Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On February 28, 2007, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Cooper Tire & Rubber Company, a Delaware corporation (the Company), adopted, effective as of February 28, 2007, certain amended and restated Bylaws for the Company (the Revised Bylaws).

Apart from non-substantive language and conforming changes and other technical and cross-reference edits, the Bylaws of the Company (which were last amended effective as of May 1, 2006) were amended and restated by the Company to implement a majority voting standard in connection with the stockholders' election of Directors of the Company. Such changes include:

- (i) eliminating references to the election of directors by a plurality vote, except in the case of a contested election;
- (ii) requiring stockholder-nominated director nominees to represent and agree that they will, if elected as a director of the Company, abide by the majority voting and resignation requirements (described below) contained in the Revised Bylaws and the Company's governance guidelines;
- (iii) requiring directors to be elected by the vote of the majority of the votes cast by stockholders at a meeting for the election of directors at which a quorum is present, except in the case of a contested election;
- (iv) requiring directors who are not reelected by a majority of votes to tender a resignation to the Company, which resignation will be considered by the Nominating and Governance Committee for acceptance;
- (v) requiring the Company to publicly disclose its decision whether to accept the director's resignation and, if applicable, the reasons for rejecting the tendered resignation;
- (vi) setting forth the consequences of the Company's acceptance or rejection of the tendered resignation; and
- (vii) allowing for conditional and irrevocable resignations.

The Company intends to make corresponding changes to its governance guidelines. The foregoing is a brief description of the material amendments to the Company's Bylaws and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Revised Bylaws. This description should be read in conjunction with the Company's Revised Bylaws, a copy of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 3.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
