MERGER PROPOSAL YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The board of directors of WesBanco, Inc., or WesBanco, and the board of directors of Oak Hill Financial, Inc., or Oak Hill, have agreed to a strategic combination of the two companies under the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated July 19, 2007, and referred to in this document as the merger agreement by and between WesBanco, WesBanco Bank, Inc., Oak Hill and Oak Hill Banks. At the effective time of the merger, Oak Hill will merge with and into WesBanco and Oak Hill Banks will become a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of WesBanco. If the merger is completed, we estimate that current WesBanco shareholders will own approximately 77.3% of the combined company on a fully diluted basis, and current Oak Hill shareholders will own approximately 22.7% of the combined company.

If you are a WesBanco shareholder:

Your WesBanco shares will be unaffected by the merger and the merger will be tax-free to you.

If you are an Oak Hill shareholder:

If the merger is completed, subject to the allocation procedures described in this document, you may elect to receive for each Oak Hill share that you own either (1) $38.00 in cash, without interest; or (2) 1.256 shares of WesBanco common stock. You may elect either of these options for all of your shares of Oak Hill common stock, or you may choose cash for some shares and WesBanco common stock for some shares. The exchange ratio is fixed and will not be adjusted to reflect stock price changes prior to closing of the merger. On July 19, 2007, which was the last full trading day prior to the public announcement of the merger, the closing price of WesBanco (NASDAQ: WSBC) common stock was $29.03, and on October 9, 2007, which was the last practicable trading day prior to the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the closing price of WesBanco common stock was $25.72. Assuming you received only WesBanco common stock for each share of Oak Hill common stock you owned, you would have received an equivalent value of $36.46 on July 19, 2007 and $32.30 on October 9, 2007.

Although you may elect whether to receive cash, stock or a combination of cash and stock for your Oak Hill shares, elections will be limited by the requirement that 90% of the total merger consideration will be in the form of WesBanco common stock. As a result, the allocation of cash and WesBanco common stock that you will receive will depend upon the elections of other Oak Hill shareholders. Also, the 1.256 exchange ratio is subject to adjustment in certain situations where the average closing price of WesBanco common stock during a specified period before the effective time of the merger is less than $23.22 per share and WesBanco common stock underperforms an index of financial institution stocks by a specified amount.

The merger is intended to be tax-free with respect to WesBanco common shares you receive. If you receive cash in the merger you may have to recognize income or gain for tax purposes.

Whether you are a WesBanco or an Oak Hill shareholder, we need your vote to complete the merger. As of the record date, WesBanco officers and directors owned approximately 1,260,659 shares of WesBanco common stock, or approximately 6.1% of the outstanding shares of WesBanco common stock entitled to be voted at the WesBanco. In addition, certain officers and directors of Oak Hill have entered into voting agreements with WesBanco wherein the officer or director has agreed to vote their Oak Hill shares in favor of the merger. See Other Material Agreements Relating to the Merger Voting Agreements. As of the record date, the shares included in these voting agreements constituted approximately 22.4% of the outstanding shares of Oak Hill. WesBanco will hold a special shareholders meeting on November 16, 2007 to vote on the merger and the related issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger. Oak Hill will hold a special shareholders meeting to vote on the merger on November 16, 2007.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus is dated October 10, 2007, and is first being mailed to the shareholders of WesBanco and Oak Hill on or about October 12, 2007.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

The following are some questions that you, as a shareholder of WesBanco or Oak Hill, may have regarding the merger and the other matters being considered at the shareholders' meetings and the answers to those questions. WesBanco and Oak Hill recommend that you read carefully the remainder of this document because the information in this section does not provide all the information that might be important to you with respect to the merger and the other matters being considered at the shareholders' meetings. Additional important information is also contained in the appendices to, and the documents incorporated by reference into, this document.

Q: Why are you receiving this document?

A: WesBanco and Oak Hill have agreed to the combination of Oak Hill with WesBanco under the terms of a merger agreement that is described in this document. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this document as Annex A. In order to complete the merger, both WesBanco and Oak Hill shareholders must vote to approve these respective proposals:

WesBanco shareholders must adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the related issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger. Pursuant to the Marketplace Rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market, shareholder approval is required where the issuance may exceed 20% of the outstanding shares of WesBanco common stock prior to the merger.

Oak Hill shareholders must adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger.

WesBanco and Oak Hill will hold separate shareholders' meetings to obtain these approvals. This document contains important information about the merger and the meetings of the respective shareholders of WesBanco and Oak Hill, and you should read it carefully. The enclosed voting materials allow you to vote your shares without attending your respective shareholders' meeting.

Your vote is important. We encourage you to vote as soon as possible.

Q: Why is your vote important?

A: First, both WesBanco and Oak Hill, in order to conduct a lawful meeting, must obtain a quorum—the presence in person or proxy of a majority of their outstanding shares. Also, under the West Virginia Business Corporation Act, which applies to WesBanco, the merger agreement and related issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger must be approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of WesBanco common stock entitled to vote. Under the Ohio General Corporation Law, which applies to Oak Hill, the merger agreement must be approved by the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock entitled to vote. Accordingly, if a WesBanco or Oak Hill shareholder fails to vote, or if a WesBanco or Oak Hill shareholder abstains, that will make it more difficult for WesBanco and Oak Hill to obtain the approval of the merger agreement.

Because approval of the merger of WesBanco and Oak Hill requires the approval of a majority of the outstanding shares of WesBanco and the approval of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Oak Hill, your failure to vote or your abstention on the merger will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of the merger.

Q: When and where will the shareholders' meetings be held?

A: The WesBanco special meeting will be held in the 7th Floor Board Room of WesBanco's offices located at One Bank Plaza, Wheeling, West Virginia, 26003, on November 16, 2007, at 1:00 p.m., E.S.T. The Oak Hill special meeting will be held at the Ohio State University Extension South District Office, 17 Standpipe Road, Jackson, Ohio, 45640, on November 16, 2007 at 1:00 p.m., E.S.T.

Table of Contents

Q: How do you vote?

A: If you are a shareholder of record of WesBanco as of the record date for the WesBanco special meeting or a shareholder of record of Oak Hill as of the record date for the Oak Hill special meeting, you may vote in person by attending your shareholders' meeting or, to ensure your shares are represented at the meeting, you may vote by:

accessing the Internet website specified on your proxy card;

calling the toll-free number specified on your proxy card; or signing and returning the enclosed proxy card in the postage-paid envelope provided.

If you hold either WesBanco or Oak Hill shares in the name of a bank or broker, please see the discussion below.

Q: What happens if you fail to vote or you abstain from voting?

A: If you are a WesBanco shareholder and fail to vote or vote to abstain with respect to the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the related issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger, it will have the same effect as a vote Against the proposal.

If you are an Oak Hill shareholder and fail to vote or vote to abstain with respect to the proposal for adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger, it will have the same effect as a vote Against the proposal.

Q: Your shares are held in your broker's name (also known as street name). How do you vote those shares?

A: Copies of this joint proxy statement/prospectus were sent to you by your broker. The broker will request instructions from you as to how you want your shares to be voted, and the broker will vote your shares according to your instructions.

Q: If your shares are held in street name by a broker, won't your broker vote those shares for you?

A: Not unless you provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your street name shares. Without instructions from you, your broker will not be permitted to vote them, in the case of Oak Hill shareholders, on the adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger by Oak Hill shareholders, or, in the case of WesBanco shareholders, on the adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger and the related issuance of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger. You should therefore be sure to provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your shares.

Please check the voting form used by your broker to see if it offers telephone or Internet submission of proxies.

Q: What if you fail to instruct your broker?

A: If you hold your shares in street name and fail to instruct your broker to vote your shares and the broker submits an unvoted proxy, the resulting broker non-vote will be counted toward a quorum at the special meeting, but it will otherwise have the consequences of a vote Against adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger agreement, and, for WesBanco shareholders, it also will have the consequences of a vote Against the issuance of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger. See What happens if you fail to vote or you abstain from voting?

Q: What happens if you return your proxy card without indicating how to vote?

A: If you return your signed proxy card without indicating how to vote on any particular proposal, the WesBanco or Oak Hill stock represented by your proxy will be voted on each proposal presented at your shareholders' meeting in accordance with the board's recommendation on that proposal.

Q: Can you change your vote after you have delivered your proxy card?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at your meeting. You can do this in any of the three following ways:

by sending a written notice to the corporate secretary of WesBanco or Oak Hill, as appropriate, in time to be received before your shareholders' meeting stating that you would like to revoke your proxy;

by completing, signing and dating another proxy card bearing a later date and returning it by mail in time to be received before your special meeting or, if you submitted your proxy through the Internet or by telephone, you can change your vote by submitting a new, valid proxy by proxy card, Internet or telephone, with a later date, in which case your later submitted proxy will be recorded and your earlier proxy revoked; or if you are a holder of record, by attending the appropriate special meeting and voting in person.

If your shares are held in an account at a broker or bank, you should contact your broker or bank to change your vote.

Q: What will Oak Hill shareholders receive as a result of the merger?

A: At your election, for each share of Oak Hill common stock you own you will receive either:

$38.00 in cash, without interest, or

1.256 shares of WesBanco common stock.

You may elect either of these options for all of your shares of Oak Hill common stock, or you may choose cash for some shares and WesBanco common stock for some shares. Your election is subject to certain limitations and possible adjustment in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement as discussed below. Although you will be able to elect to receive either cash, WesBanco common stock or the combination of cash and WesBanco common stock described above in exchange for your shares of Oak Hill common stock, elections will be limited by the requirement that of the total merger consideration, 90% must be in the form of WesBanco common stock and 10% must be cash. As a result, the form of consideration that you receive will depend in part on the elections of other Oak Hill shareholders. For example, if you elect cash for all or a portion of your Oak Hill shares and more than 10% of Oak Hill's shareholders elect to receive cash, your election will be prorated and you will receive a combination of cash and stock. A similar result would occur if you elected to receive all WesBanco stock and more than 90% of Oak Hill's shareholders elected WesBanco common stock in that case, you also would receive a combination of cash and stock. Also, if you elect a combination of cash and stock, the elections of other Oak Hill shareholders could result in your receiving cash and stock in different proportions than you request. Also, the 1.256 exchange ratio is subject to adjustment in certain situations where the average closing price of WesBanco common stock during a specified period before the effective time of the merger is less than $23.22 per share and WesBanco common stock underperforms an index of financial institution stocks by a specified amount.

Oak Hill shareholders will not receive any fractional shares of WesBanco common stock. Instead, they will receive cash, without interest, for any fractional share of WesBanco common stock they might otherwise have been entitled to receive based on fractional share interest multiplied by $38.00.

Please see page 3 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus for a full description of the all cash, all stock and mixed consideration options and shareholder election procedures.

Q: What must Oak Hill shareholders do to elect to receive cash, stock or a combination of both?

A: A form for making an election will be sent to you separately at least thirty (30) calendar days prior to the anticipated effective time of the merger. For your election to be effective, your properly completed election form, along with your Oak Hill stock certificates or an appropriate guarantee of delivery, must be sent to and received by the exchange agent no later than the election deadline specified in the election form. Do not send your stock certificates to Oak Hill, WesBanco or WesBanco's exchange agent until you receive the transmittal materials with instructions from the exchange agent. If you do not make a timely election you will be deemed to have made no election.

Q: Will shareholders have dissenters or appraisal rights?

A: WesBanco shareholders will not have any right to dissent from the merger and demand an appraisal of their shares. Oak Hill shareholders may dissent from the merger and demand an appraisal of their shares in accordance with Ohio law. See The Merger Dissenter's Rights beginning on page 49, and Annex D, which is a copy of §1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law that governs a dissenting shareholder's demand for payment of the fair cash value of his or her shares.

Q: What do you need to do now?

A: After you carefully read and consider the information contained in and incorporated by reference into this document, please respond as soon as possible by completing, signing and dating your proxy card and returning it in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope, or, by submitting your proxy or voting instructions by telephone or through the Internet so that your shares will be represented and voted at your shareholders' meeting. This will not prevent you from attending and voting in person; however in order to assist us in tabulating the votes at your shareholders' meeting, we encourage you to vote by proxy even if you do plan to attend your meeting in person.

Q: Should you send in your Oak Hill stock certificates now?

A: No. You should not send in your Oak Hill stock certificates until you receive an election form. If you are a WesBanco shareholder, you are not required to take any action with respect to your WesBanco stock certificates.

Q: Who can help answer any other questions that you might have?

The merger agreement is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. To fully understand the merger and for a more complete description of the terms of the merger, you should carefully read this entire document, including the exhibits, and the documents we refer you to under the caption Where You Can Find More Information About WesBanco and Oak Hill beginning on page 73.*

The Merger (See page 28)

We propose a merger of Oak Hill with and into WesBanco. If the merger is consummated, WesBanco will continue as the surviving corporation. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of WesBanco will continue as the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the surviving corporation until amended or repealed in accordance with applicable law. The officers and directors of WesBanco will continue as the officers and directors of the surviving corporation, except that four of the current directors of Oak Hill will be appointed to the board of directors of WesBanco.

Oak Hill Financial, Inc.
14621 State Route 93
Jackson, Ohio 45640
(740) 286-3283

Oak Hill is a bank holding company headquartered in Jackson, Ohio. Oak Hill was incorporated in 1981 under Ohio law for the purpose of becoming the holding company for Oak Hill Banks, an Ohio state-chartered bank that was established in 1902. Oak Hill Banks operates 36 banking offices and one loan office in central and southern Ohio. Through Oak Hill Banks, Oak Hill is engaged in the business of commercial banking and other permissible activities closely related to banking. At June 30, 2007, Oak Hill had total assets of $1.3 billion, total deposits of $958.2 million and shareholders' equity of $94.8 million.

What Oak Hill Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger (See page 28)

If the merger is completed, for each share of Oak Hill common stock that you own you will receive, at your election, either 1.256 shares of WesBanco common stock or $38.00 in cash, without interest, subject to certain limitations and possible adjustment in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement as discussed below, unless, in each case, you properly perfect your dissenter's rights under Ohio law. You may elect to exchange your Oak Hill common stock for cash, WesBanco common stock or a combination of both. Instead of fractional shares of WesBanco, you will receive a check for any fractional shares based on a value of $38.00 per whole share of WesBanco common stock. You will not receive separate consideration for the preferred stock purchase rights associated with the Oak Hill common stock issued pursuant to the Oak Hill Rights Agreement dated as of January 23, 1998, as amended, as such purchase rights will expire immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

The total amount of cash and WesBanco common stock that will be paid to all Oak Hill shareholders in the merger is fixed by a requirement that 90% of the total number of outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock be exchanged for WesBanco common stock and that 10% of the total number of outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock be exchanged for cash. Accordingly, your election may be subject to pro-ration, which means that you may not receive all of the consideration in the form that you select. See The Merger What Oak Hill Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger beginning on page 28 for a detailed discussion of the pro-ration procedures that may be used.

The 1.256 exchange ratio is subject to adjustment if certain termination provisions, based on the market price of WesBanco's common stock, have been triggered and the Oak Hill board of directors elects to terminate the merger agreement. Oak Hill will have a right to terminate the merger agreement if the average closing price of WesBanco common stock during a specified period before the effective time of the merger is less than $23.22 per share and WesBanco common stock underperforms an index of financial institution stocks by a specified amount. However, Oak Hill would not have the right to terminate the merger agreement if WesBanco were to elect to make a compensating adjustment in the exchange ratio. See The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 59. The exchange ratio is also subject to adjustment if WesBanco completes certain corporate transactions, such as a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or other like changes in WesBanco's capitalization.

Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation to Shareholders (See pages 33 and 40)

WesBanco. The WesBanco board of directors believes that the terms of the merger agreement and the merger are fair to, and in the best interests of, WesBanco and its shareholders. In reaching its decision, the WesBanco board considered several factors, including the enhancement of shareholder value and the ability of WesBanco to compete in the future financial services industry. The WesBanco board of directors believes that the financial services industry is becoming increasingly competitive, and that the merger will provide WesBanco's shareholders with substantial benefits. WesBanco's board of directors believes that the merger is fair to you and in your best interest and unanimously recommends that you vote for the adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger and the related issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger.

Opinions of Financial Advisors (See pages 34 and 41)

WesBanco. WesBanco asked its financial advisor, Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW), for advice on the fairness to WesBanco of the consideration that WesBanco is offering in the merger. KBW rendered a written opinion to the WesBanco board of directors that, as of July 19, 2007, and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the merger consideration to be paid by WesBanco pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to WesBanco. See The Merger Opinion of WesBanco's Financial Advisor beginning on page 41. This opinion, which is attached to this document as Annex B, sets forth the procedures followed, assumptions made and limitation on the review undertaken by KBW in providing its opinion. Please read this opinion carefully and in its entirety.

Oak Hill. Stifel, Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated (Stifel Nicolaus) delivered its opinion to the Board of Directors (the Board) of Oak Hill on July 19, 2007 that, based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the Merger Consideration (as defined in Stifel Nicolaus opinion letter) to be received by the holders of shares of Oak Hill s common stock (other than dissenting shares and certain other parties as set forth in Stifel Nicolaus opinion letter) in the merger pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to such holders, from a financial point of view as of that date.

Table of Contents

The full text of the written opinion of Stifel Nicolaus dated July 19, 2007, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Stifel Nicolaus has provided an updated opinion as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Oak Hill's shareholders should read the opinion in its entirety. Stifel Nicolaus provided its opinion for the information and assistance of the Board of Oak Hill in connection with the Board's consideration of the merger. Stifel Nicolaus' opinion is not a recommendation as to how any Oak Hill shareholder should vote with respect to the merger. See The Merger Opinion of Oak Hill's Financial Advisor beginning on page 34 for a description of Stifel Nicolaus' fairness opinion and a summary of the analyses performed by Stifel in connection with its opinion.

How to Choose Stock or Cash for your Oak Hill Shares (See page 30)

If you are an Oak Hill shareholder, you will receive an election form from the exchange agent on which you may elect to receive cash, WesBanco common stock or a combination of stock and cash in exchange for your shares of Oak Hill common stock. You may also make no election as to whether you receive cash or WesBanco common stock as payment for your Oak Hill shares. Your choice will be honored to the extent possible, but because of the overall limitations on the number of Oak Hill shares that will be exchanged for cash and the number of Oak Hill shares that will be exchanged for WesBanco common stock, whether you receive the amount of cash and/or stock that you request will depend on what other Oak Hill shareholders elect to receive as consideration for their shares. Therefore, you may not receive exactly the form of consideration that you elect. We make no recommendation as to whether you should elect to receive cash or stock in the merger. You must make your own decision with respect to your election. See The Merger Consideration Election Procedures and Exchange of Oak Hill Certificates beginning on page 30. YOU SHOULD SAVE THIS JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS SO YOU MAY CONSULT IT IN MAKING YOUR ELECTION WHEN YOU RECEIVE YOUR ELECTION FORM.

Treatment of Oak Hill Stock Options (See page 31)

Under the merger agreement, holders of options to purchase Oak Hill common stock may select how their options are treated in the merger. Option holders may choose to hold their stock options and have them converted into options to purchase shares of WesBanco common stock at the effective time of the merger or they may choose to have the options terminated and, in exchange, receive cash in an amount equal to the difference between $38.00 and the exercise price of the terminated stock options. See The Merger Treatment of Oak Hill Stock Options beginning on page 31.

of Oak Hill common stock outstanding. You may cast one vote for each share of Oak Hill common stock owned by you on the record date. You can vote your shares by telephone, the Internet or by returning the enclosed proxy by mail, or you may vote in person by appearing at the special meeting. You can change your vote as late as the date of the special meeting either by submitting a later-dated proxy by telephone, the Internet or by mail, that is received prior to the special meeting or by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

Vote Required (See pages 24 and 26)

WesBanco. The holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of WesBanco must vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger and the related issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger. As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of WesBanco controlled approximately 6.1% of the outstanding shares of WesBanco common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Oak Hill. The holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Oak Hill must vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the related merger. As of the record date, the directors and executive officers of Oak Hill controlled approximately 28.4% of the outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting. In addition, certain officers and directors of Oak Hill have entered into voting agreements with WesBanco wherein the officer or director has agreed to vote their Oak Hill shares in favor of the merger. See Other Material Agreements Relating to the Merger Voting Agreements.

Voting Agreements (See page 63)

In connection with the merger agreement, WesBanco entered into voting agreements with certain Oak Hill directors and officers, consisting of John D. Kidd, D. Bruce Knox, Neil S. Strawser, Donald P. Wood and Evan E. Davis, a director emeritus of Oak Hill. In the voting agreements, each of these shareholders has generally agreed to vote, and granted WesBanco an irrevocable proxy and power of attorney to vote, all of his shares of Oak Hill common stock in favor of the merger. See Other Material Agreements Relating to the Merger Voting Agreements.

Quorum; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes (See pages 24 and 26)

A quorum must be present to transact business at each of the special meetings. If you submit a properly executed proxy card, even if you abstain from voting, your shares will be counted for purposes of calculating whether a quorum is present at each of the special meetings. A quorum at each special meeting requires the presence, whether in person or by proxy, of a majority of the voting shares issued and outstanding as of the record date and entitled to vote at each special meeting.

Shares held in street name by brokers and other record holders but not voted at each special meeting because such brokers have not received voting instructions from the underlying owners are called broker non-votes. An abstention occurs when a shareholder attends a meeting, either in person or by proxy, but abstains from voting. If no instruction as to how to vote is given (including an instruction to abstain) in an executed, duly returned and not revoked proxy, the proxy will be voted for adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger, in the case of the Oak Hill special meeting, and for adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger and the related issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger, in the case of the WesBanco special meeting.

At each special meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted in determining whether a quorum is present. In addition, abstentions, broker non-votes and a complete failure to vote will have the effect of a vote against adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger, in the case of the Oak Hill special meeting, and against adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger and the related issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger, in the case of the WesBanco special meeting.

Oak Hill s Dissenter s Rights (See page 49)

Oak Hill shareholders have the right to demand fair cash value for their shares of Oak Hill common stock. This means that if they do not vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger, make a written demand to Oak Hill for payment of the fair cash value of their shares and strictly comply with the applicable statutory procedures, they will be entitled to receive a judicial determination of the fair cash value of their Oak Hill shares and to receive payment of this fair cash value, together with an equitable rate of interest. See The Merger Dissenter's Rights beginning on page 49, and Annex D, which is a copy of § 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law that governs a dissenting shareholder's demand for payment of the fair cash value of his or her shares.

Ownership of WesBanco after the Merger

WesBanco will issue a maximum of approximately 6,473,692 shares of its common stock to Oak Hill shareholders in connection with the merger, based on the number of shares of Oak Hill and options to purchase shares of Oak Hill outstanding on the record date, which, assuming that WesBanco issues that maximum number of shares, would constitute approximately 23.9% of the outstanding stock of WesBanco after the merger, based on the number of shares of WesBanco common stock outstanding on October 8, 2007. The shares will be listed for trading on the NASDAQ Global Select Market. WesBanco common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol WSBC.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences (See page 51)

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Tax Code). It is a condition to the completion of the merger, unless waived by the parties in writing, that each of WesBanco and Oak Hill receives a legal opinion from their respective tax counsel to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization under the Tax Code. If the merger qualifies as a reorganization, the tax consequences to a holder of shares of Oak Hill common stock will generally depend on whether such shareholder receives only shares of WesBanco common stock, only cash, or a combination of WesBanco common stock and cash in exchange for its Oak Hill common stock. If the merger does not qualify as a reorganization, a holder of Oak Hill common stock generally will be required to recognize gain or loss measured by the difference between the fair market value of the WesBanco common stock plus cash received by such holder in the transaction and the adjusted tax basis in its Oak Hill common stock surrendered in the transaction.

The actual federal income tax consequences of the transaction to you will not be ascertainable at the time you make your election because we will not know to what extent the allocation and pro-ration procedures will apply to your election. You should read the summary under the caption The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 51 for a more complete discussion of the federal income tax consequences of the merger.

The United States federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of Oak Hill common stock. Your tax consequences will depend on your individual situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor concerning all federal, state, local, gift, and foreign tax consequences of the merger that may apply to you.

Certain Differences in the Rights of Shareholders (See page 66)

Oak Hill is an Ohio corporation governed by Ohio law and WesBanco is a West Virginia corporation governed by West Virginia law. Once the merger occurs, Oak Hill shareholders who receive WesBanco common stock in the merger will become shareholders of WesBanco and their rights will be governed by West Virginia law and WesBanco's corporate governing documents rather than Ohio law and Oak Hill's governing documents. Because of the differences between the laws of the states of Ohio and West Virginia and the respective corporate governing documents of Oak Hill and WesBanco, Oak Hill's shareholders' rights as shareholders will change as a result of the merger. See Comparative Rights of Shareholders beginning on page 66.

Conditions to the Merger (See page 58)

Completion of the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions specified in the merger agreement, including, among others, those listed below:

the adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger by the shareholders of Oak Hill;

Table of Contents

the adoption of the merger agreement and the approval of the merger and related issuance of the shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger by the shareholders of WesBanco;

the absence of a law or injunction prohibiting the merger; receipt by Oak Hill and WesBanco of all necessary approvals of governmental and regulatory authorities; and the receipt of an opinion from each party's tax counsel, dated as of the closing date of the merger, to the effect that for federal income tax purposes the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (See page 59)

The parties can agree to terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to completion of the merger, and either Oak Hill or WesBanco can terminate the merger agreement if, among other reasons, any of the following occurs:

the merger agreement is not adopted by the Oak Hill shareholders;

the merger agreement is not adopted by the WesBanco shareholders;

the merger is not completed by March 31, 2008;

a court or other governmental authority permanently prohibits the merger; or the other party breaches or materially fails to comply with any of its representations or warranties or obligations under the merger agreement.

Oak Hill will also have the right to terminate the merger agreement if the average closing price of WesBanco common stock during a specified period before the effective time of the merger is less than $23.22 and WesBanco common stock underperforms an index of financial institutions by fifteen percent, unless WesBanco were to elect to make a compensating adjustment to the exchange ratio. Subject to certain conditions, Oak Hill may also terminate the merger agreement in order to enter into an agreement with respect to an unsolicited proposal that if consummated would be reasonably likely to result in a transaction more favorable to Oak Hill's shareholders from a financial point of view, provided that Oak Hill pays the termination fee described below.

Termination Fee (See page 62)

The merger agreement provides that in certain circumstances, described more fully beginning on page 62, Oak Hill will be required to pay a termination fee of $6 million to WesBanco.

We May Amend the Terms of the Merger and Waive Rights Under the Merger Agreement (See page 63)

We may jointly amend the terms of the merger agreement, and either party may waive its right to require the other party to adhere to any of those terms, to the extent legally permissible. However, after the approval of the merger agreement by the respective shareholders of WesBanco or Oak Hill, no amendment or waiver that reduces or changes the form of the consideration that will be received by Oak Hill shareholders may be accomplished without the further approval of such shareholders.

Effective Date of the Merger

We expect the merger to be completed as soon as practicable after all regulatory approvals and shareholder approval have been received. We expect this to occur on or about November 30, 2007.

Regulatory Approvals (See page 48)

In addition to your approval, the merger is subject to the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, which we refer to as the Federal Reserve Board, and the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions. If the Federal Reserve Board approves the merger, the United States Department of Justice has 15 days in which to challenge the approval on antitrust grounds. We cannot complete the merger until after the 15-day waiting period. These governmental authorities may impose conditions for granting approval of the merger.

Table of Contents

Oak Hill and WesBanco have filed all required applications for regulatory review and approval and notices in connection with the merger. Neither Oak Hill nor WesBanco can offer any assurance that all necessary approvals will be obtained or the date when any such approvals will be obtained.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger (See page 46)

Some of the directors and officers of Oak Hill have financial and other interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as shareholders of Oak Hill. These interests include:

Certain officers of Oak Hill have entered into new employment agreements with WesBanco's banking subsidiary, which become effective as of the closing of the merger. These agreements provide for the payment of additional payments and benefits to these officers and contain covenants not to compete;

Certain officers of Oak Hill participate in Oak Hill's Key Executive Change in Control Plan. Under this plan and as a result of the merger, these officers will receive lump sum payments of, in aggregate, approximately $1.14 million; and WesBanco has agreed that it will maintain a policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage for the benefit of Oak Hill's directors and officers serving at the effective time of the merger for six years following completion of the merger.

The Oak Hill and WesBanco boards of directors knew about these additional interests, and considered them, when each board adopted the merger agreement. See The Merger - Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger beginning on page 46.

Ownership of Common Stock by Directors, Executive Officers and Affiliates (See pages 24 and 26)

WesBanco. As of the record date, the directors, executive officers and affiliates of WesBanco owned or controlled the vote of 3,033,644 shares of WesBanco common stock constituting approximately 14.7% of the outstanding shares of WesBanco common stock. The holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of WesBanco must vote in favor of the merger agreement in order to approve the merger agreement, assuming a quorum is present. See The Special Meeting of WesBanco Shareholders - Beneficial Ownership of WesBanco Officers, Directors and Affiliates beginning on page 24.

Oak Hill. As of the record date, the directors, executive officers and affiliates of Oak Hill owned or controlled the vote of 1,522,849 shares of Oak Hill common stock constituting approximately 28.4% of the outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock. In addition, certain officers and directors of Oak Hill have entered into voting agreements with WesBanco wherein the officer or director has agreed to vote their Oak Hill shares in favor of the merger. See Other Material Agreements Relating to the Merger - Voting Agreements. The holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Oak Hill must vote in favor of the merger agreement in order to approve the merger agreement, assuming a quorum is present. See The Special Meeting of Oak Hill Shareholders - Beneficial Ownership of Oak Hill Officers, Directors and Affiliates beginning on page 26.

Our Recommendations (See pages 25 and 27)

WesBanco shareholders. The WesBanco board of directors believes that the merger is fair to WesBanco shareholders and in their best interests. Accordingly, it has unanimously recommended that WesBanco shareholders vote FOR adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger of Oak Hill and WesBanco and the related issuance of WesBanco common stock pursuant to the merger at the WesBanco special meeting.

Oak Hill shareholders. The Oak Hill board of directors determined that the merger is fair to Oak Hill shareholders and in their best interests. Accordingly, it has unanimously recommended that Oak Hill shareholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger with WesBanco. See The Merger Background of the Merger at page 31. In addition, certain officers and directors of Oak Hill have entered into voting agreements with WesBanco wherein the officer or director has agreed to vote their Oak Hill shares in favor of the merger. See Other Material Agreements Relating to the Merger Voting Agreements.

Table of ContentsCOMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA
(Unaudited)

The following tables set forth the basic earnings, diluted earnings, cash dividends and book value per common share data for Oak Hill and WesBanco on a historical basis, on a pro forma combined basis, and on a per equivalent Oak Hill share basis, as of or for the six month period ending June 30, 2007, and as of or for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006.

The pro forma data was derived by combining the historical consolidated financial information of WesBanco and Oak Hill using the purchase method of accounting for business combinations and assumes the transaction is completed as contemplated.

The Per Equivalent Oak Hill Share information shows the effect of the merger from the perspective of an owner of Oak Hill common stock. The Per Equivalent Oak Hill Share information was computed by multiplying the pro forma information by an exchange ratio of 1.256 so that the per share amounts are equated to the respective amounts for one share of Oak Hill common stock. This represents the WesBanco common stock Oak Hill shareholders will receive for each share of Oak Hill common stock they exchange for WesBanco common stock. The Per Equivalent Oak Hill Share information is equated to the value for each share of Oak Hill common stock being acquired. However, under the merger agreement elections will be limited by a requirement that 90% of the total number of outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock be exchanged for WesBanco common stock. Some shareholders may elect all cash for some or all of their shares equal to $38.00 per share. Oak Hill shareholders may also elect to exchange some of their shares for cash and some of their shares for WesBanco common stock. Therefore, the form of actual consideration Oak Hill shareholders receive will depend in part on the elections of other Oak Hill shareholders. For more information, see The Merger What Oak Hill Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger beginning on page 28.

You should read the information below together with the historical financial statements and related notes and other information included and incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The unaudited pro forma combined data below is for illustrative purposes only. The companies may have performed differently had they always been combined. You should not rely on this information as being indicative of the historical results that would have been achieved had the companies always been combined or the future results that the combined company will experience after the merger, nor should you rely on the six-month information as being indicative of results expected for the entire year or for any future interim period.

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is based on the historical financial statements of WesBanco and Oak Hill, and has been prepared to illustrate the financial effect of WesBanco's merger with Oak Hill. The pro forma financial information should be read in conjunction with both WesBanco's and Oak Hill's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2007, and Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, which are incorporated by reference herein.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information set forth below assumes that the merger with Oak Hill was consummated on January 1, 2006 for purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of income and June 30, 2007 for purposes of the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet and gives effect to those mergers as if it had been effective during the entire period presented.

These unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements reflect the Oak Hill merger based upon estimated preliminary purchase accounting adjustments. Actual adjustments will be made as of the effective date of the merger and, therefore, may differ from those reflected in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, it is anticipated that Oak Hill will sell approximately, $55.1 million of loans and $2.4 million of real estate owned prior to the consummation of the merger. The impact of these transactions has been included in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements.

Total merger-related costs, which approximate $12.0 million, include direct acquisition costs of $10.0 million recorded on the unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet. The remaining $2.0 million represents non-recurring merger-related expenses expected to occur after the date of the acquisition and are not included in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements.

Estimates of cost savings are not included in the pro forma analysis. Estimated cost savings associated with the merger are projected to approximate 22% of Oak Hill's estimated pre-tax operating expenses and are expected to be realized beginning in 2008 and fully in 2009. These estimates may differ from the actual cost savings achieved in the merger.

Table of ContentsNotes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information*Note A Basis of Pro Forma Presentation

On July 19, 2007, WesBanco entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (Merger Agreement) with Oak Hill. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, WesBanco agreed to acquire Oak Hill for consideration consisting of a combination of its common stock and cash valued at approximately $195 million. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, WesBanco will exchange a combination of its common stock and cash for Oak Hill common stock. Oak Hill shareholders will be entitled to receive either 1.256 shares of WesBanco common stock or cash in the amount of $38.00 per share for each share of Oak Hill common stock held subject to an overall allocation of 90% stock and 10% cash in the exchange. Outstanding stock options are not subject to this allocation requirement and are assumed to receive cash. Common stock received by Oak Hill shareholders is anticipated to qualify as a tax-free exchange.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information about WesBanco's financial condition and results of operations, including per share data are presented after giving effect to the merger. The pro forma financial information assumes that the merger with Oak Hill was consummated on January 1, 2006 for purposes of the pro forma statements of income and on June 30, 2007 for purposes of the pro forma balance sheet and gives effect to the merger as if it had been effective during the entire period presented.

The merger will be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting; accordingly, WesBanco's cost to acquire Oak Hill will be allocated to the assets acquired (including identifiable intangible assets) and liabilities assumed from Oak Hill at their respective fair values on the date the merger is completed.

The pro forma financial information includes estimated adjustments to record the assets and liabilities of Oak Hill at their respective fair values and represents management's estimates based on available information. The pro forma adjustments included herein may be revised as additional information becomes available and as additional analyses are performed. The final allocation of the purchase price will be determined after the merger is completed and after completion of the final analyses to determine the fair values on the date the merger is completed.

Funding for the merger transaction is included in the pro forma adjustments as follows (in thousands):

Issuance of common stock	$ 162,316
Proceeds from junior subordinated debt	25,780
Cash on hand	7,000
Proceeds from revolving line of credit	3,000
Income tax receivable	(2,714)
 Total purchase price	 $ 195,382

Interest expense of $1.0 million and $2.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2007, and for the year ended December 31, 2006, respectively, related to the additional borrowings are also included in the pro forma adjustments.

The ability of WesBanco to execute a junior subordinated offering and resulting interest expense from such offering will depend largely on the market conditions at the time of such offering and could differ materially from the assumptions included in these pro forma financial statements. After consideration of the above, other forms of financing, including the parent company line of credit, may be considered to complete the financing of the acquisition.

Note B Loan and Other Real Estate Owned Sale Transaction

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, it is anticipated that approximately $55.1 million of loans and $2.4 million of real estate owned will be sold prior to the closing date. These transactions have been included in the pro forma adjustments and includes a reduction of the allowance for loan losses of $4.6 million, an increase in deferred tax assets of $2.4 million and an increase in available for sale investment securities for the estimated proceeds of $46.0 million.

The pro forma statements of income for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and for the year ended December 31, 2006 include pro forma adjustments reducing interest income from loans, as a result of the loan sales, by $2.2 million and $4.0 million respectively. Additionally, as a result of the investment of the proceeds from the loan sales and sales of other real estate owned, interest income from investments was increased by $1.3 million and $2.7 million respectively. Tax expense related to these adjustments is calculated at a 35% tax rate.

Due to recent changes in the collateralized loan obligation markets, the assumed marketability and price received for the loans and real estate owned planned to be sold in this transaction may result in a loss greater than that estimated for purposes of these pro forma financial statements. In addition, if some of these loans cannot be sold, the loans and related reserves may be accounted for under Statement of Position 03-3 Accounting for Certain Loans or Debt Securities Acquired in a Transfer, which results in recognition of lower anticipated cash flows than due under the loan agreement and a reduction in the reserve, or the loans may be classified as loans held for sale.

Note C Purchase Accounting Adjustments

The pro forma adjustments include the purchase accounting entries to record the merger transaction. The excess of the purchase price over the fair value of the net assets acquired, net of deferred taxes, is allocated to goodwill. Estimated fair value adjustments included in the pro forma financial statements are based upon available information, and certain assumptions considered reasonable, and may be revised as additional information becomes available. For purposes of this pro forma analysis, fair value adjustments, other than goodwill, are amortized/accreted on a straight-line basis over their estimated average remaining lives. When the actual amortization/accretion is recorded for periods following the merger closing, the effective yield method will be used where appropriate. Tax expense related to the net fair value adjustments is calculated at a 35% tax rate.

Included in the pro forma adjustments is an allocation of the purchase price to core deposit intangibles of $14.5 million. The core deposit intangible is separate from goodwill and amortized on a straight-line basis over its estimated average remaining life. When the actual amortization is recorded for periods following the merger closing, the sum of the years digits method will be used. Impairment testing of core deposit intangibles is done whenever events or circumstances indicate that their carrying amount may not be recoverable. Goodwill included in the pro forma adjustments totaling $112.7 million, which is not subject to amortization, will be evaluated annually for possible impairment, or if an event occurs or circumstances change which would require the goodwill to be tested for impairment at an interim date.

Note E Merger Related Costs

Direct acquisition costs of approximately $10.0 million are included in the pro forma adjustments. It is anticipated for pro forma purposes that the direct acquisition costs will be paid prior to the closing of the merger. Certain additional merger related expenses of approximately $2.0 million are not included in the pro forma statements of income since they will be recorded in the combined statements of income as they are incurred after completion of the merger. Inclusion of these expenses in the pro forma statements of income is not indicative of what the historical results of the combined company would have been had the companies been actually combined during the periods presented. Merger related cost estimates may differ from the actual costs incurred in the merger.

Table of ContentsNotes to the Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information (Continued)*Note F Projected Amortization/Accretion of Purchase Accounting Adjustments

The following table sets forth an estimate of the expected effects of the projected aggregate purchase accounting adjustments reflected in the pro forma financial statements on the future pre-tax net income of WesBanco after the merger with Oak Hill:

	2007	Accretion (Amortization) for the Years Ended December 31,				2011

Time deposits	(138)
Borrowings	(164)	(164)	(164)	(63)	(63)
Increase (decrease) in pre-tax net income	$ 2,011	$ 1,978	$ 1,848	$ (591)	$ (675)

The actual effect of purchase accounting adjustments on the future pre-tax income of WesBanco will differ from these estimates based on the closing date estimates of fair values and the use of different amortization methods than assumed above.

(1) The amortization of customer/deposit base is net of the amortization that would have been recorded by Oak Hill.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information included in and incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters addressed in Forward-Looking Statements, WesBanco's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, and Oak Hill's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, you should carefully consider the risk factors in those 10-K filings and the following risk factors before deciding whether to vote to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and, in the case of the WesBanco shareholders, the related issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger. For further discussion of these and other risk factors, please see WesBanco's and Oak Hill's periodic reports and other documents incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information About WesBanco and Oak Hill beginning on page 73.

Because the market price of WesBanco common stock may fluctuate, Oak Hill shareholders cannot be certain of the market value of the WesBanco common stock that they will receive in the merger.

The merger agreement requires that 90% of the total number of outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock be exchanged for WesBanco common stock. Accordingly, upon completion of the merger, many Oak Hill shareholders will have the right to receive WesBanco common stock at an exchange ratio of 1.256 shares of WesBanco common stock for each share of Oak Hill common stock. The exchange ratio is fixed and will not be adjusted due to any increase or decrease in the price of WesBanco common stock or Oak Hill common stock. Any change in the price of WesBanco common stock prior to the merger will affect the market value of the stock that Oak Hill shareholders will receive on the date of the merger. If the price of WesBanco common stock declines, Oak Hill shareholders will receive less value for their shares upon completion of the merger than the value calculated pursuant to the exchange ratio on the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus or on the date of the WesBanco and Oak Hill shareholder meetings. For example, based on the range of closing prices of WesBanco common stock during the period from July 19, 2007, the last trading day before public announcement of the merger, through October 9, 2007, the exchange ratio represented a value ranging from a high of $36.46 to a low of $26.49 for each share of Oak Hill common stock. Because the date the merger is completed will be later than the date of the special meeting, you will not know what the market value of WesBanco common stock will be upon completion of the merger when you vote on the merger at the Oak Hill or WesBanco special meeting or when you make your election to receive cash or stock.

Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in WesBanco's businesses, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Shareholders of WesBanco and Oak Hill are urged to obtain current market quotations for WesBanco and Oak Hill common stock when they consider whether to approve the proposals required to complete the merger at their respective shareholder meetings.

The combined company will incur significant transaction and merger-related costs in connection with the merger.

WesBanco and Oak Hill expect to incur costs associated with combining the operations of the two companies. WesBanco and Oak Hill have just recently begun collecting information in order to formulate detailed integration plans to deliver planned synergies. Additional unanticipated costs may be incurred in the integration of the businesses of WesBanco and Oak Hill. Whether or not the merger is consummated, WesBanco and Oak Hill will incur substantial expenses, such as legal, accounting, printing and financial advisory fees, in pursuing the merger. Although WesBanco and Oak Hill expect that the elimination of duplicative costs, as well as the realization of other efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses may offset incremental transaction and merger-related costs over time, this net benefit may not be achieved in the near term, or at all.

WesBanco may not be able to successfully integrate Oak Hill or to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The merger involves the combination of two bank holding companies that previously have operated independently. A successful combination of the operations of the two entities will depend substantially on

WesBanco's ability to consolidate operations, systems and procedures and to eliminate redundancies and costs. WesBanco may not be able to combine the operations of Oak Hill and WesBanco without encountering difficulties, such as:

the loss of key employees and customers;

the disruption of operations and business;

the inability to maintain and increase competitive presence;

deposit attrition, customer loss and revenue loss;

possible inconsistencies in standards, control procedures and policies;

unexpected problems with costs, operations, personnel, technology and credit; and/or problems with the assimilation of new operations, sites or personnel, which could divert resources from regular banking operations.

Additionally, general market and economic conditions or governmental actions affecting the financial industry generally may inhibit the successful integration of Oak Hill and WesBanco.

Further, WesBanco and Oak Hill entered into the merger agreement with the expectation that the merger will result in various benefits including, among other things, benefits relating to enhanced revenues, a strengthened market position for the combined company, cross selling opportunities, technology, cost savings and operating efficiencies. Achieving the anticipated benefits of the merger is subject to a number of uncertainties, including whether WesBanco integrates Oak Hill in an efficient and effective manner, and general competitive factors in the marketplace. Failure to achieve these anticipated benefits could result in increased costs, decreases in the amount of expected revenues and diversion of management's time and energy and could materially impact WesBanco's business, financial condition and operating results. Finally, any cost savings that are realized may be offset by losses in revenues or other charges to earnings.

The mix of consideration – cash and stock – that Oak Hill shareholders actually receive may be different than the form of consideration that such shareholders elect to receive.

The total amount of cash and WesBanco common stock that will be paid to all Oak Hill shareholders in the merger is fixed by a requirement that 90% of the total number of outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock be exchanged for WesBanco common stock and that 10% of the total number of outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock be exchanged for cash. The amount of cash, stock or combination of cash and stock that an Oak Hill shareholder receives in the merger will depend on whether the shareholder has properly submitted an election form, whether the shareholder has elected to receive the consideration in all stock or all cash, and the elections made by all other shareholders. Accordingly, the mix of consideration that an Oak Hill shareholder receives may be different than the mix that the shareholder has elected to receive and will not be determined until after the merger is approved by Oak Hill shareholders.

Oak Hill shareholders that receive all cash in the merger will not participate in future growth of WesBanco.

Oak Hill shareholders who elect and receive all cash in the merger will not own any interest in WesBanco, which will not afford them the opportunity to participate in future growth, if any, in the value of WesBanco.

The tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on the form of merger consideration you actually receive, not elect.

If you receive a different form of consideration than you elected, the tax consequences to you may be different than they would have been had you received the form of consideration you elected, including the recognition of taxable gain to the extent cash is received. See the discussion under the caption The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 51.

Future results of the combined companies may materially differ from the pro forma financial information presented in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

WesBanco and Oak Hill may not be able to integrate their operations without encountering difficulties including, without limitation, the loss of key employees and customers, the disruption of their respective ongoing businesses or possible inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies. Future results of the combined company may be materially different from those shown in the pro forma financial statements that only show a combination of the historical results of WesBanco and Oak Hill. We have estimated that the combined company will record approximately $12 million of merger-related costs. The costs may be higher or lower than we have estimated, depending upon how costly or difficult it is to integrate the two companies. Furthermore, these costs may decrease the capital of the combined company that could be used for profitable, income-earning investments in the future.

Additionally, in determining that the merger is in the best interests of WesBanco and Oak Hill, as the case may be, the board of directors of each of WesBanco and Oak Hill considered that enhanced earnings may result from the consummation of the merger, including from reduction of duplicate costs, improved efficiency and cross-marketing opportunities. However, there can be no assurance that any enhanced earnings will result from the merger.

Oak Hill shareholders will have less influence as a shareholder of WesBanco than as a shareholder of Oak Hill.

Oak Hill shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of Oak Hill and on other matters affecting Oak Hill. Based upon the stock/cash mix to be received by Oak Hill shareholders in the merger, the current shareholders of Oak Hill as a group will own approximately 22.7% of the voting power of the combined organization immediately after the merger. When the merger occurs, each Oak Hill shareholder that receives WesBanco stock will become a shareholder of WesBanco with a percentage ownership of the combined organization much smaller than such shareholder's percentage ownership of Oak Hill. Because of this, Oak Hill shareholders will have less influence on the management and policies of WesBanco than they now have on the management and policies of Oak Hill.

Failure to complete the merger could cause WesBanco's or Oak Hill's stock price to decline.

If the merger is not completed for any reason, WesBanco's or Oak Hill's stock price may decline because costs related to the merger, such as legal, accounting and financial advisory fees, must be paid even if the merger is not completed. In addition, if the merger is not completed, WesBanco's or Oak Hill's stock price may decline to the extent that the current market price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be completed.

Directors and officers of Oak Hill have interests in the merger that differ from the interests of non-management shareholders.

Some of the directors and officers of Oak Hill have interests in the merger that differ from, or are in addition to, their interests as shareholders of Oak Hill generally. These interests exist because of, among other things, employment agreements that the officers entered into with Oak Hill, rights that Oak Hill officers and directors have under Oak Hill's benefit plans (including the receipt of certain change of control payments as a result of the merger) and rights to indemnification and directors and officers insurance following the merger. Although the members of each of WesBanco's and Oak Hill's board of directors knew about these additional interests and considered them when they approved the merger agreement and the merger, you should understand that some of the directors and officers of Oak Hill will receive benefits in connection with the merger that you will not receive. See "The Merger - Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger" beginning on page 46.

A broker non-vote occurs on an item when a broker is not permitted to vote on that item without instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares and no instructions are given.

Beneficial Ownership of WesBanco Officers, Directors and Affiliates

On the record date, the directors, executive officers and affiliates of WesBanco owned or controlled the vote of 3,033,644 shares of WesBanco common stock, constituting approximately 14.7% of the outstanding shares of

If you give a proxy, you have the right to revoke it at any time before it is voted. You may revoke your proxy by (i) filing with the Secretary of WesBanco a written notice of revocation that is received prior to the vote at the WesBanco special meeting and that bears a later date than the proxy, (ii) duly executing a later dated proxy relating to the same shares and delivering it to the Secretary of WesBanco before the vote at the special meeting, (iii) submitting a later dated proxy by telephone or the Internet, before the vote at the special meeting, or (iv) attending the WesBanco special meeting and voting in person. Your attendance at the WesBanco special meeting will not, in and of itself, revoke your proxy. Any written notice of revocation or subsequent dated proxy should be sent so as to be delivered to WesBanco, Inc., One Bank Plaza, Wheeling, West Virginia 26003, Attention: Larry G. Johnson, Secretary, or hand delivered to the foregoing representative of WesBanco. For a notice of revocation or later proxy to be valid, it must actually be received by WesBanco prior to the vote of the shareholders.

If your shares are held by a broker in street name and you wish to change the instructions you have given your broker about how to vote your shares, you must follow the instructions provided by your broker.

Expenses of Solicitation of Proxies

WesBanco will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from WesBanco shareholders. In addition to solicitation by use of the mail, proxies may be solicited by directors, officers and employees of WesBanco in person or by telephone, telegram or other means of communication. These directors, officers and employees will not be additionally compensated but may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses they incur in connection with the solicitation. Arrangements will also be made with brokerage houses, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation materials to the beneficial owners of WesBanco common stock held of record by such persons. WesBanco may reimburse these custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses they incur.

Recommendation of WesBanco Board of Directors

The WesBanco board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of WesBanco and its shareholders, and unanimously recommends that the shareholders of WesBanco vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger and the related issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger.

In the course of reaching its decision to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the related issuance of shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger, the WesBanco board of directors, among other things, consulted with its legal advisors regarding the legal terms of the merger agreement and with its financial advisor as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid to Oak Hill shareholders. For a discussion of the factors considered by the WesBanco board of directors in reaching its conclusion, see The Merger WesBanco s Reasons for the Merger.

THE MERGER

The following summarizes material provisions of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A and which we incorporate by reference into this document. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. We encourage you to read carefully the merger agreement in its entirety, as the rights and obligations of the parties are governed by the express terms of the merger agreement and not by this summary or any other information contained in this proxy statement.

The description of the merger agreement in this proxy statement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. The merger agreement contains representations, warranties, covenants and agreements made by WesBanco and Oak Hill as of specific dates that were made for purposes of that contract between the parties and are subject to qualifications and limitations, including by information in disclosure schedules that the parties exchanged in connection with the execution of the merger agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties may be subject to contractual standards of materiality different from those generally applicable to shareholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Shareholders are not third-party beneficiaries under the merger agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of WesBanco or Oak Hill.

General

At the effective time of the merger, Oak Hill will be merged with and into WesBanco, with WesBanco continuing as the surviving corporation. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of WesBanco immediately prior to the merger will constitute the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the surviving corporation.

What Oak Hill Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger

If the merger is completed, for each share of Oak Hill common stock that you own you will receive, at your election, either 1.256 shares of WesBanco common stock (a stock election), or $38.00 in cash, without interest (a cash election), subject to certain limitations and possible adjustment in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement as discussed below, unless, in each case, you properly perfect your dissenter's rights under Ohio law. You may elect to exchange all of your shares of Oak Hill common stock for cash or WesBanco common stock, or you may elect to exchange some of your Oak Hill shares for cash and some for WesBanco common stock. Instead of fractional shares of WesBanco, you will receive a check for any fractional shares based on a value of $38.00 per whole share of WesBanco common stock. You will not receive separate consideration for the preferred stock purchase rights associated with the Oak Hill common stock issued pursuant to the Oak Hill Rights Agreement dated as of January 23, 1998, as amended, as such purchase rights will expire immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Pro-Ration and Allocation Procedures. The total amount of cash and WesBanco common stock that will be paid to all Oak Hill shareholders in the merger is fixed by a requirement that 90% of the total number of outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock be exchanged for WesBanco common stock and that 10% of the total number of outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock be exchanged for cash. Accordingly, your election may be subject to allocation and pro-ration procedures, which means that you may not receive all of the consideration in the form that you selected.

If Oak Hill shareholders in the aggregate elect to receive a different amount of shares of WesBanco common stock than WesBanco has agreed to issue, the merger agreement specifies the allocation and pro-ration procedures to be used. These allocation and pro-ration procedures are summarized as follows:

If the number of shares for which cash elections have been made exceeds 10% of the product obtained by multiplying $38.00 by the number of shares of Oak Hill common stock outstanding on the third business day prior to the effective time of the merger (the total cash amount), then all shares for which stock elections were made and all shares for which no elections were made will receive stock, but the shares for which cash elections were made shall be prorated so that the cash paid in the merger equals the total cash amount as closely as practicable.

Table of Contents

If the number of shares for which cash elections have been made is less than the total cash amount, then all shares for which cash elections were made will receive $38.00 cash per share. The exchange agent will then prorate the shares for which no election was made such that the cash paid in the merger equals the total cash amount as closely as practicable. If after such pro-ration of all shares for which no election was made, the aggregate of all shares for which cash elections and no election have been made is still less than the total cash amount, only then will the exchange agent prorate the shares for which stock elections have been made such that the cash paid in the merger equals the total cash amount as closely as practicable.

The pro rata selection process to be employed by the exchange agent will consist of such equitable pro-ration processes as Oak Hill and WesBanco shall mutually agree.

No guarantee can be made that you will receive the amounts of cash and/or stock you elect. As a result of the pro-ration and allocation procedures and other limitations outlined in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and in the merger agreement, you may receive WesBanco common stock or cash in amounts that vary from the amounts you elect to receive.

Possible Exchange Ratio Adjustments. The 1.256 exchange ratio is subject to adjustment in the event that certain termination provisions, based on the market price of WesBanco's common stock and the value of the NASDAQ Bank Index, are triggered and the Oak Hill board of directors elects to terminate the merger agreement. Oak Hill's right to terminate the merger agreement would arise if the average closing price of WesBanco common stock during the 20 consecutive trading days ending seven calendar days before the effective time of the merger is less than $23.22 per share and WesBanco common stock underperforms an index of financial institution stocks, the NASDAQ Bank Index, by 15%. However, Oak Hill would not have the right to terminate the merger agreement if WesBanco elects to make a compensating adjustment in the exchange ratio. See The Merger Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 59 for a description of the possible exchange ratio adjustments that may result from this termination provision. In addition, the merger agreement provides that the exchange ratio and the $38.00 cash consideration will be adjusted in the event WesBanco changes the number of shares of WesBanco common stock issued and outstanding prior to the effective time of the merger as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or other like changes in WesBanco's capitalization.

Effects of the Merger

The merger shall become effective as set forth in the articles of merger that shall be filed with the West Virginia Secretary of State and the certificate of merger that shall be filed with the Ohio Secretary of State. At that time, the separate existence of Oak Hill will cease and WesBanco will be the surviving corporation. The assets, liabilities and capital of Oak Hill will be merged with those of WesBanco and those assets, liabilities and capital will then constitute part of the assets, liabilities and capital of WesBanco. WesBanco will continue to operate under its Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws effective as of immediately prior to the merger, and the officers and directors of WesBanco will continue as the officers and directors of the surviving corporation, except that four of the directors of Oak Hill will be appointed to the board of directors of WesBanco after the merger. See The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger beginning on page 46. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of WesBanco will be unaffected by the merger. The tenure of the directors and officers of WesBanco immediately prior to the merger will be unaffected by the merger.

At the effective time of the merger, each share of Oak Hill common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the time the merger becomes effective will be converted automatically into the right to receive the merger consideration, unless you properly perfect your dissenter's rights under Ohio law with respect to your Oak Hill shares. See The Merger Dissenter's Rights beginning on page 49. Shares of Oak Hill common stock held by Oak Hill in its treasury or beneficially owned by WesBanco (other than in a fiduciary capacity by them for others) will not be exchanged for the merger consideration in the merger. Instead, these shares will be canceled and retired. Shares of Oak Hill common stock as to which dissenter's rights are properly exercised also will not be exchanged for the merger consideration. Oak Hill shareholders will not receive separate consideration for the preferred stock purchase rights associated with the Oak Hill common stock issued pursuant to the Oak Hill Rights Agreement dated as of January 23, 1998, as amended, as such purchase rights will expire immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

After the merger becomes effective, each certificate evidencing shares of Oak Hill common stock as to which dissenter's rights have not been perfected will be deemed to evidence only the right to receive the merger consideration. The holder of an unexchanged certificate will not receive any dividend or other distribution payable by WesBanco until the certificate has been exchanged.

Giving effect to the merger, as of June 30, 2007, on a pro forma consolidated basis, Oak Hill would have constituted approximately 24.2% of deposits, 24.0% of assets, and 16.7% of equity of WesBanco, and its shareholders would have held approximately 22.5% of the total outstanding shares of WesBanco. In addition, for the six months ended June 30, 2007, Oak Hill would have contributed approximately 24.1% of net interest income and 21.8% of net income to WesBanco on a pro forma consolidated basis. These percentages reflect the relative size of Oak Hill as of June 30, 2007 and may change with the normal variances in the rates of growth for deposits and loans for all WesBanco affiliates.

Consideration Election Procedures and Exchange of Oak Hill Certificates

At least thirty calendar days prior to the anticipated effective time of the merger or at such other time as Oak Hill and WesBanco mutually agree, Computershare Investor Services, LLC, the exchange agent, will mail transmittal materials, including an election form pursuant to which Oak Hill shareholders will be able to select the form of consideration they prefer to receive in the merger, to each holder of record of Oak Hill common stock as of the close of business on the fifth NASDAQ trading day prior to the date such transmittal materials are mailed.

Each election form will permit the holder of the Oak Hill common stock to elect to receive cash, WesBanco common stock, or a combination of cash and stock, or make no election with respect to the merger consideration the Oak Hill shareholder wishes to receive. An election will be properly made only if the exchange agent actually receives a properly completed election form on or before 5:00 pm Eastern Standard Time (EST) three business days prior to the closing date of the merger (or by such other time as Oak Hill and WesBanco mutually agree). An election form will be deemed properly completed only if it is accompanied by the certificates (or customary affidavits and, if required by WesBanco, indemnification regarding the loss or destruction of such certificates or the guaranteed delivery of such certificates) representing the Oak Hill common stock covered by the election form or an appropriate guarantee of delivery and all duly executed transmittal materials included in the election form. Risk of loss and title to the certificates theretofore representing shares of Oak Hill common stock shall pass only upon proper delivery of such certificates to the exchange agent. Oak Hill shareholders should not send in their certificates until they receive the election form and other transmittal materials. Please do not send any certificates with the enclosed proxy card.

You may revoke or change a previously submitted election form any time at or prior to the election deadline. If you properly revoke an election form and do not properly submit another election form prior to the election deadline, the shares of Oak Hill common stock covered by such revoked election form shall be deemed shares for which no election has been made and the exchange agent shall promptly return the share certificates to you at no charge upon your written request.

If you have a preference as to the form of consideration that you receive, you should make a timely election once you receive your election form. If you do not properly submit an election form or fail to return your election form by the specified deadline, you will be deemed to have made no election for purposes of determining the form of consideration you will receive. Neither Oak Hill nor the Oak Hill board of directors make any recommendation as to whether you should elect cash, WesBanco common stock, or a combination of stock and cash. You must make your own election decision.

The exchange agent will deliver the merger consideration in exchange for lost, stolen, mutilated, or destroyed certificates of shares of Oak Hill common stock only upon receipt of a lost stock affidavit and a bond indemnifying WesBanco against any claim arising out of the allegedly lost, stolen, mutilated, or destroyed certificate.

Treatment of Oak Hill Stock Options

Options issued by Oak Hill to employees and directors to purchase an aggregate of 356,200 shares of Oak Hill common stock were outstanding as of the record date. Holders of outstanding and unexercised stock options will be given the choice to either (1) terminate their stock options immediately prior to the completion of the merger and receive a cash amount equal to the excess, if any, of $38.00 over the exercise price of such shareholder's options multiplied by the number of options held by such shareholder, or (2) amend and convert their Oak Hill options into options to purchase WesBanco shares (rounded to the nearest whole share) equal to the number of Oak Hill options held by the shareholder immediately prior to the completion of the merger multiplied by 1.256. The exercise price for the Oak Hill shareholder's new WesBanco options will be calculated by taking each shareholder's exercise price for the old Oak Hill options divided by 1.256.

For example, if an Oak Hill stock option holder holds options to purchase 100 shares of Oak Hill common stock with an exercise price of $30 per share and the option holder makes the cash election described above, the option holder will receive $800 in cash in exchange for such terminated stock options. If the same Oak Hill stock option holder elects to convert his stock options to WesBanco stock options, then he would receive options to purchase 126 shares of WesBanco common stock (the product of 100 and the exchange ratio of 1.256) that are exercisable at a price of $23.89 per share ($30 divided by the exchange ratio of 1.256).

Except as otherwise provided in the merger agreement and as may be required by Tax Code Section 409A, the Oak Hill stock options assumed by WesBanco at the effective time of the merger will be subject to the same terms and conditions as were applicable to such options immediately prior to the effective time of the merger. Any restrictions or limitations on transfer with respect to shares of Oak Hill common stock subject to Oak Hill options or any other plan, program, or arrangement of Oak Hill or of any subsidiary of Oak Hill, to the extent that such restrictions or limitations will not have already lapsed, and except as otherwise expressly provided under the terms of such stock options, will remain in full force and effect with respect to such options after the effective time of the merger and after assumption of the options by WesBanco.

WesBanco will file a registration statement on Form S-8 with the SEC within 20 days after the merger becomes effective to register the shares of WesBanco common stock issuable upon exercise of the stock options assumed in the merger. WesBanco will maintain the effectiveness of the registration statement covering these assumed stock options as long as they remain outstanding.

Background of the Merger

Representatives of WesBanco and Oak Hill initially became acquainted at a dinner meeting, in Columbus, Ohio, which was attended by John D. Kidd and R. E. Coffman, Jr., representing Oak Hill, and Paul M. Limbert and James C. Gardill, representing WesBanco and representatives of Oak Hill's financial advisor, Stifel Nicolaus. This dinner meeting was held on October 27, 2006, and primarily served to introduce the parties and their respective financial institutions to each other. Informal communication developed among representatives of the parties and Stifel Nicolaus subsequent to this initial dinner meeting which finally culminated in a dinner meeting on April 3, 2007, in Wheeling, West Virginia. At this meeting, exploratory discussions concerning a possible combination of the two institutions were initiated. The meeting was followed the next morning with a breakfast meeting with Mr. Kidd and Mr. Limbert where further discussions concerning a possible combination of the two organizations occurred.

Subsequently, on April 10, 2007, Stifel Nicolaus and Mr. Kidd submitted to Mr. Limbert a discussion outline identifying preliminary talking points for the development of a possible acquisition of Oak Hill by WesBanco. The WesBanco board addressed the financial parameters of a possible acquisition of Oak Hill at its meeting on April 26, 2007. These talking points were followed up by a conference call on May 3, 2007, among Messrs. Kidd, Limbert and Gardill during which a written non-binding expression of interest was delivered electronically to Mr. Kidd by Mr. Limbert. Pursuant to that conference call, and as a follow-up to the written expression of interest, representatives of the parties and a representative of Stifel Nicolaus subsequently met on May 10, 2007, when a Confidentiality Agreement was signed by the parties. During this discussion further details of a possible transaction were developed and a meeting was organized with representatives of Stifel Nicolaus and executive officers of both companies and members of their respective boards of directors for June 7, 2007.

The proposed transaction was considered, on a preliminary basis, by the board of directors of Oak Hill at its meeting held on May 15, 2007, which was attended by representatives of Stifel Nicolaus. A substantive presentation on the proposed transaction was made by such representatives. A representative of Oak Hill's legal advisor, Porter, Wright, Morris & Arthur, LLP, discussed certain legal and fiduciary considerations applicable to the board's consideration of the transaction. At the conclusion of the meeting the executive officers of Oak Hill were authorized by the board of directors to proceed with due diligence and to negotiate a merger agreement.

At its meeting on May 16, 2007, the WesBanco executive committee reviewed updated financial material on Oak Hill. Subsequently, on May 17, 2007, Mr. Limbert and Mr. Gardill met with Mr. Kidd and several executive officers of Oak Hill at the Oak Hill offices in Jackson, Ohio. Mr. Limbert and Mr. Gardill also toured the various facilities of Oak Hill located in Jackson, Ohio. During this meeting a due diligence schedule was discussed and agreed upon. Subsequently, WesBanco conducted onsite due diligence work from May 29 through May 31 and again from June 5 through June 7, 2007. Oak Hill hosted a dinner meeting on June 7, 2007, in Columbus, which included several executive officers from each company, together with representatives of the boards of directors of both companies. The due diligence process by WesBanco was followed by a due diligence process conducted by various officers and representatives of Oak Hill in Wheeling, West Virginia, on June 11 and June 12, 2007. On June 11, 2007, a dinner meeting was hosted in Wheeling by WesBanco with various executive officers of both companies attending. During the June 19, 2007 meeting of the board of directors of Oak Hill, the board was updated on the progress of the due diligence and the negotiation of the merger agreement.

The proposed transaction was considered by the board of directors of WesBanco at its meeting held on June 28, 2007, which was attended by representatives of WesBanco's financial advisor, KBW, and its legal advisor, Kirkpatrick & Lockhart Preston Gates Ellis LLP. A substantive presentation on the proposed transaction was made by such representatives, the results of the due diligence process were presented and a review of a proposed definitive merger agreement was conducted by WesBanco's counsel. The board authorized WesBanco's management to proceed with negotiations and approved the execution of a definitive agreement.

Subsequent to the completion of a due diligence process by both entities, negotiations began concerning the specific terms and conditions of a definitive agreement and plan of merger whereby WesBanco would acquire Oak Hill. These discussions culminated in a meeting in Columbus on July 2, 2007, with Mr. Kidd and a representative of Oak Hill's counsel, Porter, Wright, Morris & Arthur LLP, and Mr. Limbert and WesBanco's counsel, Mr. Gardill, during which meeting substantive terms and conditions of the merger agreement were discussed.

The proposed transaction was considered by the board of directors of Oak Hill at a meeting of the board of Oak Hill Banks held on July, 17, 2007, at which all of the members of the board of Oak Hill were in attendance and which was attended by representatives of Stifel Nicolaus. In addition, a representative of Oak Hill's legal advisor, Porter, Wright, Morris & Arthur, LLP, discussed the legal and fiduciary standards applicable to the board's consideration of the transaction, the proposed terms of the transaction, and certain related considerations, including the potential payments that may be made to Oak Hill employees in light of the proposed transaction, the required shareholder and regulatory approvals for the proposed transaction, and the likely process and timetable for completing the merger. A substantive presentation by representatives of Stifel Nicolaus of the methodology and conclusions of its fairness opinion concerning the proposed transaction was made by such representatives.

Additional telephonic discussions were held subsequent to that meeting during which the final terms and conditions were discussed and agreed upon. The board of directors of Oak Hill conducted a special meeting on July 19, 2007 at which representatives of Stifel Nicolaus delivered the firm's fairness opinion and a representative of Oak Hill's legal advisor, Porter, Wright, Morris & Arthur, LLP, responded to questions concerning the legal aspects of the required shareholder and regulatory approvals for the proposed transaction and the likely process and timetable for completing the merger. The board then approved execution of the merger agreement. The signing of the definitive agreement occurred in the evening of July 19, 2007, and a press release was subsequently issued before the opening of business on July 20, 2007.

Oak Hill's Reasons for the Merger

Oak Hill's board of directors has approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that Oak Hill stockholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger.

Oak Hill's board of directors has determined that the merger and the merger agreement are fair to, and in the best interests of, Oak Hill and its stockholders. In approving the merger agreement, Oak Hill's board of directors consulted with legal counsel as to its legal duties and the terms of the merger agreement and with its financial advisor with respect to the financial aspects and fairness of the transaction from a financial point of view. In arriving at its determination, Oak Hill's board of directors also considered a number of factors, including the following:

The expected results from continuing to operate as an independent community banking institution, and the likely benefits to shareholders, compared with the value of the merger consideration offered by WesBanco.

Information concerning the businesses, earnings, operations, financial condition and prospects of Oak Hill and WesBanco, both individually and as combined. The Oak Hill board of directors took into account the results of Oak Hill's due diligence review of WesBanco.

The opinion rendered by Stifel Nicolaus as financial advisor to Oak Hill, that the merger consideration was fair, from a financial standpoint, to Oak Hill shareholders as of the date of the merger agreement.

The terms of the merger agreement and the structure of the merger, including the fact that Oak Hill shareholders will have the opportunity to elect to receive either cash, WesBanco common shares, or both, in exchange for their shares and that the merger is intended to qualify as a transaction of a type that is generally tax-free for U.S. federal income tax purposes and as a purchase for accounting purposes.

Various reviews made by Stifel Nicolaus and other financial advisors to Oak Hill over the last few years for the Oak Hill board of directors of various pricing and other data in an attempt to provide an indication of Oak Hill's value in a merger or sales transaction.

Discussions conducted by the Oak Hill board of directors and its senior management of the strategic options available to Oak Hill and the assessment of the Oak Hill board of directors and its senior management that none of those options presented superior opportunities or were likely to create greater value for Oak Hill shareholders than the prospects presented by the proposed merger with WesBanco.

The Oak Hill board of directors' belief, based in part on its consultation with Stifel Nicolaus, its financial advisor, that there was no potential merger partner with both a greater incentive to pursue a transaction with Oak Hill and a greater ability to pay a favorable merger price, than WesBanco.

The fact that the market for WesBanco common shares after the merger is expected to be substantially broader than the current market for Oak Hill common stock.

The fact that Oak Hill shareholders who receive WesBanco common shares will experience an increase in dividends, based on WesBanco's current dividend rate and the proposed exchange ratio.

The current and prospective economic, competitive and regulatory environment facing Oak Hill and independent community banking institutions generally.

The Oak Hill board of directors' assessment that Oak Hill would better serve the convenience and needs of its customers and the communities that it serves through affiliation with a financial institution such as WesBanco that has a larger infrastructure, wider selection of financial products and services and more prominent market position, including, particularly, the provision of trust services in communities currently served by Oak Hill.

The integration of the branch networks of Oak Hill and WesBanco which when combined provide an extensive branch network across southern Ohio, including wide coverage of Cincinnati, Ohio, from east to west.

WesBanco's statement that it intends to retain as many Oak Hill employees as possible.

In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the merger, the Oak Hill board of directors did not quantify or otherwise attempt to assign any specific or relative weights to any of the foregoing factors, and individual directors may have weighed factors differently.

FOR THE REASONS SET FORTH ABOVE, THE OAK HILL BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE OAK HILL SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND APPROVAL OF THE MERGER. IN ADDITION, CERTAIN OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF OAK HILL HAVE ENTERED INTO VOTING AGREEMENTS WITH WESBANCO WHEREIN THE OFFICER OR DIRECTOR HAS AGREED TO VOTE THEIR OAK HILL SHARES IN FAVOR OF THE MERGER. Opinion of Oak Hill's Financial Advisor

Stifel Nicolaus is acting as financial advisor to Oak Hill in connection with the merger. Stifel Nicolaus is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial expertise in transactions similar to the merger. Stifel Nicolaus is an investment banking and securities firm with membership on all the principal United States securities exchanges. As part of its investment banking activities, Stifel Nicolaus is regularly engaged in the independent valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers, acquisitions, underwritings, sales and distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes.

On July 19, 2007, Stifel Nicolaus rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the board of directors of Oak Hill that, as of such date, the per share consideration to be paid by WesBanco to the holders of Oak Hill common stock (other than dissenting shareholders or shares held directly or indirectly by WesBanco or Oak Hill or any of their respective subsidiaries, except for Trust Account Shares and DPC Shares (each as defined in the Merger Agreement)) in connection with the merger pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to Oak Hill shareholders, from a financial point of view.

The full text of Stifel Nicolaus' written opinion dated July 19, 2007, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken, is attached as Annex C to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. Stifel Nicolaus has provided an updated opinion as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Holders of Oak Hill common stock are urged to, and should, read this opinion carefully and in its entirety in connection with this proxy statement/prospectus. The summary of the opinion of Stifel Nicolaus set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion. The opinion of Stifel Nicolaus will not reflect any developments that may occur or may have occurred after the date of its opinion and prior to the completion of the merger. Stifel Nicolaus has no obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion except as otherwise provided in Stifel Nicolaus' engagement letter agreement with Oak Hill, and Oak Hill does currently expect that it will request an updated opinion from Stifel Nicolaus.

No limitations were imposed by Oak Hill on the scope of Stifel Nicolaus' investigation or the procedures to be followed by Stifel Nicolaus in rendering its opinion. Stifel Nicolaus was not requested to and did not make any recommendation to Oak Hill's board of directors as to the form or amount of the consideration to be paid to Oak Hill or its shareholders, which was determined through arm's length negotiations between the parties. In arriving at its opinion, Stifel Nicolaus did not ascribe a specific range of values to Oak Hill. Its opinion is based on the financial and comparative analyses described below. Stifel Nicolaus' opinion was directed solely to Oak Hill's board of directors for its use in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the merger and is not to be relied upon by any shareholder of Oak Hill or WesBanco or any other person or entity. Stifel Nicolaus' opinion did not constitute a recommendation to Oak Hill's board as to how Oak Hill's board should vote on the merger or to any shareholder of Oak Hill or WesBanco as to how such shareholder should vote with respect to the merger, or whether or not any shareholder of Oak Hill or WesBanco should enter into a voting or shareholders' agreement with respect to the merger, elect to receive the per share stock consideration or the per share cash consideration (or any combination thereof), or exercise any dissenters' or appraisal rights that may be available to such shareholder. In addition, Stifel Nicolaus' opinion does not compare the relative merits of the merger with any alternative transaction or business strategy that may have been available to Oak Hill or the Oak Hill board and does not address the underlying business decision of Oak Hill's board to proceed with or effect the merger. Stifel Nicolaus was not requested to, and did not, explore alternatives to the merger or solicit the interest of any other parties in pursuing transactions with Oak Hill.

In connection with its opinion, Stifel Nicolaus, among other things:

reviewed and analyzed a draft copy of the Merger Agreement dated July 11, 2007;

reviewed and analyzed a draft copy of the form of Voting Agreement dated July 7, 2007, proposed to be entered into by WesBanco and certain shareholders of Oak Hill in connection with the Merger (the "Voting Agreement");

reviewed and analyzed the audited consolidated financial statements of WesBanco included in its Annual Reports on Form 10-K as of December 31, 2006 and 2005 and for the three years ended December 31, 2006, and the unaudited consolidated financial statements of WesBanco included in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007; as well as unaudited consolidated financial statements included in WesBanco's earnings release for the quarter ending June 30, 2007 and WesBanco's earnings release for the quarter ended June 30, 2007;

conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations and considered such other information as it deemed necessary or appropriate for purposes of its opinion; and took into account its assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and its experience in other transactions, as well as its experience in securities valuations and its knowledge of the banking industry generally.

In rendering its opinion, Stifel Nicolaus relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was provided to Stifel Nicolaus, by or on behalf of Oak Hill and WesBanco, or that was otherwise reviewed by Stifel Nicolaus, and did not assume any responsibility for independently verifying any of such information. With respect to the financial forecasts supplied to Stifel Nicolaus by Oak Hill and WesBanco (including, without limitation, potential cost savings and operating synergies to be realized by WesBanco post-merger), Stifel Nicolaus assumed that they were reasonably prepared on the basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Oak Hill and WesBanco as to the future operating and financial performance of Oak Hill and WesBanco, that cost savings and operating synergies would be realized in the amounts and time periods estimated by WesBanco and that they provided a reasonable basis upon which Stifel Nicolaus could form its opinion. Such forecasts and projections were not prepared with the expectation of public disclosure. All such projected financial information is based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in such projected financial information. Stifel Nicolaus has relied on this projected information without independent verification or analyses and does not in any respect assume any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness thereof.

Stifel Nicolaus also assumed that there was no material change in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of either Oak Hill or WesBanco since the date of the last financial statements made available to it. Stifel Nicolaus has also assumed, without independent verification and with Oak Hill's consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan losses set forth in the financial statements of Oak Hill and WesBanco, respectively, are in the aggregate adequate to cover all such losses. Stifel Nicolaus did not make or obtain any independent evaluation, appraisal or physical inspection of Oak Hill's or WesBanco's assets or liabilities, the collateral securing any of such assets or liabilities, or the collectibility of any such assets nor did it review loan or credit files of Oak Hill or WesBanco. Stifel Nicolaus relied on advice of Oak Hill's counsel as to certain legal and tax matters with respect to Oak Hill, the merger agreement and the merger and the other transactions and matters contained or contemplated therein. Stifel Nicolaus has assumed, with Oak Hill's consent, that there are no factors that would delay or subject to any adverse conditions any necessary regulatory or governmental approval and that all conditions to the merger will be satisfied and not waived. In addition, Stifel Nicolaus assumed that the definitive merger agreement would not differ materially from the draft it reviewed. Stifel Nicolaus also assumed that the merger will be consummated substantially on the terms and conditions described in the merger agreement, without any waiver of material terms or conditions by Oak Hill and WesBanco and without Oak Hill's exercise of its rights pursuant to Article 11 of the merger agreement, and that obtaining any necessary regulatory approvals or satisfying any other conditions for consummation of the merger would not have an adverse effect on Oak Hill or WesBanco.

Stifel Nicolaus' opinion is necessarily based on economic, market, financial and other conditions as they exist on, and on the information made available to it as of, the date of the opinion. It is understood that subsequent developments may affect the conclusions reached in this opinion and that Stifel Nicolaus does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm the opinion.

Stifel Nicolaus' opinion is limited to whether the merger consideration is fair to shareholders of Oak Hill, from a financial point of view, as of the date of the opinion. Stifel Nicolaus' opinion does not consider, include or address:

(i) any other strategic alternatives currently (or which have been or may be) contemplated by Oak Hill's board or Oak Hill; (ii) the legal, tax or accounting consequences of the merger on Oak Hill, WesBanco or their respective shareholders; (iii) any non-solicit, non-compete, employment, severance or similar agreements to which Oak Hill is subject or which are entered into in connection with the merger as contemplated by the merger agreement, or the fairness to Oak Hill or Oak Hill's shareholders of any payments received in connection with such agreements; (iv) any advice or opinions provided by KBW or any other advisor to Oak Hill or WesBanco; (v) the election by holders of Oak Hill shares to receive the per share stock consideration or the per share cash consideration, or any combination thereof, or the actual allocation of the merger consideration between the per share stock consideration and the per share cash consideration among holders of Oak Hill shares (including, without limitation, any pro rata reduction or cutback of holders' election to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration pursuant to the Merger Agreement); or (vi) the effect of the Rights Agreement dated as of January 23, 1998, between Oak Hill and the Rights Agent, or any proposed amendment to such Rights Agreement contemplated in connection with the Merger, on Oak Hill, WesBanco or their respective shareholders. Furthermore, Stifel Nicolaus expressed no opinion as to the prices, trading range or volume at which Oak Hill's or WesBanco's securities would trade following public announcement or consummation of the merger.

The financial forecasts furnished to Stifel Nicolaus for Oak Hill and WesBanco and estimates of potential cost savings and operating synergies to be realized by WesBanco were prepared by the management of Oak Hill and WesBanco and constitute forward-looking statements. As a matter of policy, Oak Hill and WesBanco do not publicly disclose internal management forecasts, projections or estimates of the type furnished to Stifel Nicolaus in connection with its analysis of the financial terms of the merger, and such forecasts and estimates were not prepared with a view towards public disclosure. These forecasts and estimates were based on numerous variables and assumptions which are inherently uncertain and which may not be within the control of the management of Oak Hill and WesBanco, including, without limitation, factors related to the integration of Oak Hill and general economic, regulatory and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary materially from those set forth in such forecasts and estimates.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Stifel Nicolaus performed a variety of financial analyses that are summarized below. Such summary does not purport to be a complete description of such analyses. Stifel Nicolaus believes that its analyses and the summary set forth herein must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of such analyses and the factors considered therein, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the analyses and processes underlying its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Stifel Nicolaus considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factors considered by it. The range of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described below should not be taken to be Stifel Nicolaus' view of the actual value of Oak Hill. In its analyses, Stifel Nicolaus made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Oak Hill or WesBanco. Any estimates contained in Stifel Nicolaus' analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual future values or results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such estimates. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the actual prices at which companies or their securities actually may be sold. No company or transaction utilized in Stifel Nicolaus' analyses was identical to Oak Hill or WesBanco or the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of the results described below is not mathematical; rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other facts that could affect the public trading value of the companies to which they are being compared. None of the analyses performed by Stifel Nicolaus was assigned a greater significance by Stifel Nicolaus than any other, nor does the order of analyses described represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Stifel Nicolaus. The analyses described below do not purport to be indicative of actual future results, or to reflect the prices at which Oak Hill common stock or WesBanco common stock may trade in the public markets, which may vary depending upon various factors, including changes in interest rates, dividend rates, market conditions, economic conditions and other factors that influence the price of securities.

In accordance with customary investment banking practice, Stifel Nicolaus employed generally accepted valuation methods in reaching its opinion. The following is a summary of the material financial analyses that Stifel Nicolaus used in providing its opinion on July 19, 2007. Some of the summaries of financial analyses are presented in tabular format. In order to understand the financial analyses used by Stifel Nicolaus more fully, you should read the tables together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of Stifel Nicolaus financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, and if viewed in isolation could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses performed by Stifel Nicolaus.

Table of Contents

The summary data set forth below do not represent and should not be viewed by anyone as constituting conclusions reached by Stifel Nicolaus with respect to any of the analyses performed by it in connection with its opinion. Rather, Stifel Nicolaus made its determination as to the fairness to the shareholders of Oak Hill of the per share merger consideration, from a financial point of view, on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of the analyses performed. Accordingly, the data included in the summary tables and the corresponding imputed ranges of value for Oak Hill should be considered as a whole and in the context of the full narrative description of all of the financial analyses set forth in the following pages, including the assumptions underlying these analyses. Considering the data included in the summary table without considering the full narrative description of all of the financial analyses, including the assumptions underlying these analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses performed by Stifel Nicolaus.

In connection with rendering its opinion and based upon the terms of the draft merger agreement reviewed by it, Stifel Nicolaus assumed the aggregate consideration to be $199.2 million, and at the time of the opinion, the per share consideration to be $36.31.

Pro Forma Effect of the Merger. Stifel Nicolaus reviewed certain estimated future operating and financial information developed by Oak Hill and certain estimated future operating and financial information for the pro forma combined entity resulting from the merger developed by Oak Hill and WesBanco for the twelve month periods ended December 31, 2007, December 31, 2008, and December 31, 2009. Based on this analysis, Stifel Nicolaus compared certain of Oak Hill's estimated future per share results with such estimated figures for the pro forma combined entity. Based on this analysis on a pro forma basis, the merger is forecast to be accretive to both WesBanco's and Oak Hill's earnings per share for the twelve month period ended December 31, 2008. Stifel Nicolaus also reviewed certain financial information in order to determine the estimated effect of the merger on WesBanco's book value, tangible book value and dividend. Based on this analysis on a pro forma basis, the merger is forecasted to be accretive to book value per share, but to be dilutive to WesBanco's tangible book value per share. The merger is not expected to have an impact on WesBanco's dividend levels, and it is forecasted to be significantly accretive to Oak Hill's dividend levels.

Analysis of Bank Merger Transactions. Stifel Nicolaus analyzed certain information relating to recent transactions in the banking industry, consisting of (1) 206 U.S. bank acquisitions announced since June 30, 2006, referred to below as Group A; (2) 32 selected Midwest bank acquisitions announced since June 30, 2006, with deal values greater than $20 million, referred to below as Group B; and (3) 20 nationwide bank acquisitions announced since June 30, 2004, involving targets with assets between $200 million and $5 billion with Nonperforming assets (NPAs)/Assets greater than 1.0%, referred to below as Group C. Stifel Nicolaus calculated the following ratios with respect to the merger and the selected transactions:

Ratios	Oak Hill/ WesBanco	Median Statistics for Selected Transactions
		Group A	Group B	Group C
Price/Book Value	209%	239%	240%	212%
Price/Tangible Book Value	236%	253%	244%	241%
Adjusted Price/6.50% Equity	224%	286%	281%	226%
Price/Last 12 Months EPS	22.7x	22.4x	25.1x	26.2x
Premium over Tangible Book Value/Deposits	12.0%	14.9%	14.5%	10.1%
Premium over Tangible Book Value/Core Deposits	14.1%	19.7%	19.6%	12.6%

This analysis resulted in a range of imputed values for Oak Hill common stock of between $35.90 and $45.69 per share based on the median multiples for Group A, between $37.40 and $44.99 per share based on the median multiples for Group B, and between $33.04 and $41.83 per share based on the median multiples for Group C.

Present Value Analysis. Applying present value analysis to the theoretical future earnings and dividends of Oak Hill, Stifel Nicolaus compared the purchase price offer for one share of Oak Hill common stock to the present value of one share of Oak Hill's common stock on a stand-alone basis. The analysis was based upon Oak Hill management's projected earnings growth, a range of assumed price/earnings ratios, and an 11.0%, 13.0% and 15.0% discount rate. Stifel Nicolaus selected the range of terminal price/earnings ratios on the basis of past and current trading multiples for other publicly-traded comparable banks. The present value of Oak Hill's common stock calculated on a stand-alone basis ranged from $23.40 to $30.95 per share, compared to the purchase price offer of $36.31 per share.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Using a discounted cash flow analysis, Stifel Nicolaus estimated the net present value of the future streams of after-tax cash flow that Oak Hill could produce to benefit a potential acquiror, referred to below as dividendable net income. In this analysis, Stifel Nicolaus assumed that Oak Hill would perform in accordance with Oak Hill management's estimates and calculated assumed after-tax distributions to a potential acquiror such that Oak Hill's tangible common equity ratio would be maintained at 6.5% of assets. Stifel Nicolaus calculated the sum of the assumed perpetual dividendable net income streams per share beginning in the year 2007 discounted to present values at assumed discount rates ranging from 11.0% to 15.0% to approximate Oak Hill's weighted average cost of capital, as determined by calculations using the capital asset pricing model and based upon Oak Hill's estimated cost savings of 20% of Oak Hill's non-interest expense. This discounted cash flow analysis indicated an implied equity value reference range of $20.87 to $43.40 per share of Oak Hill's common stock. This analysis did not purport to be indicative of actual future results and did not purport to reflect the prices at which shares of Oak Hill's common stock may trade in the public markets. A discounted cash flow analysis was included because it is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, including estimated cost savings and operating synergies, earnings growth rates, dividend payout rates and discount rates.

Comparison of Selected Companies. Stifel Nicolaus reviewed and compared certain multiples and ratios for the merger with a peer group of 24 selected banks of similar size, profitability, geography and growth characteristics. In order to calculate a range of imputed values for a share of Oak Hill common stock, Stifel Nicolaus applied a 32.5% control premium (Group A) to the trading prices of the selected group of comparable companies and also considered the same peer group without the application of any control premium (Group B) and compared the resulting theoretical offer price to each of the following categories: book value, tangible book value, adjusted 6.5% equity, latest 12 months earnings, estimated 2007 earnings, estimated 2008 earnings, tangible book premium to core deposits and deposits. Stifel Nicolaus then applied the resulting range of multiples and ratios for the peer group specified above to the appropriate financial results of Oak Hill. This analysis resulted in a range of imputed values for Oak Hill common stock of between $31.90 and $39.92 per share based on the median multiples and ratios for Group A, and between $23.05 and $30.13 per share based on the median multiples and ratios for Group B.

Additionally, Stifel Nicolaus calculated the following ratios with respect to the 24 selected comparable companies with and without the application of the 32.5% control premium:

Ratios(1)	Oak Hill/ WesBanco	Trading Multiples for Selected Peer Groups
		Median(A)	Median(B)
Price/Book Value	209%	184%	139%
Price/Tangible Book Value	236%	242%	182%
Adjusted Price/6.50% Equity	224%	208%	147%
Price/Latest 12 Months Earnings	22.7x	20.2x	15.3x
Price/Estimated 2007 Earnings(2)	17.3x	19.0x	14.4x
Price/Estimated 2008 Earnings(2)	16.9x	17.0x	12.9x
Premium over Tangible Book Value/Core Deposits	14.1%	14.9%	8.7%
Price/Deposits	20.8%	20.7%	15.6%

- (1) Based on prices as of market close on July 18, 2007.
- (2) Projected EPS based on Oak Hill and WesBanco management estimates.

As described above, Stifel Nicolaus opinion was among the many factors taken into consideration by the Oak Hill board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger.

Table of Contents

Stifel Nicolaus acted as financial advisor to Oak Hill in connection with the merger and will receive a fee for its services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the completion of the merger (the Advisory Fee). The Advisory Fee is .90% of the total stock and cash consideration to be paid to Oak Hill shareholders in connection with the merger, or approximately $1.79 million. Stifel Nicolaus has also acted as financial advisor to the Oak Hill board and received a $100,000 fee in connection with the delivery of its opinion that is not contingent upon consummation of the merger and which is creditable against the Advisory Fee. Stifel Nicolaus also received a non-refundable retainer of $25,000 upon the execution of its engagement agreement with Oak Hill which is creditable against the Advisory Fee. In addition, Oak Hill has agreed to indemnify Stifel Nicolaus for certain liabilities arising out of its engagement and reimburse Stifel Nicolaus for certain out-of-pocket expenses. In the past, Ryan Beck & Co., Inc., an affiliate of Stifel Nicolaus (Ryan Beck), has provided investment banking services to both Oak Hill and WesBanco from time to time for which Ryan Beck has received customary fees, and Stifel Nicolaus may provide investment banking services to WesBanco in the future. In the ordinary course of business, Stifel Nicolaus and its affiliates trade in each of Oak Hill's and WesBanco's securities for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

WesBanco's Reasons for the Merger

The board of directors of WesBanco considered a number of factors in voting to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including, without limitation, those factors discussed in this section. The board considered that the merger will provide WesBanco with the opportunity to significantly expand its existing franchise to include markets which it perceives offer significant growth opportunities. Oak Hill operates from its principal office in Jackson, Ohio, together with 36 other full service branch locations. Importantly, Oak Hill has offices located principally on the eastern side of Cincinnati and in the corridor along Interstate 75 between Dayton and Cincinnati. Additionally, it has an office in the suburbs of Columbus on the west side. These offices compliment offices which WesBanco currently operates on the west and north side of Cincinnati, the east and north side of Columbus and the east and north side of Dayton, Ohio, in conjunction with its operations in the Springfield, Ohio, region. These additional Oak Hill offices offer WesBanco a better geographic distribution in key metropolitan areas of Cincinnati, Dayton and Columbus.

The board also considered that Oak Hill enhances WesBanco's franchise by expanding its reach in south central Ohio and in the Huntington, West Virginia, and Ashland, Kentucky, areas along the Ohio River and throughout central Ohio in regional markets, such as Athens, Lancaster and Chillicothe, Ohio. These offices offer WesBanco significant market share in well diversified markets throughout the region.

The board of directors of WesBanco also considered the geographic diversification that the Oak Hill markets offers to its own stockholders by shifting its asset base into areas other than West Virginia where it currently holds approximately 64% of its deposits. It is anticipated that the transaction will move WesBanco into the top 15 in deposit market share in the State of Ohio and it should re-balance its deposit composition by state so that West Virginia's deposits will represent approximately 48% of its total deposits. The shifting of assets should permit greater economic and geographic diversification for its existing stockholders and should help insulate WesBanco from economic downturns in the specific geographic markets in which it currently operates.

The board also considered the integration risks of the transaction given its size relative to WesBanco. It determined that these integration risks were mitigated by several factors including the addition of four members of the board of directors of Oak Hill to the WesBanco board of directors, the quality of the management team at Oak Hill, WesBanco entering into employment agreements with certain key members of Oak Hill management, and the compatibility of the cultures of the two organizations in addressing customer service, small business lending and employee development. Additionally, Oak Hill has itself been an acquirer of financial institutions and its management is experienced in addressing integration issues which should help insure the success of an integration process through a merger.

Finally, the WesBanco board of directors considered the financial parameters of the transaction and determined that the transaction was attractive given comparable transactions reviewed by the board through its investment banker more thoroughly detailed in the section entitled "Opinion of WesBanco's Financial Advisor."

Included in these considerations is the expected sale by Oak Hill of approximately $55 million in classified loans in connection with the merger.

FOR THE REASONS SET FORTH ABOVE, THE WESBANCO BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS THAT THE WESBANCO SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE ADOPTION OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND APPROVAL OF THE MERGER AND THE RELATED ISSUANCE OF SHARES OF WESBANCO COMMON STOCK IN CONNECTION WITH THE MERGER.

Opinion of WesBanco's Financial Advisor

On May 14, 2007, WesBanco executed an engagement agreement with KBW. KBW's engagement encompassed assisting WesBanco in analyzing, structuring, negotiating and effecting a transaction with Oak Hill. WesBanco selected KBW because KBW is a nationally recognized investment-banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the merger and is familiar with WesBanco and its business. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of financial businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions.

On June 28, 2007, the WesBanco board of directors held a meeting to evaluate the proposed merger of Oak Hill with and into WesBanco. At this meeting, KBW reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger. On July 19, 2007, KBW rendered a written opinion to WesBanco as to the fairness to WesBanco, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid in the merger.

The text of KBW's written opinion is attached as Annex B to this document and is incorporated herein by reference. WesBanco shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by KBW.

KBW's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. KBW's opinion is directed to the WesBanco board of directors and addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid in the merger. It does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any WesBanco shareholder as to how the shareholder should vote at the WesBanco special meeting on the merger or any related matter.

In rendering its opinion, KBW:

reviewed, among other things:

the merger agreement,

Annual Reports to shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K of Oak Hill and WesBanco, and

Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Oak Hill and WesBanco; held discussions with members of senior management of Oak Hill and WesBanco regarding:

past and current business operations,

regulatory relationships,

financial condition, and future prospects of the respective companies;

reviewed the market prices, valuation multiples, publicly reported financial conditions and results of operations for Oak Hill and WesBanco and compared them with those of certain publicly traded companies that KBW deemed to be relevant;

evaluated the potential pro forma impact of the merger on WesBanco, including cost savings, that management of WesBanco expects to result from a combination of the businesses of Oak Hill and WesBanco;

compared the proposed financial terms of the merger with the financial terms of certain other transactions that KBW deemed to be relevant; and performed other studies and analyses that it considered appropriate.

In conducting its review and arriving at its opinion, KBW relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to or otherwise made available to KBW or that was discussed with, or reviewed by or for KBW, or that was publicly available. KBW did not attempt, or assume any responsibility, to verify such information independently. KBW relied upon the management of Oak Hill and WesBanco as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections, and assumptions and bases for those projections, provided to KBW. KBW assumed, without independent verification, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for Oak Hill and WesBanco are adequate to cover those losses. KBW did not make or obtain any evaluations or appraisals of any assets or liabilities of Oak Hill or WesBanco, and KBW did not examine any books and records or review individual credit files.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, KBW assumed that, in all respects material to its analyses:

the merger will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement;

the representations and warranties of each party in the merger agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the merger agreement are true and correct;

each party to the merger agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents;

all conditions to the completion of the merger will be satisfied without any material waivers; and in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or amendments or modifications that may be imposed, will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the merger, including the cost savings, revenue enhancements and related expenses expected to result from the merger.

KBW further assumed that the merger will be accounted for as a purchase transaction under generally accepted accounting principles, and that the merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes. KBW's opinion is not an expression of an opinion as to the prices at which shares of WesBanco common stock or Oak Hill common stock will trade since the announcement of the proposed merger or the actual value of the WesBanco common shares when issued pursuant to the merger, or the prices at which the WesBanco common shares will trade following the completion of the merger.

In performing its analyses, KBW made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of KBW, WesBanco and Oak Hill. Any estimates contained in the analyses performed by KBW are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses. Additionally, estimates of the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which such businesses or securities might actually be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty. In addition, the KBW opinion was among several factors taken into consideration by the WesBanco board in making its determination to adopt the merger agreement and the merger. Consequently, the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the WesBanco board or management of WesBanco with respect to the fairness of the consideration paid in the merger.

Summary of Analyses by KBW

The following is a summary of the material analyses undertaken by KBW in connection with its written opinion. The summary is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the KBW opinion or the presentation made by KBW to the WesBanco board, but summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytic process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, KBW did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. Accordingly, KBW believes that its analyses and the summary of its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion. The tables alone do not provide a complete description of the financial analyses.

Market price information was as of June 26, 2007, and earnings estimates were taken from First Call, a nationally recognized earnings estimate consolidator. Certain financial data prepared by KBW, and as referenced in the tables presented below may not correspond to the data presented in Oak Hill's and WesBanco's historical financial statements, or to the data prepared by Stifel Nicolaus presented under the section Opinion of Oak Hill's Financial Advisor, as a result of the different periods, assumptions and methods used by KBW to compute the financial data presented.

Selected Transaction Analysis. KBW reviewed publicly available information related to certain Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana bank transactions announced since January 1, 2004 with announced transaction values between $100 million and $1 billion. The transactions included were:

Acquiror:

Susquehanna Bankshares, Inc.
1st Source Corp.
BMO Financial Group
First Midwest Bancorp, Inc.
Willow Grove Bancorp, Inc.
Community Banks, Inc.
F.N.B. Corp.
BMO Financial Group
National City Corporation
Omega Financial Corporation
Huntington Bancshares Incorporated
Sky Financial Group Inc.

Acquired Company:

Community Banks, Inc.
Fina Bancorp, Inc.
First National Bank & Trust Company
Bank Calumet, Inc.
Chester Valley Bancorp, Inc.
PennRock Financial Services Corp.
NSD Bancorp, Inc.
Mercantile Bancorp, Inc.
Wayne Bancorp, Inc.
Sun Bancorp, Inc.
Unizan Financial Corporation
Second Bancorp Incorporated

For each precedent transaction, KBW derived and compared, among other things, the implied ratio of price per common share paid for the acquired company to:

the earnings per share of the acquired company for the latest 12 months of results publicly available prior to the time the transaction was announced;

estimated earnings per share of the acquired company for the calendar year of the announcement of the transaction; and tangible book value per share of the acquired company based on the latest publicly available financial statements of the company available prior to the announcement of the acquisition.

Additionally, for each precedent transaction, KBW derived and compared the premium paid in aggregate consideration over tangible book value to core deposits. Core deposits were defined as total deposits less jumbo CDs (CDs with balances greater than $100,000). Transaction multiples for the merger were derived from the $38.00 per share transaction value and financial data as of March 31, 2007 for Oak Hill. KBW compared these results with announced multiples. The results of the analysis are set forth in the following table.

	WesBanco/ Oak Hill	Comparable Transactions Median	Comparable Transactions Maximum	Comparable Transactions Minimum
Price/Trailing 12 months earnings per share	23.9x	24.3x	46.7x	14.2x
Price/Estimated earnings per share	17.7x	21.0x	27.9x	15.4x
Price/Tangible Book value	2.48x	2.72x	3.82x	1.93x
Core Deposit Premium	14.6%	22.7%	33.5%	11.6%

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above analysis is identical to WesBanco, Oak Hill or the proposed merger. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. KBW performed a discounted cash flow analysis to estimate a range for the implied equity value per share of Oak Hill common stock. In this analysis, KBW assumed discount rates ranging from 11.0% to 13.0% to derive (i) the present value of the estimated free cash flows that Oak Hill could generate over the period beginning January 2007 and ending in December 2011, including certain expenses and cost savings forecasted as a result of the merger, and (ii) the present value of Oak Hill's terminal value at the end of 2012. Terminal values for Oak Hill were calculated based on a range of 13.5x to 14.5x estimated 2012 earnings per share. In performing this analysis, KBW used Oak Hill's 2007 and 2008 First Call earnings estimates, including certain adjustments. Based on management's estimates KBW assumed 8% earnings per share growth thereafter. Certain data was adjusted to account for certain restructuring charges anticipated by management to result from the merger and management's assumptions of cost savings resulting from the merger. In determining cash flows available to shareholders, KBW used forecasted dividend payout ratios (percentages of adjusted earnings per share payable to shareholders), which assume the maintenance of a minimum ratio of tangible common equity to tangible assets of 6.0%.

Based on these assumptions, KBW derived a range of implied equity values per share of Oak Hill common stock of $36.63 to $41.85.

The discounted cash flow analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent on the assumptions that must be made, including asset and earnings growth rates, terminal values, dividend payout rates, and discount rates. The analysis did not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected values of Oak Hill common stock.

Forecasted Pro Forma Financial Analysis. KBW analyzed the estimated financial impact of the merger on WesBanco's 2008 and 2009 estimated earnings per share. For both WesBanco and Oak Hill, KBW used First Call estimates of earnings per share for 2008 and grew those earnings by 8% for 2009. In addition, KBW assumed that the merger will result in cost savings equal to management's estimates. Based on its analysis, KBW determined that the merger would be accretive to WesBanco's earnings per share in 2009.

Furthermore, the analysis indicated that WesBanco's Leverage Ratio, Tier 1 Risk-Based Capital Ratio and Total Risk Based Capital Ratio would all remain above regulatory minimums for well capitalized institutions. This analysis was based on internal projections provided by WesBanco's and Oak Hill's senior management teams. For all of the above analysis, the actual results achieved by WesBanco following the merger may vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Other Analyses. KBW reviewed the relative financial and market performance of WesBanco and Oak Hill to a variety of relevant industry peer groups and indices. KBW also reviewed earnings estimates, balance sheet composition, historical stock performance and other financial data for Oak Hill.

The WesBanco board of directors has retained KBW as an independent contractor to act as financial advisor to WesBanco regarding the merger. As part of its investment banking business, KBW is continually engaged in the valuation of banking businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, KBW has experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, KBW may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, WesBanco and Oak Hill. As a market maker in securities KBW may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of WesBanco and Oak Hill for KBW's own account and for the accounts of its customers.

WesBanco and KBW have entered into an agreement relating to the services to be provided by KBW in connection with the merger. WesBanco has agreed to pay to KBW at the time of closing a cash fee of $1,000,000. Pursuant to the KBW engagement agreement, WesBanco also agreed to reimburse KBW for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and disbursements incurred in connection with its retention and to indemnify it against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Oak Hill board of directors with respect to the merger agreement, Oak Hill shareholders should be aware that certain persons, including some of the directors and executive officers of Oak Hill, have interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as shareholders of Oak Hill generally. The Oak Hill board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them in adopting the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby.

Change in Control Provisions. Oak Hill has created the Key Executive Change in Control Plan (the Plan) which includes, until its termination as of the effective date of the merger, the following participants of Oak Hill: D. Bruce Knox, Executive Vice President and Chief Information Officer, David G. Ratz, Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer, Scott J. Hinsch, Jr., Vice President and Miles R. Armentrout, Executive Vice President and Chief Lending Officer. Oak Hill has also entered into certain employment agreements with R. E. Coffman, Jr., President and Chief Executive Officer, which contain certain provisions concerning a change in control. As a result of the merger and under the Plan and the employment agreements, WesBanco will make a lump sum payment of $510,000 to R. E. Coffman, Jr., $182,000 to Scott J. Hinsch, Jr., $160,000 to both David G. Ratz and Miles R. Armentrout, and $153,000 to D. Bruce Knox. To the extent any of these lump sum payments or any other payments received or benefits provided, including post-termination coverage as discussed below, which are contingent on the merger constitutes an excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Tax Code and are non-deductible for federal income tax purposes, such lump sum payments will be reduced to the maximum amount for which a deduction is permitted under Section 280G when taking into consideration all such payments or benefits. Each of R. E. Coffman, Jr., D. Bruce Knox, David G. Ratz, Scott J. Hinsch, Jr. and Miles R. Armentrout will also be entitled to continued coverage under health, life and disability plans until the earliest to occur of the expiration of the employment agreement or the date on which he becomes employed full-time by another employer.

Execution of New Employment Agreements. In connection with the proposed merger, R. E. Coffman, Jr., D. Bruce Knox, David G. Ratz, Scott J. Hinsch, Jr. and Miles R. Armentrout have each entered into employment agreements with WesBanco and Oak Hill Banks, which are contingent upon the consummation of the merger. Each of these employment agreements, except for that of D. Bruce Knox, is for a term of one year and will be automatically extended for one year on each anniversary of the agreement unless otherwise terminated with proper notice. The term of D. Bruce Knox's employment will expire thirty days after the conversion of the Oak Hill Banks' data processing system to the WesBanco system. The employment agreements include provisions such that each employee will receive an annual base salary in an amount to be determined by the board of directors of WesBanco, but in no event shall such amount be less than $225,000, in the case of R. E. Coffman, Jr., $160,000, in the cases of David G. Ratz, Scott J. Hinsch, Jr. and Miles R. Armentrout, and $153,000, in the case of D. Bruce Knox. In addition, each executive will be entitled to receive such other benefits and perquisites as WesBanco provides to its other executives. If WesBanco terminates the employment of R. E. Coffman, Jr., D. Bruce Knox, David G. Ratz, Scott J. Hinsch, Jr. or Miles R. Armentrout without cause (as defined in the employment agreements), or other than due to death of the executive or by mutual agreement, WesBanco will be obligated to pay such person an amount equal to the greater of (i) six months of base salary at his then current base rate or (ii) the base salary such person would have received had he continued to be employed through the end of the existing term of the employment agreement. However, if an employee voluntarily terminates his employment or is discharged by WesBanco for cause (as defined in the Plan) during the first year of this employment agreement, then that employee will be required to reimburse WesBanco for all change in control payments that such employee received as a result of the merger.

Employee Severance Benefits. Pursuant to the merger agreement, WesBanco has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to continue the employment of at least a majority of the employees of Oak Hill and its subsidiaries after the merger. Any employees who are not offered the opportunity to continue as employees after the merger or who are terminated without cause within six months after the effective time of the merger will be entitled to receive:

severance payments based on the number of years worked and the employee's weekly rate of pay; certain outplacement consultation services at a cost not to exceed $1,000 per employee; and accrued benefits, including vacation pay, through the date of termination of employment.

Board of Directors Appointments. Pursuant to the merger agreement, four current Oak Hill directors will be appointed to the board of directors of WesBanco. These directors have been identified in the merger agreement as John D. Kidd, D. Bruce Knox, Neil S. Strawser and Donald P. Wood. The Oak Hill directors appointed to the board of directors of WesBanco will serve until the next meeting of WesBanco's shareholders and will be nominated for election to the WesBanco board at that shareholder meeting and subsequent shareholder meetings until the Oak Hill director has served a three year term. In addition, each member of the Oak Hill board of directors at the effective time of the merger, will be appointed to a newly created advisory board for WesBanco Bank for the Jackson, Ohio market. Each advisory board member will serve for at least one year and, except for Oak Hill directors appointed to the WesBanco board of directors, will receive the same annual compensation they received for service on the Oak Hill board of directors for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

Indemnification. WesBanco has agreed that it will, following the effective time of the merger for a period of six years, indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the current and former directors and officers of Oak Hill against all costs, expenses, claims, damages, or liabilities arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, including provisions relating to advances of expenses. The merger agreement further provides that WesBanco will obtain six years of extended liability insurance to provide for continued coverage of Oak Hill's directors and officers with respect to matters occurring prior to the effective time of the merger, subject to a cap that limits the amount that WesBanco must expend for such liability insurance to no more than an aggregate of $150,000.

Ownership by Oak Hill Officers and Directors. As of the record date, directors and officers of Oak Hill beneficially owned, in the aggregate, 1,354,406 shares of Oak Hill common stock, representing approximately 25.2% of the outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock. All of Oak Hill's directors and officers who own Oak Hill common stock will, as a result of the merger, be entitled to elect to receive the same merger consideration for each share of Oak Hill common stock owned by him or her as every other Oak Hill shareholder. Directors and officers of Oak Hill will be treated the same as other Oak Hill shareholders, except that they may be subject to certain restrictions on any resale of WesBanco common stock received by them pursuant to the merger.

Regulatory Approvals

WesBanco and Oak Hill have agreed to use their best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. These approvals include approval from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, which we refer to as the Federal Reserve Board. WesBanco and Oak Hill have completed, or will complete, the filing of applications and notifications to obtain the required regulatory approvals.

Federal Reserve Board. The merger is subject to approval by the Federal Reserve Board pursuant to Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended. We filed the required application with the Federal Reserve Board on September 10, 2007.

The Federal Reserve Board is prohibited from approving any transaction under the applicable statutes that (1) would result in a monopoly, (2) would be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States, or (3) may have the effect in any section of the United States of substantially lessening competition, tending to create a monopoly or resulting in a restraint of trade, unless the Federal Reserve Board finds that the anti-competitive effects of the transaction are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

In addition, in reviewing a transaction under the applicable statutes, the Federal Reserve Board will consider the financial and managerial resources of the companies and their subsidiary banks and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served as well as the companies' effectiveness in combating money-laundering activities. In connection with its review, the Federal Reserve Board will provide an opportunity for public comment on the application for the merger.

Under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977 (CRA), the Federal Reserve Board must take into account the record of performance of each of WesBanco and Oak Hill in meeting the credit needs of the entire community, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods, served by each company and their subsidiaries. WesBanco's and Oak Hill's subsidiary depository institutions that are subject to the CRA have outstanding and satisfactory CRA ratings, respectively, with the applicable federal regulator.

Other Requisite Approvals, Notices and Consents. Because Oak Hill Banks is an Ohio state-chartered bank, WesBanco is required under Ohio law to give sixty (60) days prior written notice to the Ohio Superintendent of Financial Institutions of the acquisition of Oak Hill and Oak Hill Banks as a result of the merger and to request the Superintendent's consent to the transaction. Such notice is provided by filing with the Superintendent an originally executed copy of the application that WesBanco filed with the Federal Reserve Board pursuant to Section 3 of the

Table of Contents

Bank Holding Company Act. WesBanco filed the required copy with the Ohio Superintendent of Financial Institutions on September 10, 2007.

Under applicable Ohio law and rules of the Ohio Superintendent of Financial Institutions, the Superintendent may deny consent to the acquisition of an Ohio state-chartered bank if (1) the transaction would result in a monopoly, (2) the transaction would be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the State of Ohio, (3) the transaction may have the effect in any part of the State of Ohio of substantially lessening competition, tending to create a monopoly or resulting in a restraint of trade, unless the Superintendent finds that the anti-competitive effects of the transaction are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, (4) the financial condition of any acquiring person might jeopardize the financial stability of the bank or prejudice the interests of the bank's depositors, (5) the competence, experience and integrity of any acquiring person or of any of the proposed management indicates that it would not be in the interest of the bank's depositors or the public to permit the transaction, (6) any acquiring person neglects, fails or refuses to furnish the Superintendent all information required, or (7) the Superintendent determines that the transaction would have an adverse effect on the bank insurance fund administered by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The merger is also subject to providing prior notification of the acquisition of non-banking entities to the West Virginia Board of Banking and Financial Institutions. We have filed the requisite notification with the West Virginia Board of Banking and Financial Institutions.

Timing. There can be no assurance that the requisite regulatory approvals will be obtained, and if obtained, there can be no assurance as to the date of any approval. There can also be no assurance that any regulatory approvals will not contain a condition or requirement that causes the approvals to fail to satisfy the condition set forth in the merger agreement and described under "The Merger" Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 58.

Pursuant to the Bank Holding Company Act, a transaction approved by the Federal Reserve Board may not be completed until 30 days after approval is received, during which time the Department of Justice may challenge the transaction on antitrust grounds. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of an approval unless a court specifically ordered otherwise. With the approval of the Federal Reserve Board and the concurrence of the Department of Justice, the waiting period may be reduced to no less than 15 days.

Neither WesBanco nor Oak Hill is aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required for completion of the merger other than those described above. It is presently contemplated that if any such additional governmental approvals or actions are required, those approvals or actions will be sought. There can be no assurance, however, that any additional approvals or actions will be obtained.

The approval of any application merely implies the satisfaction of regulatory criteria for approval, which does not include review of the merger from the standpoint of the adequacy of the cash consideration or the exchange ratio for converting Oak Hill common stock to WesBanco common stock. Furthermore, regulatory approvals do not constitute an endorsement or recommendation of the merger by the regulators.

Dissenter's Rights

Dissenter's rights are statutory rights that enable shareholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. An Oak Hill shareholder is entitled to relief as a dissenting shareholder under Section 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law only if he or she complies strictly with all of the procedural and other requirements of Section 1701.85, a copy of which is attached hereto as Annex D. The following is a description of the material terms of Section 1701.85.

The following summary does not purport to be a complete statement of the law relating to dissenter's rights and is qualified in its entirety by Section 1701.85. This summary and Section 1701.85 should be reviewed carefully by any Oak Hill shareholder who wishes to exercise dissenter's rights or who wishes to preserve his or her right to do so, since failure to comply with the procedures provided in Section 1701.85 will result in the loss of those rights. Any Oak Hill shareholder who is considering dissenting should consult his or her legal advisor.

In order to preserve dissenters' rights in connection with the merger, an Oak Hill shareholder must deliver to Oak Hill a written demand for the payment of the fair cash value of his or her dissenting shares. To be effective, a demand must be made by the record holder of the dissenting shares, must be delivered to Oak Hill no later than ten days after the vote on the approval and adoption of the merger agreement at the special meeting of Oak Hill shareholders, the shares must not have been voted in favor of the merger and the demand must contain the following information: (a) the identity and address of the dissenting shareholder; (b) the number and class of his or her dissenting shares; and (c) the amount claimed by the dissenting shareholder as the fair cash value of his or her dissenting shares. Any written demand for payment should be mailed or delivered to Dale B. Shafer, Secretary of Oak Hill, 14621 State Road 93, Jackson, Ohio 45640. As the written demand must be delivered to Oak Hill within the 10-day period following the special meeting, it is recommended that a dissenting shareholder use certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to confirm that he or she has made a timely delivery.

If Oak Hill sends the dissenting shareholder, at the address specified in his or her demand, a request for the certificate(s) representing his or her shares, the dissenting shareholder must deliver the certificate(s) to Oak Hill within 15 days of the date Oak Hill sent the request. Oak Hill will endorse the certificate(s) with a legend to the effect that the shareholder has demanded the fair cash value of the shares represented by the certificate(s). Oak Hill will then return such shares to the dissenting shareholder. If the shareholder fails to deliver the certificate(s) within 15 days of the request, Oak Hill may terminate his or her right to dissent. Oak Hill must notify the shareholder of its election to terminate his or her rights as a dissenting shareholder within 20 days after the lapse of the 15-day period.

An Oak Hill shareholder cannot vote in favor of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby if he or she intends to seek dissenters' rights. An Oak Hill shareholder who wishes to exercise dissenters' rights must either: (1) not sign and return the proxy card, or (2) sign and return the proxy card, and vote against or abstain from voting on the adoption of the merger agreement. Neither a vote against the merger agreement, nor any proxy directing such vote, nor an abstention from the vote, will satisfy the requirement that a demand be filed with Oak Hill.

If a dissenting shareholder and Oak Hill do not agree on the fair cash value of the dissenting shares, then the dissenting shareholder must file a complaint (a dissenter's complaint) in the Common Pleas Court of Hamilton County, Ohio within three months after the service of the demand in order to preserve his or her rights under Section 1701.85. Oak Hill would also be permitted to file a dissenter's complaint within that three-month period.

In the event of the filing of a dissenter's complaint, the court will determine whether or not a dissenting shareholder has complied with the requirements of Section 1701.85 and is entitled to dissenters' rights. If so, the court will appraise (or appoint persons to appraise) the dissenting shares, determining the fair cash value to which, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, the dissenting shareholder is entitled.

For purposes of dissenters' rights, fair cash value means the amount a willing seller, under no compulsion to sell, would be willing to accept, and that a willing buyer, under no compulsion to purchase, would be willing to pay, but in no event will fair cash value be more than that demanded by the particular dissenting shareholder in his or her appraisal demand. Ohio law requires that fair cash value be determined exclusive of any appreciation or depreciation of value arising from the completion of the merger. The Common Pleas Court may determine the costs of an appraisal proceeding and require the parties to pay those costs as it deems equitable under the circumstances.

A dissenting shareholder's right to receive fair cash value for his or her dissenting shares terminates if a shareholder: (a) does not comply with Section 1701.85; (b) withdraws his or her demand with Oak Hill board consent; or (c) fails to file a dissenter's complaint with the Court of Common Pleas within the prescribed time limits. After a termination of dissenter's rights, unless Oak Hill purchases the dissenting shares, the dissenting shareholder would receive the distributions he or she would have received in the merger had he or she not exercised rights of appraisal.

Restrictions on Resales by Affiliates of Oak Hill

The shares of WesBanco common stock that you will receive in the merger will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933. Such shares may be traded freely and without restriction by those shareholders not deemed to be affiliates of Oak Hill or WesBanco as that term is defined under the Securities Act of 1933.

If you are an affiliate of Oak Hill before the merger or an affiliate of WesBanco after the merger, you may resell the shares of WesBanco common stock issued to you in the merger only:

pursuant to an effective registration statement;

pursuant to Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933; or in transactions exempt from registration.

An affiliate of Oak Hill is a person who directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with Oak Hill. Stop transfer instructions will be given by WesBanco to its transfer agent with respect to WesBanco common stock received by an Oak Hill affiliate. Oak Hill has agreed to use its best efforts to obtain from each of its affiliates an agreement in the form as the agreement attached as Exhibit A to the merger agreement, that each such individual will not make any sales of shares of WesBanco common stock received in the merger, except in compliance with the restrictions described in this paragraph. WesBanco is not obligated and does not intend to register for resale the shares issued to affiliates of Oak Hill.

Accounting Treatment

WesBanco will account for the merger using the purchase method of accounting. Under this method of accounting, WesBanco will record the estimated fair value of Oak Hill's assets and liabilities on its financial statements. The difference between the purchase price paid by WesBanco and the estimated fair value of Oak Hill's tangible and identifiable intangible assets net of its liabilities will be recorded on WesBanco's books as goodwill. The application of this accounting treatment is shown in the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information included on pages 13 through 20 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The operations of Oak Hill will be included in WesBanco's results of operations subsequent to the effective time of the merger.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following discussion addresses the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of Oak Hill common stock. The discussion is based on the Tax Code, Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, administrative rulings and practice, and judicial decisions, all as in effect as of the date of this registration statement and all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect) and to differing interpretations. This discussion applies only to Oak Hill shareholders that hold their Oak Hill common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Tax Code. This discussion does not address all aspects of United States federal taxation that may be relevant to a particular shareholder in light of its personal circumstances or to shareholders subject to special treatment under the United States federal income tax laws, including:

banks, financial institutions, thrifts, or trusts, tax-exempt organizations,

insurance companies,

dealers in securities or foreign currency, traders, brokers, and dealers in securities who elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting, partnerships and other pass-through entities and investors in such entities, foreign persons, shareholders who received their Oak Hill common stock through the exercise of employee stock options or holders of options to acquire Oak Hill common stock who receive such options, in each case, through a tax-qualified retirement plan or otherwise as compensation, shareholders who hold Oak Hill common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale, conversion transaction or other integrated investment, shareholders with a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar, and real estate investment trusts, personal holding companies, and regulated investment companies.

In addition, the discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax or any state, local, gift, or foreign tax consequences of the merger.

Each Holder of Oak Hill Common Stock Is Strongly Urged to Consult its Tax Advisor with Respect to the Particular Tax Consequences of the Merger to Such Holder.

The merger is conditioned upon receipt at closing by Oak Hill of a legal opinion from Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP, tax counsel to Oak Hill, and upon receipt at closing by WesBanco of a legal opinion from Kirkpatrick & Lockhart Preston Gates Ellis LLP, tax counsel to WesBanco, in each case, to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Tax Code. Neither of these opinions is binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts, and neither Oak Hill nor WesBanco intends to request a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service regarding the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. Consequently, no assurance can be given that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of those set forth below.

The opinions of Kirkpatrick & Lockhart Preston Gates Ellis LLP and Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP will rely on certain assumptions that customarily are made with respect to transactions of this kind. The opinions also will rely on certain factual representations contained in officers' certificates of Oak Hill and WesBanco. Kirkpatrick & Lockhart Preston Gates Ellis LLP and Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP will assume such representations to be true, correct and complete. If any such representation cannot be made on the effective time of the merger, or any fact, representation, or assumption is incorrect, then Kirkpatrick & Lockhart Preston Gates Ellis LLP and Porter Wright Morris & Arthur LLP may be unable to render the opinions upon which the closing is conditioned or the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected.

The remainder of this discussion assumes that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Tax Code, in which case neither WesBanco nor Oak Hill will recognize any gain or loss as a result of the merger and the following United States federal income tax consequences will result.

The United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to an Oak Hill shareholder generally will depend on whether the shareholder exchanges its Oak Hill common stock for only cash, only WesBanco common stock, or a combination of cash and WesBanco common stock.

Receipt of Cash Only

Gain or Loss. In general, an Oak Hill shareholder who, pursuant to the merger, receives only cash (for example, as a result of such shareholder's election to receive the cash consideration for all such shareholder's Oak Hill common stock) in exchange for Oak Hill common stock will recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and such Oak Hill shareholder's adjusted tax basis in the Oak Hill common stock surrendered (unless the receipt of cash has the effect of the distribution of a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes as discussed below under Receipt of WesBanco Common Stock and Cash). Such gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for such shareholder's Oak Hill common stock is more than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations.

Receipt of WesBanco Common Stock Only

No Gain or Loss. An Oak Hill shareholder who, pursuant to the merger, receives only WesBanco common stock in exchange for Oak Hill common stock will not recognize any gain or loss upon the receipt of such WesBanco common stock, except in respect of cash, if any, received in lieu of a fractional share of WesBanco common stock (as discussed below under Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of WesBanco Common Stock).

Table of Contents

Tax Basis. The aggregate adjusted tax basis of WesBanco common stock received in the merger generally will be equal to the aggregate adjusted tax basis of the Oak Hill common stock surrendered therefor.

Holding Period. The holding period of WesBanco common stock received in the merger will include the period during which the shares of Oak Hill common stock were held.

Receipt of WesBanco Common Stock and Cash

Gain But No Loss. An Oak Hill shareholder who, pursuant to the merger, receives a combination of cash and WesBanco common stock in exchange for Oak Hill common stock will recognize gain, but not loss, in an amount equal to the lesser of:

- (1) the amount of gain realized with respect to the Oak Hill common stock surrendered in the exchange; and
- (2) the amount of cash received (other than cash received in lieu of a fractional share of WesBanco common stock, which will be taxed as discussed below under Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of WesBanco Common Stock).

For purposes of (1) above, the amount of gain realized with respect to the Oak Hill common stock exchanged will equal the excess, if any, of:

the sum of the cash received plus the fair market value of WesBanco common stock received over the Oak Hill shareholder's adjusted tax basis in such Oak Hill common stock.

For this purpose, gain or loss must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares of Oak Hill common stock surrendered in the merger, and a loss realized on one block of shares may not be used to offset a gain realized on another block of shares. Holders should consult their tax advisors regarding the manner in which cash and shares of WesBanco common stock should be allocated among different blocks of their Oak Hill common stock surrendered in the merger.

For purposes of determining the character of this gain, such Oak Hill shareholder will be treated as having received only WesBanco common stock in exchange for such shareholder's Oak Hill common stock, and as having immediately redeemed a portion of such WesBanco common stock for the cash received. Unless this deemed redemption is treated as a dividend (as described below in Possible Treatment of Cash as a Dividend) to the extent of such shareholder's ratable share of accumulated earnings and profits of Oak Hill, the gain will be capital gain if the Oak Hill common stock is held by such shareholder as a capital asset at the time of the merger. Any capital gain will be long-term capital gain if, as of the date of the exchange, the holding period for such Oak Hill common stock is more than one year.

Tax Basis. The aggregate adjusted tax basis of WesBanco common stock received in the merger generally will be equal to the aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of Oak Hill common stock surrendered in the merger, reduced by the amount of cash received by the holder in the merger (excluding any cash received instead of a fractional share), and increased by the amount of gain recognized by the holder in the merger (including any portion of the gain that is treated as a dividend, as described below under Possible Treatment of Cash as a Dividend, but excluding any gain or loss resulting from the deemed issuance and redemption of fractional shares as described below under Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of WesBanco Common Stock).

Holding Period. The holding period of WesBanco common stock received in the merger will include the holding period of the Oak Hill common stock exchanged therefor.

Possible Treatment of Cash as a Dividend. In some situations, cash received in the merger could be treated as having the effect of the distribution of a dividend, under the tests set forth in Section 302 of the Tax Code, in which case such gain would be treated as dividend income. In general, the appropriate tax treatment will depend upon whether and to what extent the exchange reduces an Oak Hill shareholder's deemed percentage ownership of WesBanco, which is determined by treating the Oak Hill shareholder as if it first exchanged all of its shares of Oak Hill common stock solely for shares of WesBanco common stock and then WesBanco immediately redeemed all or a portion of those shares in exchange for the cash actually received by the shareholder. Whether an exchange would result in a meaningful reduction depends on the particular Oak Hill shareholder's facts and circumstances. In determining an Oak Hill shareholder's interest in WesBanco common stock, the Oak Hill shareholder may be deemed to own any shares of WesBanco common stock owned, or constructively owned, by certain persons related to such Oak Hill shareholder or that are subject to an option held by the Oak Hill shareholder or a related person.

These rules are complex and dependent upon the specific factual circumstances particular to each Oak Hill shareholder. Additionally, if pro-ration of the merger consideration occurs, the risk of unintended dividend characterization may be increased. Consequently, each holder should consult its tax advisor as to the application of these rules to the particular facts relevant to such holder. Oak Hill shareholders that are corporations should consult their tax advisors regarding their eligibility for a dividends received deduction and the treatment of the dividend as an extraordinary dividend under section 1059 of the Tax Code.

Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of WesBanco Common Stock

An Oak Hill shareholder who receives cash instead of a fractional share of WesBanco common stock will generally be treated as having received such fractional share and then as having received such cash in redemption of that fractional share by WesBanco. Unless the receipt of such cash is treated as a dividend under the principles discussed above under Possible Treatment of Cash as a Dividend, an Oak Hill shareholder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the Oak Hill shareholder's portion of such shareholder's aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of Oak Hill common stock exchanged in the merger which is allocable to the fractional share. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period for such shares is more than one year.

Reporting Requirements

A holder of Oak Hill common stock receiving WesBanco common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records related to such holder's Oak Hill common stock and file with its United States federal income tax return a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the merger.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Cash payments received in the merger may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding (currently at the rate of 28%) of the cash payable to the shareholder, unless the shareholder provides proof of an applicable exemption or furnishes its taxpayer identification number, and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to Oak Hill shareholders under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against such holder's federal income tax liability provided that the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

The foregoing discussion is intended only as a summary and does not purport to be a complete analysis or listing of all potential United States federal income tax consequences of the merger.

Conduct of Business Prior to the Merger

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Oak Hill and WesBanco have agreed that, until the merger becomes effective or the merger agreement is terminated, whichever occurs first, each will, with some exceptions:

use its best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all necessary actions required to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

take all necessary steps to exempt the merger agreement and the merger from applicable anti-takeover laws and assist the other party in any challenge of the validity, or applicability to the merger, of any such law;

cooperate in furnishing information for the preparation and filing of the joint proxy statement/prospectus;

cooperate and use its best efforts to prepare all documentation, to timely effect all filings and to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental and regulatory authorities which are necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement; to the extent practicable, each will consult with the other, in each case subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, with respect to, and shall be provided in advance so as to reasonably exercise its right to review in advance, all material written information submitted to any third party or any governmental or regulatory authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

consult with the other party with respect to the obtaining of all material permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and governmental and regulatory authorities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

upon request, furnish the other party with all information concerning itself, its subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with any filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of such other party or of its subsidiaries to any third party or governmental or regulatory authority;

not (1) knowingly take any action that would, or would be reasonably likely to, prevent or impede the merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; or (2) knowingly take any action that is intended or is reasonably likely to result in (x) any of its representations and warranties set forth in the merger agreement being or becoming untrue in any material respect, (y) any of the conditions of the merger, as set forth in the merger agreement, being satisfied, or (z) a material violation of any provision of the merger agreement, except, in each case, as may be required by applicable law; and promptly shall notify the other party in writing if the party becomes aware of any fact or condition that (i) causes or constitutes a breach in any material respect of any of such party's representations and warranties or (ii) would (except as expressly contemplated by the merger agreement) cause or constitute a breach in any material respect of any such representation or warranty had such representation or warranty been made as of the time of occurrence or discovery of such fact or condition. Should any such fact or condition require any change in the breaching party's disclosure schedule, that party shall promptly deliver to the other party a supplement to its disclosure schedule specifying such change. During the same period, each party shall promptly notify the other party of (i) the occurrence of any breach in any material respect of any of the party's or its subsidiaries' covenants contained in the merger agreement, (ii) the occurrence of any event that may make the satisfaction of the conditions in the merger agreement impossible or unlikely in any material respect, or (iii) the occurrence of any event that is reasonably likely, individually or taken with all other facts, events or circumstances known to the disclosing party, to result in a material adverse effect with respect to disclosing party.

In addition, except as otherwise approved in writing by WesBanco, Oak Hill has agreed that:

it will not sell, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or subject any of its material assets to a lien or other encumbrance except for (A) internal reorganizations or consolidations involving existing subsidiaries that would not be likely to present a material risk of any material delay in the receipt of any required regulatory approval, (B) securitization activities in the ordinary course of business and (C) other dispositions of assets, including subsidiaries, if the fair market value of the total consideration received therefrom does not exceed in the aggregate, $250,000;

it will, and will cause its subsidiaries to, use their commercially reasonable efforts to maintain and keep their respective properties and facilities in their present condition and working order, ordinary wear and tear excepted, except with respect to such properties and facilities, the loss of which would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Oak Hill;

it will, and will cause its subsidiaries to, perform all of their obligations under all agreements relating to or affecting their respective properties, rights and businesses, except where nonperformance would not have a material adverse effect on Oak Hill;

it will, and will cause its subsidiaries to, use their commercially reasonable efforts to maintain and preserve their respective business organizations intact, to retain present key employees and to maintain the respective relationships of customers, suppliers and others having business relationships with them;

it will maintain its insurance at existing levels with reputable insurers and upon renewal or termination of such insurance, Oak Hill and its subsidiaries will use commercially reasonable efforts to renew or replace such insurance coverage with reputable insurers, in respect of the amounts, premiums, types and risks insured or maintained on March 31, 2007;

it will, and it will cause each of its subsidiaries to, afford to WesBanco and to WesBanco's officers, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants and other advisors reasonable and prompt access during normal business hours, until the merger becomes effective or the merger agreement is terminated, whichever comes first, to all their respective properties, assets, books, contracts, commitments, directors, officers, employees, attorneys, accountants, auditors, other advisors and representatives and records;

except as excluded in the merger agreement, it will, and it will cause each of its subsidiaries to, make available to WesBanco on a prompt basis (i) a copy of each report, schedule, form, statement and other document filed or received by it, until the merger becomes effective or the merger agreement is terminated, whichever comes likely to lead to the acquisition of (A) assets or businesses constituting 20% or more of the total consolidated revenues or assets of Oak Hill and its subsidiaries or (B) 20% or more of Oak Hill's common stock; provided that the Oak Hill board of directors does not determine in good faith, after consulting with legal counsel, that the failure to take any such action will result in a breach of its fiduciary duties; and it will use commercially reasonable efforts to enter into contracts for the sale of certain loans, identified by WesBanco and Oak Hill in the schedules to the merger agreement, conditioned on the consummation of the merger in accordance with the merger agreement.

In addition, WesBanco has further agreed that:

it will use commercially reasonable efforts to continue the employment of at least a majority of the employees of Oak Hill and its subsidiaries and, for those employees whose employment is not continued, WesBanco will provide those individuals with certain benefits;

it will use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the shares of WesBanco common stock to be issued in the merger to be approved for listing on NASDAQ;

it will provide certain indemnification to the directors and officers of Oak Hill and its subsidiaries for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger;

it will cause four directors of Oak Hill to be appointed to the board of directors of WesBanco until the next meeting of WesBanco shareholders and shall nominate the appointed directors for election at such meeting and until such directors have served a full three year term on the WesBanco board of directors;

it will create an advisory board for the Jackson market to which each director of Oak Hill will be appointed for at least one year; and it will conduct, and cause its subsidiaries to conduct, its business in the ordinary and usual course consistent with past practice and will not take any action that would have a materially adverse effect on the surviving corporation without Oak Hill's written consent.

Conditions to the Merger

The respective obligations of Oak Hill and WesBanco to effect the merger are subject to the following conditions, among others:

the approval of the merger agreement by the shareholders of Oak Hill;

the approval of the merger agreement and the related issuance of the shares of WesBanco common stock in connection with the merger by the shareholders of WesBanco;

the absence of any order to restrain, enjoin, or otherwise prevent the consummation of the merger entered by any court or administrative body which remains in effect on the date the merger closes;

the effective status of the Registration Statement on the date the merger closes;

the absence of a pending or threatened stop order or proceedings seeking a stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement or any amendments thereto;

the receipt of all material governmental or other consents, approvals, and permissions;

the merger will not violate any non-appealable final order, decree or judgment of any court or governmental body having competent jurisdiction;

the receipt of all consents required by the merger agreement to be obtained by Oak Hill;

on or before the date the merger closes, the receipt of an opinion from each party's tax counsel to the effect that for federal income tax purposes the merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and regarding certain other tax matters;

the accuracy in all material respects of the representations and warranties of the parties and the performance by the parties in all material respects of all of their obligations set forth in the merger agreement, and the receipt of a certificate from an appropriate officer certifying the foregoing;

the receipt of legal opinions from the parties' counsel;

the shares of WesBanco common stock to be issued in the merger shall have been approved for listing on NASDAQ;

WesBanco shall be satisfied with the deductibility of certain payments to be made to R. E. Coffman, Jr., D. Bruce Knox, David G. Ratz, Scott J. Hinsch, Jr. and Miles R. Armentrout in connection with the merger; and WesBanco or WesBanco Bank shall have entered into employment agreements with R. E. Coffman, Jr., D. Bruce Knox, David G. Ratz, Scott J. Hinsch, Jr. and Miles R. Armentrout.

In addition to the conditions discussed above, WesBanco's obligation to consummate the merger is conditioned upon in the aggregate, a total of less than 10% of the WesBanco common stock to be issued in the merger being (i) subject to purchase as fractional shares, and (ii) proposed to be issued to Oak Hill shareholders who have perfected their dissenter's rights.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the closing of the merger, either before or after the separately scheduled special meetings of the Oak Hill and WesBanco shareholders:

by mutual consent of Oak Hill and WesBanco;

by either Oak Hill or WesBanco if the other party shall have breached any of its representations or warranties or if the other party shall have materially failed to comply with any of its covenants or agreements under the merger agreement and which breach or non-compliance is not cured within thirty calendar days of notice thereof; or by either Oak Hill or WesBanco if the merger has not closed by March 31, 2008, and such failure to close is not caused by a breach of the merger agreement by the terminating party.

WesBanco may terminate the merger agreement:

if Oak Hill's board of directors (A) modifies, qualifies, withholds or withdraws its recommendation, to its shareholders, that they should approve the merger agreement, or makes any statement, filing or release, in connection with the special meeting of the Oak Hill shareholders which is inconsistent with the Seller Recommendation, (B) breaches its obligations to call, give notice of and commence the special meeting of Oak Hill shareholders, (C) approves or recommends an Acquisition Proposal, (D) fails to publicly recommend against a publicly announced Acquisition Proposal within ten (10) business days of being requested to do so by WesBanco, (E) fails to publicly reconfirm its recommendation, to the Oak Hill shareholders, that they approve the merger, within ten (10) business days of being requested to do so by WesBanco, or (F) resolves or otherwise determines to take, or announces an intention to take, any of the foregoing actions; or if there shall have been a material breach of Oak Hill's covenant not to solicit competing offers.

In addition, Oak Hill may terminate the merger agreement:

in order to enter into an agreement with respect to an unsolicited proposal that if consummated would be reasonably likely to result in a transaction more favorable to Oak Hill's shareholders from a financial point of view, provided that certain other terms and conditions contained in the merger agreement are also complied with, and Oak Hill pays the termination fee described below; or if there is a substantial decline in WesBanco's stock price that is not generally experienced by comparable banks, as described in detail below.

Table of Contents

The operation of the conditions permitting Oak Hill to terminate the merger agreement based on a decrease in the market price of the WesBanco common stock reflects the parties' agreement that Oak Hill shareholders will assume the risk of a decline in value of the WesBanco common stock to $23.22 per share under any circumstances and that Oak Hill shareholders will assume the risk of a more significant decline in value of WesBanco common stock unless the percentage decline from $29.03 to the average value of WesBanco common stock during the twenty day period ending on the Determination Date (as defined below) is more than 15% greater than the percentage decrease, if any, in the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index from July 19, 2007 to the Determination Date. The purpose of this agreement is that a decline in the value of WesBanco's common stock which is comparable to the decline in the value of an index of comparable publicly-traded stocks is indicative of a broad-based change in market and economic conditions affecting the financial services industry generally rather than factors which affect the value of the WesBanco common stock in particular.

Specifically, Oak Hill may terminate the merger agreement during the five-day period (Election Period) ending two days prior to the effective time of the merger, if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

- (i) the average daily closing price of a share of WesBanco common stock during the twenty trading days ending seven calendar days prior to the effective time of the merger (the WesBanco Ending Price) is less than $23.22;
- (ii) the quotient obtained by dividing the WesBanco Ending Price by $29.03 (the WesBanco Starting Price) is less than the difference obtained by subtracting 0.15 from the quotient obtained by dividing the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index on the date that is seven calendar days prior to the effective time of the merger (the Determination Date) by 3,091.90, which was the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index on July 19, 2007;
- (iii) Oak Hill notifies WesBanco of Oak Hill's intention to terminate the merger agreement during the Election Period; and
- (iv) WesBanco elects not to increase the exchange ratio in accordance with the formula described below within the five-day period following its receipt of notice that Oak Hill intends to so terminate the merger agreement.

Even if the first two conditions described above are met, the Oak Hill board of directors may elect not to terminate the merger agreement. Any decision to terminate the merger agreement will be made by the Oak Hill board of directors in light of all of the circumstances existing at the time. Prior to making any decision to terminate the merger agreement, the Oak Hill board of directors would consult with its financial and other advisors and would consider all financial and other information it deemed relevant to its decision, including whether the then current consideration to be received in the merger would deliver more value to Oak Hill shareholders than the value that could be expected in the event Oak Hill were to continue as an independent company (which would occur if the Oak Hill board of directors were to elect to abandon the merger and WesBanco determined not to increase the exchange ratio). In addition, the Oak Hill board of directors would consider whether, in light of market and other industry conditions at the time of such decision, the exchange ratio continued to be fair from a financial point of view to Oak Hill's shareholders. If Oak Hill elected not to terminate the merger agreement, which it could do without any action on the part of Oak Hill shareholders, the exchange ratio of WesBanco common stock would remain 1.256.

If each of the first two conditions set forth above were satisfied and the Oak Hill board of directors elected to terminate the merger agreement, WesBanco would have the option of increasing the consideration payable to Oak Hill shareholders by adjusting the exchange ratio as described below. WesBanco is under no obligation to adjust the exchange ratio and there can be no assurance that WesBanco would elect to adjust the exchange ratio to prevent the termination of the merger agreement. Any decision would be made by WesBanco in light of the circumstances existing at the time. If WesBanco elected to adjust the exchange ratio, Oak Hill could not terminate the merger agreement as a result of the above-described circumstances.

Table of Contents

The operation and effect of the provisions of the merger agreement dealing with a decline in the market price of WesBanco's common stock may be illustrated by the following three scenarios:

(1) One scenario is that the WesBanco Ending Price is above $23.22. In this event, Oak Hill would not have the right to terminate the merger agreement.

(2) A second scenario is that the WesBanco Ending Price is less than $23.22 but that the percentage decline in the price of the WesBanco common stock from the initial measurement price of $29.03 is not more than 15% greater than the percentage decline, if any, in the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index. Under this scenario, Oak Hill would not have the right to terminate the merger agreement.

(3) A third scenario is that the WesBanco Ending Price is less than $23.22 and the percentage decline in the price of WesBanco common stock from the initial measurement price is more than 15% greater than the decline in the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index. Under this scenario, Oak Hill would have the right, but not the obligation, to terminate the merger agreement unless WesBanco elected to increase the exchange ratio to the lesser of:

the number obtained by dividing (A) $29.17 (the product of $29.03, 0.80 and the exchange ratio of 1.256) by (B) the WesBanco Ending Price; and the number equal to the product of 1.256 multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number obtained by subtracting 0.15 from the quotient obtained by dividing the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index on the Determination Date by 3,091.90, which was the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index on July 19, 2007, and the denominator of which is the price determined in the immediately preceding bullet divided by the $29.03.

For example, if the WesBanco Ending Price was $21.00 and the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index was 2,900 on the Determination Date, Oak Hill would have the right to elect to terminate the merger agreement because (i) the WesBanco Ending Price would be less than $23.22 and (ii) the WesBanco Ending Price divided by the WesBanco Starting Price ($$21.00/$29.03 = .723$) would be less than the difference obtained by subtracting 0.15 from the quotient obtained by dividing the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index on the Determination Date by the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index on July 19, 2007 ($(2,900/3,091.90) - 0.15 = 0.788$). If Oak Hill were to exercise its right to terminate the merger agreement, WesBanco would have the option to increase the exchange ratio to the lesser of (i) 1.389 (the number determined by dividing $29.17 by the $21.00 WesBanco Ending Price), and (ii) 1.369 (the number determined by multiplying 1.256 (the exchange ratio) by a fraction, the numerator of which is 0.788 (the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index on the Determination Date (2,900) divided by the closing value of the NASDAQ Bank Index on July 19, 2007 (3091.90) less 0.15) and the denominator of which is .723 (the WesBanco Ending Price ($21.00) divided by the WesBanco Starting Price ($29.03))). If WesBanco exercised its option to adjust the exchange ratio, the exchange ratio would be 1.369 and Oak Hill would be obligated to complete the merger (assuming all other conditions to Oak Hill's obligation to close the merger were satisfied or waived).

If, between July 19, 2007 and the Determination Date, WesBanco declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction, the prices for the common stock of WesBanco shall be appropriately adjusted for purposes of the above-discussed termination provision.

In the event of any termination of the merger agreement by either Oak Hill or WesBanco as provided above, all further obligations of Oak Hill and WesBanco under the merger agreement, except with respect to specified matters, will terminate without further liability of the parties.

Expenses

Whether or not the merger is completed, all legal and accounting fees, and other costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement, will be paid by the party incurring such expenses. WesBanco will pay all governmental and regulatory authority fees incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Termination Fee

The merger agreement provides that Oak Hill may be required to pay a termination fee to WesBanco of $6.0 million in the following circumstances:

If (A) WesBanco terminated the merger agreement because Oak Hill's board of directors (1) has modified, qualified, withheld or withdrawn its recommendation to the Oak Hill shareholders that they vote to approve the merger, or made any statement, filing or release, in connection with the special meeting of Oak Hill shareholders or otherwise, that was inconsistent with such recommendation, (2) breached its obligations to call, give notice of and commence the special meeting of Oak Hill shareholders, (3) approved or recommended an Acquisition Proposal, (4) failed to publicly recommend against a publicly announced Acquisition Proposal within ten business days of being requested to do so by WesBanco, (5) failed to publicly reconfirm its recommendation to the Oak Hill shareholders that they vote to approve the merger within ten business days of being requested to do so by WesBanco, or (6) resolved or otherwise determined to take, or announced an intention to take, any of the foregoing actions, and (B) Oak Hill consummates an Acquisition Transaction or enters into any definitive agreement with respect to an Acquisition Transaction;

If (1) the merger agreement is terminated by Oak Hill because the Oak Hill board of directors has approved or recommended to the Oak Hill shareholders an Acquisition Transaction between Oak Hill and a third party and (2) within 12 months of such termination, Oak Hill consummates an Acquisition Transaction or enters into any definitive agreement with respect to an Acquisition Transaction;

If (1) the merger agreement is terminated by either party because the merger has not been completed by March 31, 2008 or because the Oak Hill shareholders failed to adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting of Oak Hill's shareholders, (2) an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Oak Hill was publicly announced, disclosed or communicated to Oak Hill's board of directors prior to March 31, 2008 or the special meeting of Oak Hill shareholders, and (3) within 12 months of such termination, Oak Hill consummates an Acquisition Transaction or enters into any definitive agreement with respect to an Acquisition Transaction; or

If (1) prior to the effective date of the merger Oak Hill had committed a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements, (2) an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Oak Hill was publicly announced, disclosed or communicated to Oak Hill's board of directors prior to such breach by Oak Hill resulting in termination of the merger agreement by WesBanco, and (3) within 12 months of such termination, Oak Hill consummates an Acquisition Transaction or enters into any definitive agreement with respect to an Acquisition Transaction.

As defined in the merger agreement, Acquisition Proposal means any inquiry, offer or proposal (other than an inquiry offer or proposal from WesBanco), whether or not in writing, contemplating, relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Transaction. An Acquisition Transaction means:

any transaction or series of transactions involving any merger, consolidation, recapitalization, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Oak Hill or any of its subsidiaries;

any transaction pursuant to which any third party or group acquires or would acquire (whether through sale, lease or other disposition), directly or indirectly, any assets of Oak Hill or any of its subsidiaries representing, in the aggregate, twenty percent (20%) or more of the assets of Oak Hill and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis;

any issuance, sale or other disposition of (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange or any similar transaction) securities (or options, rights or warrants to purchase or securities convertible into, such securities) representing twenty percent (20%) or more of the votes attached to the outstanding securities of Oak Hill or any of its subsidiaries;

any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any third party or group beneficially owning twenty percent (20%) or more of any class of equity securities of Oak Hill or any of its subsidiaries; or any transaction which is similar in form, substance or purpose to any of the foregoing transactions, or any combination of the foregoing.

Amendment or Waiver

The provisions of the merger agreement may be waived at any time by the party that is entitled to the benefit of those provisions, by action taken by the board of directors of that party. Any of the terms of the merger agreement may be amended or modified in writing before the separately scheduled special meetings of the Oak Hill and WesBanco shareholders. The merger agreement may be amended after the special meetings and prior to the closing of the merger only to the extent permitted by applicable laws.

OTHER MATERIAL AGREEMENTS RELATING TO THE MERGER

Voting Agreements

The following summary of the voting agreements is qualified by reference to the complete text of the form of voting agreement, which is attached to this document as Annex E and incorporated into this document by reference.

In connection with the merger agreement, WesBanco entered into voting agreements with certain Oak Hill directors and officers, consisting of John D. Kidd, D. Bruce Knox, Neil S. Strawser, Donald P. Wood and Evan E. Davis, as director emeritus of Oak Hill. In the voting agreements, each of these shareholders has agreed to vote, and granted WesBanco an irrevocable proxy and power of attorney to vote, all of his shares of Oak Hill common stock:

in favor of approval of the merger agreement and the transactions described in the merger agreement, including the merger; against any action or agreement that would result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty, or any other obligation or agreement of Oak Hill contained in the merger agreement or of the shareholder contained in the voting agreement, or that would preclude fulfillment of a condition under the merger agreement to Oak Hill's and WesBanco's respective obligations to consummate the merger; and against any acquisition proposal, or any agreement or transaction that is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the consummation of the merger or any of the other transactions described in the merger agreement.

Under the voting agreements, each of the shareholders also agreed not to, and not to permit any of his affiliates, to:

initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage, or take any action to facilitate the making of, any inquiry, offer or proposal which constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, another acquisition proposal;

participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding another acquisition proposal;

enter into any agreement with respect to another acquisition proposal; solicit proxies or take any action to facilitate a solicitation with respect to another acquisition proposal;

initiate a shareholders' vote or action by consent of Oak Hill shareholders with respect to another acquisition proposal; or except by reason of the voting agreement, become a member of a group with respect to any Oak Hill voting securities that takes any action in support of another acquisition proposal.

In addition, except under limited circumstances, these shareholders also agreed not to dispose of or encumber their shares of Oak Hill common stock while the voting agreements are in effect. The voting agreements terminate immediately upon the earlier of the effective time of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

As of the record date, there were 1,205,363 shares of Oak Hill common stock subject to the voting agreements, which represent approximately 22.4% of the outstanding shares of Oak Hill common stock as of that date.

WesBanco operates through 78 banking offices and 110 ATM machines in West Virginia, Ohio and Pennsylvania. WesBanco's main office is located at One Bank Plaza, Wheeling, West Virginia, 26003 and its telephone number is (304) 234-9000.

WesBanco's community banking segment offers services traditionally offered by full-service commercial banks, including commercial demand, individual demand and time deposit accounts as well as commercial, mortgage and individual installment loans. The trust and investment services segment offers trust services as well as various alternative investment products including mutual funds and annuities. The market value of assets under management of the trust and investment services segment was approximately $3.0 billion at June 30, 2007. These assets are held by WesBanco's affiliate, WesBanco Bank, Inc. in fiduciary or agency capacities for its customers.

As of June 30, 2007, WesBanco's commercial banking subsidiary, WesBanco Bank, was operated through 78 offices and 110 ATM machines located in West Virginia, Ohio, and Western Pennsylvania.

WesBanco offers additional services through its non-banking affiliates, WesBanco Insurance Services, Inc., a multi-line insurance agency specializing in property, casualty and life insurance for personal and commercial clients and WesBanco Securities, Inc., a full service broker-dealer, which also offers discount brokerage services. WesBanco Asset Management, Inc. and WesBanco Services, Inc., which were incorporated in November 2002, collectively hold certain investment securities and real estate loans of WesBanco Bank, Inc. and assist in managing these assets. There were approximately 1,191 full-time equivalent employees employed by all WesBanco affiliates as of June 30, 2007.

The lending philosophy of WesBanco is to minimize credit losses by underwriting loans to uniform credit standards (which includes independent analysis of the repayment capacity of each borrower; adequacy of collateral, if any, to secure each loan; and other factors unique to each loan that may increase or mitigate their risk), diversifying its loan portfolio to avoid concentrations of credit to any single borrower, group of related borrowers, industry, or collateral type, and conducting ongoing reviews and monitoring of the loan portfolio. WesBanco makes commercial, commercial real estate, residential real estate (including home equity), and direct and indirect consumer loans to individuals and businesses that are primarily located within its market areas.

No material portion of the deposits of WesBanco Bank has been obtained from a single or small group of customers, and the loss of any customer's deposits or a small group of customers' deposits would not have a material adverse effect on the business of WesBanco.

WesBanco also serves as investment adviser to a family of mutual funds under the name WesMark Funds which includes the WesMark Growth Fund, the WesMark Balanced Fund, the WesMark Bond Fund, the WesMark West Virginia Municipal Bond Fund, the WesMark Small Company Growth Fund and the Automated Cash Management Trust.

As part of its operations, WesBanco regularly evaluates the potential acquisition of, and holds discussions with, various financial institutions and other businesses of a type eligible for financial holding company investment. In addition, WesBanco regularly analyzes the values of, and submits bids for, the acquisition of customer-based funds and other liabilities and assets of such financial institutions and other businesses. As a general rule, WesBanco publicly announces such material acquisitions when a definitive agreement has been reached.

DESCRIPTION OF WESBANCO CAPITAL STOCK

The authorized capital stock of WesBanco consists of 50,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $2.0833 per share, and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock without par value. As of October 8, 2007, there were approximately 20,628,092 shares of WesBanco common stock outstanding, held of record by approximately 4,748 holders.

As of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, there were no shares of preferred stock outstanding. Shares of preferred stock may be issued in one or more classes or series with such preferences, voting rights, full or limited, but not to exceed one vote per share, conversion rights and other special rights as the WesBanco board of directors may fix in the resolution providing for the issuance of the shares. The issuance of shares of preferred stock could affect the relative rights of the WesBanco common stock.

Depending upon the exact terms, limitations and relative rights and preferences, if any, of the shares of preferred stock as determined by the board of directors at the time of issuance, the holders of preferred stock may be entitled to a higher dividend rate than that paid on the WesBanco common stock, a prior claim on funds available for the payment of dividends, a fixed preferential payment in the event of liquidation and dissolution of WesBanco, redemption rights, rights to convert their preferred stock into shares of WesBanco common stock, and voting rights which would tend to dilute the voting control of WesBanco by the holders of WesBanco common stock.

Subject to the above limitations, in the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of WesBanco, and subject to the application of state and federal laws, holders of WesBanco common stock are entitled to share ratably in the assets available for distribution to shareholders remaining after payment of WesBanco's obligations.

Each share of WesBanco common stock is entitled to one vote, and to cumulate votes in the election of directors. No holder of shares of WesBanco common stock has any preemptive right to subscribe for or purchase any other securities of WesBanco, and there are no conversion rights or redemption or sinking fund provisions applicable to WesBanco common stock. However, WesBanco elects directors on a staggered basis by class with terms of 3 years. This provision of its Articles of Incorporation requires a super majority vote of its shareholders to change.

COMPARATIVE RIGHTS OF SHAREHOLDERS

The following is a summary of the material differences between the current rights of Oak Hill shareholders and the rights of WesBanco shareholders. The summary is not a complete statement of the provisions affecting, and the differences between, the current rights of Oak Hill shareholders and those of WesBanco shareholders, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Ohio General Corporation Law and the West Virginia Business Corporations Act, Oak Hill's articles of incorporation and code of regulations, and WesBanco's articles of incorporation and bylaws. An indication that some of the differences in the rights are material does not mean that there are not other equally important differences. For information on how to get the full text of each document, see Where You Can Find More Information About WesBanco and Oak Hill.

Oak Hill is organized under the laws of the State of Ohio. The rights of Oak Hill shareholders are currently governed by the Ohio General Corporation Law, which we refer to as the OGCL, and Oak Hill's articles of incorporation and code of regulations. WesBanco is organized under the laws of the State of West Virginia. At the effective time of the merger, shareholders of Oak Hill that receive WesBanco common stock in the merger will become shareholders of WesBanco and their rights will be governed by WesBanco's articles of incorporation, WesBanco's bylaws and the West Virginia Business Corporations Act, which we refer to as the WVBCA.

Oak Hill's code of regulations provides that written notice of the time, place and purposes of all meetings of the shareholders, shall be given, not less than seven nor more than 60 days before the date on which the meeting is to be held, to each shareholder of record entitled to notice of the meeting. Oak Hill's code of regulations provides that the holders of a majority of the voting shares represented at a meeting, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn such meeting from time to time.

WesBanco's bylaws provide that notice of every meeting of shareholders shall be given either (i) by an advertisement in a Wheeling, West Virginia newspaper once a week for at least two weeks preceding the date of the meeting or (ii) by written notice mailed to each shareholder at least five days before the date of the meeting. WesBanco's bylaws provide that shareholders may adjourn a meeting at which quorum is not present without notice other than announcement at the meeting.

Call of Special Meetings of Shareholders

Oak Hill's code of regulations provides that, meetings of the shareholders may be called only by the chairman of the board, the president, or, in case of the president's absence, death, or disability, any officer who is a member of the Oak Hill board of directors who is authorized to exercise the authority of the chairman of the board or the president; the board of directors by action at a meeting, or a majority of the directors acting without a meeting; or the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of the then-outstanding shares entitled to vote in an election of directors.

Table of Contents

WesBanco's bylaws provide that special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the board of directors, the president or by the holders of at least 10% of the outstanding shares of WesBanco.

Dissenter's Rights

Under the OGCL, dissenting shareholders are entitled to appraisal rights in connection with the lease, sale, exchange, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of a corporation and in connection with certain amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation. Shareholders of an Ohio corporation being merged into or consolidated with another corporation are also entitled to appraisal rights. In addition, shareholders of an acquiring corporation are entitled to appraisal rights in any merger, combination or majority share acquisition in which such shareholders are entitled to voting rights.

The OGCL provides that a shareholder's written demand must be delivered to a corporation not later than 10 days after the taking of the vote on the matter giving rise to appraisal rights. See "The Merger - Dissenter's Rights" beginning on page 49 for additional information regarding dissenter's rights under Ohio law.

Under West Virginia law, shareholders are entitled to rights of appraisal with regard to corporate actions involving certain mergers, share exchanges, asset dispositions and certain article amendments that reduce the shares of a shareholder to a fraction of a share where the corporation has an obligation to repurchase the share fraction. No appraisal rights exist in the case of a merger, however, if the stock of the acquiring corporation is listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security by the NASD.

Director Number and Term

Oak Hill has a classified board of directors that are elected for two-year terms, and can only be removed for cause. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time in accordance with the code of regulations, but the board of directors shall not have less than six (6) or more than fifteen (15) directors.

The WesBanco bylaws provide that the board of directors of WesBanco shall consist not less than fifteen (15) nor more than thirty-five (35) members, with the number to be set by the board at its January meeting each year. The WesBanco bylaws further provide that the WesBanco board of directors shall be divided into three classes, as equal in number as possible, with each director having a staggered, three-year term. Currently, the WesBanco board of directors has 19 members.

Nomination of Directors

Oak Hill's code of regulations provides that any shareholder who is entitled to vote for the election of directors may nominate a person for election as a director if certain notice procedures are followed. A shareholder's notice must be received by Oak Hill at least 30 days, and no more than 60 days, prior to the meeting called for the election of directors. The notice must state the name, age, business address, residence address, and principal occupation of the proposed nominee, the class and number of shares of Oak Hill that he or she owns, and any other information relating to the proposed nominee required by law to be disclosed in solicitations for proxies for the election of directors. The notice must be accompanied by the written consent of the proposed nominee to serve as a director, and Oak Hill may require additional information to determine the qualifications of the proposed nominee.

WesBanco's bylaws provide that any shareholder who intends to nominate or cause to be nominated any candidate to the WesBanco board, other than a candidate proposed by the WesBanco board, must notify the Secretary of WesBanco in writing not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the meeting called for the election of directors, or five days after the giving of notice of the meeting, whichever is later.

Removal of Directors; Filling Vacancies on the Board of Directors

Oak Hill's code of regulations provides that a director or the entire board of directors of Oak Hill may be removed only for cause and only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of Oak Hill entitled to vote in the election of directors. Oak Hill's code of regulations provides that vacancies on the board of directors of Oak Hill, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors, except where the vacancy is the result of the removal of a director as provided by law or by cause under Oak Hill's code of regulations and his or her successor is elected by the shareholders.

Under the WVBCA, directors may be removed by a corporation's shareholders with or without cause if the votes cast to remove such director exceed the number of votes cast not to remove such director; provided that, if a director is elected by a voting group, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove him. Article III of WesBanco's bylaws provides that its shareholders may remove any director for cause and fill the vacancy thus created. WesBanco's bylaws further provide that any vacancies not created by such removal, including vacancies resulting from an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by the remaining directors. Any director so elected to fill a vacancy by the other directors shall hold office for a term that expires at the first meeting of shareholders thereafter or until his or her successor is elected and has qualified.

Cumulative Voting

Cumulative voting entitles each shareholder to cast an aggregate number of votes equal to the number of voting shares held, multiplied by the number of directors to be elected. Each shareholder may cast all of his or her votes for one nominee or distribute them among two or more nominees. The candidates (up to the number of directors to be elected) receiving the highest number of votes are elected.

Pursuant to Oak Hill's articles of incorporation, Oak Hill shareholders are not entitled to cumulative voting.

Under West Virginia law and WesBanco's articles of incorporation, WesBanco shareholders are entitled to cumulative voting in the election of directors.

Indemnification of Officers and Directors

The OGCL provides that an Ohio corporation may indemnify directors, officers, employees and agents of a corporation within prescribed limits, and must indemnify them under certain circumstances. The OGCL does not authorize payment by a corporation of judgments against a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation after a finding of negligence or misconduct in a derivative suit absent a court order. Indemnification is required, however, to the extent the individual succeeds on the merits. In all other cases, if it is determined that a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation acted in good faith and in a manner the individual reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, or, with respect to a criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful, indemnification is discretionary, except as otherwise provided by a corporation's charter, or code of regulations, or by contract, and except with respect to the advancement of expenses to directors (as discussed in the next paragraph). In the case of an action by or on behalf of a corporation, indemnification may not be made (1) if the person seeking indemnification is adjudged liable for negligence or misconduct, unless the court in which such action was brought determines such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification, or (2) if the liability asserted against such person concerns certain unlawful distributions. The statutory right to indemnification is not exclusive, and Ohio corporations may, among other things, purchase insurance to indemnify these individuals.

The OGCL provides that a director (but not an officer, employee or agent) of an Ohio corporation is entitled to mandatory advancement of expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred in defending any action, including derivative actions, brought against the director, provided that the director agrees to cooperate with the corporation concerning the matter and to repay the amount advanced if it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that the director's act or failure to act was done with deliberate intent to cause injury to the corporation or with reckless disregard for the corporation's best interests.

Oak Hill's code of regulations provides generally that it shall indemnify to the fullest extent permitted by law any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, that he or she in good faith believes might lead to the institution of any such action or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of Oak Hill) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director of Oak Hill, or while a director of Oak Hill is or was serving at the request of Oak Hill as a director, trustee, fiduciary, officer, employee, partner, joint venturer or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, and may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who is or was a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of Oak Hill) by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an officer, employee or agent of Oak Hill, or while an officer, employee or agent of Oak Hill is or was serving at the request of Oak Hill as a director, trustee, fiduciary, officer, employee, partner, joint venturer or agent of another business enterprise of any type or kind, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, or by reason of anything done or not done by such person in such capacity, against expenses, provided that he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Oak Hill, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Oak Hill, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Under its code of regulations, Oak Hill may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of Oak Hill to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Oak Hill, or is or was serving at the request of Oak Hill as a director, trustee, fiduciary, officer, employee, partner, joint venturer, or agent of another business enterprise, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, or by reason of anything done or not done by such person in such capacity, against expenses, provided that such person acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Oak Hill. No such indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or her duty to Oak Hill unless and only to the extent that the court of common pleas or the court in which such action or suit was brought determines upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court of common pleas or such other court shall deem proper, or any action or suit in which the only liability asserted against a director is pursuant to Section 1701.95 of the OGCL.

To the extent that a director, trustee, fiduciary, officer, employee, partner, joint venturer or agent has satisfied the standard of care set forth in, and is deemed proper under, Oak Hill's code of regulations, or has been successful on the merits or otherwise in a court of competent jurisdiction in defense of any action, suit or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against all expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the threatened, pending or completed action, suit, proceeding, inquiry or investigation, including without limitation attorneys' fees and all other costs and obligations paid or incurred in connection with investigating, defending, being a witness in or participating in (including on appeal), or preparing to defend, be a witness in or participate in, any action, suit or proceeding, together with interest, computed at Oak Hill's average cost of funds for short-term borrowings, accrued from the date of incurrence of such expense to the date such person receives reimbursement therefore. Any indemnification under Oak Hill's code of regulations (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by Oak Hill only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that the indemnification of the director, trustee, fiduciary, officer, employee, partner, joint venturer or agent is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth above. Such determination shall be made (1) by the Oak Hill's Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not and are not parties to, or threatened with, such action, suit or proceeding; (2) if such a quorum is not obtainable or if a majority of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, in a written opinion by independent legal counsel other than an attorney, or a firm having associated with it an attorney, who has been retained by or who has performed services for Oak Hill or any person to be indemnified within the past five years; (3) by the shareholders; or (4) by the court of common pleas or the court in which the action, suit or proceeding was brought. Upon a request for indemnification from any person for which indemnity is contemplated under this the Code of Regulations, Oak Hill shall promptly call a meeting of the Board of Directors and agrees to use its best efforts to facilitate a prompt determination with respect to such request for indemnification. Any determination made by the disinterested directors or by independent legal counsel shall be promptly communicated to the person who threatened or brought the action or suit by or in the right of Oak Hill, and such person shall have the right, within ten days after receipt of such notification, to petition the court of common pleas or the court in which action or suit was brought to review the reasonableness of such determination.

Under the code of regulations, the expenses incurred by a director, trustee, fiduciary, officer, employee, partner, joint venturer or agent in defending any action, suit, or proceeding, except where the only liability asserted against a director is pursuant to Section 1701.95 of the Ohio Revised Code, shall be paid by Oak Hill as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the officer or director in which he or she agrees to (1) repay such amount if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction that his or her action or failure to act involved an act or omission undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to Oak Hill or undertaken with reckless disregard for the best interests of Oak Hill; and (2) reasonably cooperate with Oak Hill concerning the action, suit, or proceeding. The expenses incurred by a director, trustee, fiduciary, officer, employee, partner, joint venturer or agent in defending any action, suit, or proceeding, including any action or suit brought against a director pursuant to Section 1701.95 of the Revised Code, may be paid by Oak Hill as they are incurred in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, trustee, fiduciary, officer, employee, partner, joint venturer or agent to repay such amount, if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by Oak Hill.

Under the WVBCA, a corporation is generally permitted to indemnify a director if the director conducted himself or herself in good faith, he or she reasonably believed the conduct to be in the best interests of the corporation (or at least not opposed to the best interests of the corporation for all conduct that was not in his or her official capacity) and, in the case of any criminal proceeding, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In addition, the WVBCA permits a corporation to include broader indemnification in its articles of indemnification so long as the provision does not limit the liability for (i) receipt of a financial benefit to which he or she is not entitled, (ii) an intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or its shareholders, (iii) certain unlawful distributions, or (iv) an intentional violation of criminal law. The articles of incorporation may also contain a provision (an elimination provision) eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director so long as the provision does not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for (i) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) certain unlawful distributions, or (iv) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. This articles of incorporation provision may not apply to conduct occurring prior to the provision's adoption. The WVBCA requires a corporation to indemnify a director was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which he or she was a party because he or she was a director of the corporation against reasonable expenses incurred by him or her in connection with the proceeding.

The WVBCA permits a corporation, before final disposition of a proceeding, to advance funds to pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding because he or she is a director if he or she delivers to the corporation:

a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the relevant standard of conduct described in the first sentence of the preceding paragraph or that the proceeding involves conduct for which liability has been eliminated under an elimination provision; and a written undertaking to repay any funds advanced if he or she is not entitled to mandatory indemnification and it is ultimately determined that he or she has not met the relevant standard of conduct.

The WVBCA provides that a corporation may indemnify its officers to the same extent as a director and, if the officer is not a director or if the officer is a party to the proceeding solely in his capacity as an officer, to a further extent as may be provided by the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, a resolution of the board of directors or contract, except that such additional indemnification may not be provided for liability in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation other than for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding or liability arising out of conduct that constitutes (i) receipt by him or her of a financial benefit to which he or she is not entitled, (ii) an intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the shareholders or (iii) an intentional violation of criminal law. The WVBCA requires mandatory indemnification of officers that are not directors to the same extent as directors.

Table of Contents

Under the WesBanco bylaws, WesBanco will indemnify each of its directors and officers, whether or not then in office, against all costs and expenses reasonably incurred in connection with any suit to which he is a party by reason of having been an officer or director of WesBanco or another company which he served at the request of WesBanco unless he is adjudged derelict in the performance of his duties as director or officer. In addition, the WesBanco bylaws provide that an institution-affiliated party (as defined in 12 U.S.C. Section 1813(u)) may not receive a prohibited indemnification payment, which is defined as any payment by WesBanco to an institution-affiliated party to pay or agreement to reimburse such person for any liability or legal expenses in any administrative proceeding brought by the appropriate federal banking agency that results in a final order or settlement in which the institution-affiliated party is assessed a civil money penalty, is removed or prohibited from banking, or is required to cease an action or take any affirmative action, including making restitution, with respect to WesBanco. Further, WesBanco may make or agree to make a reasonable indemnification payment only if all of the following conditions are met: (i) WesBanco's board of directors determines in writing that the institution-affiliated party acted in good faith and the best interests of WesBanco; (ii) the board determines that the payment will not materially affect WesBanco's safety and soundness; (iii) the payment does not fall within the definition of a prohibited indemnification payment; and (iv) the institution-affiliated party agrees in writing to reimburse WesBanco, to the extent not covered by permissible insurance, for payments made in the event that the administrative action results in a final order or settlement in which the institution-affiliated party is assessed a civil money penalty, is removed or prohibited from banking, or is required, under a final order, to cease an action or take any affirmative action.

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and Code of Regulations

Oak Hill's articles of incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of the shareholders holding two-thirds (2/3) of the voting power of the corporation. Its code of regulations may be altered, changed or amended in any respect or superseded by new regulations, in whole or in part, by the affirmative vote of a majority of shareholders on the proposal; some provisions require two-thirds (2/3) approval.

Under West Virginia law, the WesBanco articles of incorporation or bylaws generally may be amended by the affirmative vote of a majority of all votes of shareholders entitled to be cast on the matter amendment and a majority of the outstanding stock of each class entitled to vote on the amendment, unless a greater number is specified in the articles of incorporation. The WesBanco articles of incorporation provide that the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 75% of the outstanding shares of the voting stock shall be required to amend the article provision dealing with the classes of directors. The WesBanco bylaws require that the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 75% of the outstanding shares of the voting stock of the corporation will be required to amend or repeal the bylaw provisions dealing with the composition of the board of directors. The other bylaw provisions may be amended by a majority of the board of directors of WesBanco.

Vote Required for Extraordinary Corporate Transactions

Under the OGCL, the vote required to adopt an agreement of merger or consolidation at a meeting of the shareholders is the affirmative vote of the holders of shares of that corporation entitling them to exercise at least two-thirds of the voting power of the corporation on such proposal or such different proportion as the articles may provide, but not less than a majority, and such affirmative vote of the holders of shares of any particular class as is required by the articles of that corporation. Neither Oak Hill's articles of incorporation nor its code of regulations proscribe a specific voting threshold for extraordinary corporate transactions.

Under the WVBCA, a merger, consolidation, sale of all or substantially all of a corporation's assets other than in the regular course of business or dissolution of a corporation must be approved by holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote. The WesBanco Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws do not provide for a greater vote. In addition, under the WVBCA no shareholder approval of a merger or share exchange is required if (i) the corporation will survive the merger or is the acquiring corporation in a share exchange, (ii) the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation will not be amended, (iii) each shareholder of the corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately before the effective date of the merger or share exchange will hold the same number of shares, with identical preferences, limitations and relative rights, immediately after the effective date, and (iv) the issuance in the merger or share exchange of shares or other securities convertible into or rights exercisable for shares does not otherwise require shareholder approval under the WVBCA.

Shareholder Rights Agreement

The Oak Hill board of directors is authorized to fix the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions of Oak Hill's preferred stock and has established a class of preferred stock known as Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock, in connection with the adoption of a shareholder Rights Agreement. On December 9, 1997, the Oak Hill board of directors declared a dividend of one preferred stock purchase right for each outstanding share of common stock. Each preferred stock purchase right entitles the holder to purchase from Oak Hill, upon the occurrence of specified events involving a change in control of Oak Hill, one 1/100th of a share of the Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock. The issuance of such Preferred Stock could have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of Oak Hill without further action of its shareholders. On July 19, 2007, Oak Hill and Registrar and Transfer Company as rights agent entered into Amendment No. 3 to the Rights Agreement, in order to prevent the issuance of such Preferred Stock upon execution of the merger agreement with WesBanco or the public announcement thereof. The preferred stock purchase rights will expire immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

WesBanco has not adopted a shareholder rights agreement.

Provisions Affecting Control Share Acquisitions and Business Combinations

Chapter 1704 of the OGCL provides generally that any person who acquires 10% or more of a corporation's voting stock (thereby becoming an interested shareholder) may not engage in a wide range of business combinations with the corporation for a period of three years following the date the person became an interested shareholder, unless the directors of the corporation have approved the transactions or the interested shareholder's acquisition of shares of the corporation prior to the date the interested shareholder became a shareholder of the corporation. If the transaction was not previously approved, the interested shareholder may effect such a transaction after the three-year period only if the transaction is approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the voting power of the corporation and by the affirmative vote of the shareholders of at least a majority of the disinterested shares or if the offer meets certain fair price criteria. These restrictions on interested shareholders do not apply under certain circumstances, including, but not limited to, the following:

if the corporation's original articles of incorporation contain a provision expressly electing not to be governed by Chapter 1704 of the OGCL;

if the corporation, by action of its shareholders, adopts an amendment to its articles of incorporation expressly electing not to be governed by Chapter 1704 of the OGCL; or if, on the date the interested shareholder became a shareholder of the corporation, the corporation did not have a class of voting shares registered or traded on a national securities exchange.

The Oak Hill articles of incorporation do not contain a provision electing not to be governed by Chapter 1704.

Under Section 1701.831 of the OGCL, unless the articles of incorporation or regulations of a corporation otherwise provide, any control share acquisition of an issuing public corporation can be made only with the prior approval of the corporation's shareholders. A control share acquisition is defined as any acquisition of shares of a corporation that, when added to all other shares of that corporation owned by the acquiring person, would enable that person to exercise levels of voting power in any of the following ranges: at least 20% but less than 33 1/3%, at least 33 1/3% but less than 50%, or 50% or more. Oak Hill falls within the definition of issuing public corporation and neither Oak Hill's articles of incorporation nor its code of regulations provide that the provisions of Section 1701.831 of the OGCL do not apply to Oak Hill.

Neither the WVBCA or WesBanco's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws contain any provisions addressing interested shareholder transactions.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (this Agreement), dated as of July 19, 2007, is made and entered into by and between WesBanco, Inc., a West Virginia corporation (Buyer), WesBanco Bank, Inc., a West Virginia banking corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Buyer (WB Sub), Oak Hill Financial, Inc., an Ohio corporation (Seller), and Oak Hill Banks, an Ohio state-chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of Seller (Seller Sub). Buyer and Seller are sometimes hereinafter collectively referred to as the Constituent Corporations.

W I T N E S S E T H:

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of Seller, Seller Sub, Buyer and WB Sub have each determined that it is in the best interests of their respective corporations and shareholders for Buyer to acquire Seller pursuant to a merger of Seller with and into Buyer (the Merger) upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of Seller, Seller Sub, Buyer and WB Sub have each approved this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; and

WHEREAS, as a result of the Merger, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, Seller will cease to have a separate corporate existence and the shareholders of Seller will receive from Buyer in exchange for each share of common stock, without par value, of Seller (individually Seller Share and collectively Seller Shares), (a) $38.00 in cash, or (b) 1.256 shares of common stock, $2.0833 par value per share, of Buyer (individually Buyer Share and collectively Buyer Shares), as may be adjusted as provided herein, all as determined in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, after the Merger, the parties intend that Seller Sub shall continue as an Ohio-chartered financial institution for so long as Buyer deems appropriate in light of current business conditions but nothing herein shall prevent Buyer from making changes to the charter of Seller Sub, merging or dissolving Seller Sub, or undertaking any similar type of corporate reorganization in the future in light of then-current business conditions; and

2.01. Conversion of Seller Shares

At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Buyer, WB Sub, Seller, Seller Sub or the holder of any of the following securities:

(a) Subject to the other provisions of this Article Two, each Seller Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than (i) Seller Shares held directly or indirectly by Buyer or Seller or any of their respective Subsidiaries (as defined below) (except for Trust Account Shares and DPC Shares, as such terms are defined in Section 2.01(c) hereof), and (ii) Seller Dissenting Shares (as defined in Section 2.04)) shall, by virtue of this Agreement and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted into and exchangeable for the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof as provided in and subject to the provisions set forth in this Agreement, either (i) the Per Share Stock Consideration (as defined below) or (ii) the Per Share Cash Consideration (as defined below). The Per Share Stock Consideration and the Per Share Cash Consideration are referred to herein collectively as the Merger Consideration.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- i. Per Share Stock Consideration shall mean a number of Buyer Shares equal to the Exchange Ratio;
- ii. Per Share Cash Consideration shall mean $38.00;
- iii. Exchange Ratio shall mean 1.256;
- iv. Total Cash Amount shall mean 10% of the product obtained by multiplying (x) the Per Share Cash Consideration and (y) the total number of Seller Shares outstanding as of the close of business on the Determination Date; and
- v. Determination Date shall mean the fifth calendar day immediately prior to the Effective Time, or if such calendar day is not a trading day on The Nasdaq Stock Market, Inc.'s Global Select Market (Nasdaq), then the trading day immediately preceding such calendar day.

(c) At the Effective Time, all Seller Shares that are owned directly or indirectly by Buyer or Seller or any of their respective Subsidiaries (other than Seller Shares (x) held directly or indirectly in trust accounts, managed accounts and the like or otherwise held in a fiduciary or agency capacity for the benefit of third parties (any such shares, and shares of Buyer Common Stock which are similarly held, whether held directly or indirectly by Buyer or Seller, as the case may be, being referred to herein as Trust Account Shares) or (y) held by Buyer or Seller or any of their respective Subsidiaries, directly or indirectly, in respect of a debt previously contracted (any such Seller Shares, and Buyer Shares which are similarly held, being referred to herein as DPC Shares)) shall be cancelled and shall cease to exist and no Buyer Shares, cash or other consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefore. At the Effective Time, all Buyer Shares that are owned by Seller or any of its Subsidiaries (other than Trust Account Shares and DPC Shares) shall become treasury stock of Buyer without any consideration therefore.

(d) The calculations required by this Section 2.01 shall be prepared jointly by Buyer and Seller prior to the Closing Date.

2.02. Conversion of Seller Stock Options

(a) At or before the Effective Time and in connection with the Merger, the following shall occur:

(i) Each Seller Stock Option (as defined below) which is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, upon the election of the holder thereof, be terminated immediately prior to the Effective Time and each holder thereof shall be entitled to receive, in lieu of each Seller Share that would otherwise have been issuable upon exercise thereof, an amount in cash equal to the excess, if any, of $38.00 over the exercise price of such Seller Stock Option. Such amount shall be subject to any required tax withholding. Cash amounts paid pursuant to this Section 2.02(a)(i) shall be excluded from determining the Total Cash Amount.

(ii) Each Seller Stock Option outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time that is not terminated pursuant to Section 2.02(a)(i) above shall be amended and converted into an option (an Adjusted Option) to purchase a number of Buyer Shares (rounded to the nearest whole share) equal to (A) the number of Seller Shares subject to such Seller Stock Option immediately prior to the Effective Time multiplied by (B) the Exchange Ratio; and the per share exercise price for the Buyer Shares issuable upon the exercise of such Adjusted Option shall be equal to (Y) the exercise price per share of the Seller Shares at which such Seller Stock Option was exercisable immediately prior to the Effective Time divided by (Z) the Exchange Ratio (rounded to the nearest whole cent); provided, however, that in the case of any Seller Stock Option to which Section 421 of the Code applies by reason of its qualification under Section 422 of the Code, the conversion formula shall be adjusted, if necessary, to comply with Section 424(a) of the Code. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Adjusted Options shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as provided in the Seller Stock Option Plans.

(b) The adjustments provided herein with respect to any Seller Stock Options that are incentive stock options as defined in Section 422 of the Code shall be and are intended to be effected in a manner which is consistent with Sections 422 and 424(a) of the Code and all regulations promulgated thereunder. The adjustments provided herein with respect to all other Seller Stock Options shall be and are intended to be effected in a manner which is consistent with Section 409A of the Code and all regulations promulgated thereunder, including Treasury Regulation Section 1, 409A-1(b)(5)(v) and in order to prevent any penalty pursuant to Section 409A of the Code.

(c) At the Effective Time, Buyer shall assume the Seller Stock Option Plans, with the result that all obligations of Seller under the Seller Stock Option Plans (as that term is defined in Section 3.01(b)) with respect to the Adjusted Options shall be obligations of Buyer following the Effective Time.

(d) On or prior to the date that is twenty (20) days after the Effective Time, Buyer shall prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-8 (or another appropriate form) registering a number of shares of Buyer Shares equal to at least the number of shares subject to the Adjusted Options. Such registration statement shall be kept effective (and the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses required thereby shall be maintained) as long as any Adjusted Options may remain outstanding.

(e) Except as otherwise specifically provided by this Section 2.02 and except to the extent required under the respective terms of Seller Stock Options as in effect on the date of this Agreement, all restrictions or limitations on transfer with respect to Seller Stock Options awarded under Seller Stock Option Plans or any other plan, program or arrangement of Seller or any of its subsidiaries, to the extent that such restrictions or limitations shall not have already lapsed, and all other terms thereof, shall remain in full force and effect with respect to such options after giving effect to the Merger and the assumption by Buyer as set forth above; provided, however, that so long as compliant with Section 409A of the Code the options held by those individuals listed on Seller Disclosure Schedule 2.02(e) shall not lapse prematurely, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the terms of the Seller Stock Option Plans or the individual option agreements, as a result of the termination of the service of those individuals as directors of Seller after the Merger, and after the Merger the terms of the Seller Stock Option Plans shall be deemed to have been so modified. Notwithstanding this Section 2.02(e), Seller shall cause all Seller Stock Options to fully vest at the Effective Time to the extent not previously vested.

(f) In addition to any method of exercise permitted under the applicable Seller Stock Option, a holder of an Adjusted Option may exercise such Adjusted Option in whole or in part in accordance with its terms by delivering a properly executed notice of exercise to Buyer, together with the consideration therefor and the federal withholding tax information, if any, required in accordance with the related Seller Stock Option Plan.

2.03. Election and Exchange and Payment Procedures

(a) Election Procedure. An election form and other appropriate and customary transmittal materials (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the certificates theretofore representing the Seller Shares shall pass, only upon proper delivery of such certificates to the Exchange Agent (as defined below)) in such form as Buyer and Seller shall mutually agree (the Election Form) shall be mailed at least 30 calendar days prior to the anticipated Effective Time or on such other date as Seller and Buyer shall mutually agree (the Mailing Date) to each holder of record of Seller Shares as of the close of business on the fifth Nasdaq trading day prior to the Mailing Date (the Election Form Record Date).

A-4

(b) Election. Each Election Form shall permit the holder (or the beneficial owner through appropriate and customary documentation and instructions) to specify (i) the number of such holder's Seller Shares with respect to which such holder elects to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration (Stock Election Shares), (ii) the number of such holder's Seller Shares with respect to which such holder elects to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration (Cash Election Shares), or (iii) the number of such holder's Seller Shares with respect to which such holder makes no election (No Election Shares). All Seller Shares with respect to which the Exchange Agent has not received an effective, properly completed Election Form on or before 5:00 p.m., three business days prior to the Closing Date (or such other time and date as Buyer and Seller may mutually agree) (the Election Deadline) shall also be deemed to be No Election Shares.

(c) Exchange Agent; Election Forms. Buyer will designate Computershare Investor Services, LLC or such other entity as reasonably shall be approved by Seller in writing to act as agent (the Exchange Agent) for purposes of conducting the election procedure and the exchange and payment procedures as described in this Section 2.03. Buyer shall make available one or more Election Forms as may reasonably be requested from time to time by all persons who become holders (or beneficial owners) of Seller Shares between the Election Form Record Date and the close of business on the business day prior to the Election Deadline, and Seller shall provide to the Exchange Agent all information reasonably necessary for it to perform as specified herein.

(d) Proper Election. Any such election shall have been properly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have actually received a properly completed Election Form by the Election Deadline. An Election Form shall be deemed properly completed only if accompanied by one or more certificates (or customary affidavits and, if required by Buyer, indemnification regarding the loss or destruction of such certificates or the guaranteed delivery of such certificates) (provided that such certificates are in fact delivered to the Exchange Agent by the time required in such guarantee of delivery; and provided further, that failure to deliver Seller Shares covered by such guarantee of delivery within the time set forth on such guarantee shall be deemed to invalidate any otherwise properly made election, unless otherwise determined by Buyer, in its sole discretion) representing all Seller Shares covered by such Election Form, together with duly executed transmittal materials included in the Election Form.

For Seller Shares held in book entry form, Buyer shall establish procedures for delivery of such shares, which procedures shall be reasonably acceptable to the Seller. Any Election Form may be revoked or changed by the person submitting such Election Form at or prior to the Election Deadline. If an Election Form is revoked prior to the Election Deadline and a new Election Form is not submitted prior to the Election Deadline, the Seller Shares represented by such Election Form shall become No Election Shares and Buyer shall cause the certificates representing such Seller Shares to be returned without charge to the person submitting the Election Form upon written request to that effect from the holder who submitted the Election Form. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and of the Election Form, the Exchange Agent shall have reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation or change has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in the Election Forms, and any good faith decisions of the Exchange Agent regarding such matters shall be binding and conclusive. Neither Buyer nor the Exchange Agent shall be under any obligation to notify any person of any defect in the Election Form. In the event of the termination of this Agreement before the Effective Time, all Election Forms shall be null, void and of no force or effect and all certificates shall be returned to holders of Seller shares.

(e) Pro Rata Allocation. As soon as practicable, but in any event no later than ten (10) business days after the Election Deadline, Buyer shall cause the Exchange Agent to effect the allocation among the holders of Seller Shares of rights to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration or the Per Share Cash Consideration in the Merger in accordance with the Election Forms as follows:

(1) Cash Election Amount More Than Total Cash Amount. If the aggregate cash amount that would be paid upon the conversion in the Merger of the Cash Election Shares (the Cash Election Amount) is greater than the Total Cash Amount, then:

(A) all Stock Election Shares and No Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration,

(B) the Exchange Agent shall then select from among the Cash Election Shares, by a pro rata selection process, a sufficient number of shares (Stock Designated Shares) such that the aggregate cash amount that will be paid in the Merger (excluding, however, any cash paid in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to 2.03(j) hereof, any cash paid to dissenting shareholders pursuant to Section 2.04 hereof and any cash paid in respect of options to purchase Seller Shares under Section 2.02 or any other provision of this Agreement) equals as closely as practicable the Total Cash Amount, and all Stock Designated Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration; and

(C) the Cash Election Shares that are not Stock Designated Shares will be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration.

(2) Cash Election Amount Less Than Total Cash Amount. If the Cash Election Amount is less than the Total Cash Amount, then:

(A) all Cash Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration;

(B) the Exchange Agent shall then select first from among the No Election Shares and then (if necessary) from among the Stock Election Shares, by a pro rata selection process (excluding, to the extent possible, Seller Shares acquired through the exercise of any incentive stock option at any time within twelve months prior to the Effective Time, which shares are identified in Section 2.01(e)(2)(B) of the Seller Disclosure Schedule), a sufficient number of shares (Cash Designated Shares) such that the aggregate cash amount that will be paid in the Merger (excluding, however, without limitation, any cash paid in respect of options to purchase Seller Shares under Section 2.02 or any other provision of this Agreement) equals as closely as practicable the Total Cash Amount, and all Cash Designated Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration; and

(C) the Stock Election Shares and the No Election Shares that are not Cash Designated Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration.

(3) Cash Election Amount Equal to Total Cash Amount. If the Cash Election Amount is equal or nearly equal (as determined by the Exchange Agent) to the Total Cash Amount, then subparagraphs (1) and (2) above shall not apply, all Cash Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration and all Stock Election Shares and No Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration.

The pro rata selection process to be used by the Exchange Agent shall consist of such equitable pro ration processes as shall be mutually agreeable to Buyer and Seller. For purposes of this Agreement, business day means Monday through Friday of each week, except any legal holiday recognized as such by the U.S. Government or any day on which banking institutions in the State of Ohio or the State of West Virginia are authorized or obligated to close.

(f) Deposit with Exchange Agent; Exchange Fund. At or prior to the Effective Time, Buyer shall provide to the Exchange Agent the number of Buyer Shares issuable pursuant to Sections 2.01(a) and 2.03, the Total Cash Amount, the cash in respect of fractional Buyer Shares payable pursuant to Section 2.03(j), and the amount of all other cash payable in the Merger, if any, all of which shall be held by the Exchange Agent in trust for the holders of Seller Shares (collectively, the Exchange Fund). The Exchange Agent shall not be entitled to vote or exercise any rights of ownership with respect to the Buyer Shares held by it from time to time hereunder, except that it shall receive and hold in trust for the recipients of the Buyer Shares until distributed thereto pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement any dividends or other distributions paid or distributed with respect to such Buyer Shares for the account of the persons entitled thereto. The Exchange Fund shall not be used for any purpose other than as set forth in this paragraph. The Exchange Agent shall invest cash in the Exchange Fund, as directed by Buyer, on a daily basis; provided, however, that all such investments shall be in (1) obligations of, or guaranteed by, the United States of America, (2) commercial paper obligations receiving the highest rating from either Moody's Investors Services, Inc. or Standard and Poor's Corporation, or (3) certificates of deposit of commercial banks (not including any Subsidiary or affiliate of Buyer) with capital exceeding $1.0 billion. All interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to Buyer.

(g) Surrender of Seller Certificates. As promptly as practicable after the Effective Time, Buyer shall send or cause to be sent to each former holder of record of Seller Shares who has not previously properly surrendered all such Seller Shares with an Election Form and transmittal materials (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the certificates theretofore representing the Seller Shares shall pass only upon proper delivery of such certificates to the Exchange Agent). Each holder of an outstanding certificate or certificates which prior to the Effective Time represented Seller Shares (Seller Certificate), who surrenders such Seller Certificate to the Exchange Agent shall, upon acceptance thereof by the Exchange Agent, be entitled to receive (a) the Merger Consideration, (b) if such holder's Seller Shares have been converted into Buyer Shares, any cash in lieu of fractional shares which the Seller Shares represented by the Seller Certificate have been converted pursuant to Sections 2.01 and Section 2.03(j) hereof, (c) any other dividend or distribution with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to Buyer Shares issuable in the Merger in accordance with this Section 2.03(g) and (d) any dividend or distribution with respect to Seller's Shares with a record date prior to the Effective Time that had not been paid at the Effective Time in accordance with Section 2.03(i), in each case without interest. The Exchange Agent shall accept such Seller Certificate upon compliance with such reasonable terms and conditions as the Exchange Agent may impose to affect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal exchange practices and shall as promptly as practicable issue the certificates representing Buyer Shares and/or cash in accordance with this Agreement. Each Seller Certificate that is not surrendered to the Exchange Agent in accordance with the procedures provided for herein shall, except as otherwise herein provided, be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the (a) the Merger Consideration, (b) if such holder's Seller Shares have been converted into Buyer Shares, any cash in lieu of fractional shares which the Seller Shares represented by the Seller Certificate have been converted pursuant to Section 2.01 and Section 2.03(j) hereof, (c) any other dividend or distribution with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to Buyer Shares issuable in the merger in accordance with this Section 2.03(g) and (d) any dividend or distribution with respect to Seller's Shares with a record date prior to the Effective Time that had not been paid at the Effective Time in accordance with Section 2.03(i), in each case without interest. No dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time with respect to Buyer Shares shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Seller Certificate until the holder thereof shall surrender such Seller Certificate in accordance with this Section 2.03(g). After the surrender of a Seller Certificate in accordance with this Section 2.03(g), the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without any interest thereon, which theretofore had become payable with respect to Buyer Shares represented by such Seller Certificates. After the Effective Time, there shall be no further transfer on the records of Seller of a Seller Certificate representing Seller Shares and, if any such Seller Certificate is presented to Seller for transfer, it shall be canceled against delivery of the Merger Consideration as provided in Article Two.

(h) Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. If there shall be delivered to the Exchange Agent by any person who is unable to produce any Seller Certificate for Seller Shares for surrender to the Exchange Agent in accordance with this Section 2.03:

(i) evidence to the reasonable satisfaction of the Surviving Corporation that such Seller Certificate has been lost, wrongfully taken, or destroyed;

(ii) such security or indemnity as reasonably may be requested by the Surviving Corporation to save it harmless (which may include the requirement to obtain a third party bond or surety); and

A-7

(iii) evidence to the reasonable satisfaction of the Surviving Corporation that such person was the owner of the Seller Shares theretofore represented by each such Seller Certificate claimed by him to be lost, wrongfully taken or destroyed and that he is the person who would be entitled to present such Seller Certificate for exchange pursuant to this Agreement;

then the Exchange Agent, in the absence of actual notice to it that any Seller Shares theretofore represented by any such Seller Certificate have been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, shall deliver to such person (a) the Merger Consideration, (b) if such holder's Seller Shares have been converted into Buyer Shares, any cash in lieu of fractional shares which the Seller Shares represented by the Seller Certificate have been converted pursuant to Section 2.01 and Section 2.03(j) hereof, (c) any other dividend or distribution with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to Buyer Shares issuable in the Merger in accordance with this Section 2.03(g) and (d) any dividend or distribution with respect to Seller's Shares with a record date prior to the Effective Time that had not been paid at the Effective Time in accordance with Section 2.03(i), in each case without interest, that such person would have been entitled to receive upon surrender of each such lost, wrongfully taken or destroyed Seller Certificate.

(i) No Further Ownership Rights in Seller Shares. All cash and Buyer Shares issued upon conversion of Seller Shares in accordance with the terms hereof (including any cash paid pursuant to Section 2.03(g) or 2.03(j)) shall be deemed to have been issued in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to such Seller Shares, subject, however, to the Surviving Corporation's obligation to pay any dividends or make any other distributions with a record date prior to the Effective Time which may have been declared or made by Seller on such Seller Shares in accordance with the terms of this Agreement prior to the Effective Time and which remain unpaid at the Effective Time.

(j) No Fractional Buyer Shares.

(i) No certificates or scrip representing fractional Buyer Shares shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Seller Certificates evidencing Seller Shares, and such fractional Buyer Share interests will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a shareholder of the Surviving Corporation.

(ii) Each holder of Seller Shares who would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional Buyer Share shall receive from the Exchange Agent an amount of cash equal to the product obtained by multiplying (a) the fractional Buyer Share interest to which such holder (after taking into account all Seller Shares held at the Effective Time by such holder) would otherwise be entitled by (b) $38.00.

(k) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund delivered to the Exchange Agent by Buyer pursuant to Section 2.03(f) which remains undistributed to the shareholders of Seller for 12 months after the Effective Time may be delivered to the Surviving Corporation, upon Buyer's demand, and any shareholders of Seller who have not theretofore complied with this Article Two shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation for payment of the Per Share Stock Consideration, the Per Share Cash Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional Buyer Share interest and any dividends or distributions with respect to Buyer Shares, in each case without interest.

(l) No Liability. None of Buyer, Seller, the Exchange Agent or the Surviving Corporation shall be liable to any former holder of Seller Shares for any payment of the Per Share Stock Consideration, the Per Share Cash Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional Buyer Share interest or any dividends or distributions with respect to Buyer Shares delivered to a public official if required by any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(m) Withholding Rights. Buyer or the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Seller Certificates such amounts as Buyer or the Exchange Agent is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code, or any other provision of domestic or foreign (whether national, federal, state, provincial, local or otherwise) tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority by Buyer or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Seller Certificates in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by Buyer, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent.

(n) Waiver. The Surviving Corporation may from time to time, in the case of one or more persons, waive one or more of the rights provided to it in this Article Two to withhold certain payments, deliveries and distributions; and no such waiver shall constitute a waiver of its rights thereafter to withhold any such payment, delivery or distribution in the case of any person.

(o) Section 16 Exemption. Prior to the Effective Time, Buyer and Seller shall take all such steps as may be required to cause any acquisitions of Buyer equity securities (including derivative securities with respect to any Buyer equity securities) and dispositions of Seller equity securities (including derivative securities with respect to any Seller equity securities) resulting from the transactions contemplated by this Agreement by each individual who is anticipated to be subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to Buyer or who is subject to the reporting requirements of Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act with respect to Seller, to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

2.04. Seller Shareholders Dissenters Rights

Anything contained in this Agreement or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding, if any holder of an outstanding Seller Share who is entitled to demand and properly demands payment of the fair cash value of such Seller Share in accordance with Section 1701.85 of the OGCL (a Seller Dissenting Share), then such Seller Dissenting Share shall not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, and instead:

(a) Each such Seller Dissenting Share shall nevertheless be deemed to be extinguished at the Effective Time as provided elsewhere in this Agreement;

(b) Each holder perfecting such dissenters rights shall thereafter have only such rights (and shall have such obligations) as are provided in Section 1701.85 of the OGCL, and the Surviving Corporation shall not be required to deliver any cash payments to such person in substitution for each such Seller Dissenting Share in accordance with this Agreement; provided, however, that if any such person shall have failed to perfect or shall withdraw or lose such holder s rights under Section 1701.85 of the OGCL, each such holder s Seller Dissenting Share shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted as of the Effective Time into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration or the Per Share Cash Consideration, as shall have been designated on the Election Form submitted by such holder prior to the Election Deadline, or if no such designation shall have been made, the Per Share Cash Consideration, without any interest thereon, pursuant to Section 2.01 and subject to Section 2.03.

No holder of a Seller Dissenting Share shall be entitled to submit a letter of transmittal, and any letter of transmittal submitted by a holder of a Seller Dissenting Share shall be invalid, unless and until the demand for the payment of the fair cash value made in respect of such Seller Dissenting Share shall have been or is deemed to have been withdrawn.

2.05. Anti-Dilution Provisions

In the event that, subsequent to the date of this Agreement but prior to the Effective Time, the outstanding Buyer Shares are increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities (or Buyer establishes a record date for effecting any such change to the outstanding Buyer Shares) as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or other like changes in Buyer s capitalization, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made to the Merger Consideration. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to permit any action which may be proscribed by this Agreement.

Except as set forth in the Seller Filed SEC Documents or in Section 3.01(j) of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, no debtor under any of the Loan Documentation has asserted as of the date hereof any claim or defense with respect to the subject matter thereof, which claim or defense, if determined adversely to Seller, would have a material adverse effect on Seller. Seller has previously made available to Buyer complete and correct copies of its and Seller Sub's lending policies. The deposit and loan agreements of Seller and Seller Sub comply in all material respects with all applicable laws, rules and regulations. All such documents and reports complied in all material respects with applicable requirements of law and rules and regulations in effect at the time such documents and reports were filed and contained in all material respects the information required to be stated therein, except for such documents and records the failure to file or contain such information would not have a material adverse effect on Seller. None of such documents or reports, when filed, contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, other than such reports and documents which the failure to file in such fashion would not have a material adverse effect on Seller. Except as set forth in Section 3.01(m) of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, neither the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) nor any other taxing agency or authority, domestic or foreign, has asserted, is now asserting or, to the actual knowledge of Seller, is threatening to assert against Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries any deficiency or claim for additional Taxes. There is no material pending or, to the actual knowledge of Seller, threatened legal action, suit or claim relating to the Compensation and Benefit Plans other than routine claims for benefits thereunder. Neither Seller nor any of the Seller Subsidiaries has engaged in a transaction, or omitted to take any action, with respect to any Compensation and Benefit Plan that would reasonably be expected to subject Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries to a tax or penalty imposed by either Section 4975 of the Code or Section 502 of ERISA, assuming for purposes of Section 4975 of the Code that the taxable period of any such transaction expired as of the date hereof.

(iii) No liability (other than for payment of premiums to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) which have been made or will be made on a timely basis) under Title IV of ERISA has been or is expected to be incurred by Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries with respect to any ongoing, frozen or terminated single-employer plan, within the meaning of Section 4001(a)(15) of ERISA, currently or formerly maintained by any of them, or any single-employer plan of any entity (a Seller ERISA Affiliate Plan) which is considered one employer with Seller under Section 4001(a)(14) of ERISA or Section 414(b), (c) or (m) of the Code (a Seller ERISA Affiliate). During the six years prior to the Effective Time, none of Seller, the Seller Subsidiaries nor any Seller ERISA Affiliate has contributed, or has been obligated to contribute, to a multiemployer plan under Subtitle E of Title IV of ERISA (as defined in ERISA Sections 3(37)(A) and 4001(a)(3)). No notice of a reportable event, within the meaning of Section 4043 of ERISA, for which the 30-day reporting requirement has not been waived, has been required to be filed for any Compensation and Benefit Plan or by any Seller ERISA Affiliate Plan within the 12-month period ending on the date hereof, and no such notice will be required to be filed as a result of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. The PBGC has not instituted proceedings to terminate any Seller Pension Plan or Seller ERISA Affiliate Plan and, to Seller's actual knowledge, no condition exists that presents a material risk that such proceedings will be instituted. There is no pending investigation or enforcement action by the PBGC, the Department of Labor (DOL), the IRS or any other Governmental Authority with respect to any Compensation and Benefit Plan and, to Seller's actual knowledge, no such investigation or action is threatened or anticipated. Under each Seller Pension Plan and Seller ERISA Affiliate Plan, as of the date of the most recent actuarial valuation performed prior to the date of this Agreement, the actuarially determined present value of all benefit liabilities, within the meaning of Section 4001(a)(16) of ERISA (as determined on the basis of the actuarial assumptions contained in such actuarial valuation of such Seller Pension Plan or Seller ERISA Affiliate Plan), did not exceed the then current value of the assets of such Seller Pension Plan or Seller ERISA Affiliate Plan and since such date there has been neither an adverse change in the financial condition of such Seller Pension Plan or Seller ERISA Affiliate Plan nor any amendment or other change to such Seller Pension Plan or Seller ERISA Affiliate Plan that would increase the amount of benefits thereunder which reasonably could be expected to change such result and that individually or in the aggregate would have a material adverse effect on Seller.

(iv) All contributions required to be made under the terms of any Compensation and Benefit Plan or Seller ERISA Affiliate Plan or any employee benefit arrangements under any collective bargaining agreement to which Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries is a party have been timely made or have been reflected on the Seller Financial Statements. Neither any Seller Pension Plan nor any Seller ERISA Affiliate Plan has an

None of Seller, the Seller Subsidiaries nor any Seller ERISA Affiliate (x) has provided, or would reasonably be expected to be required to provide, security to any Seller Pension Plan or to any Seller ERISA Affiliate Plan pursuant to Section 401(a)(29) of the Code, and (y) has taken any action, or omitted to take any action, that has resulted, or would reasonably be expected to result, in the imposition of a lien under Section 412(n) of the Code or pursuant to ERISA that individually or in the aggregate would have a material adverse effect on Seller.

(v) Except as disclosed in Section 3.01(t)(v) of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, neither Seller nor any of the Seller Subsidiaries has any obligations to provide retiree health and life insurance or other retiree death benefits under any Compensation and Benefit Plan, other than benefits mandated by Section 4980B of the Code or those derived from a Seller's Pension Plan.

(vi) Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries do not maintain any foreign Compensation and Benefit Plans.

(vii) With respect to each Seller Compensation and Benefit Plan, if applicable, Seller has provided or made available to Buyer, true and complete copies of existing: (A) Seller Compensation and Benefit Plan documents and amendments thereto; (B) trust instruments and insurance contracts; (C) most recent actuarial report and financial statement; (D) most recent summary plan description; (E) forms filed with the PBGC within the past year (other than for premium payments); (F) most recent determination letter issued by the IRS; and (G) any Form 5310, Form 5310A, Form 5300 or Form 5330 filed within the past year with the IRS.

(viii) Except as disclosed in the Seller Disclosure Schedule or on Section 3.01(t)(viii) of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement would not, directly or indirectly (including, without limitation, as a result of any termination of employment prior to or following the Effective Time), reasonably be expected to (A) entitle any Employee, Consultant or Director to any payment (including severance pay or similar compensation) or any increase in compensation, (B) result in the vesting or acceleration of any benefits under any Compensation and Benefit Plan of Seller, or (C) result in any material increase in benefits payable under any Compensation and Benefit Plan of Seller.

(ix) Except as disclosed on Section 3.01(t)(ix) of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, neither Seller nor any Seller Subsidiary maintains any compensation plans, programs or arrangements the payments under which would not reasonably be expected to be deductible as a result of the limitations under Section 162(m) of the Code and the regulations issued thereunder.

(x) Except as disclosed on Section 3.01(t)(x) of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, as a result, directly or indirectly, of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including, without limitation, as a result of any termination of employment prior to or following the Effective Time), none of Seller, Buyer or the Surviving Corporation, or any of their respective Subsidiaries will be obligated to make a payment that would be characterized as an excess parachute payment to an individual who is a disqualified individual (as such terms are defined in Section 280G of the Code) of Seller on a consolidated basis, without regard to whether such payment is reasonable compensation for personal services performed or to be performed in the future.

(u) Compliance with Laws. Except with respect to Environmental Laws (as defined in Section 3.01(y)) Taxes, and Compensation and Benefit Plans (as defined in Section 3.01(t)), which are the subject of Sections 3.01(y), 3.01(m), and 3.01(t), respectively, each of Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries:

There is no event which has occurred that, to the actual knowledge of Seller, would result in the revocation of any such license, franchise, permit or governmental authorization and which would have a material adverse effect on Seller; and

All such insurance policies are in full force and effect, Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries are not in material default thereunder and all claims thereunder have been filed in due and timely fashion, except with respect to such policies and claims, the failure to maintain or file would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Seller.

(ii) The savings accounts and deposits of Seller Sub are insured up to applicable limits by the FDIC in accordance with the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, and Seller Sub has paid all assessments and filed all reports required by the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, except for such failures as would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Seller Sub or the availability of such insurance.

(y) Environmental Matters. Except as otherwise disclosed in Section 3.01(y) of the Seller Disclosure Schedule: (i) Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries, to their actual knowledge, are and have been at all times in compliance in all material respects with all applicable Environmental Laws (as that term is defined in this Section 3.01(y)), and, to the actual knowledge of Seller, neither Seller nor any of the Seller Subsidiaries has engaged in any activity in violation of any applicable Environmental Law except for failures to be in compliance that individually or in the aggregate would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Seller; (ii)(A) to the actual knowledge of Seller, no investigations, inquiries, orders, hearings, actions or other proceedings by or before any court or Governmental Authority are pending or have been threatened in writing in connection with any of Seller's or any of the Seller Subsidiaries' activities and any Seller Real Properties or improvements thereon, and (B) to the actual knowledge of Seller, no investigations, inquiries, orders, hearings, actions or other proceedings by or before any court or Governmental Authority are pending or threatened in connection with any real properties in respect of which any of the Seller Subsidiaries has foreclosed or holds a mortgage or mortgages (hereinafter referred to as the Seller Subsidiary Real Estate Collateral); (iii) to the actual knowledge of Seller, no claims are pending or threatened by any third party against Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries, or with respect to the Seller Real Properties or improvements thereon, or, to the actual knowledge of Seller, the Seller Subsidiary Real Estate Collateral or improvements thereon, relating to damage, contribution, cost recovery, compensation, loss, injunctive relief, remediation or injury resulting from any Hazardous Substance (as that term is defined in this Section 3.01(y)) which have not been resolved to the satisfaction of the involved parties and which have had or are reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries; (iv) to the actual knowledge of Seller, no Hazardous Substances have been integrated into the Seller Real Properties or improvements thereon or any component thereof, or the Seller Subsidiary Real Estate Collateral or improvements thereon or any component thereof in such manner or quantity as may reasonably be expected to or in fact would pose a threat to human health or the value of the real property and improvements; and (v) neither Seller nor any of the Seller Subsidiaries has actual knowledge that (A) any of the Seller Real Properties or improvements thereon, or the Seller Subsidiary Real Estate Collateral or improvements thereon has been used for the treatment, storage or disposal of Hazardous Substances or has been contaminated by Hazardous Substances, (B) any of the business operations of Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries have contaminated lands, waters or other property of others with Hazardous Substances, except routine, office-generated solid waste, or (C) any of the Seller Real Properties or improvements thereon, or the Seller Subsidiary Real Estate Collateral or improvements thereon have in the past or presently contain underground storage tanks, friable asbestos materials or PCB (as defined below) containing equipment, which in any event would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Seller. As of the date hereof, Seller is well-capitalized (as that term is defined at 12 C.F.R. 325.103) and its most recent examination rating under the CRA was satisfactory or better. Seller knows of no fact or circumstance or set of facts or circumstances which would be reasonably likely to cause Seller or Seller Sub to receive any notice of non-compliance with such provisions of the CRA or cause the Seller s CRA rating to decrease below the satisfactory level.

(ee) Intellectual Property Rights. Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries own or possess all legal rights, or are licensed or otherwise have the right to use, all proprietary rights, including without limitation trademarks, trade names, service marks and copyrights, if any, that are material to the conduct of their existing businesses. For purposes of this Section 3.01(ff), IPI shall include any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person. Neither Seller nor the Seller Subsidiaries have any reason to believe that any facts or circumstances exist, which would cause the collection and use of such IPI by Seller, the transfer of such IPI to Buyer, and the use of such IPI by Buyer as contemplated by this Agreement not to comply with all applicable privacy policies, the Fair Credit Reporting Act of 1970, as amended (the Fair Credit Reporting Act), the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999 (the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act) and all other applicable state, federal and foreign privacy laws, and any contract or industry standard relating to privacy.

(gg) Bank Secrecy Act; Patriot Act; Money Laundering. Neither Seller nor the Seller Subsidiaries have any reason to believe that any facts or circumstances exist, which would cause Seller or the Seller Subsidiaries to be deemed to be operating in violation in any material respect of the Bank Secrecy Act of 1970, as amended and its implementing regulations (31 C.F.R. Seller and the Seller Board have taken all actions necessary to ensure that the Rights shall expire immediately prior to the Effective Time, without the payment of any money or other consideration.

(ii) Investment Management and Related Activities. Except as set forth on Schedule 3.01(ii) of the Seller Disclosure Schedule, none of the Seller, any of the Seller Subsidiaries or the Seller's or the Seller Subsidiaries' directors, officers or employees is required to be registered, licensed or authorized under the laws or regulations issued by any Governmental Authority as an investment adviser, a broker or dealer, an insurance agency or company, a commodity trading adviser, a commodity pool operator, a futures commission merchant, an introducing broker, a registered representative or associated person, a counseling officer, an insurance agent, a sales person or in any similar capacity with a Governmental Authority.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF BUYER

4.01. Representations and Warranties of Buyer

Except as set forth on the Buyer Disclosure Schedule (with specific reference to the Section or Subsection of this Agreement to which the information stated in such disclosure relates, provided that any fact, item, contract, agreement, document or instrument listed or described, and any information disclosed, in any Section or Subsection thereof shall be deemed listed, described, and disclosed in all other applicable Sections and Subsections even though not expressly set forth in such other Section(s) or subsections(s)), Buyer and WB Sub hereby jointly and severally warrant and represent to Seller and Seller Sub that:

(a) Corporate Status.

(i) Buyer is a West Virginia corporation and a bank holding company registered under the BHC Act. WB Sub is a West Virginia corporation. Each of Buyer and WB Sub is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of its incorporation and has the full corporate power and authority to own its property, to carry on its business as presently conducted and is duly qualified or licensed to do business and is in good standing in each other jurisdiction in which the nature of its business or the ownership, leasing or operation of its properties makes such qualification or licensing necessary, other than where the failure to be so organized, existing, qualified or licensed or in good standing individually or in the aggregate could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Buyer. Buyer has made available to Seller true and complete copies of its and WB Sub's certificates of incorporation and bylaws, each as amended to the date of this Agreement.

(ii) Section 4.01(a)(ii) of the Buyer Disclosure Schedule includes a list of all Buyer Subsidiaries, together with the jurisdiction of organization of each Buyer Subsidiary. Each of the Buyer Subsidiaries has been duly organized and is validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, and is duly qualified or licensed to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction in which the nature of its business or the ownership, leasing or operation of its properties makes such qualification necessary, other than where the failure to be so organized, existing, qualified or licensed or in good standing individually or in the aggregate could not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Buyer.

(b) Corporate Authority. Assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties of Seller and Seller Sub set forth in Section 3.01(bb), all corporate actions of Buyer and WB Sub necessary to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, in each case by Buyer and WB Sub, have been duly and validly taken, except for the adoption of this Agreement by the Required Buyer Vote (as defined in Section 4.01(bb)) and subject, in the case of the consummation of the Merger, to the filing and recordation of a certificate of merger as required by the OGCL and the filing and recordation of the articles of merger as required by the WVBCA. The Board of Directors of Buyer has, by unanimous vote of the directors, duly adopted resolutions (i) approving this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, (ii) declaring that it is in the best interests of Buyer's shareholders that Buyer enter into this Agreement and consummate the Merger on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, (iii) declaring that this Agreement is fair to Buyer and Buyer's shareholders, (iv) directing that this Agreement be submitted to a vote at a meeting of Buyer's shareholders to be held as promptly as practicable and (v) recommending that Buyer's shareholders adopt this Agreement. The Board of Directors of WB Sub has, by unanimous vote of the directors, duly adopted resolutions (i) approving this Agreement and (ii) declaring that it is in the best interests of WB Sub's sole shareholder that WB Sub enter into this Agreement.

(c) Capitalization of Buyer.

As of the date of this Agreement, except for the Buyer Shares issuable pursuant to this Agreement and as disclosed in Section 4.01(c) of the Buyer Disclosure Schedule, Buyer has no other commitment or obligation to issue, deliver or sell, or cause to be issued, delivered or sold, any Buyer Shares. There are no bonds, debentures, notes or other indebtedness of Buyer, and no securities or other instruments or obligations of Buyer the value of which is in any way based upon or derived from any capital or voting stock of Buyer, having the right to vote (or convertible into, or exchangeable for, securities having the right to vote) on any matters on which stockholders of Buyer may vote. Buyer has issued trust preferred securities through the formation of five separate trusts in pooled trust preferred programs namely, Capital Trust II, Capital Statutory Trust III, Capital Trust IV, Capital Trust V and Capital Trust IV through which it issued Junior Subordinated Deferrable Interest Debentures (the Junior Subordinated Debt). As of the date of this Agreement, there are no outstanding material contractual obligations of Buyer to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any shares of capital stock of, or other equity or voting interests in, Buyer.

(ii) The Buyer Shares to be issued in exchange for Seller Shares in the Merger, when issued in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable, will not be subject to any preemptive or other statutory right of Buyer stockholders and will be issued in compliance with applicable United States federal and state securities laws.

(d) Authorized and Effective Agreement. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Buyer and WB Sub, and assuming the due authorization, execution and delivery by Seller and Seller Sub, constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of Buyer and WB Sub, enforceable against Buyer and WB Sub in accordance with its terms, except as the same may be limited by laws related to safety and soundness of insured depository institutions as set forth in 12 U.S.C. § 1818(b), the appointment of a conservator by the FDIC, bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent conveyance and other similar laws relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally, by general equitable principles (regardless of whether enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law) and by an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing. Each of Buyer and WB Sub has the right, power, authority and capacity to execute and deliver this Agreement and, subject to obtaining the Required Buyer Vote, the expiration of applicable regulatory waiting periods, and required filings under federal and state securities laws, to perform its obligations under this Agreement. The Board of Directors of Buyer has the corporate power and authority to take the actions contemplated by Section 6.07(a) of this Agreement.

existing discussions, negotiations, and communications with any persons with respect to any existing or potential Acquisition Proposal.

For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Proposal shall mean any inquiry, offer or proposal (other than an inquiry, offer or proposal from Buyer), whether or not in writing, contemplating, relating to, or that could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Transaction. For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Transaction shall mean (A) any transaction or series of transactions involving any merger, consolidation, recapitalization, share exchange, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries; (B) any transaction pursuant to which any third party or group acquires or would acquire (whether through sale, lease or other disposition), directly or indirectly, any assets of Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries representing, in the aggregate, twenty percent (20%) or more of the assets of Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; (C) any issuance, sale or other disposition of (including by way of merger, consolidation, share exchange or any similar transaction) securities (or options, rights or warrants to purchase or securities convertible into, such securities) representing twenty percent (20%) or more of the votes attached to the outstanding securities of Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries; (D) any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any third party or group beneficially owning twenty percent (20%) or more of any class of equity securities of Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries; or (E) any transaction which is similar in form, substance or purpose to any of the foregoing transactions, or any combination of the foregoing.

(b) Notwithstanding Section 5.03(a), Seller may take any of the actions described in clause (ii) of Section 5.03(a) if, but only if, (i) Seller has received a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal that did not result from a breach of this Section 5.03; (ii) the Seller's Board of Directors (the Seller Board) determines in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of its outside legal counsel, it is required to take such actions to avoid violating its fiduciary duties to Seller's shareholders under applicable law; (iii) Seller has provided Buyer with at least two (2) business days prior notice of such determination; and (iv) prior to furnishing or affording access to any information or data with respect to Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal, Seller receives from such person a confidentiality agreement with terms no less favorable to Seller than those contained in the confidentiality agreement between Seller and Buyer. Seller shall promptly provide to Buyer any non-public information regarding Seller or the Seller Subsidiaries provided to any other person which was not previously provided to Buyer, such additional information to be provided no later than the date of provision of such information to such other party.

For purposes of this Agreement, Superior Proposal shall mean any bona fide written proposal (on its most recently amended or modified terms, if amended or modified) made by a third party to enter into an Acquisition Transaction on terms that the Seller Board determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with and having considered the advice of outside legal counsel and a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation (i) would, if consummated, result in the acquisition of all, but not less than all, of the issued and outstanding shares of Seller common stock or all, or substantially all, of the assets of Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis; (ii) would result in a transaction that (A) involves consideration to the holders of the Seller Shares that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, than the consideration to be paid to Seller's shareholders pursuant to this Agreement, considering, among other things, the nature of the consideration being offered and any material regulatory approvals or other risks associated with the timing of the proposed transaction beyond or in addition to those specifically contemplated hereby, and which proposal is not conditioned upon obtaining additional financing and (B) is, in light of the other terms of such proposal, more favorable to Seller's shareholders than the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; and (iii) is reasonably likely to be completed on the terms proposed, in each case taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal.

(c) Seller shall promptly (and in any event within twenty-four (24) hours) notify Buyer in writing if any proposals or offers are received by, any information is requested from, or any negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated or continued with, Seller or the Seller Representatives, in each case in connection with any Acquisition Proposal, and such notice shall indicate the name of the person initiating such discussions or negotiations or making such proposal, offer or information request and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers (and, in the case of written materials relating to such proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussion, providing copies of such materials (including e-mails or other electronic communications) unless (i) such materials constitute confidential information of the party making such offer or proposal under an effective confidentiality agreement, (ii) disclosure of such materials jeopardizes the attorney-client privilege or (iii) disclosure of such materials contravenes any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment or decree. Seller agrees that it shall keep Buyer informed, on a current basis, of the status and terms of any such proposal, offer, information request, negotiations or discussions (including any amendments or modifications to such proposal, offer or request).

(d) Neither the Seller Board nor any committee thereof shall (i) withdraw, qualify or modify, or propose to withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Buyer in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (including the Merger), the Seller Board Recommendation (as defined in Section 7.06(f)), or make any statement, filing or release, in connection with the Seller Meeting or otherwise, inconsistent with the Seller Board Recommendation (it being understood that taking a neutral position or no position with respect to an Acquisition Proposal shall be considered an adverse modification of the Seller Board Recommendation); (ii) approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal; or (iii) enter into (or cause Seller or any of the Seller Subsidiaries to enter into) any letter of intent, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement or other agreement (A) related to any Acquisition Transaction or (B) requiring Seller to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the Merger or any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

(e) Notwithstanding Section 5.03(d), prior to the date of the Seller Meeting, the Seller Board may approve or recommend to the shareholders of Seller a Superior Proposal and withdraw, qualify or modify the Seller Board Recommendation in connection therewith (a Seller Subsequent Determination) after the fifth business day following Buyer's receipt of a notice (the Notice of Superior Proposal) from Seller advising Buyer that the Seller Board has decided that a bona fide unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal that it received (that did not result from a breach of this Section 5.03) constitutes a Superior Proposal (it being understood that Seller shall be required to deliver a new Notice of Superior Proposal in respect of any revised Superior Proposal from such third party or its affiliates that Seller proposes to accept) if, but only if, (i) the Seller Board has reasonably determined in good faith, after consultation with and having considered the advice of outside legal counsel and a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation, that it is required to take such actions to avoid violating its fiduciary duties to Seller's shareholders under applicable law, (ii) during the three (3) business day period after receipt of the Notice of Superior Proposal by Buyer, Seller and the Seller Board shall have cooperated and negotiated in good faith with Buyer to make such adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable Seller to proceed with the Seller Board Recommendation without a Seller Subsequent Determination; provided, however, that Buyer and Seller shall not have any obligation to propose any adjustments, modifications or amendments to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and (iii) at the end of such five (5) business day period, after taking into account any such adjusted, modified or amended terms as may have been proposed by Buyer since its receipt of such Notice of Superior Proposal, the Seller Board has again in good faith made the determination (A) in clause (i) of this Section 5.03(e) and (B) that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the changing, qualifying or modifying of the Seller Board Recommendation or the making of a Seller Subsequent Determination by the Seller Board shall not change the approval of the Seller Board for purposes of causing any Takeover Laws to be inapplicable to this Agreement and the Voting Agreements and the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, including the Merger.

(f) Nothing contained in this Section 5.03 shall prohibit Seller or the Seller Board from complying with Seller's obligations required under Rules 14d-9 and 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act; provided, however, that any such disclosure relating to an Acquisition Proposal shall be deemed a change in the Seller Board Recommendation unless the Seller Board reaffirms the Seller Board Recommendation in such disclosure.

5.04. Delivery of Information

Prior to the Effective Time each of Seller and Buyer shall exercise, consistent with the terms of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its subsidiaries respective operations.

Buyer shall indemnify the Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries for any fees, expenses and charges incurred by Seller in connection therewith if the Merger is not consummated in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

Nothing in this section or elsewhere in this Agreement shall be deemed to be a contract of employment or be construed to give said employees any rights other than as employees at will under Ohio law and said employees shall not be deemed to be third-party beneficiaries of this provision. From and after the Effective Time, the Employees of Seller and the Seller Subsidiaries who remain employees of Buyer or its Subsidiaries after the Effective Time (including employees who are parties to employment or change in control agreements) (Continuing Employees) shall be provided with employee benefits that are substantially similar to employee benefits provided to other employees under the Buyer Compensation and Benefit Plans (excluding for this purpose any equity-based incentive plans). Each Continuing Employee shall be credited with years of service with Seller, the appropriate Seller Subsidiary and, to the extent credit would have been given by Seller or the appropriate Seller Subsidiary for years of service with a predecessor (including any business organization acquired by Seller or any Seller Subsidiary), years of service with a predecessor of Seller or a Seller Subsidiary, for purposes of eligibility and vesting (but not for benefit accrual purposes) in the employee benefit plans of Buyer, and provided further that the Continuing Employees shall retain the vacation accrual earned under the Seller vacation policy as of the Effective Time so that they shall receive under the Buyer vacation policy a vacation benefit no less than what they had earned under the Seller vacation policy as of the Effective Time, though any future accrual of benefit shall be in accordance with the Buyer vacation policy subject to the carryover minimum. In addition, Continuing Employees who become eligible to participate in a Buyer Compensation and Benefit Plan following the Effective Time (i) shall receive full credit under such plans for any deductibles, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employees and their dependents under the applicable Seller Compensation and Benefit Plan during the portion of the applicable plan year prior to such participation, and (ii) shall not be subject to any exclusion or penalty for pre-existing conditions that were covered under the Seller Compensation and Benefit Plans immediately prior to the Effective Time, or to any waiting period relating to such coverage. For purposes of clarification, and not by way of limitation, all Continuing Employees shall commence participation in Buyer's Employee Stock Ownership Plan (the Employee Stock Ownership Plan) as of the Effective Time, but such Continuing Employees shall not be eligible to participate in the Buyer's Defined Benefit Pension Plan (the Defined Benefit Pension Plan), participation in which will be frozen effective July 31, 2007. The foregoing covenants shall survive the Merger, and Buyer shall before the Effective Time adopt resolutions that amend its tax-qualified retirement plans to the extent necessary to provide for the Seller or Seller Subsidiary service credits referenced herein.

(b) After the consummation of the Merger, the Surviving Corporation shall cause Seller Sub to (i) pay on the Effective Date or up to one year thereafter, the change in control payments contemplated by the employment agreement in effect as of the date hereof between the Seller and or Seller Sub and Mr. Ralph E. Coffman Jr. and by the Oak Hill Financial, Inc. Key Executive Change Control Plan for certain executive officers covered by Plan without regard to any conditions on payment set forth in such documents; and (ii) the Surviving Corporation also shall cause Seller Sub to enter into employment contracts as of the Effective Date for one year using a form of the employment agreement substantially similar to the Agreement attached to the Buyer Disclosure Schedule as Exhibit 6.02(b), with the individuals and rates set forth in Section 6.02(b) of the Buyer Disclosure Schedule.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, following the Effective Time the Buyer shall merge the Seller's 401(k) plan with and into the Buyer's existing 401(k) plan (or any successor to such plan) and the Continuing Employees shall be entitled to accrue benefits under such merged 401(k) plan in accordance with the terms of that plan from and after the Effective Time, subject to any protected benefits accrued with respect to participants in the Seller's 401(k) plan as of the Effective Time. Subject to the payment provisions thereof, the Seller shall take all actions necessary to terminate its Non-Employee Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan as of the Effective Time and no further benefits shall accrue to any individuals under such Plan following the Effective Time.

(d) As of the Effective Time, Buyer shall succeed Seller as sponsor and administrator of Seller's Compensation and Benefit Plans and shall take such action as necessary to effectuate such changes. Subject to Section 6.02(a), Buyer may terminate, merge or amend any Seller Compensation and Benefit Plan or may cease contributions to any Plan to the extent permitted by applicable law; provided, however, that Buyer will provide any benefits to which Seller Employee or spouses, former spouses or other qualifying beneficiaries of any Seller Employee may be entitled by reason of qualifying events occurring prior to, on or after the Effective Time by virtue of any provisions of any employee welfare benefit plan or group insurance contract or any laws, statutes or regulations requiring any continuation of benefit coverage upon the happening of certain events, such as the termination of employment or change in beneficiary or dependent status, including, without limitation, such requirements under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended (COBRA), from and after the Effective Time through the remaining legally- required period of coverage.

6.03. Exchange Listing

Buyer shall file a listing application with Nasdaq for the Buyer Shares to be issued to the former holders of Seller Shares in the Merger at the time prescribed by applicable Nasdaq rules and regulations, and shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Buyer Shares to be issued in connection with the Merger to be approved for listing on Nasdaq, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Closing Date. In addition, Buyer will use its best efforts to maintain its listing on Nasdaq.

Between the date of this Agreement and the Closing Date, Buyer promptly shall notify Seller in writing if Buyer becomes aware of any fact or condition that (i) causes or constitutes a breach in any material respect of any of Buyer's or WB Subs representations and warranties or (ii) would (except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement) cause or constitute a breach in any material respect of any such representation or warranty had such representation or warranty been made as of the time of occurrence or discovery of such fact or condition. Should any such fact or condition require any change in the Buyer Disclosure Schedule, Buyer promptly shall deliver to Seller a supplement to the Buyer Disclosure Schedule specifying such change (Updated Buyer Disclosure Schedule); provided, however, that the disclosure of such change in the Updated Buyer Disclosure Schedule shall not be deemed to constitute a cure of any breach of any representation or warranty made pursuant to this Agreement unless consented to in writing by Seller. During the same period, Buyer promptly shall notify Seller of (i) the occurrence of any breach in any material respect of any of Buyer's or WB Subs covenants contained in this Agreement, (ii) the occurrence of any event that may make the satisfaction of the conditions in this Agreement impossible or unlikely in any material respect or (iii) the occurrence of any event that is reasonably likely, individually or taken with all other facts, events or circumstances known to Buyer, to result in a material adverse effect with respect to Buyer.

6.05. Takeover Laws

Buyer shall take all necessary steps to (a) exempt (or cause the continued exemption of) this Agreement and the Merger from the requirements of any Takeover Law and from any provisions under its Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, as applicable, by action of the Board of Directors of Buyer or otherwise, and (b) assist in any challenge by Seller to the validity, or applicability to the Merger, of any Takeover Law.

indemnification shall be made by the court in which the claim, action, suit or proceeding was brought or by independent counsel (which shall not be counsel that provides material services to Buyer) selected by Buyer and reasonably acceptable to such Indemnified Party.

(b) If Buyer, the Surviving Corporation or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person and is not the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger, (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all its properties and assets to any person or (iii) transfers, by means of a distribution, sale, assignment or other transaction, all of the stock of the Surviving Corporation or all or substantially all of its assets, to any person, then, and in each such case, Buyer shall cause proper provision to be made so that the successor and assign of Buyer or the Surviving Corporation assumes the obligations set forth in this Section and in such event all references to the Surviving Corporation in this Section shall be deemed a reference to such successor and assign.

(c) For a period of six years from the Effective Time, Buyer shall provide that portion of directors and officers liability insurance that serves to reimburse the Seller Officers and Seller Directors (determined as of the Effective Time) (as opposed to Seller) with respect to claims against the such Seller Officers and Seller Directors arising from facts or events which occurred before the Effective Time, on terms no less favorable than those in effect on the date hereof; provided, however, that Buyer may substitute therefor policies providing at least comparable coverage containing terms and conditions no less favorable than those in effect on the date hereof; provided, however that in no event shall Buyer be required to expend more than an aggregate of $150,000.00 (the Insurance Amount) to maintain or procure such directors and officers liability insurance coverage; provided, further that if Buyer is unable to maintain or obtain the insurance called for by this Section 6.06(c), Buyer shall obtain as much comparable insurance as, in the good faith judgment of the Surviving Corporation's board, is available for the Insurance Amount.

(d) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under Section 6.06(a), upon learning of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation described above, shall promptly notify Buyer thereof; provided that the failure so to notify shall not affect the obligations of Buyer under Section 6.06(a) unless and only to the extent that Buyer is actually and materially prejudiced as a result of such failure.

(e) The provisions of this Section 6.06 shall survive consummation of the Merger and are intended to be for the benefit of, and to grant third party rights to, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives.

6.07. Appointment of Seller Directors to Board of Directors; Advisory Board

(b) Buyer shall cause Seller Sub to (i) create an advisory board for the Jackson, Ohio market after the Effective Time, (ii) appoint each then current director of Seller to such advisory board, (iii) maintain such advisory board as so composed for at least one year after the Effective Time, and (iv) except for the Seller Appointees, provide such advisory board members with compensation equal, on an annual basis, to that received generally by members of the Board of Directors of Seller Sub in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006 for service on the Board of Directors of Seller Sub.

6.08. Operation of Business

Buyer's business, and the business of each of the Buyer Subsidiaries, will be conducted only in the ordinary and usual course consistent with past practice. (c) By Buyer, if its Board of Directors so determines, by providing written notice to Seller:

(i) if prior to the Closing Date, any representation and warranty of Seller shall have become untrue such that the condition set forth at Section 8.01(a) would not be satisfied and which breach has not been cured within 30 calendar days following receipt by Seller of written notice of breach or is incapable of being cured during such time period;

(ii) if Seller or Seller Sub shall have failed to comply in any material respect with any covenant or agreement on the part of Seller contained in this Agreement required to be complied with prior to the date of such termination, which failure to comply shall not have been cured within 30 calendar days following receipt by Seller of written notice of such failure to comply or is incapable of being cured during such time period; or

(iii) if (i) the Seller Board (A) modifies, qualifies, withholds or withdraws the Seller Recommendation (it being understood that taking a neutral position or no position with respect to an Acquisition Proposal shall be considered an adverse modification of the Seller Recommendation), or makes any statement, filing or release, in connection with the Seller Meeting or otherwise, inconsistent with the Seller Recommendation, (B) breaches its obligations to call, give notice of and commence the Seller Meeting under Section 7.06(e), (C) approves or recommends an Acquisition Proposal, (D) fails to publicly recommend against a publicly announced Acquisition Proposal within ten (10) business days of being requested to do so by Buyer, (E) fails to publicly reconfirm the Seller Recommendation within ten (10) business days of being requested to do so by Buyer, or (F) resolves or otherwise determines to take, or announces an intention to take, any of the foregoing actions or (ii) there shall have been a material breach by the Seller of Section 5.03.

(2) (a) the number obtained by dividing the Average Closing Price by the Starting Price (such number being referred to herein as the Buyer Ratio) shall be less than (b) the number obtained by dividing the Index Price (as defined below) on the Walkaway Determination Date (as defined below) by the Index Price on the Starting Date (as defined below) and subtracting 0.15 from such quotient; shall be deemed not to exist if the Exchange Ratio and/or the Per Share Cash Consideration is increased so that the Per Share Consideration (as defined below) after such increase is not less than the Per Share Consideration that would have been in effect if the condition set forth in clause (1) above did not exist. For purposes hereof, the condition set forth in clause (2) above shall be deemed not to exist if the Exchange Ratio is increased so that the Per Share Consideration after such increase is not less than the Per Share Consideration that would have been in effect if the condition set forth in clause (2) above did not exist. If Buyer makes this election, within such five-day period, it shall give prompt written notice to Seller of such election and the revised Exchange Ratio, whereupon no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 11.01(d)(iv) and this Agreement shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms (except as the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified), and any references in this Agreement to Exchange Ratio shall thereafter be deemed to refer to the Exchange Ratio after giving effect to any adjustment made pursuant to this Section 11.01(d)(iv). For purposes of this Section 11.01(d)(iv), the following terms shall have the following meanings:

Average Closing Price means the average of the last reported sale prices per share of the Buyer Shares as reported on the Nasdaq (as reported in The Wall Street Journal or, if not reported therein, in another mutually agreed upon authoritative source) for the 20 consecutive trading days ending seven calendar days before the Effective Time.

Walkaway Determination Date shall mean the date which is seven calendar days prior to the Effective Time.

Index Price on a given date means the closing value of the Nasdaq Bank Index as reported on Bloomberg.com, or if not reported therein, in another mutually agreed upon authoritative source.

Per Share Consideration shall mean the Exchange Ratio multiplied by the Average Closing Price.

Starting Price shall mean last reported sale prices per share of Buyer Common Stock as reported on the Nasdaq (as reported in The Wall Street Journal or, if not reported therein, in another mutually agreed upon authoritative source) on the Starting Date.

Starting Date shall mean the last full trading day prior to the announcement by press release of the Merger or, if such announcement occurs after the close of trading on any trading day, such trading day.

If Buyer declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, non-acquisitive exchange of shares or similar transaction between the Starting Date and the Walkaway Determination Date (or establishes a record date in respect thereof), the prices for the common stock of Buyer shall be appropriately adjusted for the purposes of applying this Section 11.01(d)(iv).

11.02 Effect of Termination.

(a) If this Agreement is validly terminated by either Seller or Buyer pursuant to Section 11.01, this Agreement will forthwith become null and void and there will be no liability or obligation on the part of either Seller or Buyer, except (i) that the provisions of Sections 7.01, 7.05, and 12.07 and this Article XI will continue to apply following any such termination, (ii) that nothing contained herein shall relieve any party hereto from liability for breach of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in this Agreement and (iii) as provided in paragraphs (b)-(f) below.

(b) Seller shall promptly pay to Buyer a termination fee of $6.0 million (the Termination Fee) if this Agreement is terminated by (i) Buyer pursuant to Section 11.01(c)(iii) or (ii) Seller pursuant to Section 11.01(d)(iii) and prior to the date that is 12 months after the date of such termination, Seller consummates an Acquisition Transaction or enters into any definitive agreement with respect to an Acquisition Transaction.

(c) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Buyer or Seller pursuant to Section 11.01(b)(ii) or Section 11.01(b)(i) due to the failure to obtain the approval of the Seller's shareholders required for the consummation of the Merger, and (i) an Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Seller shall have been publicly announced, disclosed or otherwise communicated to the Seller Board prior to the date specified in Section 11.01(b)(i) or prior to the Seller Meeting, and (ii) within twelve (12) months of such termination, the Seller shall have entered into a definitive agreement with respect to, or the Seller shall have consummated, an Acquisition Transaction, then the Seller shall pay to Buyer an amount equal to the Termination Fee.

(d) In the event that this Agreement is terminated by Buyer pursuant to Sections 11.01(c)(i) or (ii) and (A) an Acquisition Proposal with respect to the Seller shall have been publicly announced, disclosed or otherwise communicated to the Seller Board prior to any breach by the Seller of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement giving rise to such termination by Buyer or during the cure period therefor provided in Sections 11.01(c)(i) or (ii) and (B) within twelve (12) months of such termination, the Seller shall have entered into a definitive agreement with respect to, or the Seller shall have consummated, an Acquisition Transaction, then the Seller shall pay to Buyer an amount equal to the Termination Fee.

(e) Any payment of the Termination Fee required to be made pursuant to this Section 11.02 shall be made not more than two (2) business days after the date of the event giving rise to the obligation to make such payment, unless the Termination Fee is payable as a result of the termination of this Agreement by the Seller pursuant to Section 11.01(d)(iii), in which case, the Termination Fee shall be payable concurrently with such termination. All payments under this Section 11.02 shall be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by Buyer. No payment of the Termination Fee under this Section 11.02 shall limit in any respect any rights or remedies available to Buyer relating to any breach or failure of the Seller to perform any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement set forth in this Agreement resulting, directly or indirectly, in the right to receive the Termination Fee under this Section 11.02.

(f) Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the agreements contained in this Section 11.02 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and that, without these agreements, Buyer would not enter into this Agreement. Accordingly, if Seller fails promptly to pay any amount due pursuant to this Section 11.02 and, in order to obtain such payment, Buyer commences a suit which results in a judgment against Seller for the amount set forth in this Section 11.02, Seller shall pay to Buyer its costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit, together with interest on the amount of the Termination Fee at The Wall Street Journal prime rate in effect on the date such payment was required to be made.

WesBanco, Inc.
1 Bank Plaza
Wheeling, WV 26003
Attn: Chief Executive Officer

Gentlemen:

I have been advised that, as of the date hereof, I may be deemed to be an affiliate of Oak Hill Financial, Inc., an Ohio corporation (Oak Hill), as the term affiliate is (i) defined for purposes of paragraphs (c) and (d) of Rule 145 of the Rules and Regulations (the Rules and Regulations) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and/or (ii) used in and for purposes of Accounting Series Releases 130 and 135, as amended, of the Commission. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of July 19, 2007 (the Merger Agreement), by and between Oak Hill, Oak Hill Banks, an Ohio state-chartered bank and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Oak Hill, WesBanco, Inc., a West Virginia corporation (Buyer), and WesBanco Bank, Inc., a West Virginia banking corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer (Buyer Sub), Oak Hill will be merged (the Merger) with and into Buyer and the name of the surviving corporation will be WesBanco, Inc., a West Virginia corporation (the Surviving Corporation).

As used herein, Oak Hill Common Shares means the shares of common stock, without par value, of Oak Hill, and Buyer Shares means the shares of the Buyer s common stock, $.0833 par value per share.

I represent, warrant and covenant to Buyer that if I receive any Buyer Shares as a result of the Merger:

A. I shall not make any sale, transfer or other disposition of any Buyer Shares (including any securities which may be paid as a dividend or otherwise distributed thereon or received pursuant to the exercise of stock options) acquired by me in the Merger in violation of the Securities Act or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

B. I have carefully read this letter and the Agreement and discussed their requirements and other applicable limitations upon my ability to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of Buyer Shares (including any securities which may be paid as a dividend or otherwise distributed thereon or received pursuant to the exercise of stock options) to the extent I felt necessary, with my legal counsel or legal counsel for Oak Hill.

C. I have been advised that the issuance of Buyer Shares to me pursuant to the Merger has been or will be registered with the Commission under the Securities Act on a Registration Statement on Form S-4. However, I have also been advised that, because at the time the Merger will be submitted for a vote of the shareholders of Oak Hill, I may be deemed to be an affiliate of Oak Hill, the distribution by me of any Buyer Shares acquired by me in the Merger will not be registered under the Securities Act and that I may not sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any Buyer Shares (including any securities which may be paid as a dividend or otherwise distributed thereon or received pursuant to the exercise of stock options) acquired by me in the Merger unless (i) such sale, transfer or other disposition has been registered under the Securities Act, (ii) such sale, transfer or other disposition is made in conformity with the volume and other limitations of Rule 145 promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act, or (iii) in the opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to the Surviving Corporation, such sale, transfer or other disposition is otherwise exempt from registration under the Securities Act.

D. I understand that Buyer is under no obligation to register under the Securities Act the sale, transfer or other disposition by me or on my behalf of any Buyer Shares acquired by me in the Merger or to take any other action necessary in order to make an exemption from such registration available.

E. I also understand that stop transfer instructions will be given to Buyer's transfer agent with respect to Buyer Shares (including any securities which may be paid as a dividend or otherwise distributed thereon or

The Board of Directors
WesBanco, Inc.
One Bank Plaza
Wheeling, WV 26003

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as investment bankers as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to WesBanco, Inc. (WesBanco) of the merger consideration, as defined below, in the proposed merger (the Merger) of Oak Hill Financial, Inc. (Oak Hill) into WesBanco, Inc., pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of July 19,2007, between Oak Hill and WesBanco (the Agreement). Merger Consideration hereinafter means the number of whole shares of WesBanco Common Stock, cash or a combination thereof, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share interest, into which shares of Oak Hill Common Stock shall be converted, as set forth in Article II of the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement.

Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc., as part of its investment banking business, is continually engaged in the valuation of bank and bank holding company securities in connection with acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for various other purposes. As specialists in the securities of banking companies, we have experience in, and knowledge of, the valuation of the banking enterprises. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Oak Hill and WesBanco, and as a market maker in securities, we may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Oak Hill and WesBanco for our own account and for the accounts of our customers. To the extent we have any such positions as of the date of this opinion it has been disclosed to WesBanco. We have acted exclusively for the Board of Directors of WesBanco in rendering this fairness opinion and will receive a fee from WesBanco for our services.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, analyzed and relied upon material bearing upon the financial and operating condition of Oak Hill and WesBanco and the Merger, including among other things, the following: (i) the Agreement; (ii) the Annual reports to Stockholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended December 31,2006 of Oak Hill and WesBanco; (iii) certain interim reports to stockholders and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q of Oak Hill and WesBanco and certain other communications from Oak Hill and WesBanco to their respective stockholders; and (iv) other Financial information concerning the businesses and operations of Oak Hill and WesBanco furnished to us by Oak Hill and WesBanco for purposes of our analysis. We have also held discussions with senior management of Oak Hill and WesBanco regarding the past and current business operations, regulatory relations, financial condition and future prospects of their respective companies and such other matters as we have deemed relevant to our inquiry. In addition, we have compared certain financial and stock market information for Oak Hill and WesBanco with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry and performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate.

In conducting our review and arriving at our opinion, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information provided to us or publicly available and we have not assumed any responsibility for independently verifying the accuracy or completeness of any such information. We have relied upon the management of Oak Hill and WesBanco as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating forecasts and projections (and the assumptions and bases therefore) provided to us, and we have assumed that such forecasts and projections reflect the best currently available estimates and judgments of such managements and that such forecasts and projections will be realized in the amounts and in the time periods currently estimated by such managements. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for WesBanco, nor does it address the effect of any other business combination in which WesBanco might engage. We are not experts in the independent verification of the adequacy of allowances for loan and lease losses and we have assumed, with your consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan and lease losses for Oak Hill and WesBanco are adequate to cover such losses. In rendering our opinion, we have not made or obtained any evaluations or appraisals of the property of Oak Hill and WesBanco, nor have we examined any individual credit files.

We have assumed that, in all respects material to our analyses, the following: (i) the Merger will be completed substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement; (ii) the representations and warranties of each party in the Agreement and in all related documents and instruments referred to in the Agreement are true and correct; (iii) each party to the Agreement and all related documents will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under such documents; (iv) all conditions to the completion of the Merger will be satisfied without any waivers; and (v) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory, contractual, or other consents or approvals for the merger, no restrictions, including any divestiture requirements, termination or other payments or arneridments or modifications, will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the future results of operations or financial condition of the combined entity or the contemplated benefits of the Merger, including the cost savings, revenue enhancements and related expenses expected to result from the Merger.

We have considered such financial and other factors as we have deemed appropriate under the circumstances, including, among others, the following: (i) the historical and current financial position and results of operations of Oak Hill and WesBanco; (ii) the assets and liabilities of Oak Hill and WesBanco; and (iii) the nature and terms of certain other merger transactions involving banks and bank holding companies. We have also taken into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other similar transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuation and knowledge of the banking industry generally. Our opinion is necessarily based upon conditions as they exist and can be evaluated on the date hereof and the information made available to us through the date hereof.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair., from a financial point of view, to WesBanco.

Very truly yours,

Members of the Board:

Stifel, Nicolaus & Company, Incorporated (Stifel Nicolaus or we) has been advised that Oak Hill Financial, Inc. (Oak Hill or the Company) is considering entering into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with WesBanco, Inc (WesBanco), pursuant to which Oak Hill will be merged with and into WesBanco, with WesBanco being the surviving corporation, and each issued and outstanding share of common stock, $0.50 par value per share, of Oak Hill (other than Seller Dissenting Shares (as defined in the Merger Agreement) or shares held directly or indirectly by WesBanco or Oak Hill or any of their respective subsidiaries, except for Trust Account Shares and DPC Shares (each as defined in the Merger Agreement)) (Shares), will be converted into and exchangeable for the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof, either: (a) $38.00 in cash (the Per Share Cash Consideration) or (b) 1.256 shares of common stock, $2.0833 par value per share, of WesBanco (the Per Share Stock Consideration and, collectively with the Per Share Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration), on terms and conditions more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement (the Merger).

You have requested Stifel Nicolaus opinion, as investment bankers, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Shares of the Merger Consideration to be received by such holders of Shares from WesBanco in connection with the Merger pursuant to the Merger Agreement (the Opinion).

In rendering our Opinion, we have, among other things:

- (i) reviewed and analyzed a draft copy the Merger Agreement dated July 17, 2007;
- (ii) reviewed and analyzed a draft copy of the form of Voting Agreement dated July 7, 2007, proposed to be entered into by WesBanco and certain shareholders of Oak Hill in connection with the Merger (the Voting Agreement);
- (iii) reviewed and analyzed a draft copy of Amendment No. 3 to Rights Agreement dated July 7, 2007, between Oak Hill and Registrar and Transfer Company, as successor to The Fifth Third Bank, as Rights Agent (the Rights Agent);
- (iv) reviewed and analyzed the audited consolidated financial statements of Oak Hill contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K as of December 31, 2006 and 2005 and for the three years ended December 31, 2006 and unaudited consolidated financial statements of Oak Hill contained in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 and Oak Hill s earnings release for the quarter ended June 30, 2007;
- (v) reviewed and analyzed the audited consolidated financial statements of WesBanco contained in its Annual Report on Form 10-K as of December 31, 2006 and 2005 and for the three years ended December 31, 2006 and unaudited consolidated financial statements of WesBanco contained in its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2007 and WesBanco's earnings release for the quarter ended June 30, 2007;

- (vi) reviewed and analyzed certain other publicly available information concerning Oak Hill and WesBanco;
- (vii) held discussions with Oak Hill's senior management and WesBanco's senior management, including estimates of certain cost savings, operating synergies, merger charges and the pro forma financial impact on Oak Hill;

- (viii) reviewed certain non-publicly available information concerning Oak Hill and WesBanco, including internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by their respective management and held discussions with Oak Hill's senior management and WesBanco's senior management regarding recent developments;
- (ix) participated in certain discussions and negotiations between representatives of Oak Hill and WesBanco;
- (x) reviewed the reported prices and trading activity of the publicly traded equity securities of Oak Hill and WesBanco;
- (xi) analyzed certain publicly available information concerning the terms of selected merger and acquisition transactions that we considered relevant to our analysis;
- (xii) reviewed and analyzed certain publicly available financial and stock market data relating to selected public companies that we deemed relevant to our analysis;
- (xiii) conducted such other financial studies, analyses and investigations and considered such other information as we deemed necessary or appropriate for purposes of our opinion; and
- (xiv) took into account our assessment of general economic, market and financial conditions and our experience in other transactions, as well as our experience in securities valuations and our knowledge of the banking industry generally.

In rendering our Opinion, we have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was provided to Stifel Nicolaus, by or on behalf of Oak Hill or WesBanco, or that was otherwise reviewed by Stifel Nicolaus and have not assumed any responsibility for independently verifying any of such information. With respect to the financial forecasts supplied to us by Oak Hill and WesBanco (including, without limitation, potential cost savings and operating synergies to be realized by WesBanco post-Merger), we have assumed that they were reasonably prepared on the basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Oak Hill and WesBanco as to the future operating and financial performance of Oak Hill and WesBanco, respectively, and that they provided a reasonable basis upon which we could form our opinion. Such forecasts and projections were not prepared with the expectation of public disclosure. All such projected financial information is based on numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain, including, without limitation, factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in such projected financial information. Stifel Nicolaus has relied on this projected information without independent verification or analyses and does not in any respect assume any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness thereof.

We also assumed that there were no material changes in the assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects of Oak Hill or WesBanco since the date of the last financial statements made available to us. We have also assumed, without independent verification and with your consent, that the aggregate allowances for loan losses set forth in the financial statements of Oak Hill and WesBanco, respectively, are in the aggregate adequate to cover all such losses. We did not make or obtain any independent evaluation, appraisal or physical inspection of either Oak Hill's or WesBanco's assets or liabilities, the collateral securing any of such assets or liabilities, or the collectibility of any such assets nor did we review loan or credit files of Oak Hill or WesBanco. Estimates of values of companies and assets do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or assets may actually be sold. Because such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, Stifel Nicolaus assumes no responsibility for their accuracy. We relied on advice of Oak Hill's counsel as to certain legal and tax matters with respect to Oak Hill, the Merger Agreement and the Merger and other transactions and other matters contained or contemplated therein. We have assumed, with your consent, that there are no factors that would delay or subject to any adverse conditions any necessary regulatory or governmental approval and that all conditions to the Merger will be satisfied and not waived. In addition, we have assumed that the definitive Merger Agreement will not differ materially from the draft we reviewed. We have also assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially on the terms and conditions described in the Merger Agreement, without any waiver of material terms or conditions by the Company or WesBanco and without the Company's exercise of its rights pursuant to Article 11 of the Merger Agreement, and that obtaining any necessary regulatory approvals or satisfying any other conditions for consummation of the Merger will not have an adverse effect on the Company or WesBanco.

Our Opinion is limited to whether the Merger Consideration is fair to the holders of Shares, from a financial point of view. Our Opinion does not consider, include or address: (i) any other strategic alternatives currently (or which have been or may be) contemplated by Oak Hill's Board of Directors (the Board) or Oak Hill; (ii) the legal, tax or accounting consequences of the Merger on Oak Hill, WesBanco or their respective shareholders; (iii) any non-solicit, non-compete, employment, severance or similar agreements to which Oak Hill is subject or which are entered into in connection with the Merger as contemplated by the Merger Agreement, or the fairness to Oak Hill or Oak Hill's shareholders of any payments made in connection with such agreements; (iv) any advice or opinions provided by Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. or any other advisor to Oak Hill or WesBanco; (v) the election by holders of Shares to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration or the Per Share Cash Consideration, or any combination thereof, or the actual allocation of the Merger Consideration between the Per Share Stock Consideration and the Per Share Cash Consideration among holders of Shares (including, without limitation, any pro rata reduction or cutback of holders election to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration pursuant to the Merger Agreement); or (vi) the effect of the Rights Agreement dated as of January 23, 1998, between Oak Hill and the Rights Agent, or any proposed amendment to such Rights Agreement contemplated in connection with the Merger, on Oak Hill, WesBanco or their respective shareholders. Furthermore, we are not expressing any opinion herein as to the prices, trading range or volume at which Oak Hill's or WesBanco's securities will trade following public announcement or consummation of the Merger.

Our Opinion is necessarily based on economic, market, financial and other conditions as they exist on, and on the information made available to us as of, the date of this letter. It is understood that subsequent developments may affect the conclusions reached in this Opinion and that Stifel Nicolaus does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm this Opinion except as otherwise provided in Stifel Nicolaus' engagement letter agreement with Oak Hill. Our Opinion is solely for the information of, and directed to, the Board for its information and assistance in connection with its consideration of the financial terms of the Merger and is not to be relied upon by any shareholder of the Company or WesBanco or any other person or entity. Our Opinion does not constitute a recommendation to the Board as to how the Board should vote on the Merger or to any shareholder of Oak Hill or WesBanco as to how any such shareholder should vote at any shareholders' meeting at which the Merger is considered, or whether or not any shareholder of Oak Hill or WesBanco should enter into a voting or shareholders' agreement with respect to the Merger, elect to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration or the Per Share Cash Consideration (or any combination thereof), or exercise any dissenters' or appraisal rights that may be available to such shareholder. In addition, the Opinion does not compare the relative merits of the Merger with any other alternative transaction or business strategy which may have been available to the Board or the Company and does not address the underlying business decision of the Board or the Company to proceed with or effect the Merger. We were not requested to, and we did not, explore alternatives to the Merger or solicit the interest of any other parties in pursuing transactions with Oak Hill.

Stifel Nicolaus, as part of its investment banking services, is regularly engaged in the independent valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers, acquisitions, underwritings, sales and distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes. We have acted as financial advisor to Oak Hill in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon the completion of the Merger (the Advisory Fee). We have also acted as financial advisor to the Board and will receive a fee upon the delivery of this Opinion that is not contingent upon consummation of the Merger (the Opinion Fee), provided that such Opinion Fee is creditable against any Advisory Fee. In addition, Oak Hill has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. In the past, Ryan Beck & Co., Inc., an affiliate of Stifel Nicolaus (Ryan Beck), has provided investment banking services to WesBanco, for which Ryan Beck has received customary fees, and Stifel Nicolaus may provide investment banking services to WesBanco in the future. In the ordinary course of business, Stifel Nicolaus and its affiliates (including Ryan Beck) trades each of Oak Hill's and WesBanco's securities for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Except as required by applicable law, including without limitation federal securities laws, our Opinion may not be published or otherwise used or referred to, nor shall any public reference to Stifel Nicolaus be made, without our prior written consent; provided that this Opinion may be included in its entirety in any proxy statement or registration statement filed by WesBanco with the Securities and Exchange Commission with respect to the Merger in accordance with the terms and conditions of Stifel Nicolaus engagement letter agreement with Oak Hill.

- (A)(1) A shareholder of a domestic corporation is entitled to relief as a dissenting shareholder in respect of the proposals described in sections 1701.74, 1701.76, and 1701.84 of the Revised Code, only in compliance with this section.
- (2) If the proposal must be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation involved, the dissenting shareholder shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of a meeting of the shareholders at which the proposal is to be submitted, and such shares shall not have been voted in favor of the proposal. Not later than ten days after the date on which the vote on the proposal was taken at the meeting of the shareholders, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment to the dissenting shareholder of the fair cash value of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, which demand shall state the dissenting shareholder's address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by the dissenting shareholder as the fair cash value of the shares.
- (3) The dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (C) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 of the Revised Code and a dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (E) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.801 of the Revised Code shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date on which the agreement of merger was adopted by the directors of that corporation. Within twenty days after the dissenting shareholder has been sent the notice provided in section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment with the same information as that provided for in division (A)(2) of this section.
- (4) In the case of a merger or consolidation, a demand served on the constituent corporation involved constitutes service on the surviving or the new entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation. In the case of a conversion, a demand served on the converting corporation constitutes service on the converted entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the conversion.
- (5) If the corporation sends to the dissenting shareholder, at the address specified in the dissenting shareholder's demand, a request for the certificates representing the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder, within fifteen days from the date of the sending of such request, shall deliver to the corporation the certificates requested so that the corporation may endorse on them a legend to the effect that demand for the fair cash value of such shares has been made. The corporation promptly shall return the endorsed certificates to the dissenting shareholder. A dissenting shareholder's failure to deliver the certificates terminates the dissenting shareholder's rights as a dissenting shareholder, at the option of the corporation, exercised by written notice sent to the dissenting shareholder within twenty days after the lapse of the fifteen-day period, unless a court for good cause shown otherwise directs. If shares represented by a certificate on which such a legend has been endorsed are transferred, each new certificate issued for them shall bear a similar legend, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares. Upon receiving a demand for payment from a dissenting shareholder who is the record holder of uncertificated securities, the corporation shall make an appropriate notation of the demand for payment in its shareholder records. If uncertificated shares for which payment has been demanded are to be transferred, any new certificate issued for the shares shall bear the legend required for certificated securities as provided in this paragraph. A transferee of the shares so endorsed, or of uncertificated securities where such notation has been made, acquires only the rights in the corporation as the original dissenting holder of such shares had immediately after the service of a demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares. A request under this paragraph by the corporation is not an admission by the corporation that the shareholder is entitled to relief under this section.

(B) Unless the corporation and the dissenting shareholder have come to an agreement on the fair cash value per share of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder or the corporation, which in case of a merger or consolidation may be the surviving or new entity, or in the case of a conversion may be the converted entity, within three months after the service of the demand by the dissenting shareholder, may file a complaint in the court of common pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation that issued the shares is located or was located when the proposal was adopted by the shareholders of the corporation, or, if the proposal was not required to be submitted to the shareholders, was approved by the directors. Other dissenting shareholders, within that three-month period, may join as plaintiffs or may be joined as defendants in any such proceeding, and any two or more such proceedings may be consolidated. The complaint shall contain a brief statement of the facts, including the vote and the facts entitling the dissenting shareholder to the relief demanded. No answer to a complaint is required. Upon the filing of a complaint, the court, on motion of the petitioner, shall enter an order fixing a date for a hearing on the complaint and requiring that a copy of the complaint and a notice of the filing and of the date for hearing be given to the respondent or defendant in the manner in which summons is required to be served or substituted service is required to be made in other cases. On the day fixed for the hearing on the complaint or any adjournment of it, the court shall determine from the complaint and from evidence submitted by either party whether the dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair cash value of any shares and, if so, the number and class of such shares. If the court finds that the dissenting shareholder is so entitled, the court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and to recommend a decision on the amount of the fair cash value. The appraisers have power and authority specified in the order of their appointment. The court thereupon shall make a finding as to the fair cash value of a share and shall render judgment against the corporation for the payment of it, with interest at a rate and from a date as the court considers equitable. The costs of the proceeding, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable. The proceeding is a special proceeding and final orders in it may be vacated, modified, or reversed on appeal pursuant to the Rules of Appellate Procedure and, to the extent not in conflict with those rules, Chapter 2505. of the Revised Code. If, during the pendency of any proceeding instituted under this section, a suit or proceeding is or has been instituted to enjoin or otherwise to prevent the carrying out of the action as to which the shareholder has dissented, the proceeding instituted under this section shall be stayed until the final determination of the other suit or proceeding. Unless any provision in division (D) of this section is applicable, the fair cash value of the shares that is agreed upon by the parties or fixed under this section shall be paid within thirty days after the date of final determination of such value under this division, the effective date of the amendment to the articles, or the consummation of the other action involved, whichever occurs last. Upon the occurrence of the last such event, payment shall be made immediately to a holder of uncertificated securities entitled to payment. In the case of holders of shares represented by certificates, payment shall be made only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing the shares for which the payment is made.

(C) If the proposal was required to be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation, fair cash value as to those shareholders shall be determined as of the day prior to the day on which the vote by the shareholders was taken and, in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, fair cash value as to shareholders of a constituent subsidiary corporation shall be determined as of the day before the adoption of the agreement of merger by the directors of the particular subsidiary corporation. The fair cash value of a share for the purposes of this section is the amount that a willing seller who is under no compulsion to sell would be willing to accept and that a willing buyer who is under no compulsion to purchase would be willing to pay, but in no event shall the fair cash value of a share exceed the amount specified in the demand of the particular shareholder. In computing fair cash value, any appreciation or depreciation in market value resulting from the proposal submitted to the directors or to the shareholders shall be excluded.

(D)(1) The right and obligation of a dissenting shareholder to receive fair cash value and to sell such shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, and the right and obligation of the corporation to purchase such shares and to pay the fair cash value of them terminates if any of the following applies:

(a) The dissenting shareholder has not complied with this section, unless the corporation by its directors waives such failure;

(b) The corporation abandons the action involved or is finally enjoined or prevented from carrying it out, or the shareholders rescind their adoption of the action involved;

(c) The dissenting shareholder withdraws the dissenting shareholder's demand, with the consent of the corporation by its directors;

D-2

Table of Contents

(d) The corporation and the dissenting shareholder have not come to an agreement as to the fair cash value per share, and neither the shareholder nor the corporation has filed or joined in a complaint under division (B) of this section within the period provided in that division.

(2) For purposes of division (D)(1) of this section, if the merger, consolidation, or conversion has become effective and the surviving, new, or converted entity is not a corporation, action required to be taken by the directors of the corporation shall be taken by the partners of a surviving, new, or converted partnership or the comparable representatives of any other surviving, new, or converted entity.

(E) From the time of the dissenting shareholder's giving of the demand until either the termination of the rights and obligations arising from it or the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all other rights accruing from such shares, including voting and dividend or distribution rights, are suspended. If during the suspension, any dividend or distribution is paid in money upon shares of such class or any dividend, distribution, or interest is paid in money upon any securities issued in extinguishment of or in substitution for such shares, an amount equal to the dividend, distribution, or interest which, except for the suspension, would have been payable upon such shares or securities, shall be paid to the holder of record as a credit upon the fair cash value of the shares. If the right to receive fair cash value is terminated other than by the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all rights of the holder shall be restored and all distributions which, except for the suspension, would have been made shall be made to the holder of record of the shares at the time of termination.

VOTING AGREEMENT

VOTING AGREEMENT (Agreement), dated as of _____, 2007, by and between WESBANCO, INC., a West Virginia corporation (Buyer), and the undersigned holder (Shareholder) of common shares, without par value (Common Stock), of OAK HILL FINANCIAL, INC., a Ohio corporation (the Company).

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, Buyer, WB Sub, Jackson Sub and the Company have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (as such agreement may be subsequently amended or modified, the Merger Agreement), providing for, among other things, the merger of the Company with and into Buyer (the Merger);

WHEREAS, the Shareholder beneficially owns and has sole voting power with respect to the number of shares of Common Stock, and holds stock options or other rights to acquire the number of shares of Common Stock indicated opposite the Shareholder's name on Schedule 1 attached hereto (as used herein, the term Shares means all shares of Common Stock, whether such shares of Common Stock are held by the Shareholder on the date of this Agreement or are subsequently acquired prior to the Expiration Date (as defined in Section 2 below), whether by the exercise of any stock options or otherwise);

WHEREAS, it is a condition to the willingness of Buyer to enter into the Merger Agreement that the Shareholder execute and deliver this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, all capitalized terms used in this Agreement without definition herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Merger Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing recitals, the mutual covenants and agreements contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the Shareholder and Buyer agree as follows:

1. Agreement to Vote Shares. The Shareholder agrees that, prior to the Expiration Date (as defined in Section 2 hereof), at any meeting of the shareholders of the Company, or any adjournment or postponement thereof, or in connection with any written consent of the shareholders of the Company, with respect to the Merger, the Merger Agreement or any Acquisition Proposal, the Shareholder shall:

(b) vote (or cause to be voted), or deliver a written consent (or cause a consent to be delivered) covering, all of the Shares that such Shareholder shall be entitled to so vote (i) in favor of adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger; (ii) against any action or agreement that would result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty, or any other obligation or agreement of the Company contained in the Merger Agreement or of the Shareholder contained in this Agreement, or that would preclude fulfillment of a condition under the Merger Agreement to the Company's and Buyer's respective obligations to consummate the Merger; and (iii) against any Acquisition Proposal, or any agreement or transaction that is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, discourage or adversely affect the consummation of the Merger or any of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Any such vote shall be cast or consent shall be given in accordance with such procedures relating thereto so as to ensure that it is duly counted for purposes of determining that a quorum is present and for purposes of recording the results of such vote or consent.

2. Expiration Date. As used in this Agreement, the term Expiration Date shall mean the earliest to occur of (i) the Effective Time, (ii) the date the Merger Agreement is terminated pursuant to Article XI thereof, or (iii) written notice by Buyer to Shareholder of the termination of this Agreement. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, no party shall have any further obligations or liabilities under this Agreement; provided, however, that such termination or expiration shall not relieve any party from liability for any willful breach of this Agreement prior to the termination or expiration hereof.

3. Agreement to Retain Shares. The Shareholder shall not, except as contemplated by this Agreement or the Merger Agreement, directly or indirectly, sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of (including, without limitation, by the creation of a Lien (as defined in Section 4(c) below), or enter into any contract, option, commitment or other arrangement or understanding with respect to the sale, transfer, assignment or other disposition of, any Shares beneficially owned by the Shareholder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Shareholder may make (a) transfers by will or by operation of law, in which case this Agreement shall bind the transferee, (b) transfers in connection with estate and charitable planning purposes, including transfers to relatives, trusts and charitable organizations, subject to the transferee agreeing in writing to be bound by the terms of, and perform the obligations of the Shareholder under, this Agreement, and (c) transfers as Buyer may otherwise agree in writing in its sole discretion.

4. Representations and Warranties of Shareholder. The Shareholder hereby represents and warrants to Buyer as follows:

(a) the Shareholder has the complete and unrestricted power and the unqualified right to enter into and perform the terms of this Agreement, and no consent, approval, authorization or filing is required in connection therewith;

(b) this Agreement (assuming this Agreement constitutes a valid and binding agreement of Buyer) is a valid and legally binding agreement with respect to the Shareholder, enforceable in accordance with its terms (except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent transfer and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights or by general equity principles);

(c) the Shareholder beneficially owns the number of Shares indicated opposite such Shareholder's name on Schedule 1, free and clear of any liens, claims, charges or other encumbrances or restrictions of any kind whatsoever (Liens), and has sole, and otherwise unrestricted, voting and investment power with respect to such Shares;

(d) the Shareholder understands that at the Effective Time of the Merger, (i) each outstanding Share listed on Schedule 1 shall be automatically cancelled and converted into the right to receive, subject to the terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement, (A) 1.256 Buyer Shares or (B) a cash amount equal to $38.00 per Share (subject to the provisions of Section 2.03 of the Merger Agreement), and (ii) to the extent not exercised or otherwise terminated in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement prior to the Effective Time, each option to purchase Shares listed on Schedule 1 shall be, at the Shareholder's election, (1) automatically cancelled and converted into the right to receive the product of (x) the number of Shares provided for in such option and (y) the excess, if any, of $38.00 over the exercise price provided for in such option, as further described in the Merger Agreement or (2) converted into an Adjusted Option to purchase a number of Buyer Shares determined in accordance with Section 2.02(a)(ii) of the Merger Agreement; and

(e) the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Shareholder does not, and the performance by the Shareholder of his, her or its obligations hereunder and the consummation by the Shareholder of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, violate or conflict with, or constitute a default under, any agreement, instrument, contract or other obligation or any order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which the Shareholder is a party or by which the Shareholder is bound, or any statute, rule or regulation to which the Shareholder is subject or, in the event that the Shareholder is a corporation, partnership, trust or other entity, any bylaw or other organizational document of the Shareholder.

5. Irrevocable Proxy. Subject to the last sentence of this Section 5, by execution of this Agreement, the Shareholder does hereby appoint Buyer with full power of substitution and resubstitution, as the Shareholder's true and lawful attorney and irrevocable proxy, to the full extent of the Shareholder's rights with respect to the Shares, to vote, if the Shareholder is unable to perform his, her or its obligations under this Agreement, each of such Shares that the Shareholder shall be entitled to so vote with respect to the matters set forth in Section 1 hereof at any meeting of the shareholders of the Company, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof, and in connection with any action of the shareholders of the Company taken by written consent. The Shareholder intends this proxy to be irrevocable and coupled with an interest hereafter until the Expiration Date and hereby revokes any proxy previously granted by the Shareholder with respect to the Shares. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, this irrevocable proxy shall automatically terminate upon the Expiration Date of this Agreement.

6. No Solicitation. From and after the date hereof until the Expiration Date, the Shareholder, in his, her or its capacity as a shareholder of the Company, shall not, nor shall such Shareholder authorize any partner, officer, director, advisor or representative of, such Shareholder or any of his, her or its affiliates to (and, to the extent applicable to the Shareholder, such Shareholder shall use reasonable best efforts to prohibit any of his, her or its representatives or affiliates to), (a) initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage, or take any action to facilitate the making of, any inquiry, offer or proposal which constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, an Acquisition Proposal, (b) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal, or furnish, or otherwise afford access, to any person (other than Buyer) any information or data with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise relating to an Acquisition Proposal, (c) enter into any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent with respect to an Acquisition Proposal, (d) solicit proxies or become a participant in a solicitation (as such terms are defined in Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act) with respect to an Acquisition Proposal (other than the Merger Agreement) or otherwise encourage or assist any party in taking or planning any action that would compete with, restrain or otherwise serve to interfere with or inhibit the timely consummation of the Merger in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, (e) initiate a shareholders' vote or action by consent of the Company's shareholders with respect to an Acquisition Proposal, or (f) except by reason of this Agreement, become a member of a group (as such term is used in Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act) with respect to any voting securities of the Company that takes any action in support of an Acquisition Proposal.

7. Specific Enforcement. The Shareholder has signed this Agreement intending to be legally bound thereby. The Shareholder expressly agrees that this Agreement shall be specifically enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with its terms against the Shareholder. All of the covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the respective parties and their permitted successors, assigns, heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives, as the case may be.

8. No Waivers. No waivers of any breach of this Agreement extended by Buyer to the Shareholder shall be construed as a waiver of any rights or remedies of Buyer with respect to any other shareholder of the Company who has executed an agreement substantially in the form of this Agreement with respect to Shares beneficially owned by such shareholder or with respect to any subsequent breach of the Shareholder or any other such shareholder of the Company. No waiver of any provisions hereof by either party shall be deemed a waiver of any other provisions hereof by any such party, nor shall any such waiver be deemed a continuing waiver of any provision hereof by such party.

9. Capacity as Shareholder. The Shareholder is signing this Agreement solely in the Shareholder's capacity as a shareholder of the Company, and not in the Shareholder's capacity as a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or in the Shareholder's capacity as a trustee or fiduciary of any employee benefit plan or trust. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, nothing herein shall in any way restrict a director and/or officer of the Company in the exercise of his or her fiduciary duties, consistent with the terms of the Merger Agreement, as a director and/or officer of the Company or in his or her capacity as a trustee or fiduciary of any employee benefit plan or trust, or prevent or be construed to create any obligation on the part of any director and/or officer of the Company or any trustee or fiduciary of any employee benefit plan or trust from taking any action in his or her capacity as a director of the Company.

This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and contains the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. 12. Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is determined to be invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any rule of law or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the extent possible.

13. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

15. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of West Virginia, without giving effect to the principles of conflicts of laws thereof.

16. No Agreement Until Executed. Irrespective of negotiations among the parties or the exchanging of drafts of this Agreement, this Agreement shall not constitute or be deemed to evidence a contract, agreement, arrangement or understanding between the parties hereto unless and until (a) the Board of Directors of the Company has approved, for purposes of any applicable anti-takeover laws and regulations, and any applicable provision of the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the possible acquisition of the Shares by Buyer pursuant to the Merger Agreement, (b) the Merger Agreement is executed by all parties thereto, and (c) this Agreement is executed by all parties hereto.
