the market NO MERGER INTEGRATION RISK The AXIS transaction exposes PartnerRe shareholders to integration risk (leading to clients and employees losses) and to unrealistic future value creation assumptions: 2Q'2015 annualized operating ROE for PRE and AXS between 6.7% 7.9% and 6.8% 7.3%, respectively, demonstrates the uncertain and unrealistic forecast of a 12% ROE target for an AXIS / PartnerRe combination EXOR's all - cash transaction avoids merger integration and execution risks x

13 AXIS PROPOSAL STILL DOES NOT MATCH EXOR'S LEGALLY BINDING PRUDENT CAPITAL DISTRIBUTION POLICY » While EXOR's proposed terms include a covenant that limits capital distributions to <67% of earnings through 2020, AXIS / PartnerRe plan to distribute 125%+ of earnings through 2017 AXIS PROPOSAL ATTACHES CONDITIONALITY TO THE ENHANCEMENT OF PREFERRED SHARES » EXOR has committed to delivering enhanced terms promptly after closing, while the enhanced terms under the AXIS transaction are conditional and uncertain » EXOR does not believe the IRS will treat the preferred shares in the EXOR proposed exchange offer as part of a "listed transaction" or "prohibited tax shelter" involving "fast - pay stock" » While EXOR takes at face value the risk PartnerRe and AXIS have identified in relation to their proposal, EXOR rejects the suggestion that the same risk applies to the EXOR Binding Offer EXOR's U.S. legal counsel, Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP, has confirmed that it would be prepared to deliver a supporting tax opinion EXOR has agreed to seek a private letter ruling from the IRS that the preferred shares issued in the exchange do not constitute "fast - pay stock" or are not otherwise part of a listed transaction EXOR has amended the merger agreement to provide that if the private letter ruling is not obtained prior to the closing, then a lump sum cash payment equal to ~$42.7mn, the entire amount of 100bps of additional dividend payments for five years, would be separately paid by EXOR to the holders of preferred shares, in lieu of increasing the dividend rate on the new preferred shares EXOR'S ENHANCED BINDING OFFER REMAINS SUPERIOR FOR PREFERRED SHAREHOLDERS

16 THE AXIS/ PARTNERRE INCREASED SPECIAL DIVIDEND DELIVERS LITTLE NET VALUE

IMPROVEMENT • AXIS / PartnerRe to increase special dividend to PartnerRe shareholders by $6.00 per share, funded through a ~$300mn reduction in planned capital distributions post - closing • The $6.00 per share increase in the special dividend is only worth ~$2.90 per share of incremental value to PartnerRe shareholders PartnerRe shareholders were already entitled to ~51.5% of the $6.00 based on ownership in the pro forma entity Therefore, incremental value to PartnerRe shareholders is equal to ~48.5% of the $6.00 special dividend increase, or ~2.90 per share • Based on the pre - announced earnings results for 2Q 2015, PartnerRe's tangible book value per share expected to decline by $2.55 1 and AXIS' tangible book value per share expected to decline by $0.28 2 per share Incremental value of the special dividend almost completely offset by PartnerRe and AXIS 2Q 2015 underperformance, leaving PartnerRe shareholders with little net value improvement Decline in PartnerRe TBVPS in 2Q 2015 ($2.55) 1 Decline in AXIS TBVPS in 2Q 2015 ($0.28) 2 Per Share Increase in Special Dividend to PartnerRe $6.00 Aggregate Increase in Special Dividend to PartnerRe ~$300mn PartnerRe Pro Forma Ownership in AXS / PRE MergeCo ~51.5% Value of Increase Already Belonging to PartnerRe ~$3.10 Per Share Increase in Special Dividend to PartnerRe $6.00 Incremental Value Taken from AXIS ~$2.90 1 – Based on midpoint of PartnerRe 2Q 2015 TBV range disclosed in 7/13/15 earnings preannouncement of $115.85 2 – Based on midpoint of AXIS 2Q 2015 TBV range disclosed in 7/13/15 earnings preannouncement of $50.83 3 – Net present value of 100bps of additional dividend payments for five years, discounted at the weighted averaged coupon rate for the three series of preferred shares of 6.6% Decline in MergeCo Pro Forma TBVPS to PartnerRe (~$1.90) B A A B + + = Net Value Improvement to PartnerRe ~$0.60 C Impact of Improved Terms for Preferred Shareholders 3 (~$0.40) C
