Exhibit 1: Press Release dated October 18, 2006

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THIRD MAJOR PROXY ADVISORY FIRM RECOMMENDS INTER-TEL STOCKHOLDERS VOTE AGAINST MIHAYLO RESOLUTION AT SPECIAL MEETING

TEMPE, Ariz., October 18, 2006 Inter-Tel (Delaware), Incorporated (Nasdaq: INTL) today announced that PROXY Governance, Inc., a leading independent proxy advisory firm, recommends that Inter-Tel stockholders vote AGAINST the resolution proposed by Steven G. Mihaylo at the October 24, 2006 Special Meeting of Stockholders.

Inter-Tel previously announced that Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS) and Glass Lewis & Co., two other leading independent proxy advisory firms, also recommend that Inter-Tel stockholders vote AGAINST the Mihaylo Resolution. Hundreds of major institutional investors, mutual funds, pension plans and other fiduciaries rely on the recommendations of ISS, Glass Lewis and PROXY Governance.

We are pleased that three of the nation's leading proxy advisory firms recommend that Inter-Tel stockholders vote AGAINST the Mihaylo Resolution, said Alex Cappello, Inter-Tel's Chairman. As the Special Meeting is only days away, we urge all stockholders to vote promptly on the WHITE card to reject Mr. Mihaylo's attempt to force a sale of the Company at an inopportune time and an inadequate price. We look forward to the Special Meeting and to continuing to serve the best interests of our stockholders.

In its report, PROXY Governance stated:

We believe that the resolution is part of an effort by the Mihaylo Group to acquire the company and are concerned that the Mihaylo Group is taking advantage of the timing of the company's new product release and management/board changeover in order to acquire the company at a price that does not fully capture the company's actual valuation given that performance is at an inflection point. As such, we recommend that shareholders vote against the resolution and return management's WHITE card at this time. *

PROXY Governance also commented:

We recognize that management and the board have experienced significant changeover this year and that the board changes include individuals with expertise in operations and strategic advisory services ... Typically, PROXY Governance believes that if a company's management has changed in the previous two years, the new management should be given a sufficient amount of time to demonstrate improved financial performance. Along these lines, we also support the company's efforts to maximize value to shareholders through the implementation of a strategic long-term plan and through an evaluation of the company's strategic alternatives. *
